

Draft to E. of Chatham
Richmond Lodge, June 13. 1767.
 $\frac{24}{30}$  p. 10. A. G.

653 Printed Chatham. Box. III 271 Richmond Lodge, June 13. 1767
 $\frac{24}{30}$  p. 10. A. G.

Lord Chatham, The dry weather that has now continued a week must undoubtedly have greatly assisted in removing the weakness arising from the long continuance of your late indisposition; I therefore wish to know how you now find yourself, & whether you do not flatter yourself ~~soon to be~~ in a situation to see Me; for I know I can rely on your zeal for my service, & your fortitude to struggle with any remains of your late disorder, whenever ~~the time shall~~ <sup>the time shall</sup> ~~the hour~~ require your taking an active part.

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to its orientation and fading.]