de Goehode June 9th 1772

Dear Brother

I cannot omit writing to You on so good an occasion as this is. Sir Robert Keith will (by my desire) give You all the informations possible about me. I am sure I should be very ungrateful if I did not acknowledge the obligations that I have to him. he has not only done his duty as Your Minister, but his behaviour has been during this whole unhappy transaction as if it was for his own Sister that he was negotiating. I am vastly pleased with the Goehode, the forest is nearly delightful. I am sure if You ever see it (as I hope You will) You will be astonished at the Beauty of it. the Ladies that are here seem to be very good sort of people, at least they do every thing in their power to be agreeable to me. I know it is owing to Your Orders, and that all the happiness that I can have, comes from You.

I am Your most affectionate
Sister Caroline Mathilda.
