

Sir H.P.

74194

Upon coming home last night I found the favor of your letter of the 7th Instant which being sent by the General post did not come to my hands till then otherwise I should have sooner owned the receipt of it. The Princeps' condescension in ordering of us a key to her Conduit at Marshgate will be a very great accomodation to our house and the readiness with which Her Royal Highness was pleased to grant it lies under the greatest obligation for which we presume to return our most humble and gratefull thanks.

The obliging manner in which you was pleased to communicate to me Her Royal Highness's goodness deserves my particular acknowledgments and I beg leave to assure you that I am with all possible respect and truth:

Sir Your Most obed^t and
Obliged humble Serv^t
Nathl. Cole

Basinghall Street
12th September 1754

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]