

4. a clock.

Dr Lee, I shall see the Fire-Worsh at L<sup>ds</sup>
 Middlesex's, where I shall be at 6. a clock, there are seats, for some of my friends, ease, good humour, and great convenience, amongst us I shall be very uneasy if Y<sup>r</sup> are not, therefore I desire Y<sup>n</sup> to come, and I wo'nt take a Jejurwall, for You'll be safe here, and I do'nt know if You'll be so any where else. Adieu

J.P.

* on May 1 1749 (cf Halpole May 3)

8
 7

1. 1. 1.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

[Faint signature or initials]

73985

For Dr Lee.

7/10 1864

