Dear Brother,

I leave this place the 20th to go to Belle, which was finished last week, but not habitable, as the smell of the painting was still very strong. I have at last found a person proper to be maid of honor, a Mademoiselle de Lutro, she is from Mecklenburg, and is vastly commended. I thank You very much for the offer You make of sending me English books, it would be a great amusement for me to have them, as I read a great deal. believe me ever Your Brother, Your most affectionate Sister,
