

Ld. Carmarthen

Sep. 4 1786

6182

Lord Carmarthen most humbly begs leave to send your Majesty the note he has just received from Count Percey.

In case your Majesty should have any commands respecting the Arch Duke's being prevented, Lord Carmarthen will be in Town Tomorrow morning.

Gunbridge Wells.

Sept. 4. 1786.

11. p. m.

road burn with September 4. 1700

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

Ld. Hencaunt

6183

Mineham Sep<sup>r</sup> 4th 1786

Sire

Your Majesty having been graciously pleased to command me to acquaint your Majesty with the result of my enquiries respecting the condition of the unfortunate prisoners confined in the Castle of Oxford, I hope Sire that I do not take an improper liberty, in transmitting for your Majesty's consideration the enclosed account

Ld. Rev

6183

Ld. Harcourt

6183 (2)

which I received this day, from a person the best informed in this County, and the most to be depended on for giving a faithful and disinterested one to your Majesty.

I am Sir your Majesty's most dutiful and respectfully attached subject

Harcourt

Lord Beaumont
September 4. 1794

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

Sir Christopher Wittoughley to the Hon. Harcourt
Enclosure

Sep. 4 1786

6184

My Lord.

I hope you will excuse my not having sooner returned an answer to the Question you were pleased to put to me, respecting the Petition of the Prisoners & Debtors now confined in our Gaol, to his Majesty, but I was willing to learn the true state of the Prison, before I could suggest any plan for his Majesty's bounty. — On enquiry I find there are many Debtors, who bear a very good character, & confined for small sums, and that it might be possible to compound their Debts with their Creditors and get them discharged. — If this plan should meet with your Lordship's approbation, I should think that applying any sum, his Majesty might think proper graciously to give, in this manner would would be of real service to the unfortunate Debtor and would redound much to the honor of his Majesty.

There are likewise several Convicts, who have been under sentence of death & transportation, but have been pardoned on condition of so many years hard labor, to whom it is the wish of the Magistrates of the County, that his Majesty would graciously extend his royal mercy, and that each of them should have a portion of their time of confinement released to them:— It is a new plan of punishment, by confinement & hard labor, adopted by the Magistrates of this County and I am happy to say has hitherto succeeded beyond their most sanguine expectations; and it was their intention, to have applied next winter, to his Majesty, for the pardons of the Convicts in the manner, I have mentioned, as a reward for

Sir C
Euc

6 their g

his M himself
gracior
the de that is Majist
good or say fu interest
I have readily & wou propite

Sir Christopher Wittoughley to the Hon. Harcourt
Enclosure

Sep. 4 1786

6184 (2)

and their good & regular conduct; but I flatter myself his Majesty will have the goodness to take it upon himself, and grant it of his voluntary most gracious favor, as it will be the means of promoting the design, of a general plan of reform, & will shew that it has been particularly noticed by his Majesty. —

Your Lordship's humanity & known goodness of heart, will render everything I can say further on this subject, useless, and will interest you in favor of these unhappy People; and I have only to add, that I flatter myself, you will readily believe the only view, I can have, on this & every occasion, is to promote as much as possible the ~~good~~ honor of his Majesty and the good good of my fellow Subjects.

I have the honor to be with the greatest truth & respect — My Lord

Your Lordship's much obliged

& most faithful & able Servant

Baldon House

4th Sept 1706.

Chris<sup>r</sup> Willoughby

In C. Willoughby
4th Sept 1706

If the plan respecting the Convicts, should meet with his Majesty's approbation, I will get a proper list of them prepared immediately.

Mr. Pitt

7th Sept. 1786

6185

Sir,

I am honored with your Majesty's Commands, and will proceed without Delay to enquire what Means can be submitted to your Majesty for making the Provision which appears to be necessary in consequence of the Particulars which

Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to communicate.

I have the honor to be

Sir.

