

General Fitzwilliam

March 6. 1704

6497

Sire,

After mature Reflexions upon the flattering & gracious Offer which your Majesty vouchsafed to make to me, when you Condescended to Visit my humble Proof, I cannot resist the temptation of laying myself at your Majesty's feet, with my warmest & most heart-felt Acknowledgements for your great Goodness; & adding, that had I Health & Strength, I should be Proud to Sacrifice them both in your Royal Service; But Alas! my Days of Service are at an End, & I can only beg, in all humility, to Remain as I am, upon the Irish Establishment, & to Decline the gracious Offer; in so doing however, I cannot (tho' perhaps improperly) resist the temptation of presuming once more to say, that Colonel Dundas is one of the first Officers of Cavalry in your Majesty's Service, has formed & Supports the 11.th Regiment of Light Dragoons, in a Stile to make it universally Admired; I may venture to ad.

that it will be a Spur of Emulation to Officers who have no Support but their own Merit, and your Majesty's Service will be infinitely Benefited by it.

Such are the Sentiments of an old, infirm and Dutiful Servant of your Majesty's, who has no Ambition on this side the Grave, but that of approving himself, whenever he can be so Happy as to find an Opportunity Sire,

Your Majesty's
Most Obedient

Humble & most Dutiful
Subject & Servant
John Fitzwilliam

Richmond-Green,
6th March 1789.

Mr Pitt.

March 10. 1789.

6498

Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to acquaint Your Majesty that the Address to Your Majesty proposed by Lord Gower and seconded by Mr Yorke, has been agreed to remain contradictory, after a short speech from Mr Fox commenting on some expressions of Mr Yorke respecting the State of Politics, but concurring entirely in the whole of the Address.

Downing Street. Tuesday March 10th 1789. 6 PM

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]

Lord Sydney

March 10. 1789

6499

House of Lords

March 10. 1789

$\frac{232}{5}$  past 6. P.M.

Lord Sydney humbly presents to His Majesty The Lists of the Lords Speakers and of the Lords Present. Lord Chesterfield acquitted himself remarkably

Greatly well. Lord Cathcart seconded with great spirit.

New 10 March 1789

Note from The King

to Ld Sydney

6500

Lord Sydney's Account of the Success of the move and second this day gives me great pleasure, as also the Unanimity with which it has ~~been~~ with

Done
March 10th 1789.
on p. 8. J. H.

[Faint, illegible text]

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a grid background]

[Faint, illegible text]

[Faint, illegible text]

Apparently
out of order -
See next.

The Order of the Day for the Lords to be summoned being read,

It was moved to resolve, "That Schemes of "Conquest and Extension of Dominion in "India are measures repugnant to the "Wish, Honour and Policy of the "Nation,

For the Motion.

1. Lord Forcheſter, who gave notice of two other motions:
2. Lord Newdon, but ag<sup>t</sup> the two succeeding motions.
4. Call of Lauderdale.
7. Lord Forcheſter.
9. Viſcount Stormont.
10. Earl of Carlisle.

Against it.

3. Lord Grenville who gave notice of 3 other motions.
5. Marquis of Lansdown who moved the previous Question, and gave notice he ſhould do the ſame upon all the Motions propoſed.
6. Marquis Townſhend.
8. Viſcount Sydney.

Upon the Previous Question being put

Teller	{ Content 17	{ Earl of	{ Not Content 76.
Carl Fitzwilliam	{ Proxies 2	{ Chesterfield	{ Proxies . . . . . 20.
	<hr/> 19		<hr/> 96.
			Total.

Resolved in the Negative.

Moved to resolve, That there appears to be no just Cause for a War with Tippoo Sultan, nor for the Treaties of Cession of his Dominions, entered into with the Nizam and the Marhattes, and that the War, even if attended with the utmost Success, cannot prove advantageous to the East India Company's Affairs in India.

On Question put

Resolved in the Negative.

Moved to resolve, That it is the Opinion of this House that it is the Duty of the Directors of the East India Company, and of the Board of Controul to transmit such Orders to the Company's Servants in India as may most speedily procure Peace with Tippoo Sultan on moderate and equitable Terms.

On Question put

Resolved in the Negative.

Placed
out of order.

Moved to resolve, That it appears to this House that the Attacks made by Tippoo Sultan on the Lines of Travancore on the 29th of December 1799, the 6th of March and the 15th of April 1790 were unwarranted and unprovoked infractions of the Treaty entered into at Mangalore on the tenth day of March 1784.

