

Duchess of Brunswick
June 14. 1797.

52180 Brunswick June 14th 1797

my dearest brother

Its impossible to be more amiable than the Princess of Wurttemberg is, they are on a footing that I hope will last, he is fond of her & she is the fatal man into world, she is happy & is convinced that there will be no rub in her way. she is very kind to me & you will not do all of the pleasure it gives me to see all of yours I like her very much, I most sincerely pity you things look very black, god bless you.
I am very very uneasy at all these mutinys what will be come of us all I ever am dear brother your most dutiful attached humble servant & Subject Augustus