

New House, Jan. 1. 1789.

His Majesty passed many hours yesterday in a good manner, has had an extremely good night, & is this morning in a rather better state than usual.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. —

G. Baker
J. Gasborye
F. Willis

Sir

I have the honour to inform your Royal Highness, that his Majesty in my opinion is in all respects better than I have seen him. His Majesty play'd many Games at Back-Gammon & convers'd in a collected sensible manner yesterday evening for seven hours, had a very good night, & this morning is more himself than I have ever seen him since

I have had the honour to attend
His Majesty.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your Royal Highness's
most obedient Servant

F. Willis

New House

Jan. 1. 1788

1789

New House January 2^d 1789.

His Majesty passed yesterday very much in the same manner, as he did the day before, has had a very good night, and is this morning in a comfortable way.

J. W. Saville

J. Reynolds.

F. Willis.

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

MS. A. 16. 1. 26

His Majesty continued much in the Same State he was in during the Day Yesterday, but towards Evening became Less Calm. His Majesty has had a very Good Night, & is Calm this Morning.

A. Baker

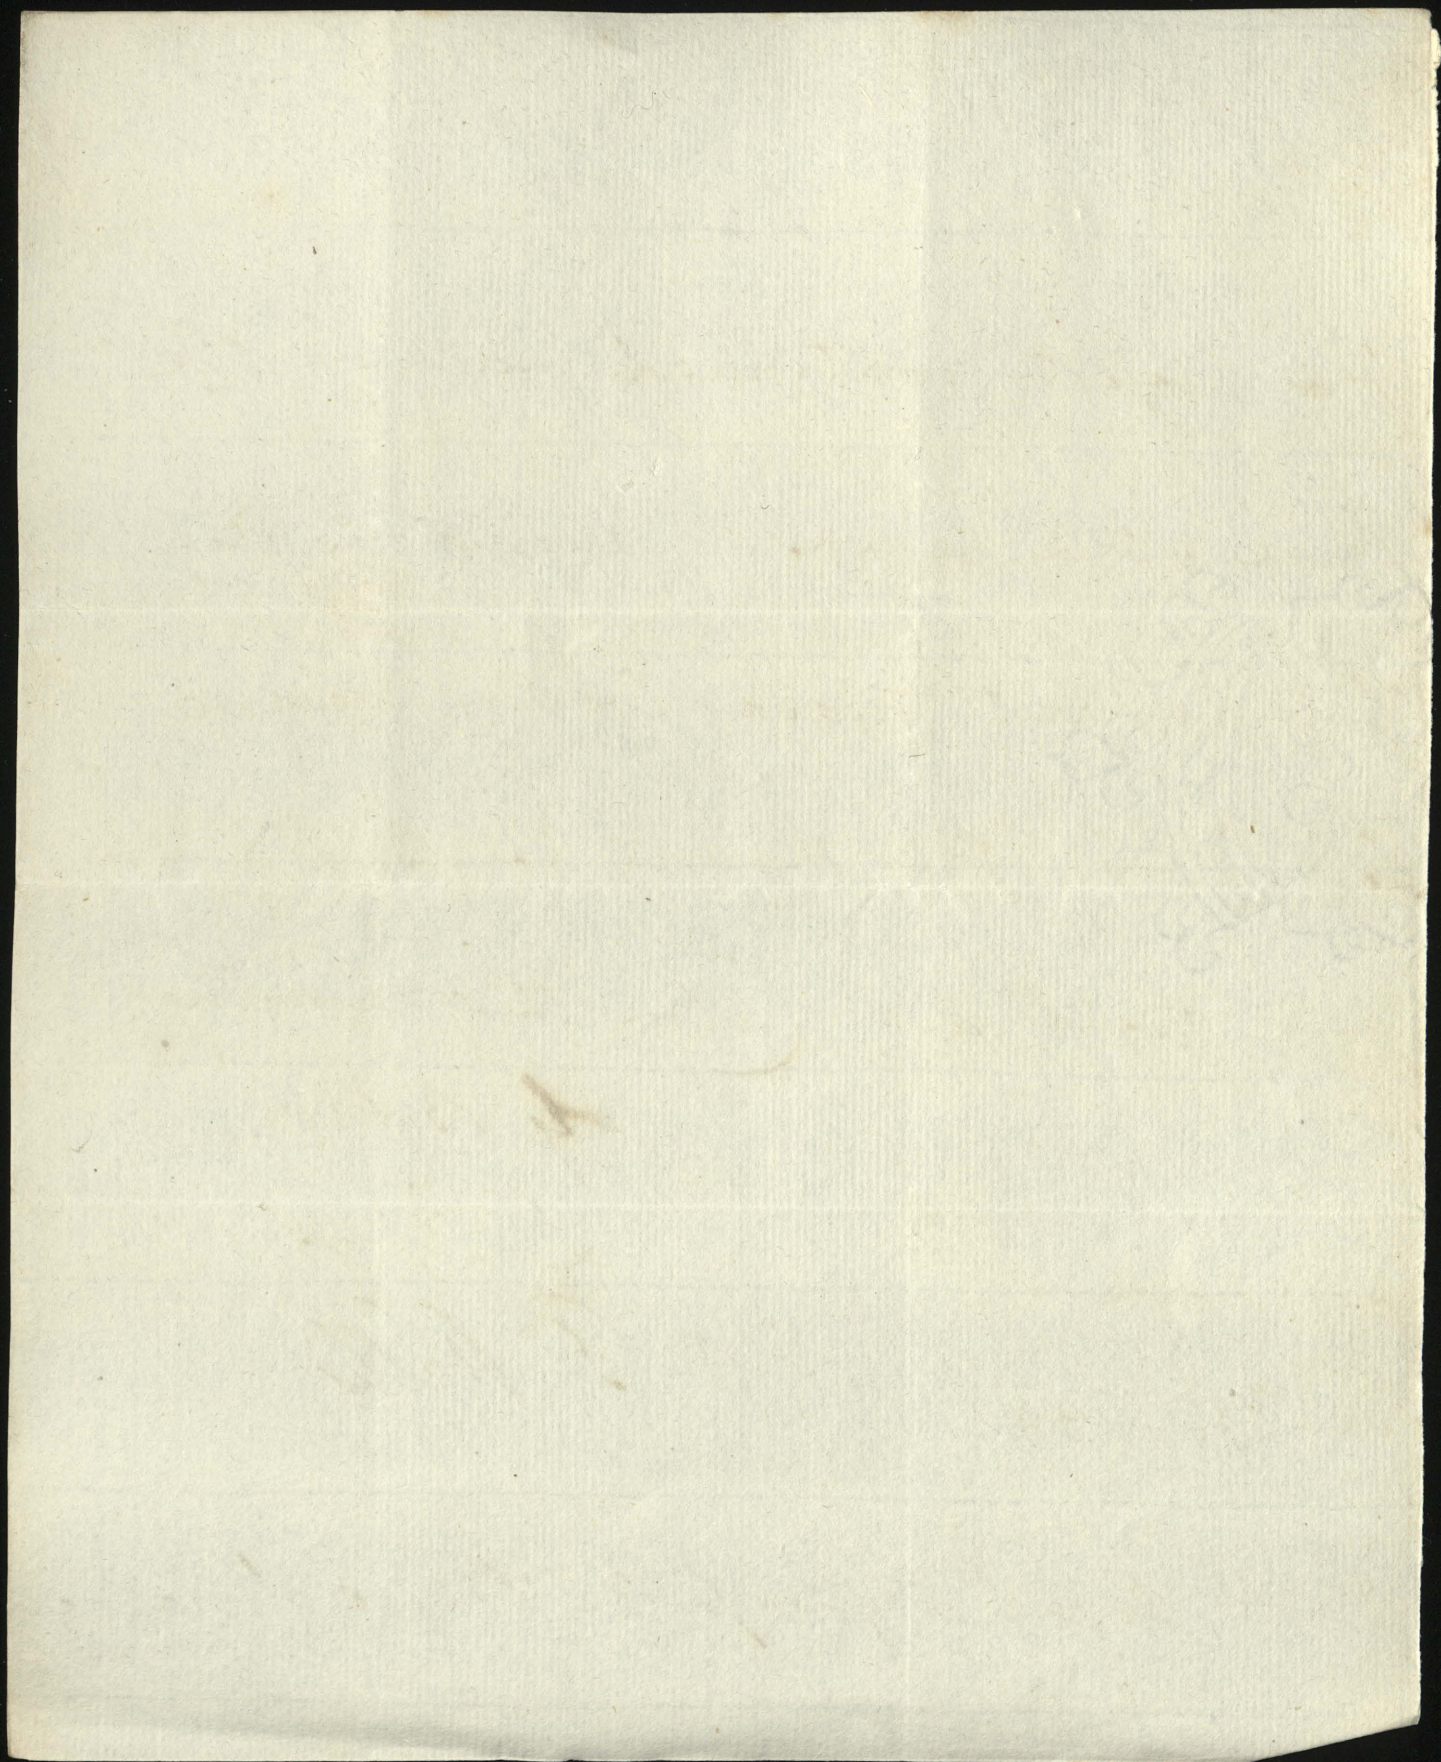

L. Pepys

F. Willis

Kew House

Jan^{ry}. 3^d 1789

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

REC'D 16/1/27

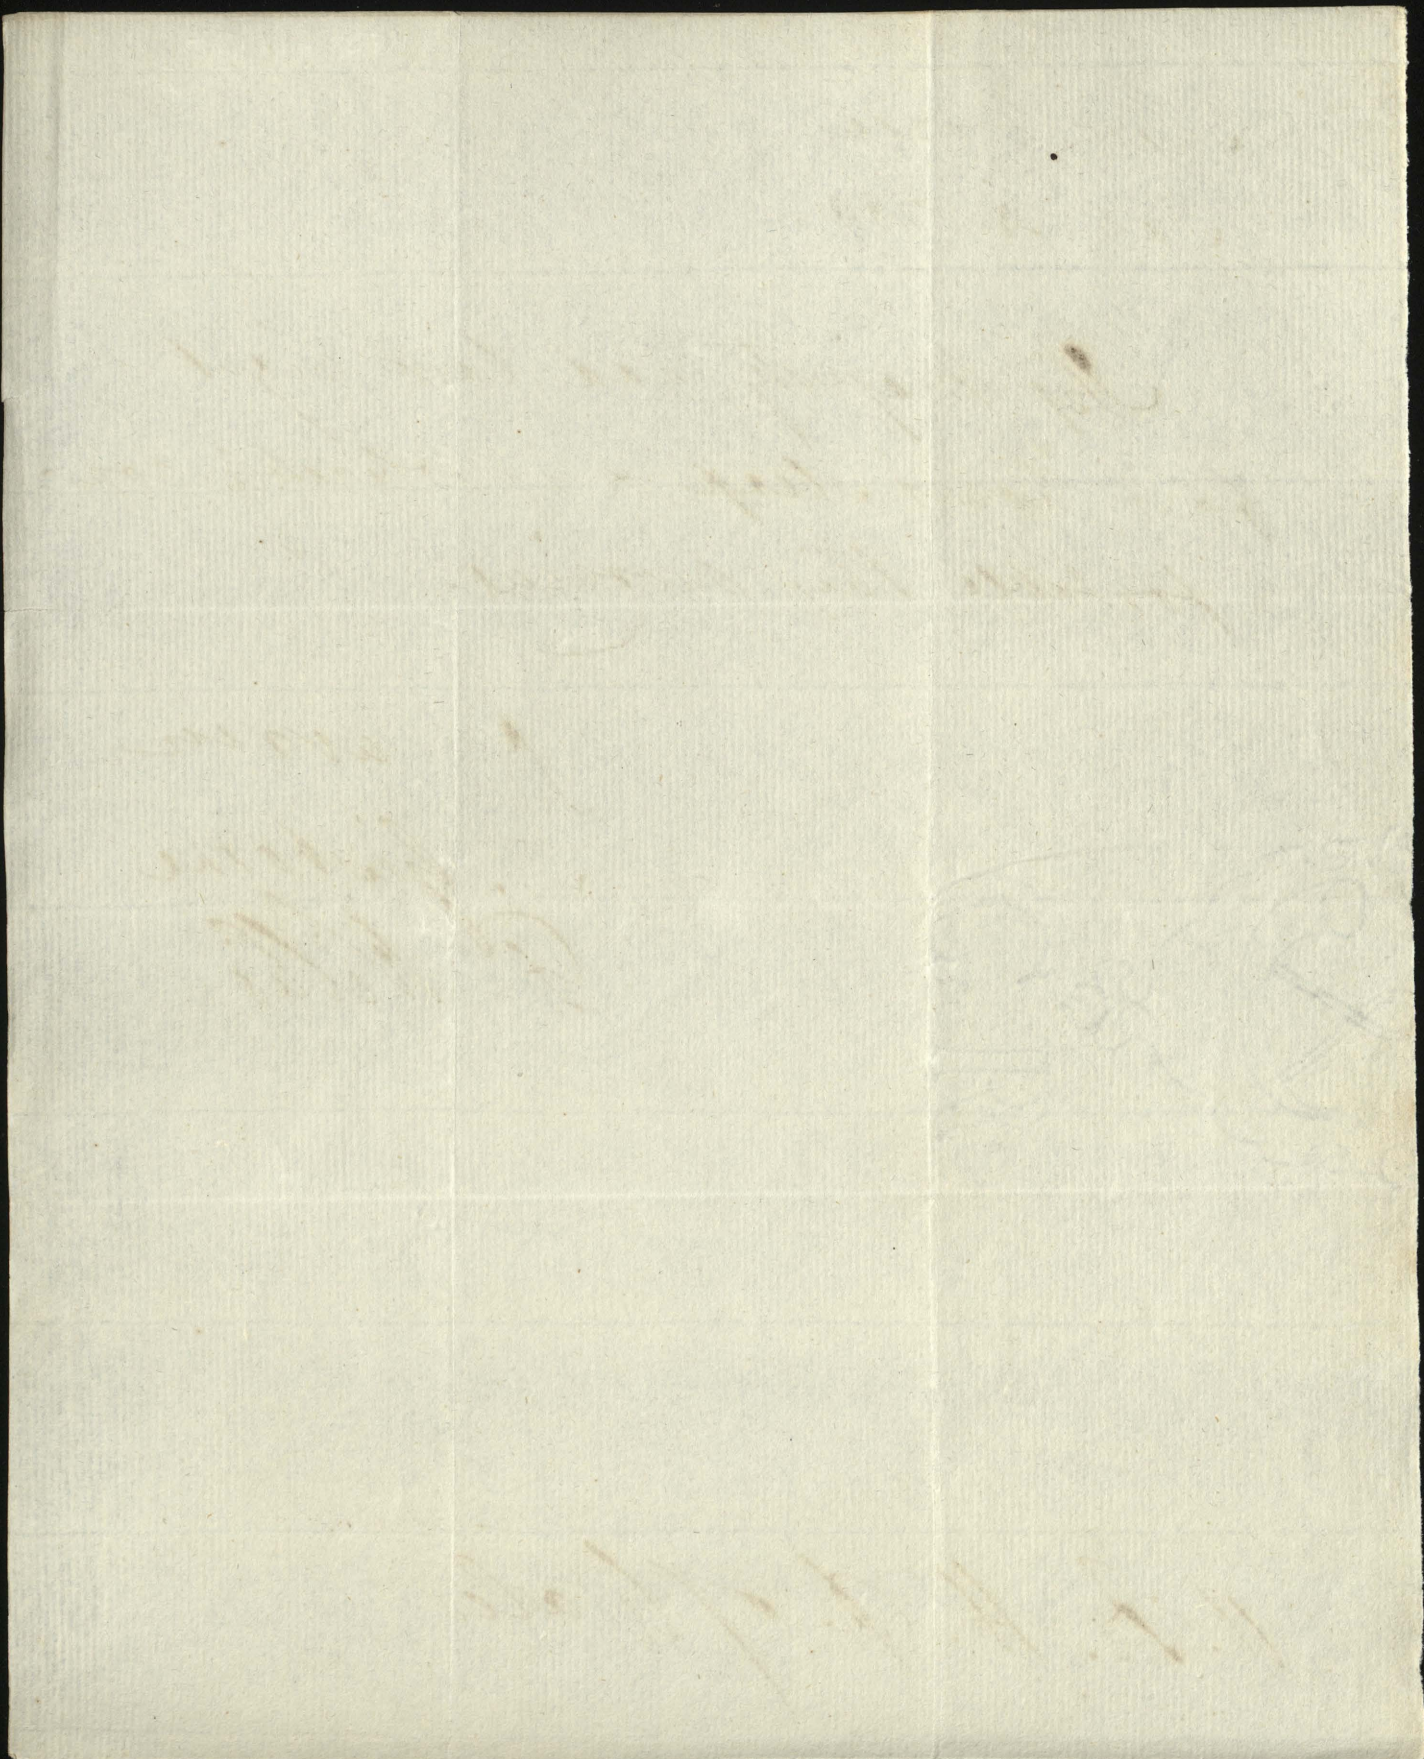

Shew House

Jan. A. 1789.

His Majesty had last night four hours sleep, & is tolerably com= fortible this morning. —

R. Warren
J. Gistone
G. Willis.

H. R. H. P. of Wales

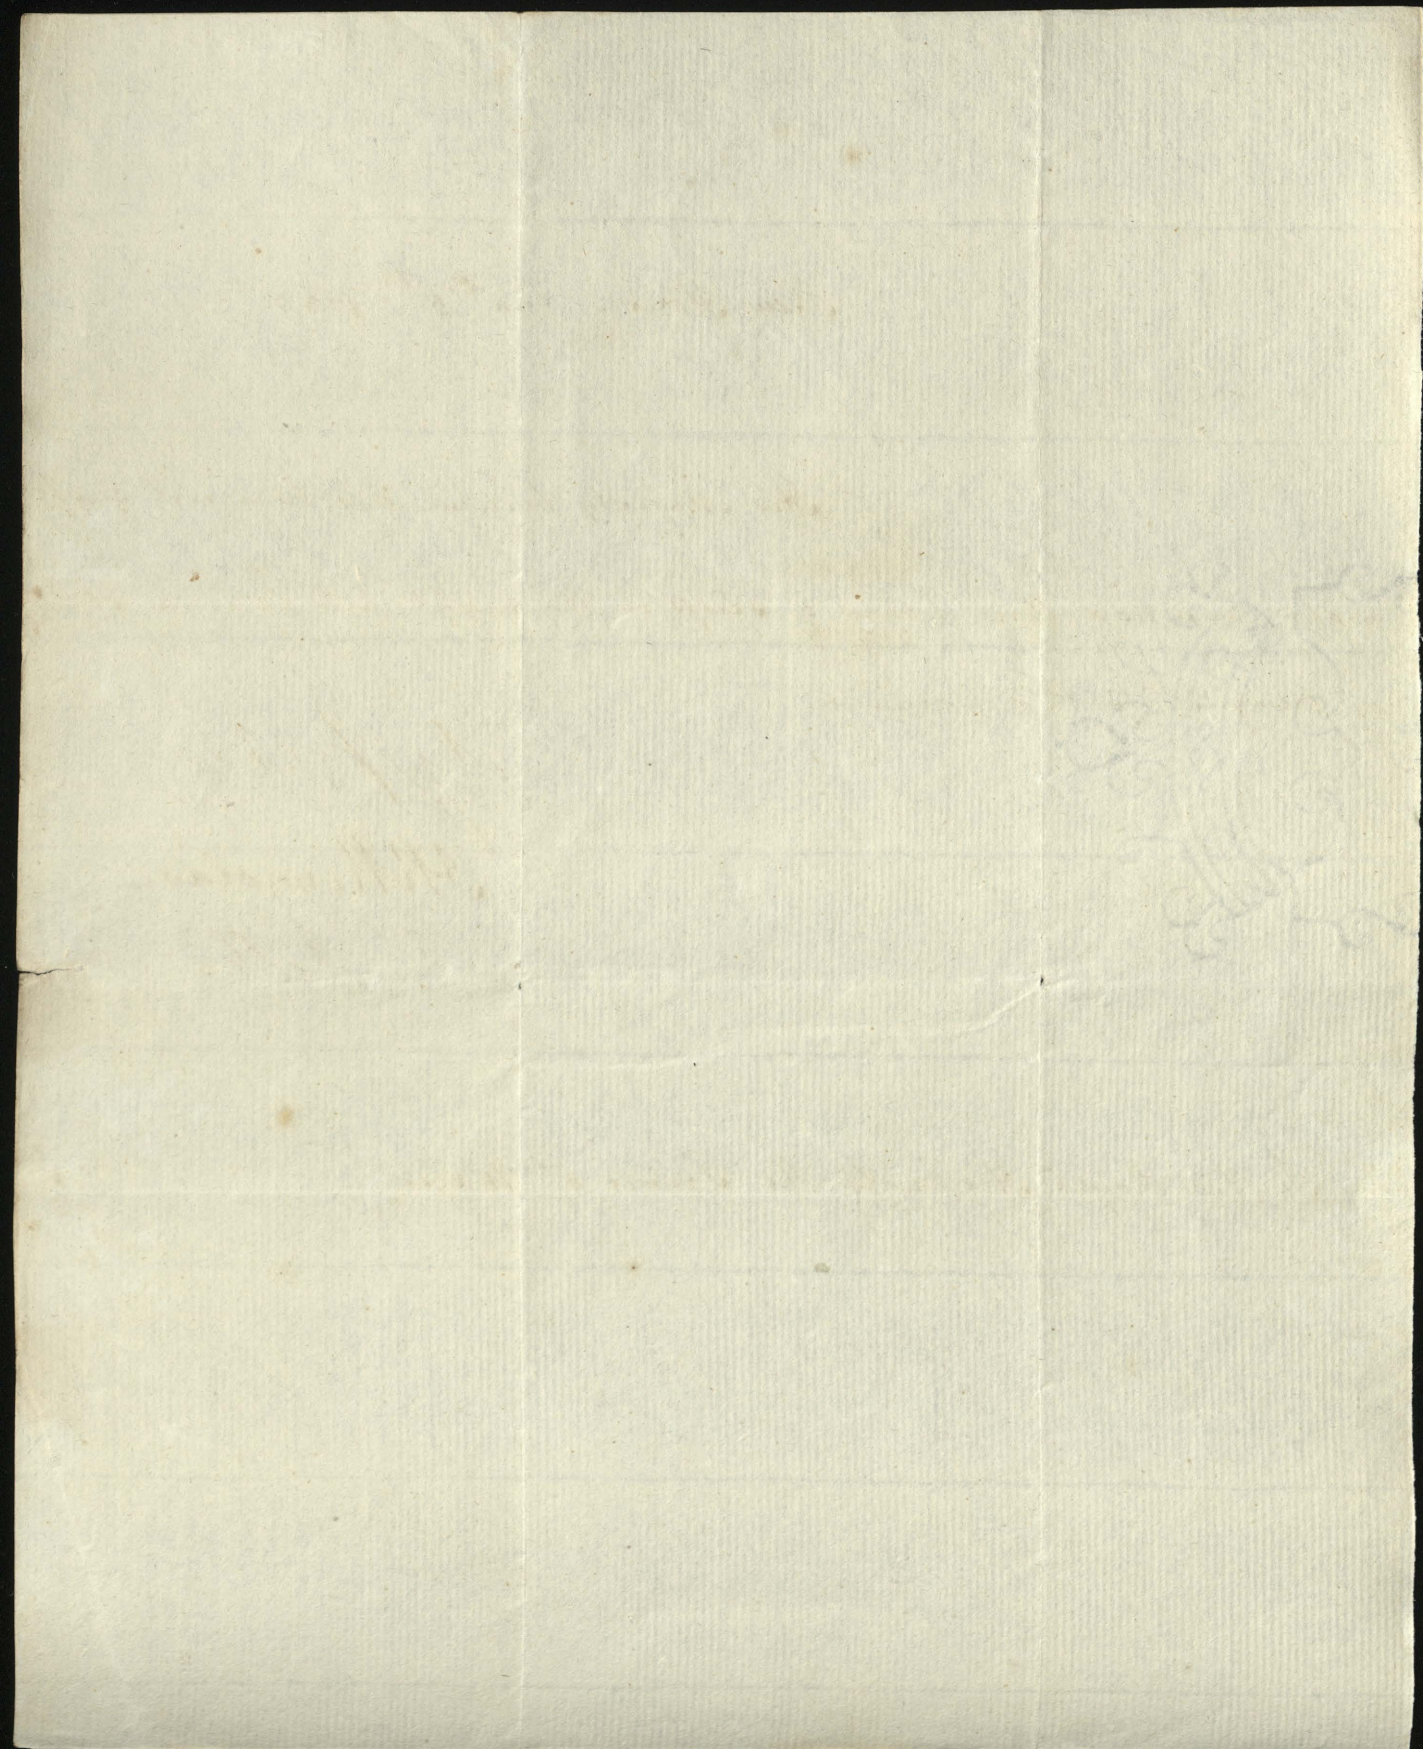

Kew House Jan. 5th 1789

His Majesty became less tranquil last night, has had three hours of sleep in the night, and is in a state of tranquillity this morning.

J. Baker
J. R. Reynolds
F. Wille's

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

11 ED 116 11 29

His Majesty was quiet Yesterday during the greatest Part of The Day, became a Little disturbed towards the evening - Has had a good Night, & is Calm this Morning.