For the Motion.

1. Lord Grenville

Against it.

2. Lord Loughborough. who moved the previous Question.

Earl of Chesterfield } Contents 64.

{ Earl Fitzwilliam }

{ Not Contents. 12.

Resolved in the affirmative.

Moved to resolve, That it appears to this House that the conduct of the Government General of Bengal, in determining to prosecute with vigour the War against Tippoo Sultan in consequence of his attack on the territories of the Rajah of Travancore, was highly meritorious.

On the Question put,

Resolved in the affirmative.

M
A
the
the wi
tion
Tr
of du ta

Moved to resolve, That it appears to this House that the Treaties entered into with the Nizam on the first of June, and with the Mahrattas on the 7th of July 1790, are wisely calculated to add vigour to the Operations of War, and to promote the future Tranquillity of India; and that the faith of the British Nation is pledged for the due performance of the Engagements contained in the said Treaties.

On the Question put

Resolved in the Affirmative.

New 11 March 1789

Note from The King

to hd.
Sydney

one inclosure

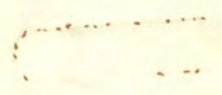

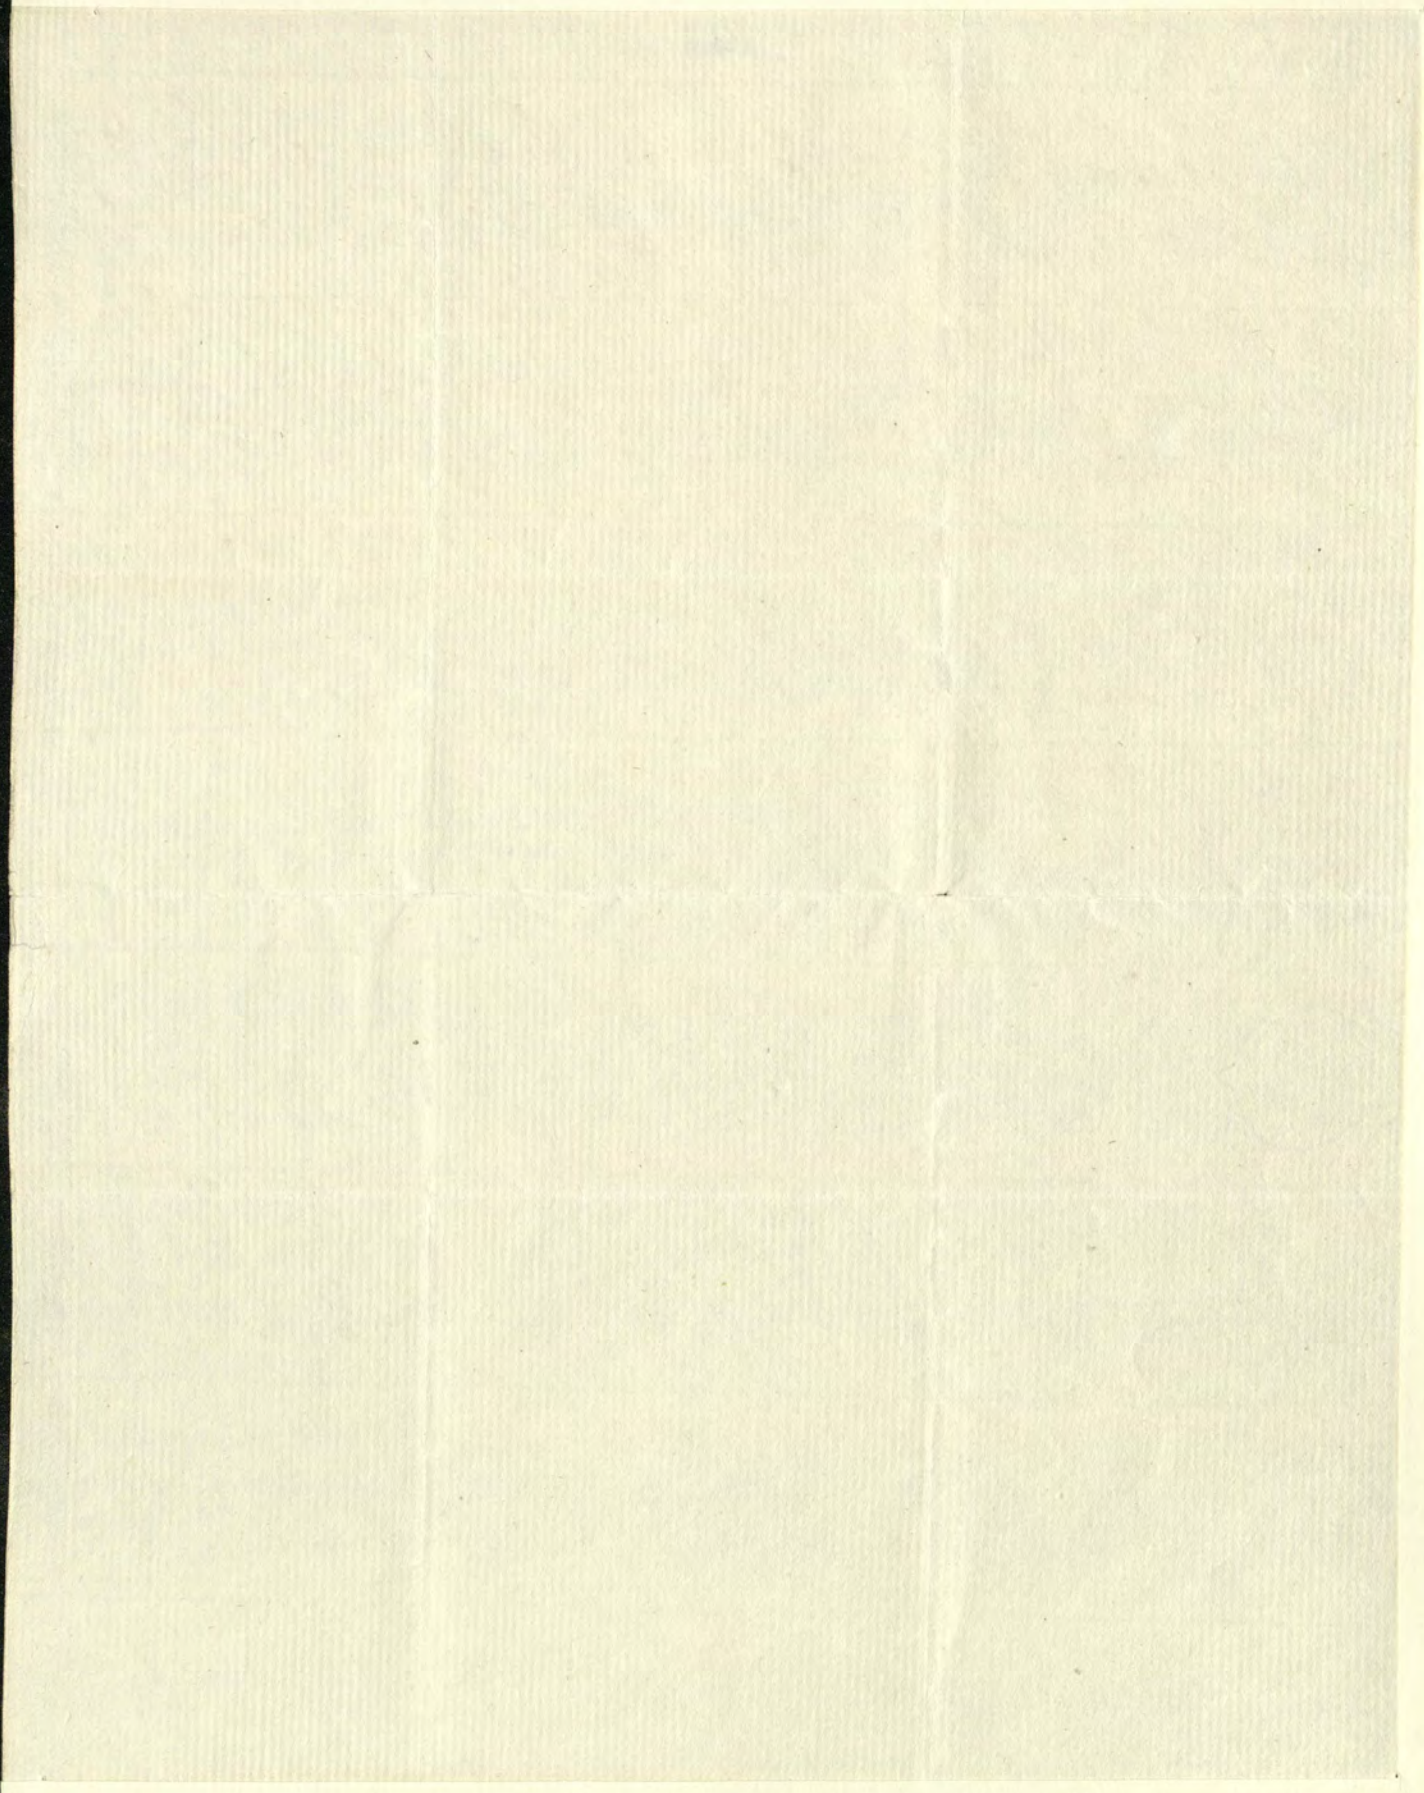

6503

The present Address from the House of Lords must in its nature be so interesting to Me, that Lord Sydney cannot be surpris'd at my wishing that the answer should as near as possible convey the gratitude I feel at the handsome Support I have met with from both Houses of Parliament and not less so from the whole Nation, I have therefore put a few words on Paper that appears to Me more applicable to the present Occasion

New March 11th 1789.

on p<sup>l</sup>. g. R. H.

Enclosure

