The Duke of Leeds humbly begs leave to lay before your Majesty, the Copies of some papers Deliv'd to him by Count Woronzow on Sunday last, which that minister wish'd to have return'd immediately, after perusal, but which the Duke of Leeds thought too material, not to be transcrib'd.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty May it Please your Majesty

In humble Obedience to your Majesty's commands signified to me by the Right Honourable W. W. Grenville one of your Majesty's principal Secretaries of State referring to me the annexed Petition of Joseph Manton of Dooce Street in the County of Middlesex Gun Maker to consider thereof and report my Opinion what may be properly done therein which Petition sets forth..

That after much time spent in a variety of Experiments the Petitioner hath invented an entire new method of rifling and loading Cannon Mortars and other pieces of Ordnance as also all manner of small arms on a principle that will throw Shot or Shells to the greatest accuracy and which your Petitioner humbly conceives will be highly beneficial to the Public That he is the first and true Inventor thereof and the same hath not been made or used by any Person or Persons whatsoever to the best of his knowledge or belief He therefore prays that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to grant unto him his Executors Administrators and Assigns your Majesty's Royal Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain for the sole Use benefit and Advantage of his said Invention within that part of your Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England your Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed for the Term of Fourteen years pursuant to the Statute in such case made & provided

And I humbly beg leave to certify unto your Majesty that in support of the allegations contained in the said Petition an affidavit of the Petitioner's therunto annexed hath been laid before me whereby he maketh Oath and saith that after much time spent in a variety of Experiments he hath invented an entire new Method of rifling and loading Cannon Mortars and other pieces of Ordnance as also all manure of small Arms on a principle that will throw Shot or Shells to the greatest accuracy—which he conceives will be highly beneficial to the Public That he is the first and true Inventor thereof and that the same hath not been made or used by any other person or persons whomsoever to the best of his knowledge or belief.

Upon Consideration of all which and as it is intirely at the hazard of the Petitioner whether the said Invention is now or will have the desired Success and as it may be reasonable for your Majesty to encourage all Arts and Inventions which may be for the public Good I am humbly of Opinion that your Majesty may by your Royal Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain grant unto the Petitioner his Executors—Administrators and Assignes the sole Use benefit and Advantage of his said Invention within that part of your Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England your Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed for the Term of Fourteen Years pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided if Your Majesty shall be graciously pleased so to do.

Provided the said Petitioner doth within such reasonable time as shall be limited in the said Letters Patent to be computed from the date thereof cause a particular Description of the nature of his said Invention and in what manner the same is to be performed by Writing under his hand and Seal to be inrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery otherwise the said Letters Patent to be void

All which is humbly submitted to your Majesty's Royal Wisdom

Sir

From your Majesty's very gracious message thro my Brother I cannot believe it to be your Majesty's wish that, after serving 40 years, I should be forced from the service, I am therefore embolden'd once more to represent that your Majesty has rais'd me (perhaps beyond what I deserve) that I now feel myself sunk even below my level, in the service and that my situation is growing more critical every day, from the situation of affairs pointing out my disgrace, which, should your Majesty be graciously pleas'd to remove, by allowing me the honor of being about your Person as one of your Majesty's Grooms of the Bedchamber, even without salary (as emolument is not my pursuit) I should thereby be enabled to serve with credit, wishing only to shew the World that your Majesty has not deserted me.

Mr Pitt is under the necessity of humbly requesting your Majesty's Commands on two or three Points which he meant to have submitted to your Majesty yesterday, if he had not been detained by a succession of Engagements till after your Majesty had left St James's. He imagines from the Conversation which he had the honor of having with your Majesty on Wednesday, that your Majesty decides on giving the Government of Windsor Castle to Lord Caidigan, but He was not sure whether it was so far fixed as to make it yet proper to give an answer to the Request which He was desired to lay before your Majesty from Lord Euston.

He has also omitted to execute a Commission from Lord Mornington and Mr Downey, both of whom had desired, Mr J. M. to learn

Sir,

Halifax, July 19, 1790

This day I have been honoured with your letter of June the 5th — informing me of His Majesty's gracious approbation of the Law of this Province for establishing a College at Windsor — of His benevolent intention to grant a Royal Charter to that Seminary, & making farther provision for the Students who shall there receive their education — also that there has been a grant of £1000 by Parliament towards erecting a building for the Institution. These articles of information are accompanied with several inquiries concerning the state of religion & literature, & the means of promoting them, to which I shall think it my indispensable duty to return answers as full & accurate as I am able.

It unfortunately happens, that although I have the materials by me for the purpose; yet I can do little more at present than to acknowledge the receipt of your letter; & to assure you that I feel the liveliest sense of His Majesty's paternal goodness & attention to the welfare of His American Subjects. For I am under the necessity of embarking for Shelburne & Lunenburg, on the southern coast of this province, to-morrow; having returned only a few days since from a journey to the northern parts of Nova Scotia & New Brunswick. Summer is the only part of the year that admits of travelling in this country. Wishing to have an accurate knowledge of the inhabited parts of this province, & of the others under my jurisdiction, which would enable me to transmit true accounts of them to England, & discharge my own duty with more advantage to others, I have been, as it were, on the wing through Nova Scotia, Canada & New Brunswick every summer since my appointment. This did not proceed from a fondness to travel, which is difficult & expensive here; but from a sense of duty. For nothing can be done here ^{effectually} without persevering exertion; & I could place little dependance on ^{the} vague & partial accounts of others.

In addition to the particulars contained in my letter of May 20th concerning the number of Clergymen in the three provinces, & of the sources from which they derive their support; I shall hereafter endeavour to answer your farther inquiries on that subject; as well as those relating to the Academy at Windsor, which is the only public Seminary for Protestants in British America; & which I consider of so much consequence to Religion, Loyalty & Order, as well as Literature, that I shall probably probably move to Windsor next summer, to assist in applying ing, as far as it will go, the sum granted for building a college, faithfully & frugally. The number of Students at the Academy, is 30; & there is no doubt but that number ^{would soon} ~~would~~ increase to more than double, if the college was once built, & the Institution had more Tutors, & was brought to a proper state of maturity. Six of those Students are from the province of New Brunswick. I shall pay attention to the number of Tutors that may be necessary; to the site of lands that shall be appropriated to its permanent support, & to the several other weighty matters which your inquiries extend to. I cannot sufficiently applaud the intended foundation for Youth, elected from this Seminary, to complete their education in the English Universities. This measure is founded in wisdom & sound policy. It will stimulate Youth to application, attach them to the Constitution both civil & ecclesiastical, & become a firm bond of union between the parent State & the Colonies in future.

Be pleased to accept of my Charge to the Clergy of Quebec last Summer; in the Appendix there is a short account of the Visitation of our Academy in February; & it also contains some matters relative to the ecclesiastical state of things in Quebec, though it is probable the weight of public business will not permit you to look into such matters. That you may long continue an ornament & a blessing to your country, & distinguished, as you are at present, by the exertion of eminent talents to promote its truest interests, is the fervent wish of him who has the honour to be with the truest esteem,

Sir,
Your most obedient & most humble servant,
