

Chifden Monday, 9. a close

Dr. Doctor Lee, I should have answered sooner Y^r Letter, had not I thought to meet Y^r last week at London, but not having seen G. Pitt yet, I think the best thing Y^r can advise Goddell, is to go on with his first Project, for this Election, the next will be tax'n care off in some other shape, as Y^r very well say, You'll be so good to tell him, that he must not flave the Cause, which is expected, and he has promis'd me, upon which my Promise was gi'n, and that both Reciprocall Promises go hand in hand, I mean his Election, and my Employment. I long to see Y^r, and if You can afford two, or three days to Y^r friends, You'll be very welcome here.

To morrow evening I settle in Town, but shall go Wednesday till Saturday with a good deal a Company to Vigents. Good bye Dr. Doctor Lee.