His Majesty's answer to the Address of the House of Lords

in Note from the King
11 Mar: 1709

8504

My Lords

The Dutiful and Affectionate Address calls forth My warmest thanks. The sentiments of which have so universally prevailed among my loving Subjects, that they must if possible ~~increase~~ My Solicitudes for the Prosperity and Happiness of this My Native Country.

Windsor 15. March 1789
Note from the King.

to Mr. Sydney

6505

Windsor March 15th 1789.
7th 1/2 P.M.

Though it might seem odd to mention one's health in a mere ~~letter~~ on business, I know how much Lord Sydney interests himself in my welfare. That I just mention that the being returned to my favourite residence has ~~obtained~~ <sup>much</sup> ~~me~~ <sup>acquired</sup> ~~me~~ neighbourhood had experienced since my illness; and the joy that appears in every countenance and the good sense of my neighbours in not wishing to incommode cannot fail of having a due effect.

I cannot in the least object to the Duke of Richmond's proposed Procuration, and his love of County Elections cannot but make him rejoice at the opening of the States in France.

Handwritten text on a piece of lined paper, possibly a page from a notebook or a document. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and the angle of the page. The paper is yellowed and shows signs of age. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the page.

Ld. Sydney

6506

Governor Square

March 17: 1789

$\frac{94}{55}$  past 11 P.M.

Ld Sydney humbly presents to His Majesty's Consideration a Draught of an Answer to the Address of the City of London

Done

Ld. Sydney

6506