Your Majesty's

most dutiful

and most devoted Subject & Servant

W. Pitt

Downing Street. Sept 7th 1786. 10th P.M.

Bp. of Worcester

6186

Hartlebury Sept<sup>r</sup> 7th 1786

Sir

I had yesterday the honour to receive the Letter your Majesty was pleas'd to send me from Windsor, together with Mr Burch's Drawing, which I return with my humble Thanks to your Majesty for the sight of it. I easily conceive that the Cross will have a better effect, when executed in the rougher manner, your Majesty proposes. For the rest, I observe that in the Greek Motto the interval of the Letters is not exact. As Mr Burch knows nothing of Greek, he blundered very much in my Seal, & even left out one Letter. There is no such mistake here. Only the distance between the  $\Sigma$  &  $T$  is greater than it should be.

There was another little inaccuracy in my self. The title on the Cross, we are told, was written in Hebrew, Greek, & Latin. It may therefore be given in any one of these languages. But as the Motto is in Greek, the Inscription on the Labels should be so too. And the alteration requires nothing more, than that the R [Rex] be turned into B [ΒΑΣΙΛΕΥΣ].

As to the design itself, I must be very proud of it, since your Majesty has thought fit to employ it in so good a cause as that of promoting Religion. Your Majesty intends the learned of your University should be taught by it, to walk by faith, & not by sight, by faith in the cross of Christ, & not by a vain confidence in their own Reason, or rather Imagination. This one Lesson well learnt, will go further towards making them able & successful ministers of religion, than all the sciences put together. And the Divine, who considers the Cross in this view, may say to himself. in hoc signo vinces.

Bp. of Worcester

6186 (2)

in a truer & far nobler sense, than was put upon those words, when displayed on the banners of Constantine.

I am happy to understand that the Princess Elizabeth is so well recovered, & hope the exercise of riding will continue to be as serviceable to her Royal Highness, as it has been. — There is no doubt but the same exercise, which your Majesty has the condescension to recommend to me, would be of great use. And I am every day thinking to try it. But my weak head has hitherto prevented me.

I beg your Majesty's pardon for saying so much of myself, & am with all possible respect & duty,

Sir,

Your Majesty's most obliged & most humble subject & servant
R. Worcester

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Book of the September 9. 1706

Lord Cowper
September 9 1706

6187

Sire

The hopes your Majesty gave me, at the last audience I had, of obtaining, either the year or the title, makes me presume to send these few lines to you, Sire, to remind your Majesty of it, hoping that my unexpected journey to see Miss Seymour may not ruin the hopes I had of obtaining some mark of your Royal favour.
Such a mark would have been highly advantageous to me on my return abroad.....

Your Majesty may be sure to find me always a very steady and faithful servant, wholly devoted to your Majesty's interest: I am

Sire

Your Majesty's most dutiful servant and subject.

James O'Brien Esq

St. Mall 9th Sept 1786.

Ros<sup>d</sup> Tulloch to Miss M.C. Goldsmith (Former Nursery Maid)

6188

Inverness, Perthshire
Apr 21st 1906

Madam,

I have to present my humble duty to his Majesty, & grateful thanks for his bounty.
I have had in to offer you my best thanks for your goodness to me. As Royal Highness's illness, we all felt with great concern, but we hope, the paper

Speak forth, when they felt as that but by Heaven's is upon the recovery. The Prayers of all under this roof, are for the Health, & Prosperity of that most Amiable Prince.

I am
Madam

Your most Obedt
& most Affectionate
Son
Geo. Tubbs

6188(2)

[Faint handwritten text, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

Handwritten text, including a date and a name, partially obscured by a red wax seal and a circular postmark.

Postmark: 21. Sept. 1706.

Address: Mrs. Sutton,

Handwritten text, including a name and a date, partially obscured by a red wax seal and a circular postmark.

Postmark: 21. Sept. 1706.

