

Lord Grenville

August 14. 1791

6849

Whitehall 10th September 1791
10. p. M.

Mr Dundas humbly begs leave to transmit the accompanying letter for His Majesty's Perusal. Mr Dundas delayed mentioning the subject or communicating the letter till He had taken an opportunity of conversing with Mayor Hobart. He has done so upon the subject of Mayor Bucheridge, and likewise upon the late Recommendations respecting the 68

of
:sa
opp
su
fo
:ma
pr

Lord Grenville

August 14. 1791

6849 (2)

office of adjutant gene:
:sal. He will have an so opportunity tomorrow of submitting the Particulars for His Majestys Infor: :mation.

Mr Dundas likewise presumes to transmit to

Mr Dundas.

September 1. 1791

His Majesty a Letter He has received from Sir William Faucitt upon the Subject of which His Majesty may perhaps be pleased to intimate His Commands.

M<sup>r</sup> Secy Dundas Wimbleton. 4th Sept.

6850

Wimbleton Sunday 4th Sept.
11. p. M.

Mr Dundas with humble Duty and infinite Satisfaction transmits the accompanying Communication to His Majesty. When more regular information comes to hand it will be instantly forwarded.

11. 11. 18. 11.
The Committee on the Education of the People of the British Empire has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.
Yours faithfully,
The Secretary

H. Dundas to H.M.

6851

Whitehall. 5th Sept. 1791.
3. p. M.

Mr Dundas humbly informs His Majesty that the official Dispatches are not yet arrived from the India House.
The accompanying is a Private letter from Sir Charles Oakley.

J. M. J. Dundas.

Whitchard - 5. Sept. 1791

Lord Grenville

6852

Weymouth September 6th 1791

<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> 10. A.M.

Lord Grenville has the honour to inclose an account which he has received from M<sup>r</sup>. Le Mesurier one of the East India Directors, and which Lord Grenville thought Your Majesty might perhaps chuse to see altho' he imagines it will not contain anything which is not in the public accounts.

Lord Grenville
Weymouth 6th Sept. 91.

Henry Dundas

6853

Whitehall 7th Sept. 1791
1/2 past 2 P.M.

Mr Dundas humbly transmits for His Majesty's perusal the Dispatches from India; They did not come to him till yesterday morning, and he thought it proper to send them instantly

Henry

to reach the Gazette of last night. owing to the miscarriage of Lord Cornwallis's official advice of the capture of Bangalore, the dispatches now sent convey little more infor-

ma
is
of
to
: Cy
M
to in

Henry Dundas

6853 (2)

mation than His Majesty is already in possession
of.

Mr Dundas presumes to submit to His Majesty's perusal a letter Mr Dundas has wrote to Sir Robert Lawley in answer to one from him covering an application signed by many respectable inhabitants of Birmingham in favour of one of the persons convicted at Warwick. Mr. Dundas flatters himself that under the circumstances stated in Mr. Dundas

6854

answer to Sir Robert Law by His Majesty will approve of the Respite which has been granted.

Mr Dundas has this instant received a letter from Mr Baring upon the subject of Pecuniary Resources

in India, and it is so very comfortable with regard to that important object Mr Dundas flatter himself His Majesty will forgive him the trouble he occasions to His Majesty

6854 (2) in the perusal of it.

so
th love ndas his me e ajery

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

2 Mrs Dundas Whitehall 7 Sept 1791.

Duke of Devon
September 9. 1791

6855

Sir

As Your Majesty was graciously pleased to approve the contents of Mr. Burke's paper, I hope Your Majesty will pardon my impertunity in informing you that the extract was delivered safely into the Person's own hand, but it is not yet known what effect it has had as the difficulties of communication are yet extremely great and dangerous.

I beg leave to subscribe myself with all possible attachment and respect

Sir

Your Majesty's

most dutiful

subject and servant

Lorset

St. Pierre Sep<sup>r</sup> 9th 1791

Lord Grenville
Weymouth. th 12<sup>r</sup> Sept. 1791

6856

Weymouth Sept. 12. 1791.

$\frac{3}{4}$  p. 2.

