

4. a clock.

Dr. Lee, I have seen last night Henry, who has behav'd with Modesty, and has giv'n me all the assurances, I could wish from a G^{man}, he appears satisfied of My Reception, and will stay till future times, when with Justice he expects to be advanc'd o'er less deserving people; I have giv'n him my Word to be his friend, if he'll remain firm with Y^r and me, and I told him You'd do the same, which I desire You'll take an Opportunity to do, as soon as possible, and I hope to have a Visit from Y^r to morrow, fix th' hour in Y^r answer, Y^r time is more precious, than mine, Good bye
 Dr. Lee. Frederick P.

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Handwritten signature or initials in the bottom left corner.

73968

30.12.

For the Secy.

