

54379

Sir

The Death of Lord Keppel having vacated the Walk, and Lodge of Baginbun I beg Your leave to Appoint my Son to it.
He, and I, shall be greatly flattered if You will look upon Yourselves as Sole Possessor, as long as Ever You please: I hope Sir, as I have little to give to My Children, You will not disapprove of my Request, to You. I understand You have inhabited the Lodge this last Twelvemonth. I hope I need not say, that every possession of mine are quite at Your Commands,

May I flatter myself with an Answer our Comte de Connaught a Rome. I mean to pass this Winter chiefly there, previous the 28th

Geneva
Oct. 6th 1786

I have the honor to remain Sir, Your humble Servant, and most affectionate Uncle
William Henry

B. 1. 1. 1.

11

William Henry
Duke of Gloucester

The Prince of Wales

Oct. 10. 1790

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]