These are the Papers, Mr Peter Lee, relating to L<sup>dy</sup> Mary Cook, they are extracts of her own Letters, severall of these things are vouch'd by a Parson, who if Sub Jura would speak. Fitzackerlys Opinion to the Family is to move a Habeas Corpus, in the Kings Bench, in case that happens, she'll swear the Peace. Fitzackerly clear'd your Opinion above all should be tax'd, these things were drawn and manag'd by poor dead Exxine, who consulted with Fitzack; in the Family's name. Return these Papers to me, when Y<sup>r</sup> come here, there is no haste till then. Ev'ny thing is at a Stop now at London, except a Battle Royall, between, the contending Princes, for the Ad<sup>ts</sup> one insisting, for L<sup>d</sup> Trentham, and other for long Herbert. God bless em all, and rid this Island of this Stuff, which is the devout Prayer of Y<sup>r</sup><sup>m</sup> Secretary, and hearty Friend,