Address: Mrs. Sutton,

6189

Woolwich

Sept 21st 1786

Recd by the hands of Miss Mrs. Betty Ann Jones from his Majesty's Secretary Genl. Sullivan

Mr Pitt
Downing Street Sep. 23. 1706
45th part 9 AM

6190

Mr Pitt is extremely mortified that by a mistake of servants, he was not honored till this instant with your Majesty's gracious commands. He begs leave humbly to acquaint your Majesty that Lady Harriot Blist is much better this morning and that her Fever has almost entirely left her.

Downing Street.

Sept 23 1706. 45th part 9 AM.

Queen of Sweden
September 24 1786

6191

Monsieur Mon Frere, et Cousin. Je profite de l'occasion que me me fournit le depart du Chevalier de Moughton pour transmettre à Votre Majesté les sentimens dont mon ame a été remplie, en apprenant l'attentat horrible qui a menacé les jours de Votre Majesté, conservés par La Providence Divine, qui veille au bonheur de Vos Peuples.
Ma sensibilité à cette nouvelle, étant une suite de l'intérêt que je prendrai toujours à La Personne ainsi qu'à La Maison de Votre Majesté, n'a pu qu'être également vive et sincère. Unie à Votre Majesté par les liens du sang, ces liens se sont devenus encore plus Chers par tous les sentimens de la haute consideration et de l'amitié véritable avec lesquels je suis

Monsieur Mon Frere et Cousin de Votre Majesté

au Chateau de Wrottingham Le 24 de Sept:
1786.

bonne Sœur et Cousine Sophie Madeleine

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on lined paper, possibly a letter or document.]

[Faint handwritten notes or markings on the right margin.]

Mr Pitt
Downing Street 4th 27th 1786

6192

Mr Pitt cannot sufficiently express the sense the has of your Majesty's Goodness in having condescen-ded to think so feelingly of the distressful case he has sustained. Mr Wilson has, he hopes, had an opportunity of conveying it in some Degree already, but he cannot help being anxious humbly to repeat his most grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty. It is indeed impossible that a heavier Misfortune could have befallen them; but deeply as his Mind is wounded, his Health has not sufficed from this severe Shock, and He feels how much it is every Man's Duty not to yield too far to such Impressions.

Yours truly
Sept<sup>r</sup> 27th 1786.

Lord Carmarthen

October 3. 1786

6193

Lord Carmarthen begs leave, humbly to inform your Majesty, that Mr Gilbert Mr Eden's Secretary is arrived with the Commerce Treaty signed by Mr Eden & M. de Rayneval the 26th Ult<sup>o</sup>.

Lord Carmarthen hopes your Majesty will — excuse the Treaty not being sent, as it is necessary to compare it with the Treaty of Utrecht previous to sending any further instructions to Mr Eden.

Whitehall Oct. 3.

1786.

3 p.m.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

1 minnlicher eine sehr gesunde Gesichtsfarbe, auf welche Luft-lichtheit zeigt.

Die Gesetze der Königlich-Preussischen Provinz auf der zur Königlich-Preussischen Majestät allernachlässigst überreichten Ersuchen umherzubringen, und, inbegriffen, dass der Hofes der Lichtenberg wegen seiner gewissenhaftigen Gesinnung und überaus dem Wohl, besonders der jährigen Linsen, eine kleine Gehalt gemacht hat. Die Abkündigung der Legezeit wird in der bisherigen Fortsetzung der Legezeiten eine geringe Abänderung vorzunehmen, daher so erst, als das die dort-Mitte der Provinz, und dann abzugeben, jedoch die Kosten-Anspruch zu ihrem jährigen Anspruch, zur Königlich-Majestät der allernachlässigsten Dienst von mir vorgelegt werden wird, so bald die Beschlüsse von dem Hofe abzugeben von Monat abzugeben sagen werden.