Don, which His Majesty has appointed to be received on Thursday.

Lord Sydney has received notice from the Lord President, that these are some Bills from Ireland, which must receive the Royal Assent before the 25th to prevent their improper expiration. He humbly desires to

received the D

Ld. Sydney

6506 (2)

to point notice
these which
to be improves
to receive His Majesty's Commands as to the Day of holding the Council.

Lord Sydney,
London 17th March 1769.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

ld. Sydney

6507

Lull Hill

March 17: 1789

<sup>9th</sup>
30 post 8. l. No

Lord Sydney humbly
presumes to lay before His Majesty a Letter, which he has just received from Mr Pitt, relative to the Convicts ordered for Execution tomorrow. It is with

with the utmost reluctance, that he ventures to break in upon His Majesty upon such a subject contrary to His Majesty's general Orders, which he has always endeavoured to observe with the strictest punctuality. But the consideration of the go sever must which gener sent in pref

the

 ty's de

Ld. Seydneey

6507 (2)

ben upon see ways
test
of
the

The great length of confinement of several the unhappy Persons, the number of them, and the interruption which such a spectacle gives to the general joy and happiness of the present time has made a pretty general impression upon the minds of His Majesty's subjects. His Majesty's servants have

Lord Sydney,

Salt Hill 17. March 1780

17 March

have thought it their duty to lay humbly their sentiments before His Majesty.

Lord Sydney came into the neighbourhood to be at hand in case His Majesty should have any commands for him, and will be at the Round Tower immediately.