As Lord Grenville imagines that Your Majesty will probably hear of Count Redern's arrival here, and will wish to know the object of his journey, he thinks it his duty, humbly to inform Your Majesty that Count

Redern

6000

Aedera appears to have undertaken this journey only for the purpose of communicating the declaration signed at Poelmitz which Your Majesty has already seen in Mr. Swart's dispatches, and that after a long conversation Lord Grenville has not been able to discover that Count Aedera has any other information whatever, of that may have passed there. Count Aedera assures him that he knows no more of it than what is contained in that paper.

Lord Grenville

September 14 1791

6857

Weymouth Sept. 14. 1791

<sup>15</sup>/<sub>th</sub> p. 10. A.M.

Lord Grenville has the honour to transmit to Your Majesty a letter from Mr. Burke Junior to Mr. Dundas which Lord Grenville has received this morning. The latter part consists entirely of reasoning and may perhaps hardly be worth Your Majesty's taking the trouble of reading so much writing in so bad a hand, but the first first part seems curious, as it states the reason of the Count D'Artois' late journey to Vienna, and the wavering and uncertain conduct of the French King.

Lord Grenville
September 16. 1791

6858

Weymouth Sept. 16. 1791.

$\frac{1}{2}$  p. 11. A. P.

Lord Grenville did himself the honour to attend this morning at Your Majesty's House with the papers which he now takes the liberty to transmit. As he was so unfortunate as not to be in

in time to have the honour of seeing Your Majesty before Your Majesty went out on horse-back, he imagines that this mode of laying them before Your Majesty will not be the least troublesome to Your Majesty.

Capt. Richard Symes

Sep. 17 1791

6859

Sir

The very gracious, and condescending attention, with which your Majesty, has had the goodness to honor me, since my return from Gibraltar, and the satisfaction your Majesty has expressed, in receiving a favorable Report, of Prince Edward's general conduct - during his Residence there, has afforded me the highest gratification, in my having had the good Fortune, to promote, what has been useful, to his Royal Highness, consequently pleasing to your Majesty -

I should ill deserve the Confidence, with which your Majesty has honored me, if in stating the good Qualities, I have with pleasure, remarked in your Son - I should attempt to conceal his faults - the former, I am happy to assert, infinitely preponderate.

The manner in which his Royal Highness, quitted Geneva, was highly improper, has proved in its consequences, as fortunate Event - as he thereby, broke thro' Habits, and left a Society, highly prejudicial, and equally difficult to avoid.

Capt. S

which he remained there —

The Situation, and its Effects, seem to have made a fortunate impression, as the attention paid by his M<sup>ty</sup> Highness, to the Charac=ter, and Conduct of the young Men, whom he has since selected; to of which with, does him infinite honor and has been productive of those advantages. there was reason to expect from such a Change.
 The inconsiderate Propensity to Expense, which the Prince had practiced is considerably abated, and there is every reason to expect, will decrease with the experience, which he has, and must acquire — of this, the best Proof is, the cheerful, and manly manner, with which his Royal Highness gave up, more than half the income, your Majesty allows him in order to pay his debts, and to enable him to do so, having made a proportional Reduction in his expenses.

some Aid from your Majesty, towards diminishing, what he owes, would encourage him, to persevere, in the practice of self-denial, so necessary, but at his age, so difficult to observe — it will mark, your Majesty's Approbation, of his general conduct which he will be taught clearly to understand, that to save him, from the difficulties, into which, he has inconsiderably involved himself, he must depend, upon the Effects, of his own well regulated Economy, if your Majesty is pleased, to approve, of what, I thus humbly take the liberty, to propose, I pledge myself to your Majesty, for the — satisfa as the Canada

 necessary with you on Univer and that Highness are from
 I have sin wish aga more for and conse
 hind my
 I have you different the servic pointed when you so, I ganc
 to place
 House ha

Capt. Richard Seymour

Sep. 17 1791

6859 (2)

satisfactory application of it.

as the wish expressed, by Prince Edward, that I should join him in Canada, seems to meet with your Majesty's approbation, it becomes necessary for me to state, the difficulties, I had to encounter, when placed with your Son.

