When I had the pleasure of seeing you last, you was desirous of being informed of the particulars of the Extra's for the Princess's & Childerens diet; but as I was lame, & no body to assist <sup>me</sup> in searching for the Mensals, I could not then give you a proper Satisfaction. I sent my Clerk with it for your perusal, at the Princesses House, but <sup>you</sup> was gone to Town; I have therefore sent it inclosed, that you may be fully informed, & satisfied with the charge I have made in the book of abstracts I showed you. I am

Sir,

Kew,

May the 18th 1754.