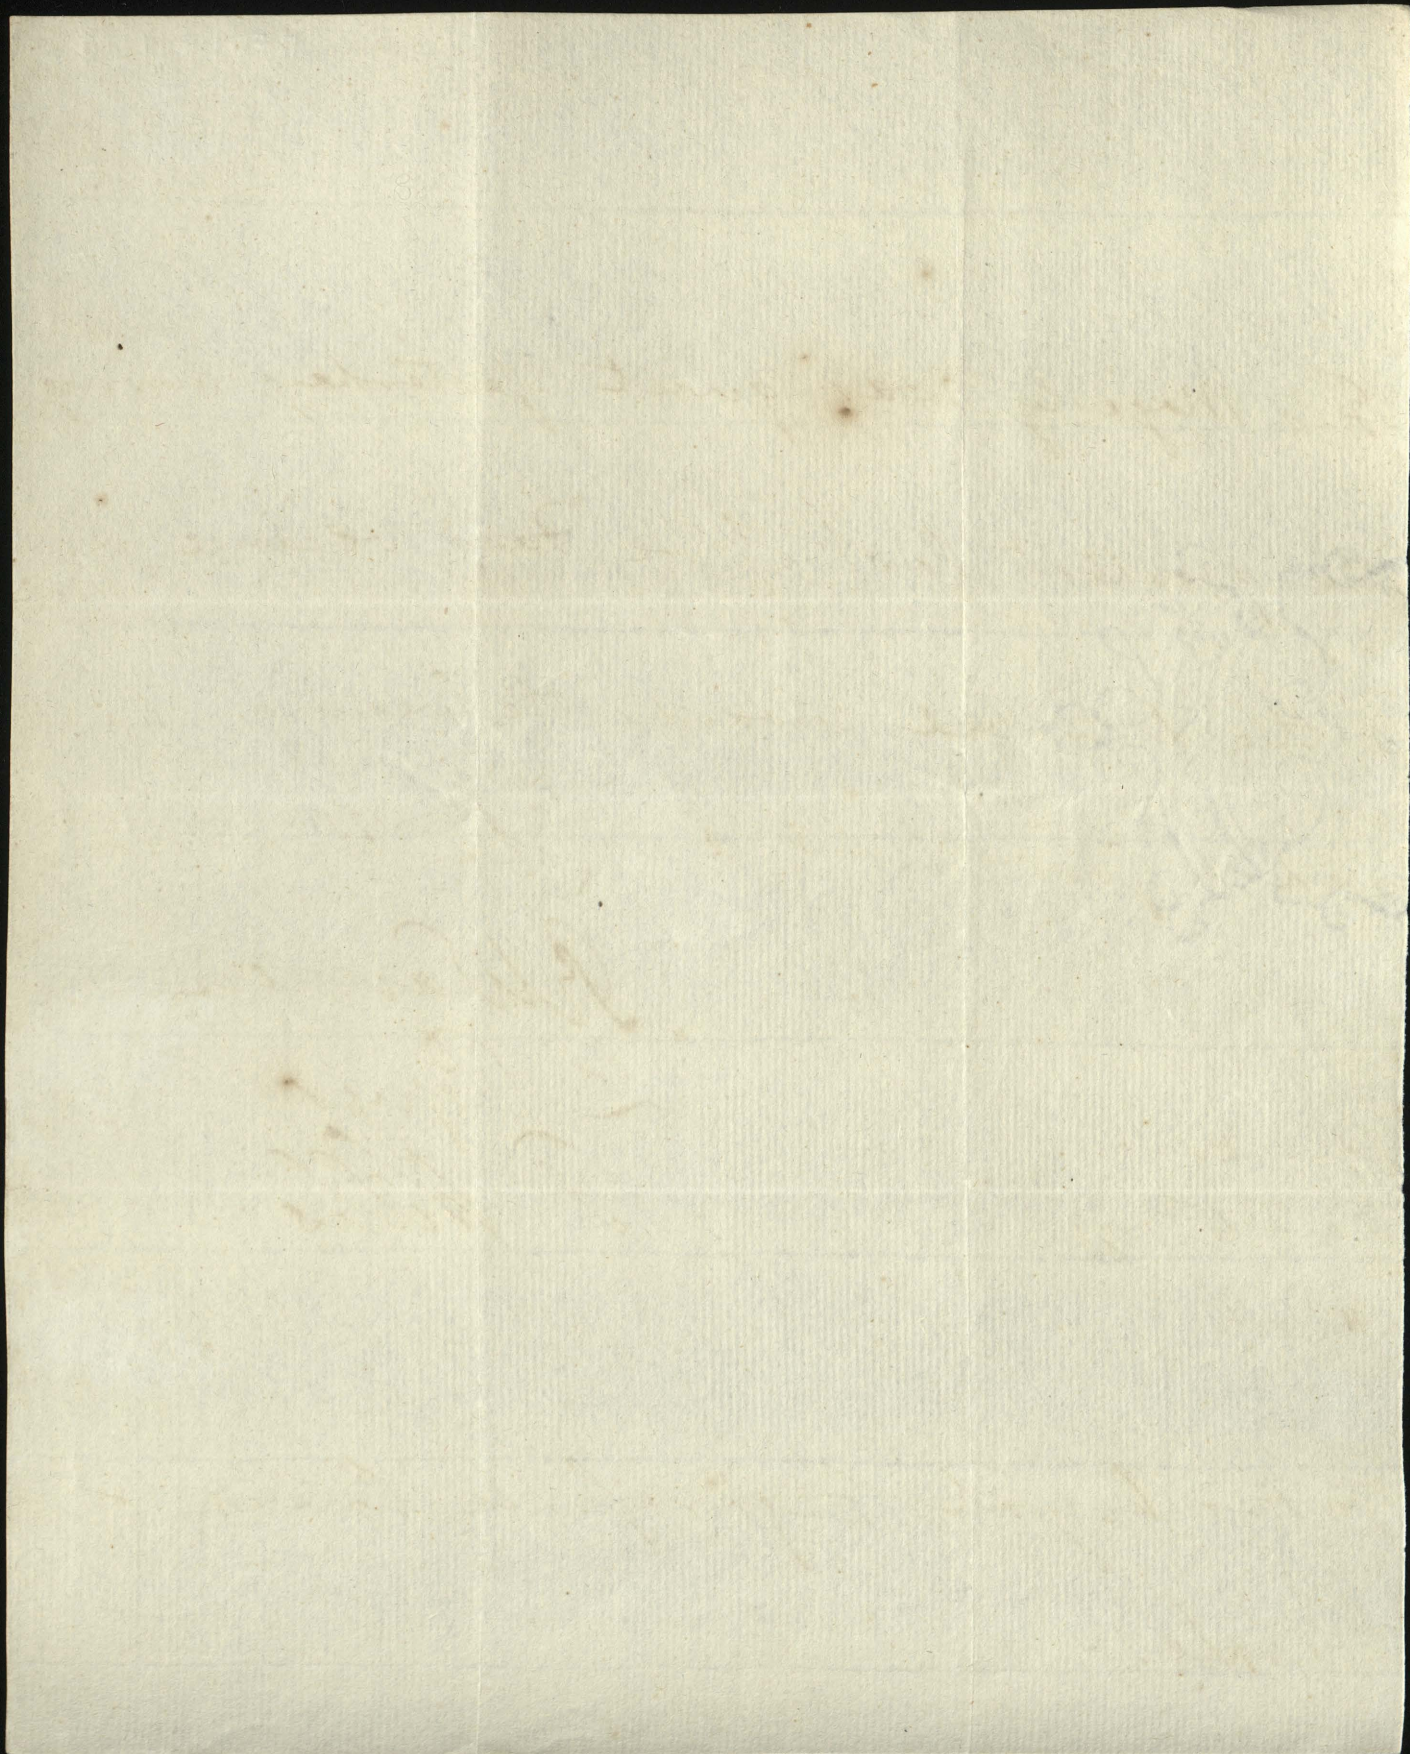

R. Warren
L. Pepys
F. Wilkes.

Kens House

Jan^y: 6th - 1788 [29]

11 o'Clock.

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. —

MS. A. 16. 1. 30

His Majesty has had a good night, & is quiet this morning.

New-House,

7 Jan. 1789,

for in the morning.

S. Baker
J. Gibbons

To His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales

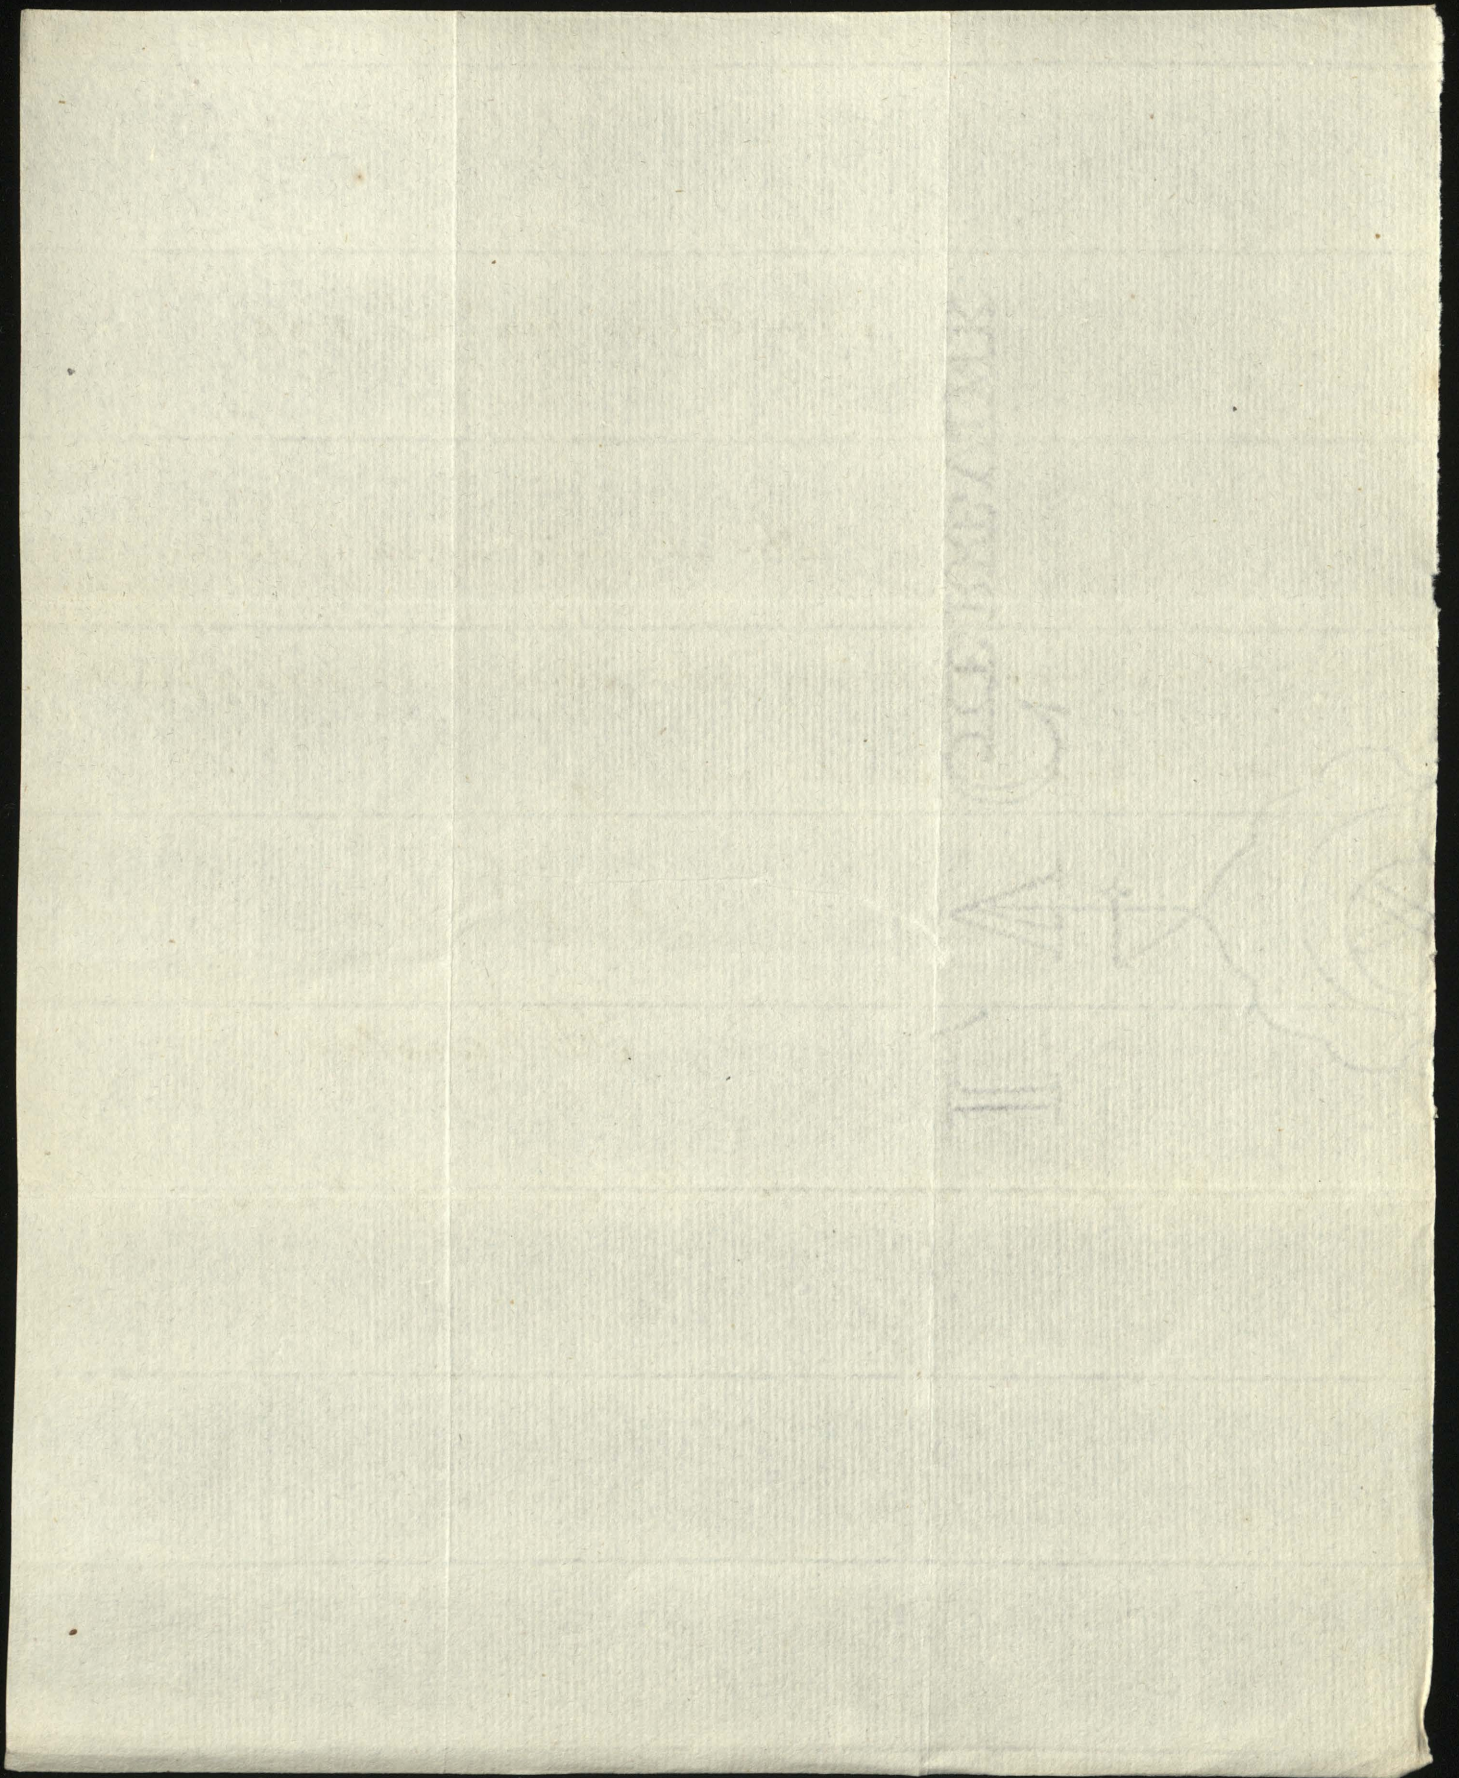

New House Jan. 8th 1789

His Majesty passed yesterday very calmly, had had very little sleep in the night, but was quiet, and is so this morning.