On receiving your Majesty's commands, to proceed to Gibraltar, I saw and stated, how difficult, it would be for me, to approach his Royal Highness, without exciting the extreme jealousy, which young men are prone to entertain, of all places near them, in similar circumstances, I have since experienced; the weight of this difficulty, has fully, to wish again to encounter it, without a change of situation, and the more fortunate, than I had reason to expect in surmounting prejudices and concluding services, which his Royal Highness, has had the kindness, and generosity to acknowledge. I feel most sensibly, what I have gone thro, in effecting, what has been done, and clearly see, how different would have been my situation, and how much more efficacious the services, I could have rendered, if the difficulties, which I then pointed out, could have been removed.

When your Majesty directed me, to join Prince Edward, in order to do so, I gave up the situation, in which your Majesty, had the goodness to place me - with the Prince of Wales, in the formation of his Household - whenever your Majesty, shall think it proper, to make Prince, an Allowance, for the same Purpose; His Royal Highness, has, in the most kind, and candid manner, inform'd me that it will be, on the smallest Scale possible, from a conviction, how unequal his Income, ever could be, to any expence of that kind, which it will be possible to avoid - that there will be no Sitation; he would offer to me, and that he had named, the five gentlemen, intended to compose it - before; I had the honor, to <sup>be</sup> known, to His Royal Highness therefore, with every wish, in the Prince, to serve me, which he has express'd, to your Majesty, in the strongest terms - his doing so, is clearly impracticable -

<sup>Edward</sup>

The Difficulty of the Sitation, in which your Majesty plac'd me, was such - as none wish'd to encounter - I therefore trust, that having undertaken a Task, so arduous, and my exertions, having been fortunately instrumental, in contributing to a Change of Land in the Prince, which is justly pleasing to your Majesty, I shall think the time, and Anxiety it has cost me, well employ'd - having the most perfect Reliance, on your Majesty's goodness that my Professional, as well as personal Services, will not be forgotten -

In my professional Pursuits, I have been so unfortunate, as to believe, and hope, there is no other <sup>Instance</sup> of the kind, to be met with - in near thirty Years approved, and a great part of it, Active Service -

I have never, even accidentally, profitted, by the Casualties attending the Events of War; the Mole, for, with which I am end, lost a greater number of Officers, than any other, in the course of last War — I have purchased every Reg<sup>t</sup> Com<sup>o</sup>mission I ever held; and when Promotion came to my turn, it was given over my head, to those with whom, in point of Claims, there could be no competition.
 I have been successively, called to the situations, of Adjutant, and <sup>2<sup>d</sup></sup> Master General, by Gen<sup>l</sup> Meadows, and Sir Chas Grey.
 Six Nine years since, I was appointed, 2<sup>d</sup> Lt<sup>o</sup> General, to the Troop in America, as Com<sup>o</sup>mission, to which, I believe, there has, no subsequent Appointment — and where, if your Majesty approves, I can be most useful to the Mines, the Difficulties of my former Situation, will thereby be removed — and as far, as now can be done; some Preparations made, for the fortification of the, in seeing every Day, Officers, somewhat my Juniors in point of Service — and who have never been selected, for Situations, of either Confidence, or Difficulty — now precede me, amongst the Lt<sup>o</sup> Colonels, who were last year, promoted to the Rank of Colonel, there are eighteen, who were Ensigns, & Lieutenants — since I have been a Capt — Last Year, <sup>your</sup> Majesty, had the goodness, to think of me, for an appointment in Ireland — the Situation of Adjutant General.

is now Vacant - for which, in time of War, General Meadows thought me qualified -

It is not without extreme Pain, that I thus presume, to express on your Majesty's goodness, on which, I feel by Duty - If there are occasions, in which it is necessary, to speak of ourselves - The peculiar circumstances, in which I stand at present, I hope, with your Majesty, will plead my excuse -

If your Majesty should think, that I should serve in Canada, with any part of which, I am acquainted - under Colonel Simcoe, the more my Junior, as an Officer, I will serve with pleasure - as I know him both to be, a Man of Sense, and a Man of Honor.

Whatever may be your Majesty's determination, I most humbly in trust, your Majesty will have the goodness, to inform me, before I go to Ireland - where, in the Arrangement of my private Affairs, it will be to me, of the utmost importance - which your Majesty, is always, so kind and gracious, as to consider -

I am with the most perfect Respect

Your Majesty's

most dutiful, and most devoted

Subject and Servant

Richd. Lysons

Weymouth <sup>the</sup> 27th Sept 1791.

