Yesterdays debate, has greatly been in our favour, and their Numbers are fall'n from 280, to 203. ours augment; the beginning of this Bill, their M^{ty} was 120, and that of late nights, was but 66., what will become of the Tea-Bill Y^r may guess, if our Numbers can but hold, Y^r remember th' Excise-Bill; Pray God this wicked Bill, and its Author, may feel the Resentment of the Nation, as those of th' Excise-Bill did, and may Y^r soon give 'em the last stroke, & never doubt of Y^r heart, and head, only I lament Y^r legs. Pray tell me, when you'll be able to come. Adieu.