J. Warren

J. Reynolds

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

His Majesty passed the Day Quietly Yesterday, was very Composed in the Evening, has had a good Night,
 & is Calm this Morning. —

G. Baker.

L. Pepys.

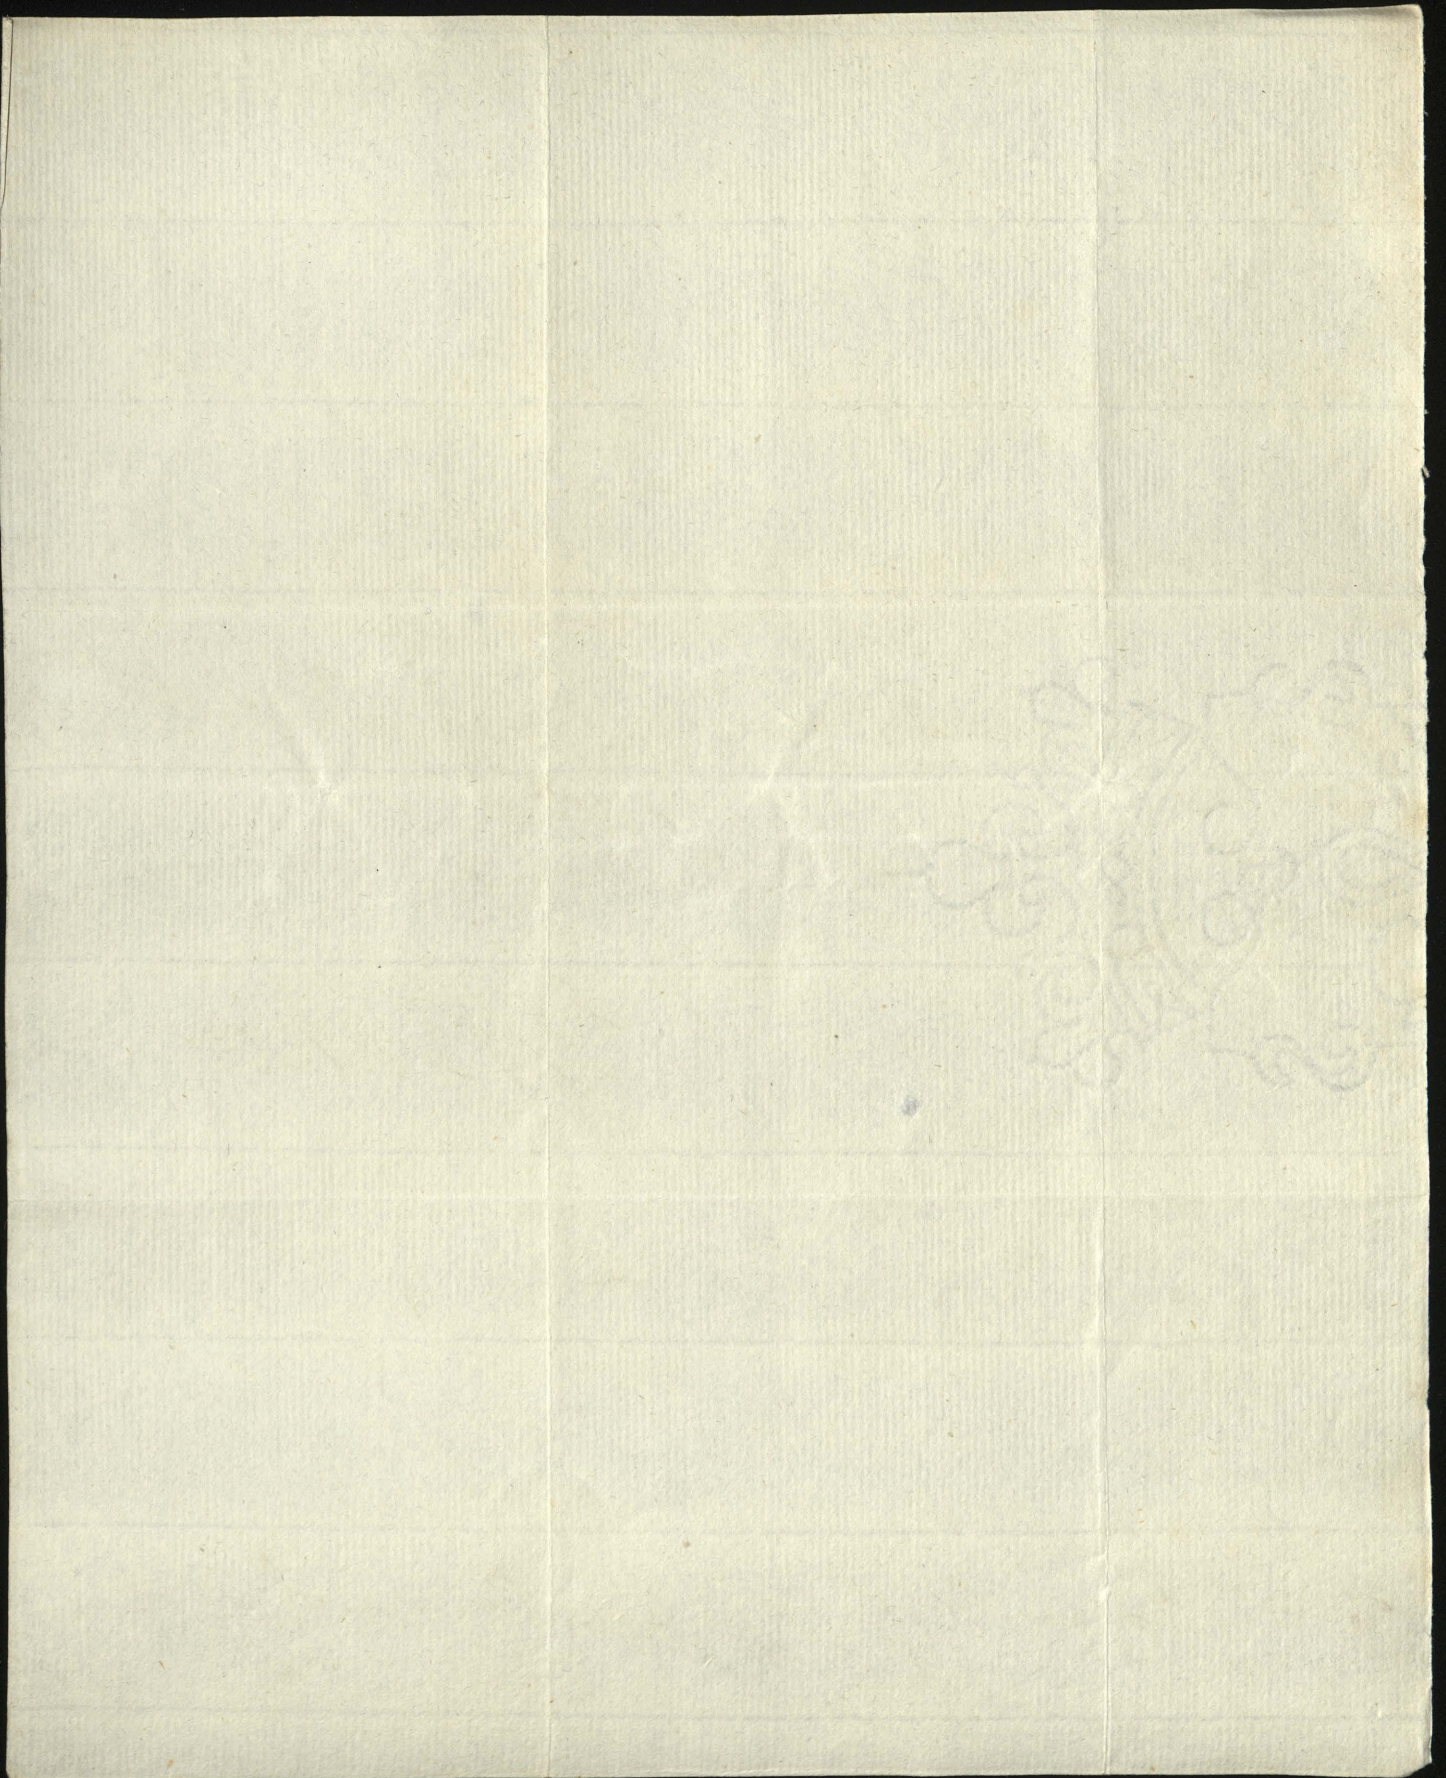

Ken. House

Jan^{ry} 9th —

1789

10^o Clock;

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

SH

In the absence of my Father
I have the honour to inform your Royal Highness that His Majesty has had a very good night with six hours sleep; & upon the whole has passed the two or three last days in a more collected & rational way than I have seen before. I have the honour to be

