

Lord Grantham
26th February 1783.

5234

Lord Grantham humbly submits to Your Majesty the enclosed Commissions for Signature. They are for the Spanish Consuls, most of whom were actually resident in the Spanish Dominions at the Moment of the Surrender, and the others all connected with the Commerce of that Kingdom

Lord Grantham presumes to think it due to them to be restored, more especially as these Offices now reduced by the Loss of American Trade, are scarcely beneficial to any Person, but such as have houses or connections in Spain.

Lad Grantham is ashamed to trouble Your Majesty for the Condescension of Your Name to a Nomination of a poor Brother of the Charter house & for leave to name an Extra Member
