Sir,

You are always so good as to interest Yourself about me; I take the liberty of acquainting You that the King has wrote me a most Gracious Letter, approving of my plan for my Children, and has named himself Miss Dees the Sister of Commodore Johnston's Widow to be Governess to my Daughters. I return to England early in November to place my Son at Cambridge. His Majesty unasked I assure You, has acquainted me that he means to grant me an additional Irish Pension to defray the expences of their Education. Give me leave my Dear Sir, to thank You for your very kind Messages brought me by Mr. Vincent, and for your graciousness to him, of which he is very sensible. I have charged a fair Lady to say particularly to You how much I am flattered by your Goodness upon the Subject of one, I have the highest Esteem, and friendship for. I congratulate You Sir, upon the return of the Duke of York.

I have the honour to remain Dear Sir Your very humble servant, and affectionate Uncle