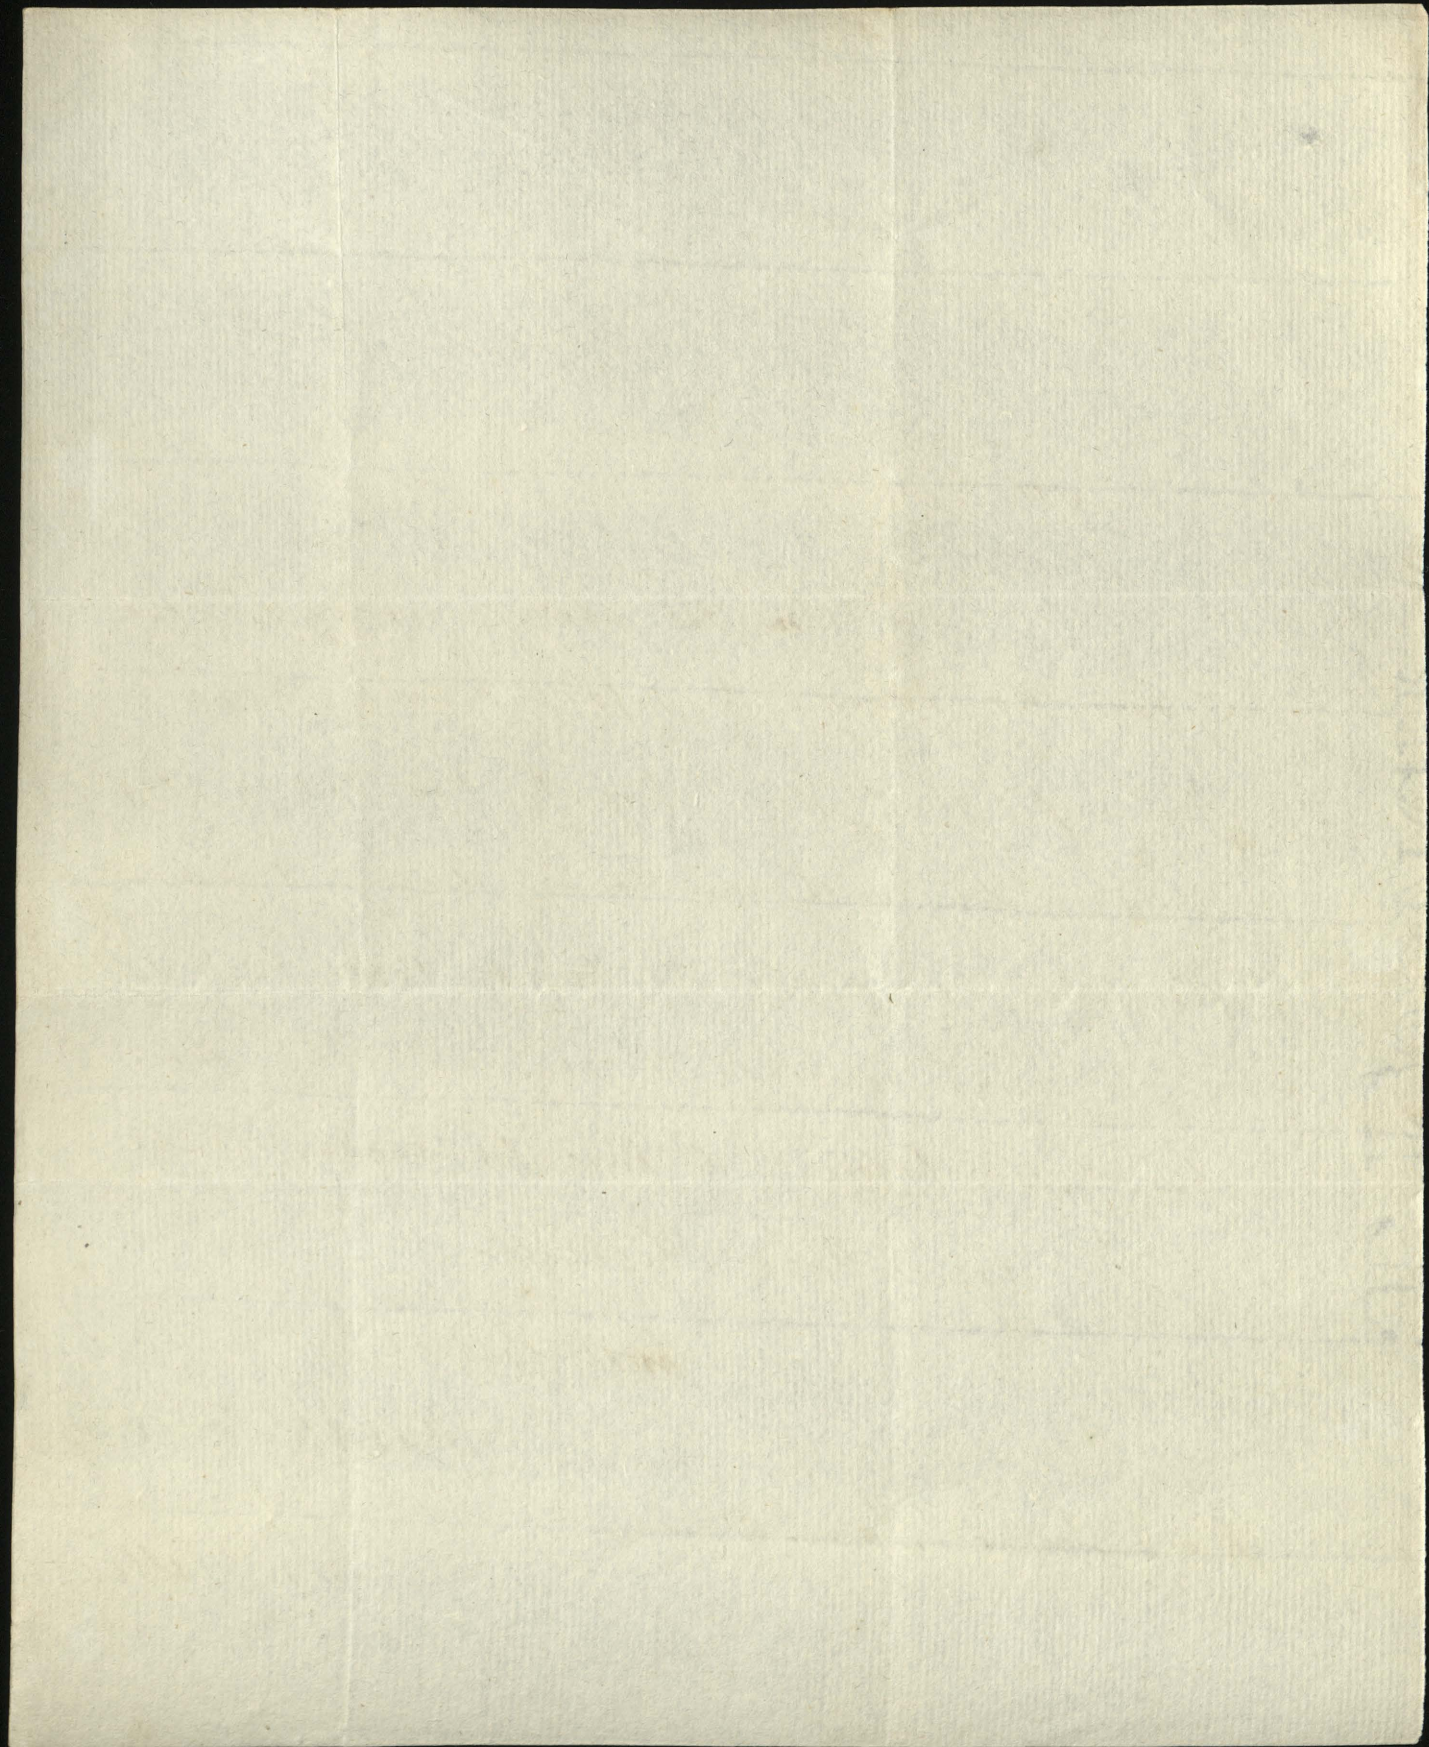

Sir, your Royal Highness's

most obedient

Humble Servant

New House Jan. 9.

J. Willis

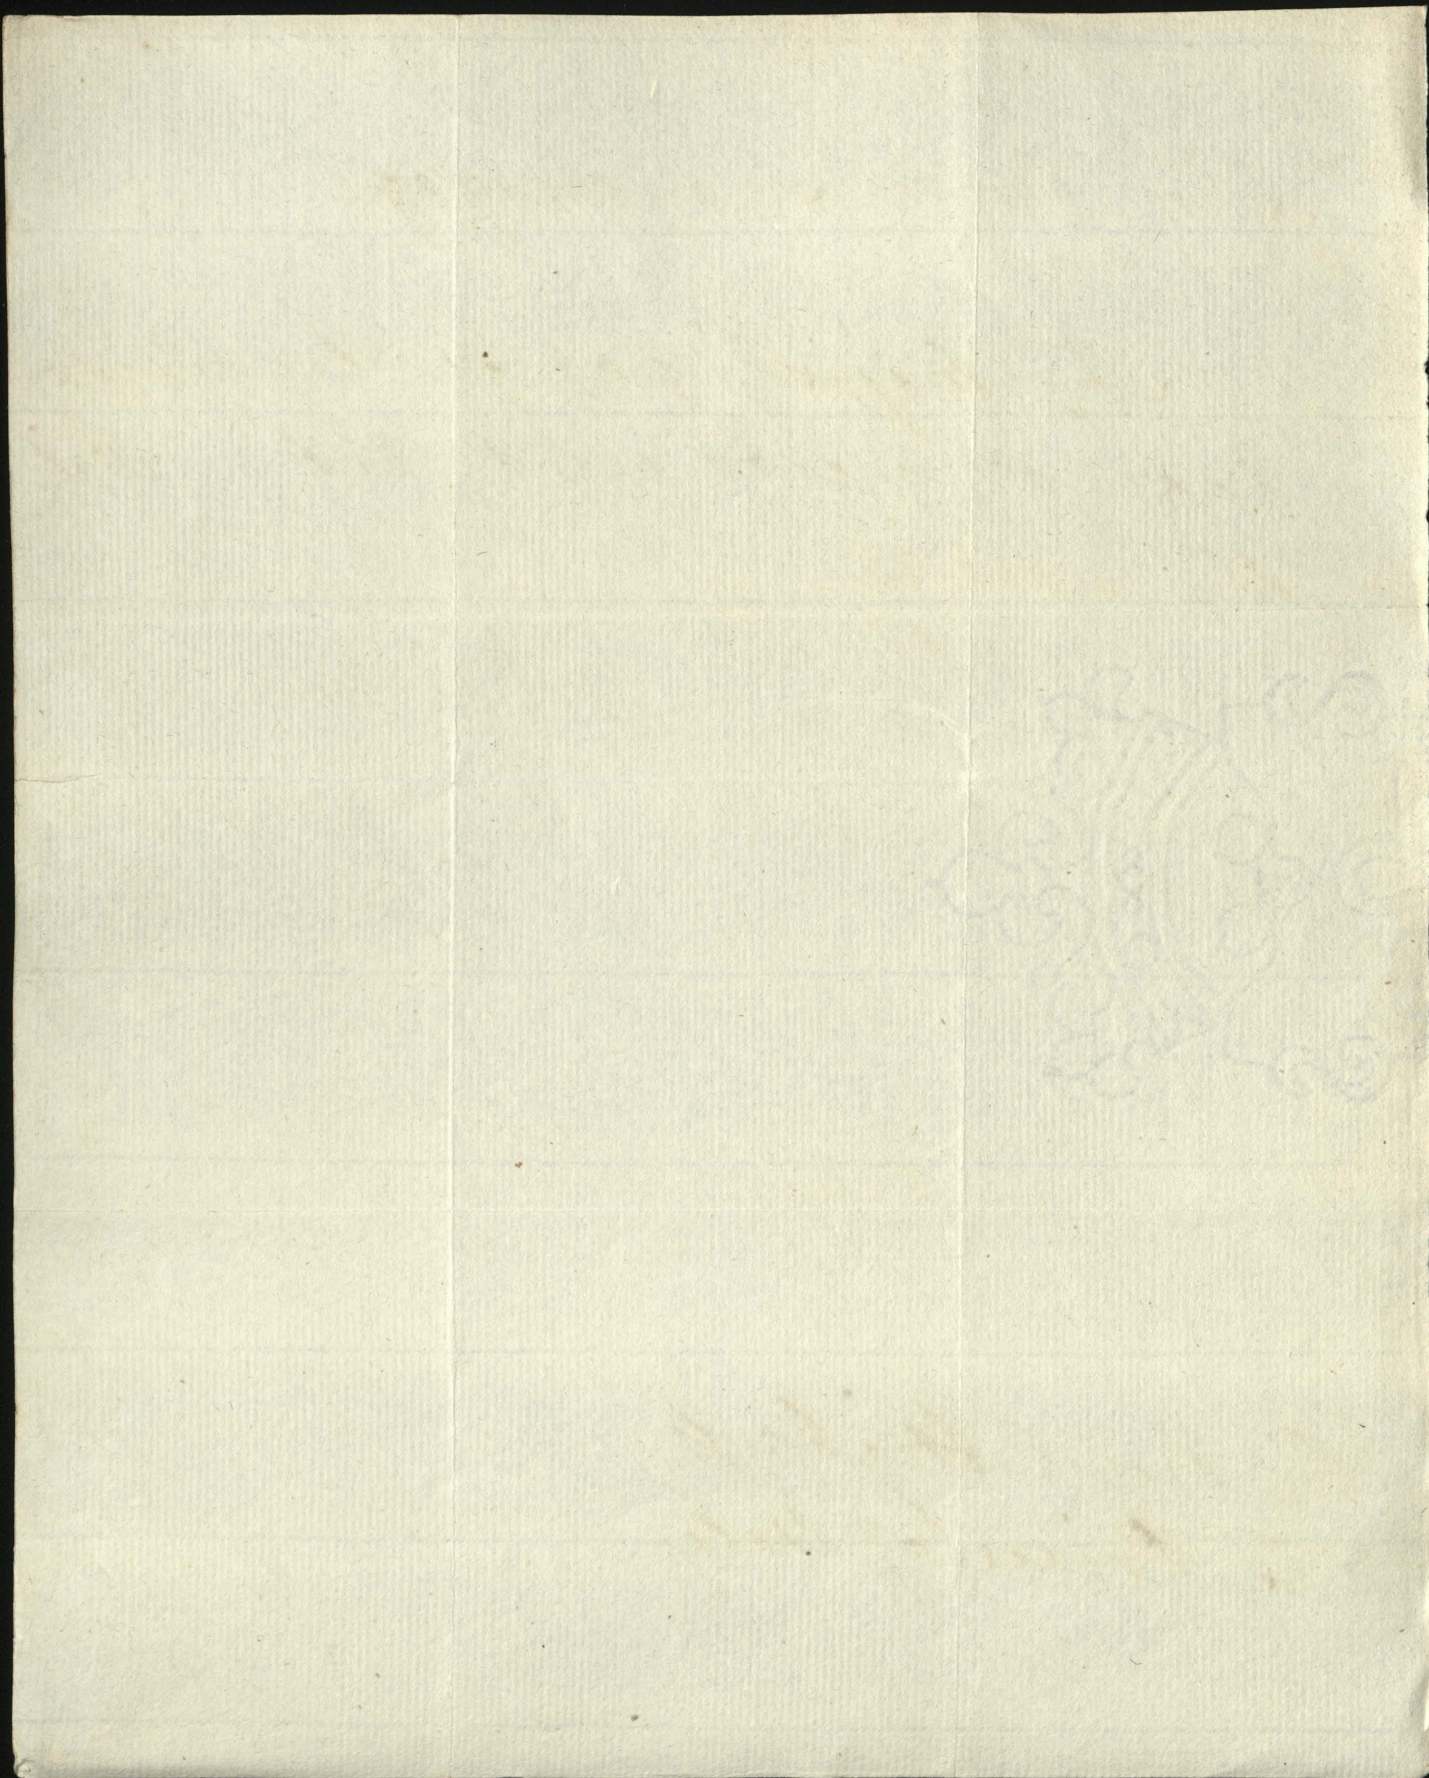

Stew House, Jan. 10. 1789.

His Majesty was quiet yesterday,
had not a good night, but is quiet this morning.

R. Warren

His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales.

