Lord Chatham, The D. of Grafton communicated to Me the Letter he proposed sending to You ~~concerning~~ the unreasonable anxiety of a Lord concerned in the Warmley Charter, as I have always chose to make You acquainted ~~I can not express my sentiments~~ with my sentiments in my own words, I ~~think it necessary to pursue the matter~~ on this most unpleasant Affair; I see the necessity of the Affair being brought to a hearing & if your health is not as yet so much reestablished as to enable You to do it; I wish ^{you would} to know whom You would w