Sr Geo. Yonge

Mar. 21 1789

6508

Sir George Yonge has the Honor to send your Majesty a letter from Lord Dover with the succession in the Regiment of Life Guards which he commands for your Majesty's approbation

Sir George Yonge has also the Honor to submit to your Majesty the Request of d.<sup>r</sup> Gov.<sup>r</sup> Caswell of Hull that he may succeed to the vacant Company of Invalids at Berwick, which will make Room for the Arrangement which your Majesty was Pleased to approve of for the Resignation of Colonel Jones of the Foot Guards in Favor of Captain Lenox, and Sir George Gough

wishes
 L.<sup>d</sup> Co
 to the M.<sup>d</sup> Lo unple decl
 Wa
 John
 5000

Sr Geo. Yonge

Mar. 21 1789

6508 (2)

wishes to know whether in that Case
L.<sup>d</sup> Colonel Boscawen should succeed to the Company, if he Chuses It, and M.<sup>r</sup> Lenox to the Capt. Lieutenancy, unless L.<sup>d</sup> Colonel Boscawen should decline Purchasing the Company

War Office

Saturday March 21. 1789

5 o'clock P. M.

Mr George Yonger
His Office 21. March 1709

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

Ld. Sydney

6509

Grosvenor Square

March 22: 1789

11 P.M.

Lord Sydney humbly presumes to acquaint His Majesty, that the Persons appointed by the Body of People called Quakers to present their humble Address to His Majesty will

will be ready to do it at whatever time His Majesty shall please to command them on Wednesday or Friday next, if His Majesty shall judge proper to receive them on either of those days.

Lrd.
jesty
that the l

Lrd

Ld. Sydney

6509 (2)

to Ld Sydney in Audience to His Majesty's Commands informed them, that His Majesty would receive the address at Windsor.

Lord Sydney,
Shrewsbury 22nd March 1799.

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

Windsor 23 March 1789

Note from the King.

6 hd.
Sydney

6510

Windsor March 23.
1789.  $\frac{m}{20}$  P. 15. R. M.

I desire Lord Sydney will appoint the Gentlemen desired by the body of Learners to be at Windsor on Wednesday at two o'clock.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Faint handwritten mark or signature.]

ld. Sydney

6511

Great Britain Square
March 29: 1789
11 P.M.

Lord Sydney humbly presumes
to acquaint His Majesty, that the University of Oxford have voted Addresses to His Majesty and to The Queen.

As

As His Majesty had been graciously pleased to appoint Wednesday for the receiving the address of the Quakers, Lord Sydney thought it might not be improper, that the Lord

Majesty
trinal
Time.

Lord

hd Sydney

6511. (2)

ra-
Dues
of it or and

and Deputation might attend His Majesty on the same Day to prevent additional interruption on His Majesty's Time.

Lord Sydney.
London the 23rd March 1751.

Duke of Leeds,
Governor J<sup>g</sup> 23rd March 89.

82-0-0
41-16-2 1/2
4-9 3/4

6512

Sir,

The repeated marks of your Majesty's Goodness which I and my family have experienced render it a Duty incumbent on me to give your Majesty the earliest Information of the melancholy event which has deprived your Majesty of a loyal zealous & faithful Subject, and me and mine of the most affectionate of Parents and the best of Friends.

It pleased the Almighty to take the late Duke my father to his mercy this morning about four o'clock, after he had remained all yesterday in a desperate, tho' providentially not a painful state.

Having discharged this painful Duty, I have only to offer those unfurmed assurances of Loyalty attachment and Gratitude with which I have the Honour to be Sir

Your Majesty's

most Dutiful

and Devoted

Subject and Servant

Gros<sup>v</sup> Square,

March 23. 1789.

Leeds.

Oxford University. Address

Mar. 23 1789

6513

To the Kings most excellent Majesty

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford humbly inbect your favourable Acceptance of our fervent Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

In this Hour of general Joy, we approach you, Sir, with the most heart-felt Gratitude to the Almighty for the Mercy which he has vouchsafed to us in your Preservation and with the strongest Sentiments of Love & Veneration for your Royal Person.

To the Sincerity of these Professions, the Moments of our Sorrow here ample Testimony when we deplored before the Throne of God that severe and awful Visitation, with which it had pleased him to afflict you; and when the same Language of Love Duty and Affection was mingled with our Prayers and Intercessions.