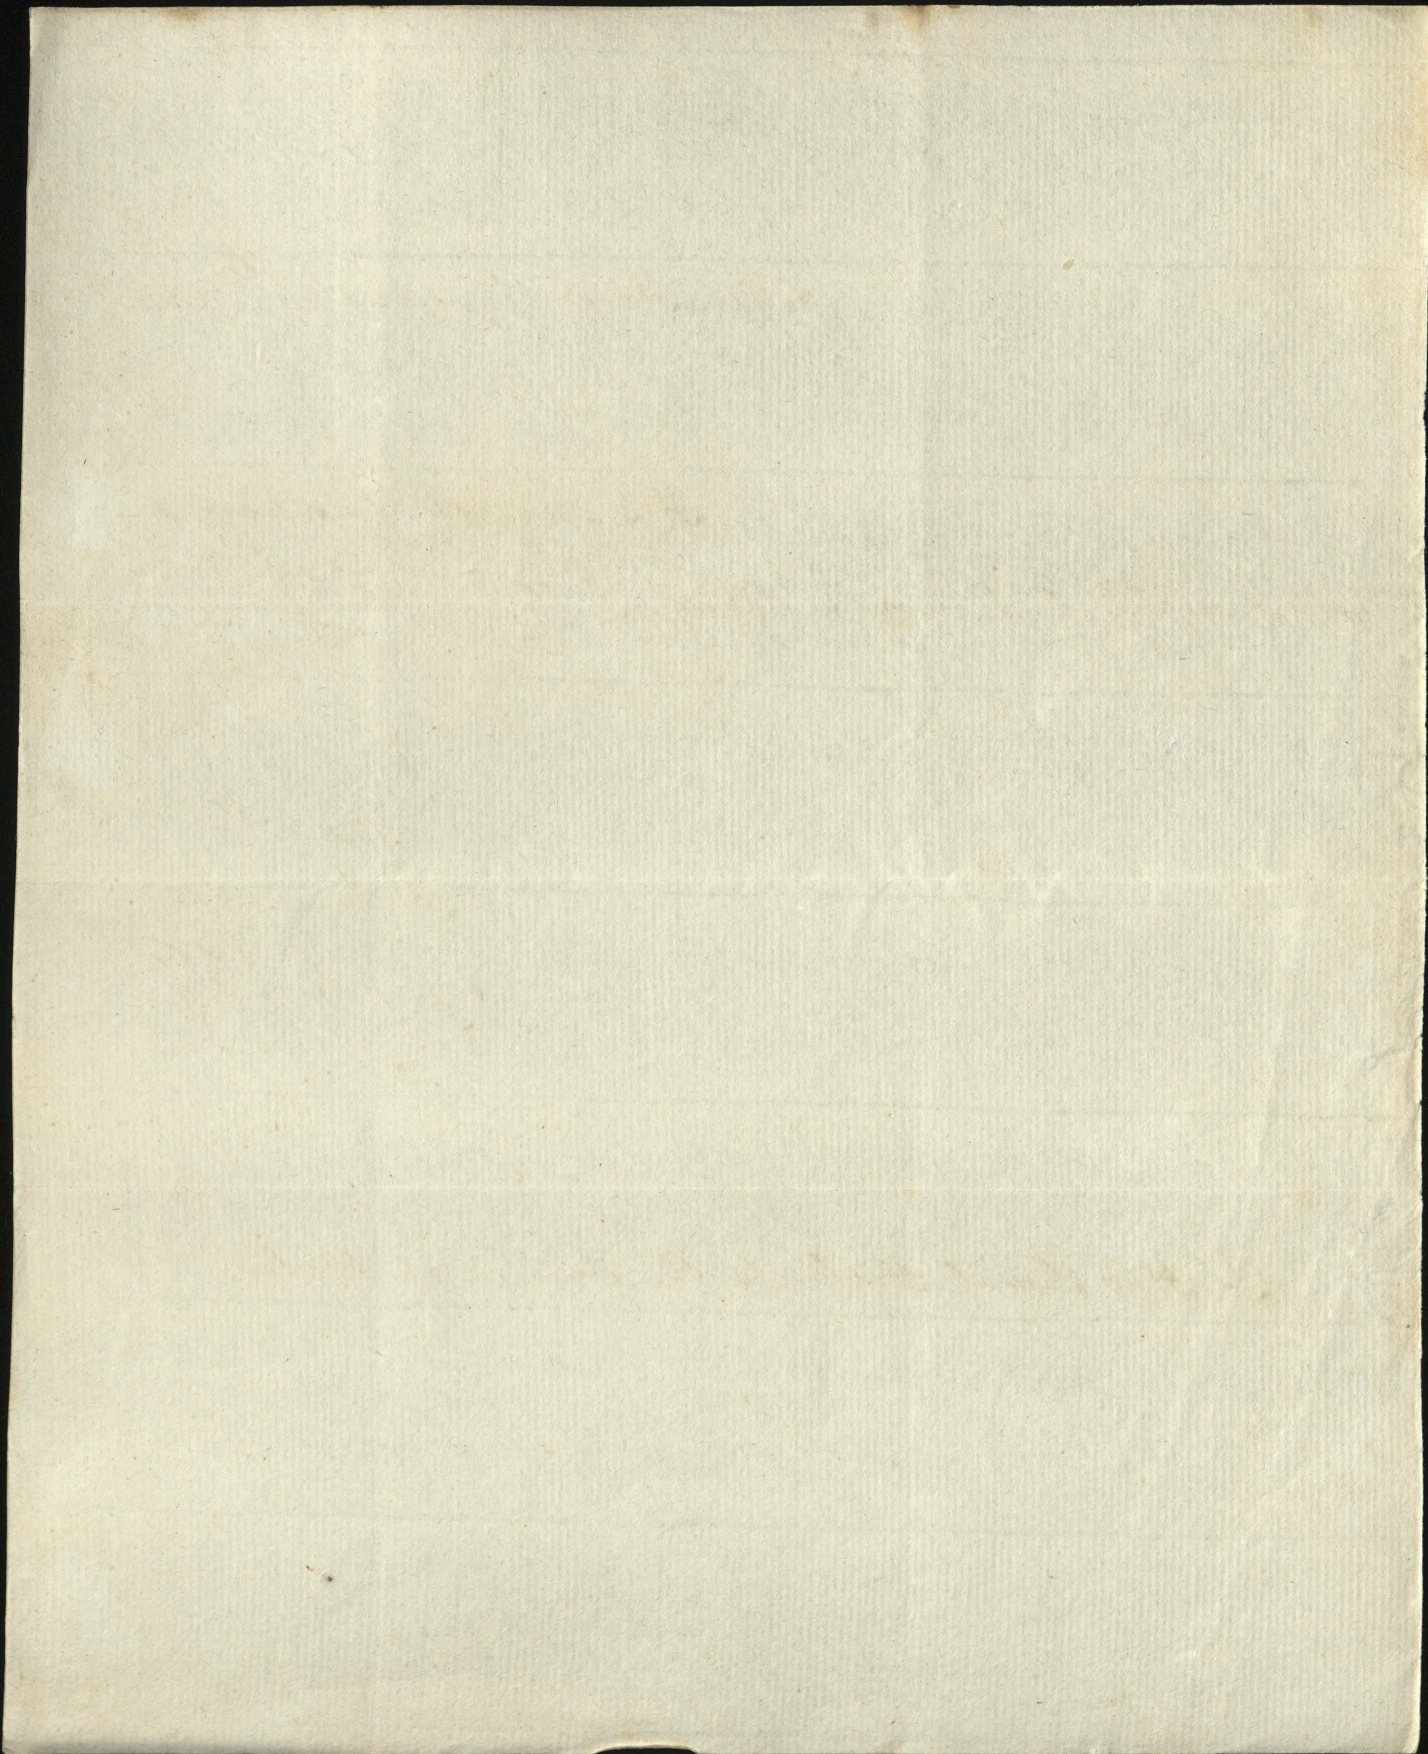

New House January 11th 1789.

His Majesty has had a restless night, but is more tranquil this morning.

W Baker
J Reynolds
G. Willis

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

His Majesty had some Sleep at Intervals last Night, and is quieter than he was Yesterday.

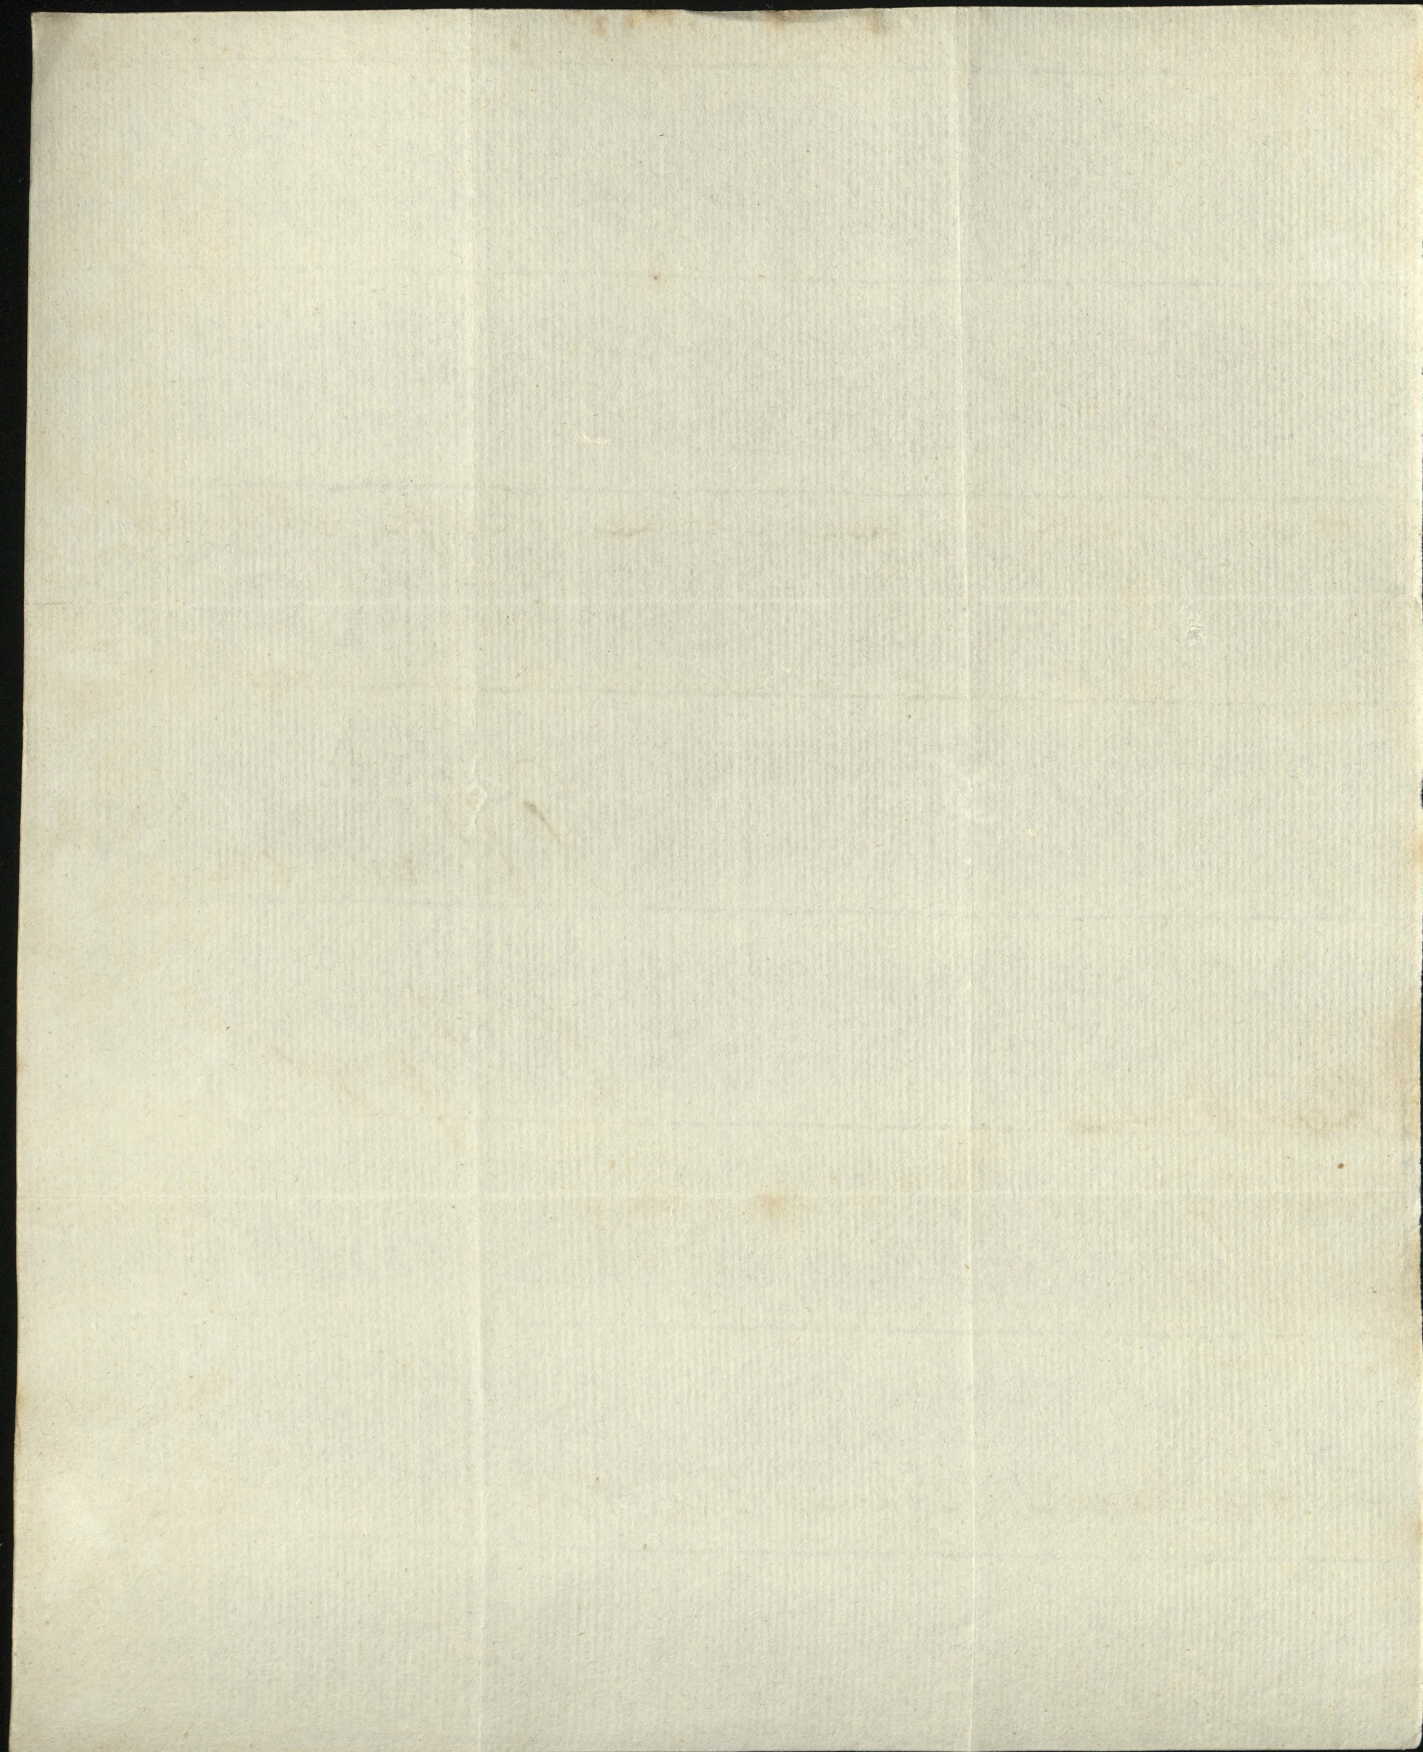

R. Warren

L. Pepys.

St. James's House

Jan: 12th - 1789

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

His Majesty has had seven hours & a half of continued sleep, & is not unquiet this morning.

G. Baker
 J. Gisborne

Stew House
 Jan. 13. 1789.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Sir!