As the i
-dinary,
my Hall

6860 (2)

As the circumstances relating to myself, must appear extraor-dinary, I trust, your Majesty will have the goodness to excuse, my having annexed a Paper, to prove the Facts.

Captain James.

Weymouth

17th Sept 1791.

Enclosure

6861

London 5 June 1779

My Lord

The Appointment of Major Tyler, into the 22<sup>d</sup> Regt our the heads of Officers, of long Service, and Claims, to your Lordship Protection, with which, they presume, your was unacquainted, obliges me to state them, for your Lordship's consideration.

The Regt in which I am Eldest Captain, has served 10 years in America, and in the course of the present War, suffered more, than any Corps employed on that Service, in which, the 22<sup>d</sup> Regt. Major, and six Captains, have fallen in Action - and twenty seven Officers, been killed and wounded; I am the only Capt. remaining, who began the War, in that Capacity, and hoped, that under these Circumstances, I should not have experienced, the extreme, and cruel mortification, of having an Officer who sold his Commission, at the beginning of the War, selected, to be put over my head, at this period of it.

Having in the course of the American War, served under the immediate orders of Lord Cornwallis, and General Mifflin, they have to me their Opinions, and Approbation of my Conduct, during that Period.
I am led to hope, that your Lordship will consider, and from the Facts I have stated, repair as far as possible, the Injury I have sustained in being deprived of a Successor, to which, I flatter myself, your Lordship, will think I had so just a Claim -

I have the honor to be,

Your Lordship's

most Obedient, and most humble Servant

Right Hon<sup>ble</sup>

Lord Amherst.

Commander in

Chief

W. Symes Capt

52<sup>d</sup> Regt.

Sir

Manfield Street th 26 May 1779

I feel it my Duty, to bear Testimony of the merit of Officers, who have served with me; As you was, during, great part of the American War, immediately under my Command; I had constant Opportunities, of being an Eye witness, of your good services; and can with Truth affirm, that you always shewed the greatest Zeal; and Attention to your Duty, and that I do not know a more meritorious Officer.

To Capt Symes
52<sup>d</sup> Regt.

Copy

Cornwallis

My Lord

th 30 May 1779

I take the liberty of addressing your Lordship, on a Subject, in which, I am certain, every General Officer who has served in America, will most cordially join me, it is a Duty more particularly incumbent on me, and which I owe, both to your Lordship and to the Service. Captain Symes has served immediately under my Command in America, as Major of Brigade and I can assure your Lordship, that he is an Officer, of much experience, Spirit, and Abilities; I do not know a better, and am convinced, that the General Officers acquainted with his merit, would be happy to have him, on any Service, in which, they might be employed I address myself thus, to your Lordship, being persuaded, that from your Attention at all times to the just Rewards of merit. that you have not been acquainted, with the Character of Capt Symes, or he would not at present have experienced, the same Disappointment, of a Major being now put over him, in the Regt. in which he is eldest Capt. my feelings on this occasion, for an Officer, who I know, is in every respect deserving, Interest me warmly, and I know, with your Lordship, will best plead my Cause, I have the honor to be. &c. &c. &c. &c.

To Lord Amhurst
Copy

Charles Gray

My Dear Sir.

Richmond Park 29 Decr 1780

I am going to command an Expedition with 3000 Men; with which my Staff is to consist of an A. General D. L. M. General; two A. D. Camps, & one M. of Brigade; the Reason of my thus addressing you, is to say; that by offering you, the Office of Adjutant General, I think, I serve myself much more, than you If this is worth your Acceptance, the sooner you come to town, the better, as I expect every Day a Summons to receive my final Instructions. If not, you will look upon it as a mark of my Return from — Yours most faithfully

To Capt Seymour Copy

William Meadows

Monsieur.

J'ai eu l'honneur de vous marquer ma reconnaissance, pour les preuves, d'amitié, que vous m'avez donné, tant durant votre séjour à Hamme, que durant celui, que vous avez fait, à Amsterdam.
Les remarques, sur la localité, d'Amsterdam, m'ont paru très justes, et m'ont été très utiles. Il n'y est pas douteux, que vous n'avez saisi, l'endroit, par où, nous devions l'attaquer, Je desiré infiniment, de trouver des occasions, pour vous — merquer, toute l'étendue de mon estime, et de la considération distinguer, avec laquelle, j'ai l'honneur d'être

Monsieur

avec toute humbleté et avec

A. C. Bertoom Janszoon

Chiefest Secritary

D'Amsterdam 19 Oct

Charles. G. W. Duc

1787 de Brunswick Lun embg

a M<sup>rs</sup> M<sup>rs</sup> Symes Lieutenant au service, de sa Majesté

Britannique

Mr Pitt.