Duly sensible of those Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Majesty and which under God have ensured to us the inestimable

Oxford

Blessing
your m of your authorit zealous continue Interpo

to grat
a grat

The mo
one the

Oxford University. Address

Mar. 23 1789

6513 (2)
Blessings we enjoy, we can never sufficiently acknowledge your unweary Attention to the Prosperity and Interests of your Subjects, your mild and legal Exercise of the Authority which is vested in you and your tender & zealous Protection of our civil and religious Liberties.

We most heartily commend your Majesty to the continued Protection of that great Being whose merciful Interposition we now adore, humbly beseeching him to grant you a long and prosperous Reign over a grateful and affectionate People.

Given at our House of Convocation the twenty third <sup>Day</sup> of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred eighty nine —

Letters from the University of Exeter.

Ms. A. 23. 2. 1709

hd Sydney

6514

Whitehall

March 24: 1789

4: P.M.

Lord Sydney humbly pre-
sunes to transmit to His Majesty Drafts of answers to the Deputations from the University of Oxford, and from

from the Body of the People called Quakers, for His Majesty's Approbati on.

Lord Sydney likewise presumes
to transmit to His Majesty a Dispatch from the Lord Lieutenant of

Ireland

Ireland. He has in consequence of His Majesty's Commands summoned
a meeting of His Majesty's Servants

Lord Sydney

24th March 1789

m.

Lord Sydney likewise presumes
to transmit to His Majesty a Dispatch from the Lord Lieutenant of

Ireland

Windsor 24 March 1789

Note from the King.

to Lord Sydney

6515

Windsor March 24th
40 p. 7. A. M. 1789.

Lord Sydney has judged very properly in appointing the Deputation from the University of Oxford for tomorrow, & trust He will attend to the Answer being very handsome and fully expressing my sentiments for the Advancement of Learning, <sup>and Learning</sup> as the only solid foundations for the Sads of their excellent Religion, for Love of the Civil Constitution or the improvements of Commerce being affected.

J. S.

The proposition from Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for Limiting Pensions requires a speedy but well digested opinion of Cabinet, I am not a lover of Novelties, yet at first sight I do not foresee much evil in the Idea, and it seems only to curb the wanton abuses of most Chief Governors that have been sent there

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of lined paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]

hd. Sydney

6516

Whitehall

March 28: 1789

$\frac{M}{34}$  post 1. P.M.

Lord Sydney humbly presents to transmit to His Majesty for His Approbation a Draught of an answer to the address of the London Clergy.

The

hd. Syd

The Arch Bishop of Canterbury has just informed him, that it is His Majesty's Pleasure to receive the address of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury at the same time as that of the London Clergy. When Lord Sydney has received a copy

tion an
His Lord
Univ

a

hd. Sydney

6516 (2)

a copy of the address of the Convocation, he will draw up the form of an answer to it to be submitted to His Majesty's Judgement.

The Duke of Grafton has informed Lord Sydney, that the address of the University of Cambridge will probably

a b

Lord Lyttelton
20th March 1789

to be ready to be presented to His Majesty by Wednesday, if His Majesty should think proper to receive it on that day.

Windsor 28 Mar: 1789

Note from The King.

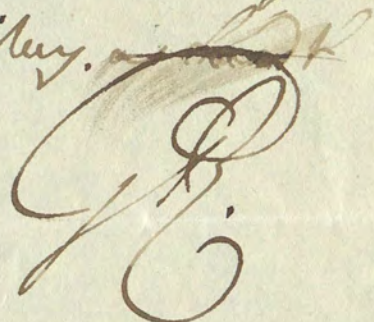

to hd Sydney

6517

Windsor March 29th 1789.
11<sup>am</sup> / 6. P.M.

I approve of the Draught of an answer to the Bishops of the London Clergy, yet think it would require some expressions of Protection to the established Church.

The Bishops of the Convocation cannot be more conveniently be received than the same day, the one from the University of Cambridge I would choose to receive on Friday.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Lord Sydney
29th March 1789

6518

Graveyard Square
March 29: 1789
12 at Night

Lord Sydney humbly
presumes to transmit to His Majesty Copys of the addresses of the University of Cambridge to His Majesty, and

to

to The Queen.

He likewise humbly submits to His Majesty's Correction a Draught of an answer to the address to His Majesty.

Windsor 31 March 1789

Note from the King.

6519

Windsor March 31. 1789.

$\frac{m}{35}$  p. 8. A. M.

I have carefully examined the Address of the University of Cambridge and the proposed answer which as Lord Sydney wished to have my sentiments on it, I have in the manner though not the Matter changed.