The attendance on the Committee of the House of Commons prevented my doing myself the honore of writing to your Royal Highness the latter end of last week, but I told my son to write on Friday, I came out this morning so early that I forgot to speak to him about it, Therefore take the liberty to write from hence to acquaint your Royal Highness that his Majesty was much disturb'd on Saturday night, owing I think, as his Majesty said it was, to his not being permitted to see the Queen as I had promised his Majesty he should. His Majesty has been gradually calmer ever since, has been more sensible of himself & his situation, slept on Sunday afternoon about an hour & twenty minutes, three hours on Sunday night, was calm & undisturbed & well employ'd most part of yesterday, went to bed in my presence very calmly & sensibly a quarter before eleven, & slept as I was inform'd this morning from a quarter past eleven last night to a quarter before seven this morning, & soon after waking his Majesty wept very much.

His Majesty's sleep was a natural one having taken nothing to promote it.

His Majesty complains much of his eating & sleeping in the same room, & the great room is too cold for his Majesty to spend any time in. A large Sharp's grate might possibly make the great room comfortable to sit in, which hint I sent up to his Majesty last night.

I have the honour to be

Sir! Your Royal Highness's
most devoted humble servant

Committee Room

P. Willis

Jan. 13. 1798

His Majesty's Physician
Jan'y 13. 1709

New House Jan^y 14th 1789.

His Majesty has had three hours sleep in the night, at intervals, and is not unquiet this morning.

R. Ward m

J. Reynolds.

F. Willis

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

MS. A. 1. 6. 1. 140

His Majesty has had Four Hours Sleep, passed the remainder of the Night Quietly, but is not Calm this Morning.

G. Baker

L. Pepys
F. Willis

Kew House

Jan: 15th - 1789

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales

Theob House Jan. 16. 1789.

His Majesty was very quiet yesterday in the evening, has had four hours & a half of sleep, & is this morning as he was at the same time yesterday.

R Warren
J Gishorn
F. Wilks

To His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales.

SECRET

SECRET

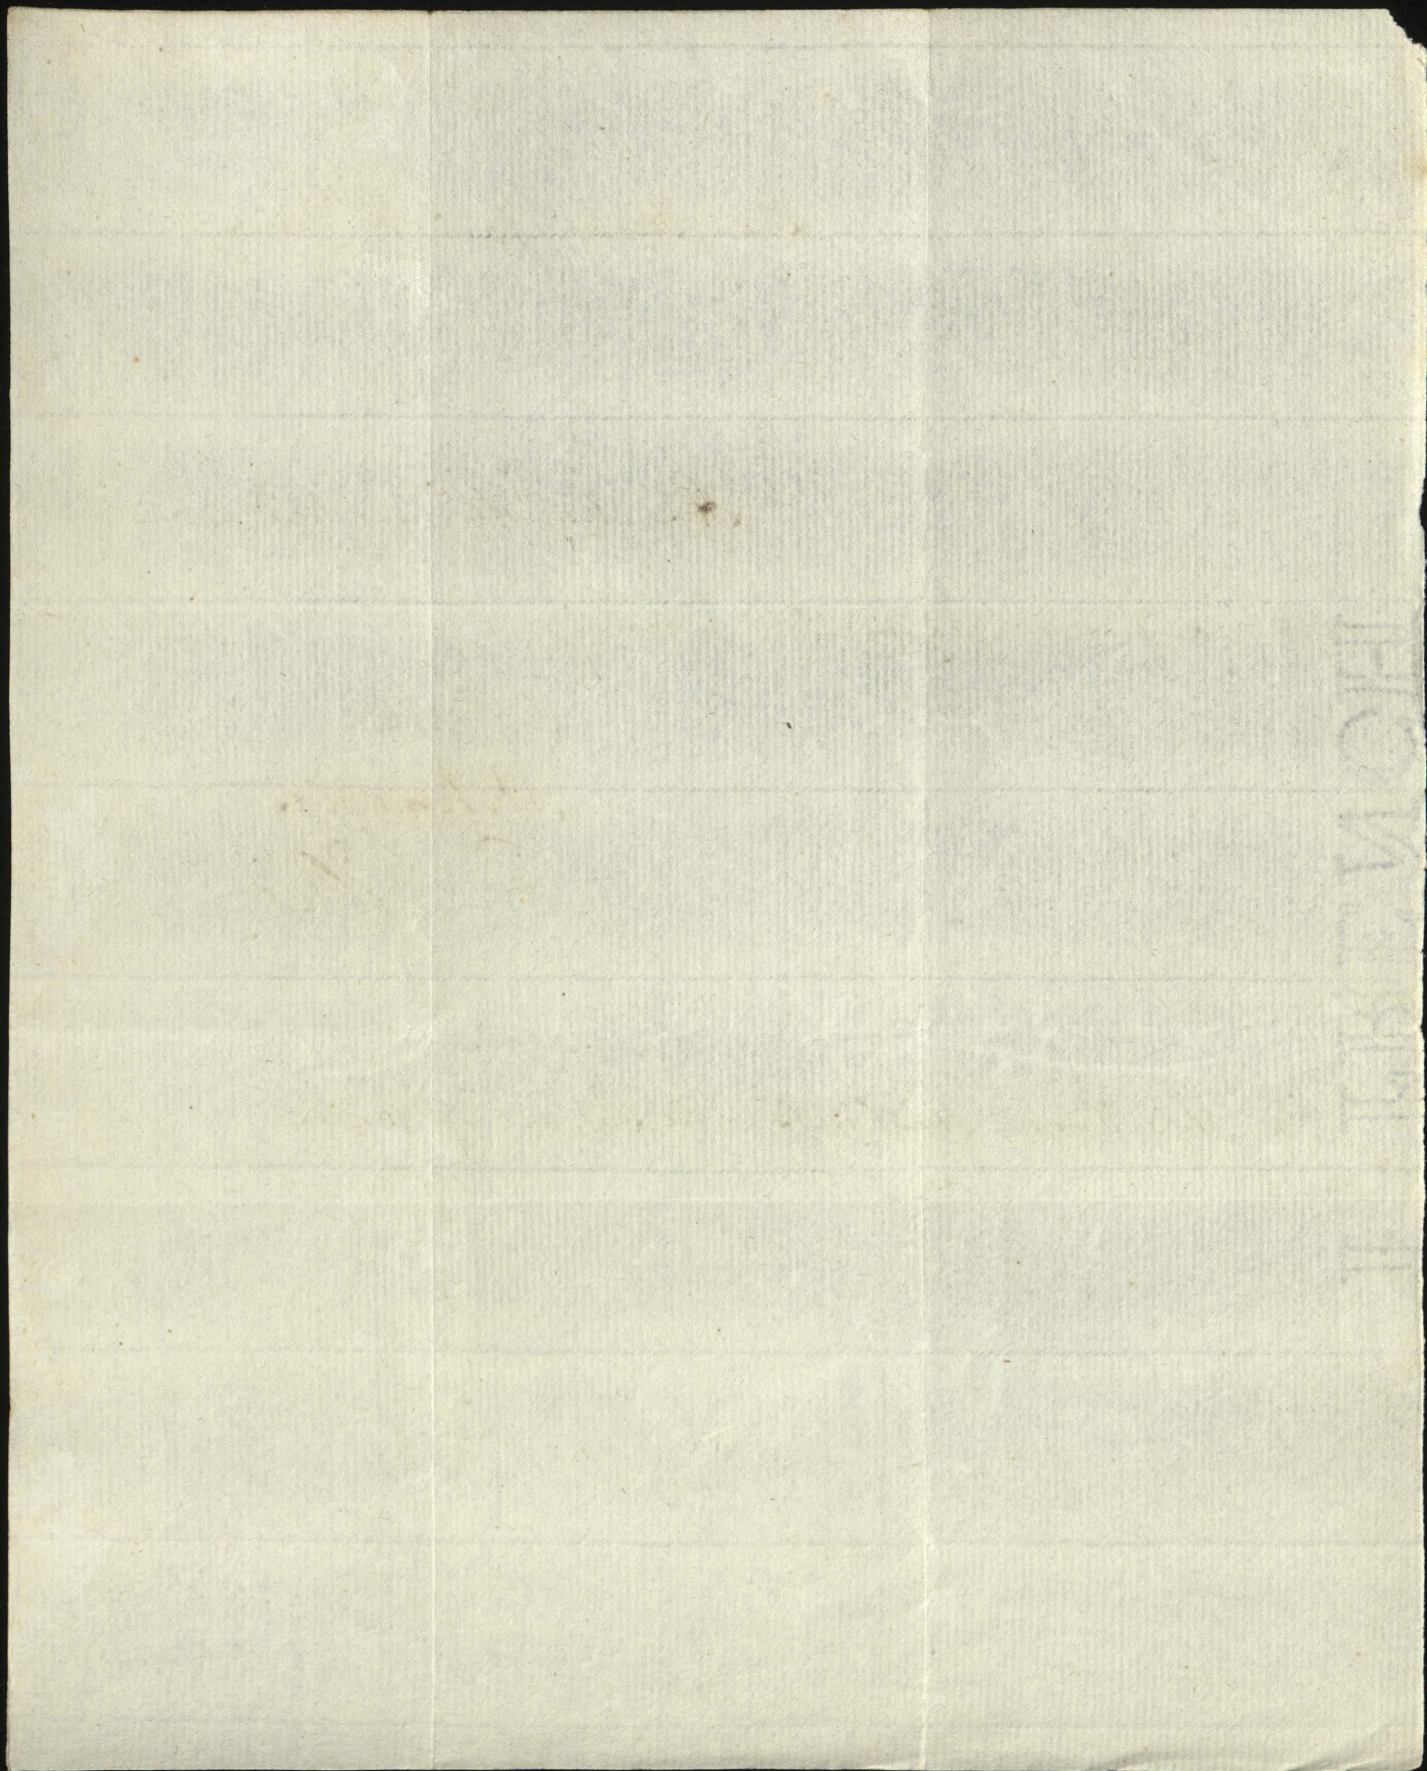

New House Jan^y. 17th. 1789.

His Majesty has had a restless night, and is not calm this morning.

By Baker
 J. Reynolds.
 F. Willis

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales

MSO 116/1/43

His Majesty became Calm before Noon Yesterday, & was remarkably Composed during the rest of The Day. His Majesty has Slept Seven Hours but is as Usual this Morning.
R Warren

