[9 Nov. 1. - of covering letter]

Sir

I was fully convinced of your attachment to the Prince, my self, & my Family, & that made me consult you upon the paper I ordered should be communicated to you, I esteemed you the properest Person to advise me on the occasion, as I have long since valued you upon the reputation of your, understanding & Probity.

As I asked your advice in order to follow it, The paper shall be returned in the manner you approve of. The Prince I believe designs to see you next Sunday, & as we go out of town to morrow, I am concerned it is not in my power to have some conversation with you before you will speak to the Prince

The first opportunity I can have of a free conversation with you will be very agreeable to me. The Prince seems serious to have the Education of His Family considered, & I wish, & believe He will consult you alone upon this important subject, I make no doubt but that you will enforce the necessity of selecting proper Persons about The Children, & shew him the consequence of proposing unacceptation-able man. You may easily believe how much I have at heart the proper Education of my Family, & as I do not know any Person whose merit I have a higher opinion of than yours, I cannot justly place my confidence but in you, whose zeal for the Prince has been so constant & disinterested, & whose attachment for us & our Family I entirely am convinced of, & rely on. I shall therefore be glad to know your sentiments upon all occasions. you will please to consider of proper methods to facilitate the Princes good intentions, And as you will have an opportunity next Sunday to speak your sentiments, I depend that your attachment to us, & our Family will dispose you to advise the Prince in the best & strongest manner, on a point so essential as well to us, as the whole Nation. I am with great esteem.

Augusta
