

^{H.P.}
 D. Arch^d. Hamilton presents his Humble Duty to the Princess & begs the favour to know of her Royal Highness what Steps she would advise him to take in relation to the twelve Thousand Pounds Due on the Purchase of Park Place, both Park-Place & Carleton-House are mortgaged for the Payment of the same; the Mortgage on Carleton House, out of respect to the Prince, has not yet been Register'd, as all Mortgages in Middlesex are, & D. Archibald, thought it his Duty to acquaint the Princess, before he Registered said Mortgages now.

He would not ask this Question sooner nor take any Step in this Affair without her Royal Highness's approbation but hopes he will not now be thought unreasonable to begin,

Since at Micelmas next, there is three Quarters Interest Due, w^{ch} is more than is convenient to D^r Arch^d: to pay out of with his present Income & Family.
