

L. G. Conway
London Sept 29. 1767.

689

London 29 Sept. 1767

Gen. Conway presents his most humble Duty to his Majesty & begs to receive his M^y commands whether he would please to hold the Council appointed for tomorrow at St James's? there will be still time after Friday next if that day should be more agreeable to his Majesty.

Gen. Conway will not fail to have the Messenger ready agreeably to his M^y orders, & to send his M^y letter when ready to M^{rs}. Sieden to inclose in his Packet.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of aged paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]