

(Copy)

To Her late Majesty's Council —

His Majesty slept more than four hours in the course of yesterday, and four hours and an half last night — His Majesty continues to take His meals with satisfaction, and to amuse Himself with the usual conversation.

His Majesty looks very well this morning, and has lately fallen asleep in His Chair —

(signed) M Baillie
R. Willis

Windsor Castle
Jan: 16 — 1819

Copy

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

1819 - 1819