Dear Brother,

my Sister set off the day before Yesterday for Brunswick, I feel vastly the Loss of her, as we were the whole day together, she has been so good as to lend me Madame de Bahlen one of her Maids of honor to remain here till I go to Belle, to walk with me, as these Ladies are not able to accompany me. Madame d'Orteda is gone for some weeks to her Estate to put her affairs in order, before she comes to Belle, I hope it will be soon ready there, at least I hear they work very hard at the Castle. I am dear Sir Yours most affectionate Sister

Your Brother

My dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 10th and I am glad to hear that you are all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the country and have not yet received any news from London. I am sure you will be glad to hear from me and I shall be glad to hear from you when you have time. I am your affectionate son