Die Lieutenant von Hanslein und von Jonguier's Leben, auf zur Königlich-Preussischen Majestät allernachlässigsten Anspruch, am 13ten vorigen Monats ihren Dienst bei der Königlich-Preussischen Provinz abzugeben, und ist der Hofe besten, dass beide zu ihr neugierig abzugeben sagen werden werden, zu zur Königlich-Preussischen Majestät allernachlässigsten Anspruch mitzubringen. An dem Rittmeister v. Linsingen findet es eine kostbare Hilfe, und dem Lieutenant von auf

Luz

Ge
den 5

6194 (2)

von Uster, so ein dem h<sup>er</sup> Fatter muß ich wegen ihrer ausgesprochenen Befehle, alle Gemüthlichkeit wiederzugeben lassen.

Ist befohren im braunschweigischen Geforsam, für. Königlichem Majestät,

Göttingen
den 5<sup>ten</sup> October.
1786.

Altenburgischer Hof-Georgensamer
C. Malodti.

Abundant

written 5. 1906

Draft
to P. Frederik Queen's House Oct 6th 1746.

AA

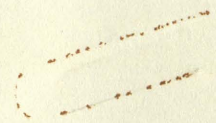

6195

Queen's House Oct 6th 1746.

My Dear Frederick, I take the first leisure, or minute to answer your letter intimating a very natural desire to make your family a visit; however desirous you may be it is ~~impossible~~ the joy, shall feel when I see you, but I must not let my inclinations decide where good reasons clearly show me I should be wrong. The conduct of your brother and the party in whose hands he has unhappily thrown himself undoubtedly give every reason to expect this winter will be a pretty smart one. I know I can depend on your attachment and rectitude, therefore your conduct would be laudable, for now a middle part is impossible; however I may be dissatisfied with your brother, the making a ~~peace~~ <sup>with propriety</sup> between you is not my wish; your being absent keeps you out of the conflict; and the natural reason occurs from the present state of the Continent a war <sup>where</sup> ~~there~~ <sup>seems</sup> is not unlikely in which case if you are there I shall certainly give you the command of my Electoral Troops <sup>for</sup> that occasion. Military service must ~~not~~ <sup>be</sup> your <sup>only</sup> object and ~~therefore~~ <sup>you must be</sup> the ~~best~~ <sup>best</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>every thing</sup> ~~that~~ <sup>be</sup> read, for such an event; another observation I fear that you could not be here in winter without my <sup>affording</sup> a proper attendance for you, I am not in

in a situation to do that at present. Therefore rest assured My Dear Frederick when I see the proper moment I shall not lose a day in reminding you how much I wish for your coming. As to the reason you give of wishing to have the minutes of the service, the Foot Guards is not the best school for that as all the Officers of the line ~~that~~ have come into those Corps very well know; I mention ~~that it would merely serve to~~ <sup>bring a quarrel for quarrelling it</sup> ~~bring a quarrel for quarrelling it~~ <sup>bring a quarrel for quarrelling it</sup> ~~bring a quarrel for quarrelling it~~
~~that it would merely serve to~~ <sup>bring a quarrel for quarrelling it</sup> ~~bring a quarrel for quarrelling it~~ <sup>bring a quarrel for quarrelling it</sup> ~~bring a quarrel for quarrelling it~~
Command of the Hannoverian Guards; with a little information from our friend Grenville you may <sup>acquire</sup> ~~acquire~~ it in your Closet.
~~but without much trouble~~

hd. Sydney

6196

hd. Sydney to the King

Essex

Oct 9: 1786

5. P. M.

Lord Sydney humbly presumes to acquaint His Majesty, that he has just received a letter from Burton, which informs him, that Mr Pitt means to return to town early enough to be there on Wednesday Morning before His Majesty's

Sever

hd. S

619

Since.