September 10. 1791

6862

Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to transmit to your Majesty a Letter which he has just received from Mr Swart, in answer to that which he had the honor of writing by your Majesty's Command relative to the proposed Establishment of His Royal Highness, the Duke of York.

Weymouth Sunday. Sept 10. 1791. 4th 9th A.M.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

Ld. Grenville

6863

Weymouth Sept. 19th 1791.  $\frac{15}{m}$  p. m.

Lord Grenville has the honour humbly to submit to Your Majesty the draft of an answer from Your Majesty to the letter from Monsieur and he has also sent that letter as he thought Your

Lord Grenville.

Weymouth 19 Sept. 1774

Your Majesty might wish to refer to it.

Henry Dundas

6864

Whitehall one o'clock p.m.
21st Sept. 1791

Mr Dundas humbly transmits for His Majesty's information the Result of the Enquiry made at Birmingham respecting William Hands a Convict in the Goal at Warwick,

Hew

and he takes the Liberty of mentioning that the Examinations which have been taken justify the Propriety of the application to His Majesty's Mercy transmitted by Sir Robert Lawley. Mr Dundas

hu je or

Henry Dundas

6864 (2)

humbly waits His Ma: jesty's further Pleasure on the Subject.

ery
he have he cation vey her us

Mr. Secy. Dundas.
Whitehall - 21. Sept. 1791

Mr Pitt.

September 22. 1791

6865

Mr Pitt thinks it his duty to lose no time in presuming humbly to acquaint Your Majesty that a difficulty has been discovered from the provisions of the Royal Marriage Act, relative to the Marriage of His Royal Highness The Duke of York, which appears to require immediate Attention, and the particulars of which He wishes to be permitted to submit to Your Majesty, whenever it is least Inconvenient

Weymouth.

Thursday. Sept 22 1791. 50th N<sup>o</sup> 9.

Lord Grenville
September 23. 1791

6866

Whitehall Sept. 23. 1791.  $\frac{1}{2}$ p. 3. P.M.

Lord Grenville having received here the papers from Sir George Yonge which he has herewith the honour to transmit to Your Majesty hopes that under the cir-cumstances Your Majesty will approve of his troubling Your Majesty with them in this manner.

Henry Dundas

x 6867

Whitehall 23<sup>d</sup> Sep. 1791 ½ past 3 p.m.

Mr Dundas finding that the Instrument signifying His Majesty's Consent to the Marriage of His Royal Highness The Duke of York must be signed by His Majesty before the Great Seal is affixed, humbly presumes to transmit

Heur

6 for his Majesty's Signature & the accompanying Instruments to Mr Dundas has directed me the Messenger to go direct ly from Weymouth to Lord Thengon's house in Gloucestershire where Lord Chancellor now is, and therefore for the sake of

Henry Dundas

6867 (2)

Expedition has presumed to countersign the Instruments herewith sent.

ture
ments
ed irect n nd
of

Ms. B. 1. 1. 1.

Manuscript 23. 1791

Wm Pitt

Sep. 25 1791

6868

Mr Pitt has the honor of transmitting to your Majesty a Letter which he received this Morning from Mr Ewart enclosing the Instrument which he has signed at Berlin sub spe rati. -

The Informality of the Proceeding seems encreased, by the Act not being

Wm. T

68 now sent thro the official channel of the Secretary of State, and it seems to require some consideration in what manner the Business may be best put into a regular shape. As it appears material to leave the sentiments of the Lord Chancellor on this Subject, Lord

Green Is the has serva may any you
 Dow.
 Sund

Wm Pitt

Sep. 25 1791

6868 (2)

Grenville has dispatched another Messenger to him with a Copy of this Paper, and has also sent to your Majesty's Law servants, whose Opinion it may be useful to have, previous to preparing any Instructions to be submitted to your Majesty

Downing Street.

Sunday. September 25th 1791. 9 P.M.

