

Lt. Col. Conway
Little Warwick Street
Oct 21st 1767. p. 3. P.M.

690

Gen. Conway presents his most humble Duty to his Majesty & having just received Sir George Savelle's Letter on the subject of the Boys's takes the liberty of inclosing it to his M. humbly hoping his M. will be pleas'd to give him his orders how far his M. on this Representation judges fit to extend his mercy to these men. The Judges Report on the reference was unfavourable. These circumstances Lt. Col. Conway thought it his Duty to lay before his Majesty & must add that if his M. inclines to pardon the men it will be necessary to know his pleasure this evening, as there is no more than time before the Respite expires.

Little Warwick Street 21 Oct. - 1767. part 3. P.M.
The Law to take its course 30th 1st 4. P.M.

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on aged paper]