Dr Hubbard has the honor to inform The Prince Regent that His Majesty pass'd a quiet day yesterday. His Majesty slept an hour in the afternoon, and two hours and an half in his bed. He has been composed this mor-

Sir

Her Majesty slept only one hour and a half last night - however His Majesty is now asleep in His chair.

His Majesty passed yesterday in a calm and satisfactory manner, and slept an hour and a half in the course of the day - but His Majesty retired to bed in a ruffled temper of mind, and was engaged in adjusting His bed clothes the greater part of the night -

I am, Sir, most respectfully, your Royal Highness faithful servant

Henry Stalford.