Mr Pitt

September 25. 1791

Lord Murlow
September 26 1791

6869

In obedience to your Majesty's Commands. The Chancellor has forthwith affixed the great seal to your Majesty's consent to His Royal Highness's marriage with the eldest Princess of Prussia. If He had known, that such a business was so immediately in agitation, He would not have been absent from London. Perhaps, considering the Nature and Application of the Statute, the Preamble might have been more conveniently omitted.

But the Difference is certainly not considerable enough to warrant any Delay under all the Circumstances.
As to the Settlement, He presumes to think, that the King of Prussia has acted not less wisely, than gallantly, in trusting implicitly to the Generosity of Your Majesty, and Your Parliament.

Hawkestone Shropshire
26. September 1754.

Mr. Secy. Dundas.
Weymouth. 27th Sept. 1791.

6870

Weymouth. 1/4 past 8 o'clock
27th Sept. 1791

Mr Dundas presumes to in form His Majesty of His arrival at Weymouth, and wants His Majesty's Commands at what time tomorrow it is His Majesty's pleasure to hold a Council. To take the chance of hearing from Lord Chancellor, Mr Dundas hum bly suggests that the flour may be as late as is suitable to His Majesty's convenience.

Lord Grenville

6871

x

Whitehall Sept. 28th 1791. 2 P.M.

Lord Grenville hopes that Your Majesty will have the goodness to excuse the liberty he takes in humbly laying before Your Majesty the inclosed correspondence which has passed between the Lord Chancellor and him relative to the business of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of York. Lord Grenville is much too

hd. Co

6871 too sensible of all the gracious and unmerited favour which he has on every occasion experienced from Your Majesty, and of the obligations of his duty, both public and personal, not to feel with the utmost regret the necessity of troubling Your Majesty at all with a business of this nature. Whatever occasion he may have had to see with concern the conduct of the Lord Chancellor towards him in very many instances connected with Your Majesty's service, he has always felt himself bound to ob-serve that line of conduct which he knew would be most consonant to Your Majesty's wishes, and above all to refrain from breaking in upon Your Majesty's ease and quiet

quiet
 manner the least the same own ever Important
 apprehen made to Chancellor
 in his t all thing opinion ventured

Lord Grenville

6871 (2)

quit by presuming to make Your Majesty in any manner a party to any thing of this sort. Nor has he the least idea of departing in the present instance from the same line, or of suffering any private feelings of his own ever to interfere with objects of such infinitely greater importance. But as Lord Grenville could not help being apprehensive that some representation may have been made to Your Majesty on this occasion by the Lord Chancellor of a similar tendency with the complaints in his letter to Lord Grenville, and as he is above all things anxious to stand right in Your Majesty's opinion on such an occasion as the present, he has ventured to submit to Your Majesty all the letters which which have passed on this occasion, and to assure Your Majesty that he shall have nothing more to wish with respect to it, if he can flatter himself that Your Majesty, to whom all the circumstances of the business are fully known, is pleased not to disapprove of his conduct.

Lord Grenville
September 20. 1791

Lord Grenville

6872

*

Whitehall Sept. 30. 1791. 3. P.M.

Lord Grenville begs leave to acknowledge with the utmost gratitude Your Majesty's goodness in the expression of Your Majesty's gracious approbation of his conduct in the business on which he ventured
to

to trouble Your Majesty. He would not have done so at all if the letter of the Lord Chancellor had not appeared to him to convey a charge of inattention to his duty towards Your Majesty, which he should be deeply concerned that Your Majesty should think well-founded on any occasion, but more particularly on such a one as the present. Your Majesty's goodness has relieved Lord Grenville from all uneasiness on that head, and with respect to any thing else he has only to assure Your Majesty of his fixed determination
to

to prev

having the a begs condes

with a

W. de

Jackson

Lord Grenville

6872 (2)

to avoid all altercation upon the subject, and to prevent as far as in him lies Your Majesty's ever having any further trouble respecting it.

Lord Grenville has the honour to return the Lord Chancellor's letter to Your Majesty, and begs to express his sense of Your Majesty's gracious condescension in communicating it to him.

Lord Grenville hopes that Your Majesty will approve of his having taken steps for sending Mr. Lindsay to Berlin to relieve Mr. Ewart as Mr. Jackson was too ill to go.

Lord Grenville
September 30 1791