

I George by the grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Elector and Duke of Brunsvic and Luneburg, Defender of the faith, do by my present writing make my last Will and Testament in manner following.

In the first place, I hereby ratifie and confirm a Will and Codicil lately made by me, bearing date on or about the 3. April 1751. and ordain that it shall continue in full force, except where now altered.

I hereby give and bequeath, besides what is ordered by my former Will ^{and Codicil} to my two daughters Amalie and Caroline, or the longest liver of them, the ruby and brilliant rings, given me by the Queen, and the Queens, my Pictures and others made by Linck, and all things contained in the same Box.

And to my well beloved Son William Duke of Cumberland all my Jewels, except those already disposed of by me former Will, or belonging to the Crown, and what at my demise may be in my scrutores, cabinets, or strongboxes.

Lastly, it is my express Will and pleasure, that my body may be deposited in the same Coffin, with my most dear and

[Ap. 11
1751
Verid.
O.S., since he refers to will & codicil of Ap. 3
O.S. 2. v.]

and entirely beloved Consort the Queen In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal.
St. James's, April the eleventh. 1751.

George R.

Augustus Schutz;

A Evans

Hen. De La Harpe

Copy.

St James's April 11th 1751.

I George by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Elector & Duke of Brunsvic and Lunenburg, Defender of the Faith, do by my present Writing make my last Will & Testament in Manner following.

In the first Place, I hereby ratifie & confirm a Will and Codicil lately made by me, bearing date on or about the 3^d April 1751. and ordain that it shall continue in full Force, except where now altered.

I hereby give and bequeath, besides what is ordered by my former Will and Codicill to my Two Daughters Annalie and Caroline, or the longest liver of them, the Ruby and Brilliant Rings given me by the Queen, and the Queen's, my Pictures and others made by Zinck, and all Things contained in the same Box

And to my well beloved Son William Duke of Cumberland all my Jewels, except those already disposed of by me former Will, or belonging to the Crown, and what at my Demise may be in my Scrutores, Cabinets, or Strong Boxes.

Lastly, it is my express Will & Pleasure, that my Body may be deposited in the same Coffin with my most dear and entirely beloved Consort the Queen. — In Witness whereof

I have hereunto set my Hand and affixed my Seal. —

St James's April the Eleventh 1751.

Ed. Augustus Schutz

Ed. George R.

Ed. A. Evans.

Ed. Hen. De La Chaux.

