

H.M. to Lord Barrington.

Richmond Lodge Augth 14. 1769

Lord Barrington, The note you have received from Sir Jeffrey Amherst is so very unlike that candour that has been one of the remarkable Attendants of him in every preceding transaction of his life, that I am not a little surpris'd at it. Your letter is very judiciously perus'd, & I think must inevitably overthrow whatever advantage was propos'd to be gain'd by Sir's Epistle.
