

H. H. to Lord Weymouth

852

Lord Weymouth, The real regard I have for You would have ^{enabled} ~~enabled~~ me, with the pleasure ^{to have advanced} ~~to have advanced~~ Mr. Thynne on the present occasion, ^{had not found that his not taking an active part in debate} ~~but found this pernicious~~ ^{who takes no part in} ~~debate~~ would have hurt those that stand forward in the House of Commons, and ^{well known} your zeal for my service would not make you wish what would in the least be detrimental to my service.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of lined paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]