Lord Sydney has likewise ventured to transmit a Letter, which Lady Sydney has just received from Mrs Stapleton in answer to one, which Lady Sydney wrote

by her

by f

hd. Sydney

6196(2)

by Her Majesty's Command signified to her by Lady Countess.

third

July

in

note

by t

Done Sydney
9th October 1706

H.M. to Ld Sydney

AA

Oct. 10 1786

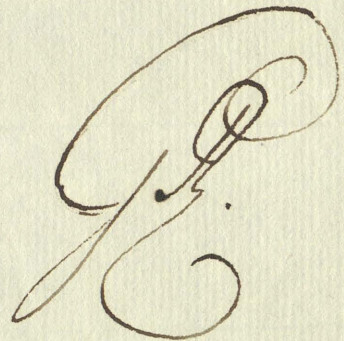

6197

I should returned the letter from Mr. Stapleton to Ld Sydney earlier had I not wish'd to shew it to the Queen; I am happy to find all those at present are able to support themselves so well under the present stroke. I desired Ld. Sydney will acquaint Mr. Pitt, that I think it must be more pleasant to him not to come tomorrow to! I am sure that I shall therefore hope to see him at the Queen's House a little after twelve.

Windsor

Oct 10th 1786.

<sup>on</sup>
30. p. 8 AM

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]

Ld. Sydney

6198

Whitehall

Oct 21: 1786

$\frac{M}{15}$  P.M.

Lord Sydney humbly presents to inform His Majesty, that in obedience to His Majesty's orders he has taken the necessary measures for

Ld. S.

61

From the holding of a Privy Council at The Queen's House on Monday next for the further Prorogation of the Parliament.

Mr Pitt, to whom Lord Sydney judged it necessary to communicate His Majesty's orders, will settle with the Lord

may to H ham

Lord

Ld. Sydney

6198 (2)

Lord Chancellor the Day, to which it may be thought expedient to propose to His Majesty to prorogue the Parliament.

Lord

Lord Sydney
October 21. 1786.

Lord Sydney. Whom I humbly presume to inclose to His Majesty a private Letter, which he has this Day received from Lieutenant General Hope by way of Port L'orient, and one, which I have received with some Duplicates from Brigadier Hope yesterday, as well as the Brigadier's public Dispatch upon Commercial Matters.

Lord Howe

October 31. 1706

6199

Lord Howe having been informed by Sir Richard Bickerton today, of his intentions to solicit the honor of an audience from your Majesty to morrow, on the subject of an impress remaining against him in the Office of the Admiralty for care of the sick & hurt Seamen; Respecting which, Lord Howe had the honor to mention several particulars some months since, to your Majesty. He therefore submits the papers transmitted in the Box for your Majesty's

Further information. And most humbly proposes to attend at S.<sup>t</sup> James's to morrow, to receive such Commands as your Majesty may be pleased to reignify to him thereupon.

Admiralty-Office

31st Octo: 1706

<sup>H</sup>
1/2 part 3 Pitt

Lord Chesterfield

to 3<sup>d</sup> L<sup>d</sup> Aylesbury

October 1706

6200

Wednesday.

My Dear Lord.

I know you will forgive the trouble I give you, when I request of you to let me know by a line the result of Lord le Despencers Audience. It is a matter I feel myself so deeply interested in; that till I know the decision, I shall be quite impatient. I hope your Lordship will assist me, as much as possible in the Closet, and beg you particularly to pin Lord le Despencers down, leaving the decision of the appointment to his Majesty; in which case I should hope the Zeal I have always shewn for his Majestys Service, & for the support of his Government, would be more than a sufficient ballance, against the pretensions of Lord Temple.

whose conduct has been so diametrically opposite & hostile to both. This appointment I can assure your Lordship I have very much at heart, therefore you cannot wonder that I should be very uneasy, in my present uncertainty - whatever the decision is, & I will hope it will be in my favor, I shall be infinitely obliged to your Lordship but me know, as soon as ~~you~~ you conveniently can. I have the honor to be. My Dear Lord

Per most faithfully yours
Chesterfield