Lew House

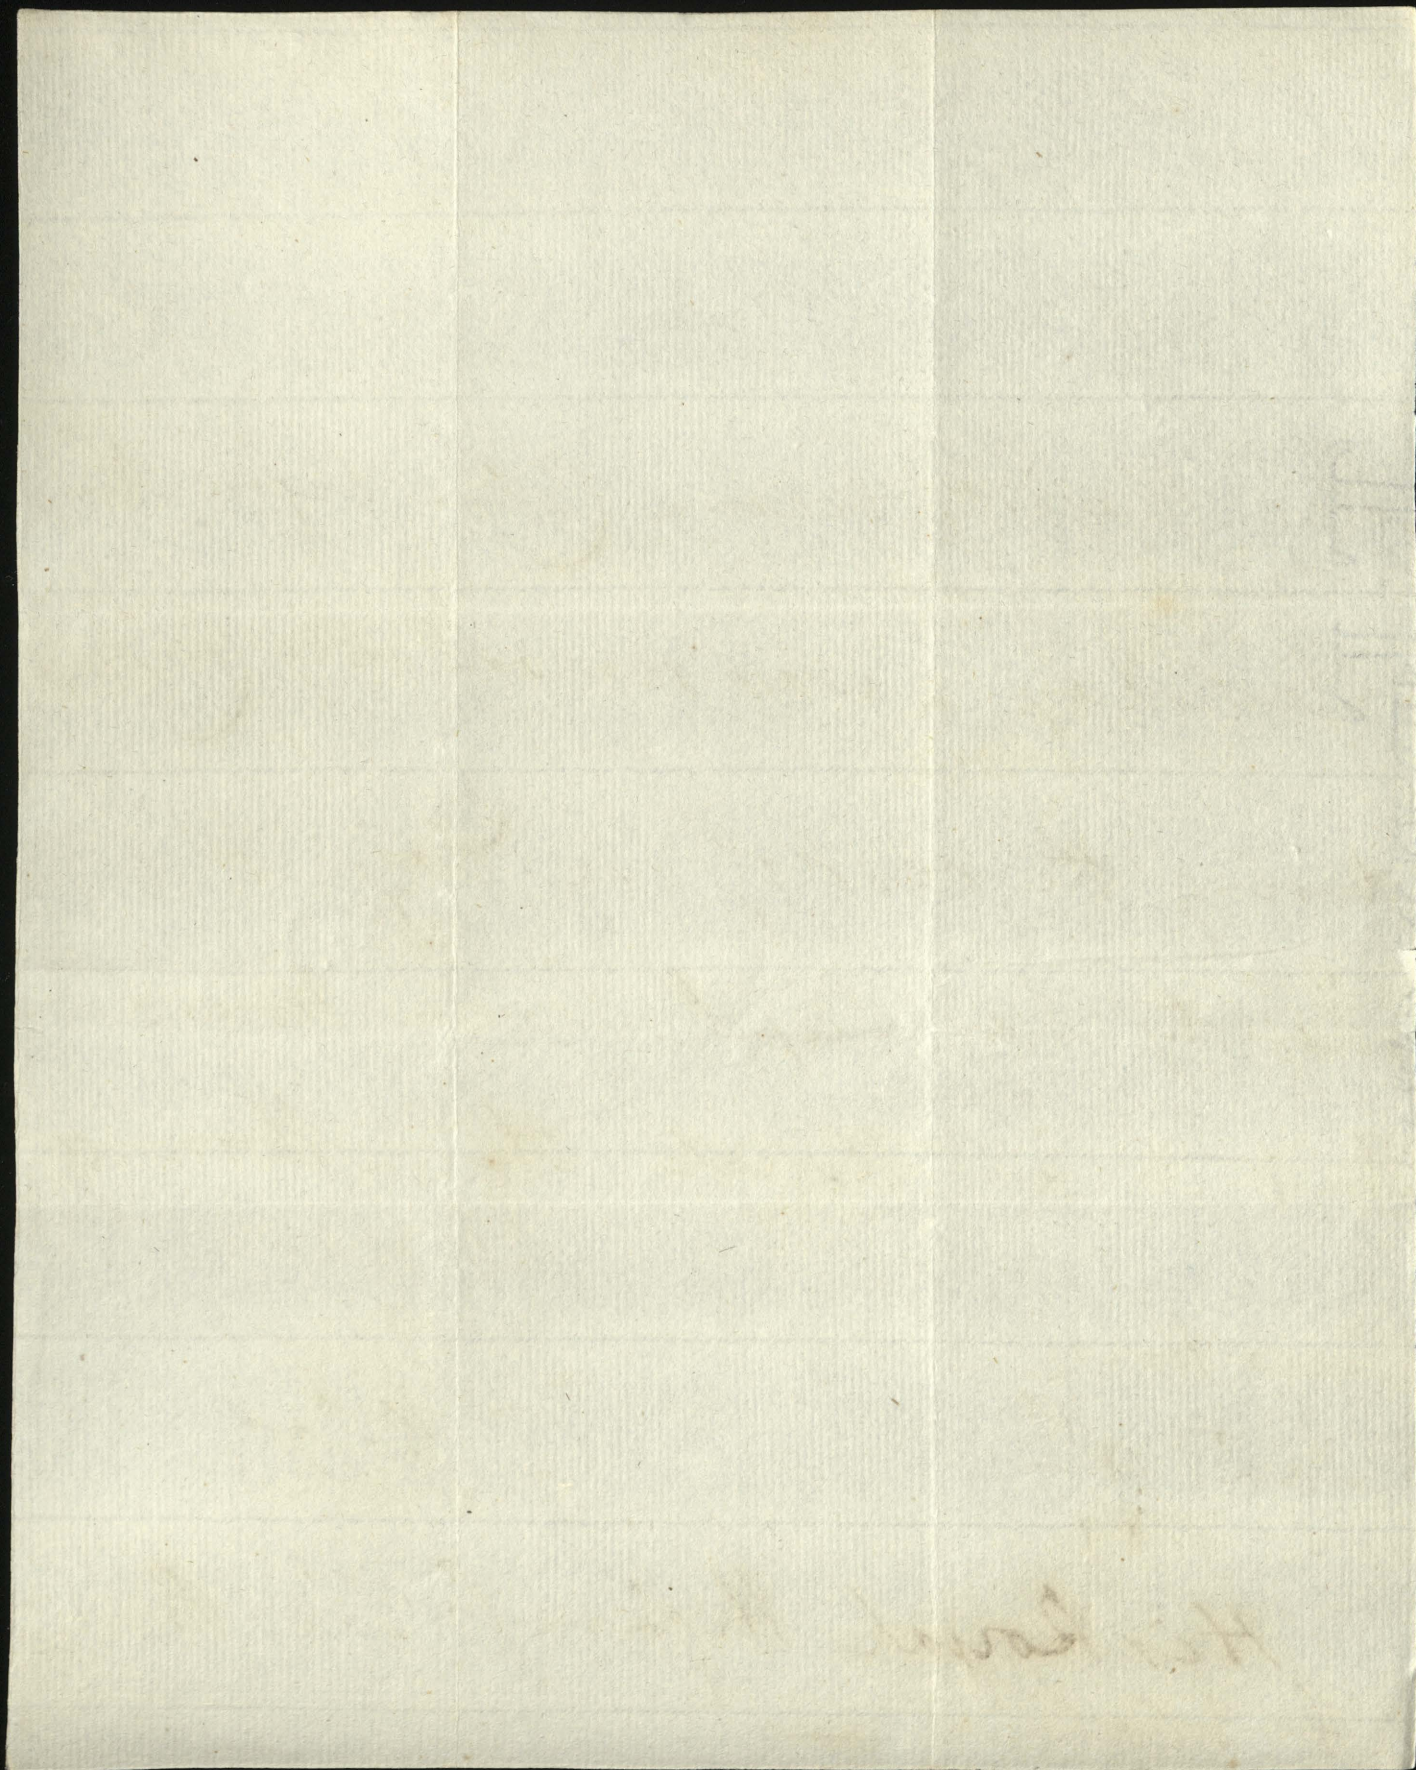

Jan: 18th -

1789

L. Pepys

F. Willis

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. —

Sir!

I have the honour to inform
your Royal Highness that his Majesty was much disturb'd on Thursday night took a vomit in the morning which operated very easily, reciev'd the Queen & the three elder Princesses very affectionately, behav'd with great propriety for an hour & twenty minutes, & then took leave very rationally; the emetic soon after operated pretty much &

Disturb'd His Majesty which seem'd to cause him to have a very bad night, however ^{He} lay very calmly for three hours in the morning & got up & was better the whole day than I have ever seen him.
His Majesty slept last night seven hours, but is not so compos'd as he was yesterday. I have the honore to be Sir ^{off} Royal Highness, most devoted & very humble servt

P. Mills

Kew-House
Jan. 18. 1789

R. B. J. forgot to mention to Mr Royal Highness that the Queen was with his Majesty at home yesterday in the Evening, & his Majesty show'd very proper affection towards her

His Majesty's Physician

Jan 10th 1709

TED/16/1/45

His Majesty passed the greater part of yesterday in a state of composure, had a restless night, and is calm this morning

Kew- House,

19 Jan. 1759

ten in the morning.

N. Baker.

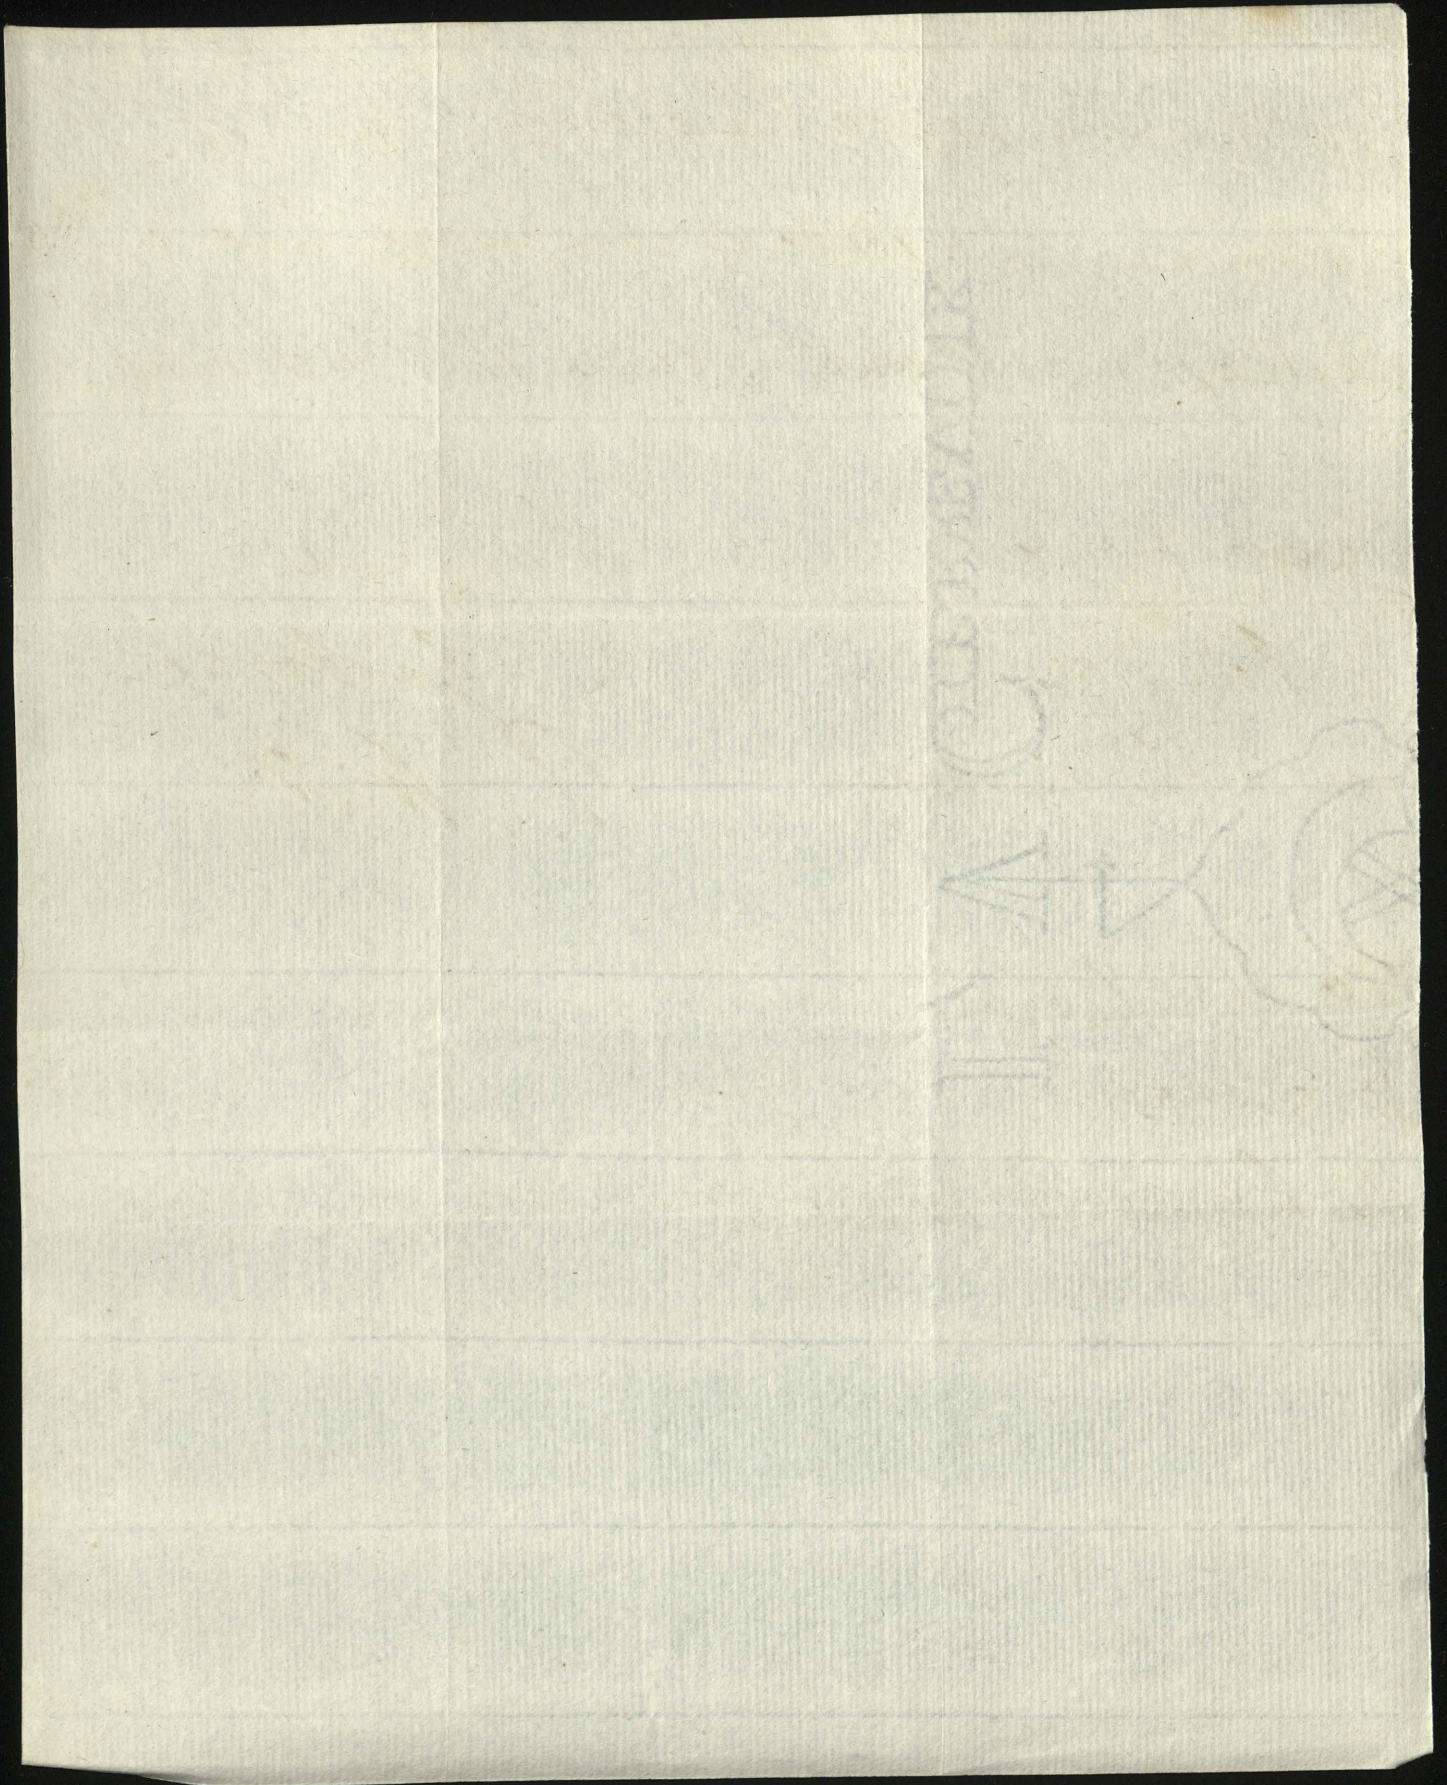

J. Gibson

P. Willis

To His Royal

Highness

The Prince of Wales

RED 16/1/46

New House
Jan. 20. 1789

His Majesty had not a good night, & is not calm this morning —

R. Warren

J. Reynolds

F. Willis

His R. H. P. of Wales

A

REC 16 | 1 | 47

His Majesty has had eight Hours & a half Sound & Continued Sleep, but is not quiet this Morning.

G. Baker

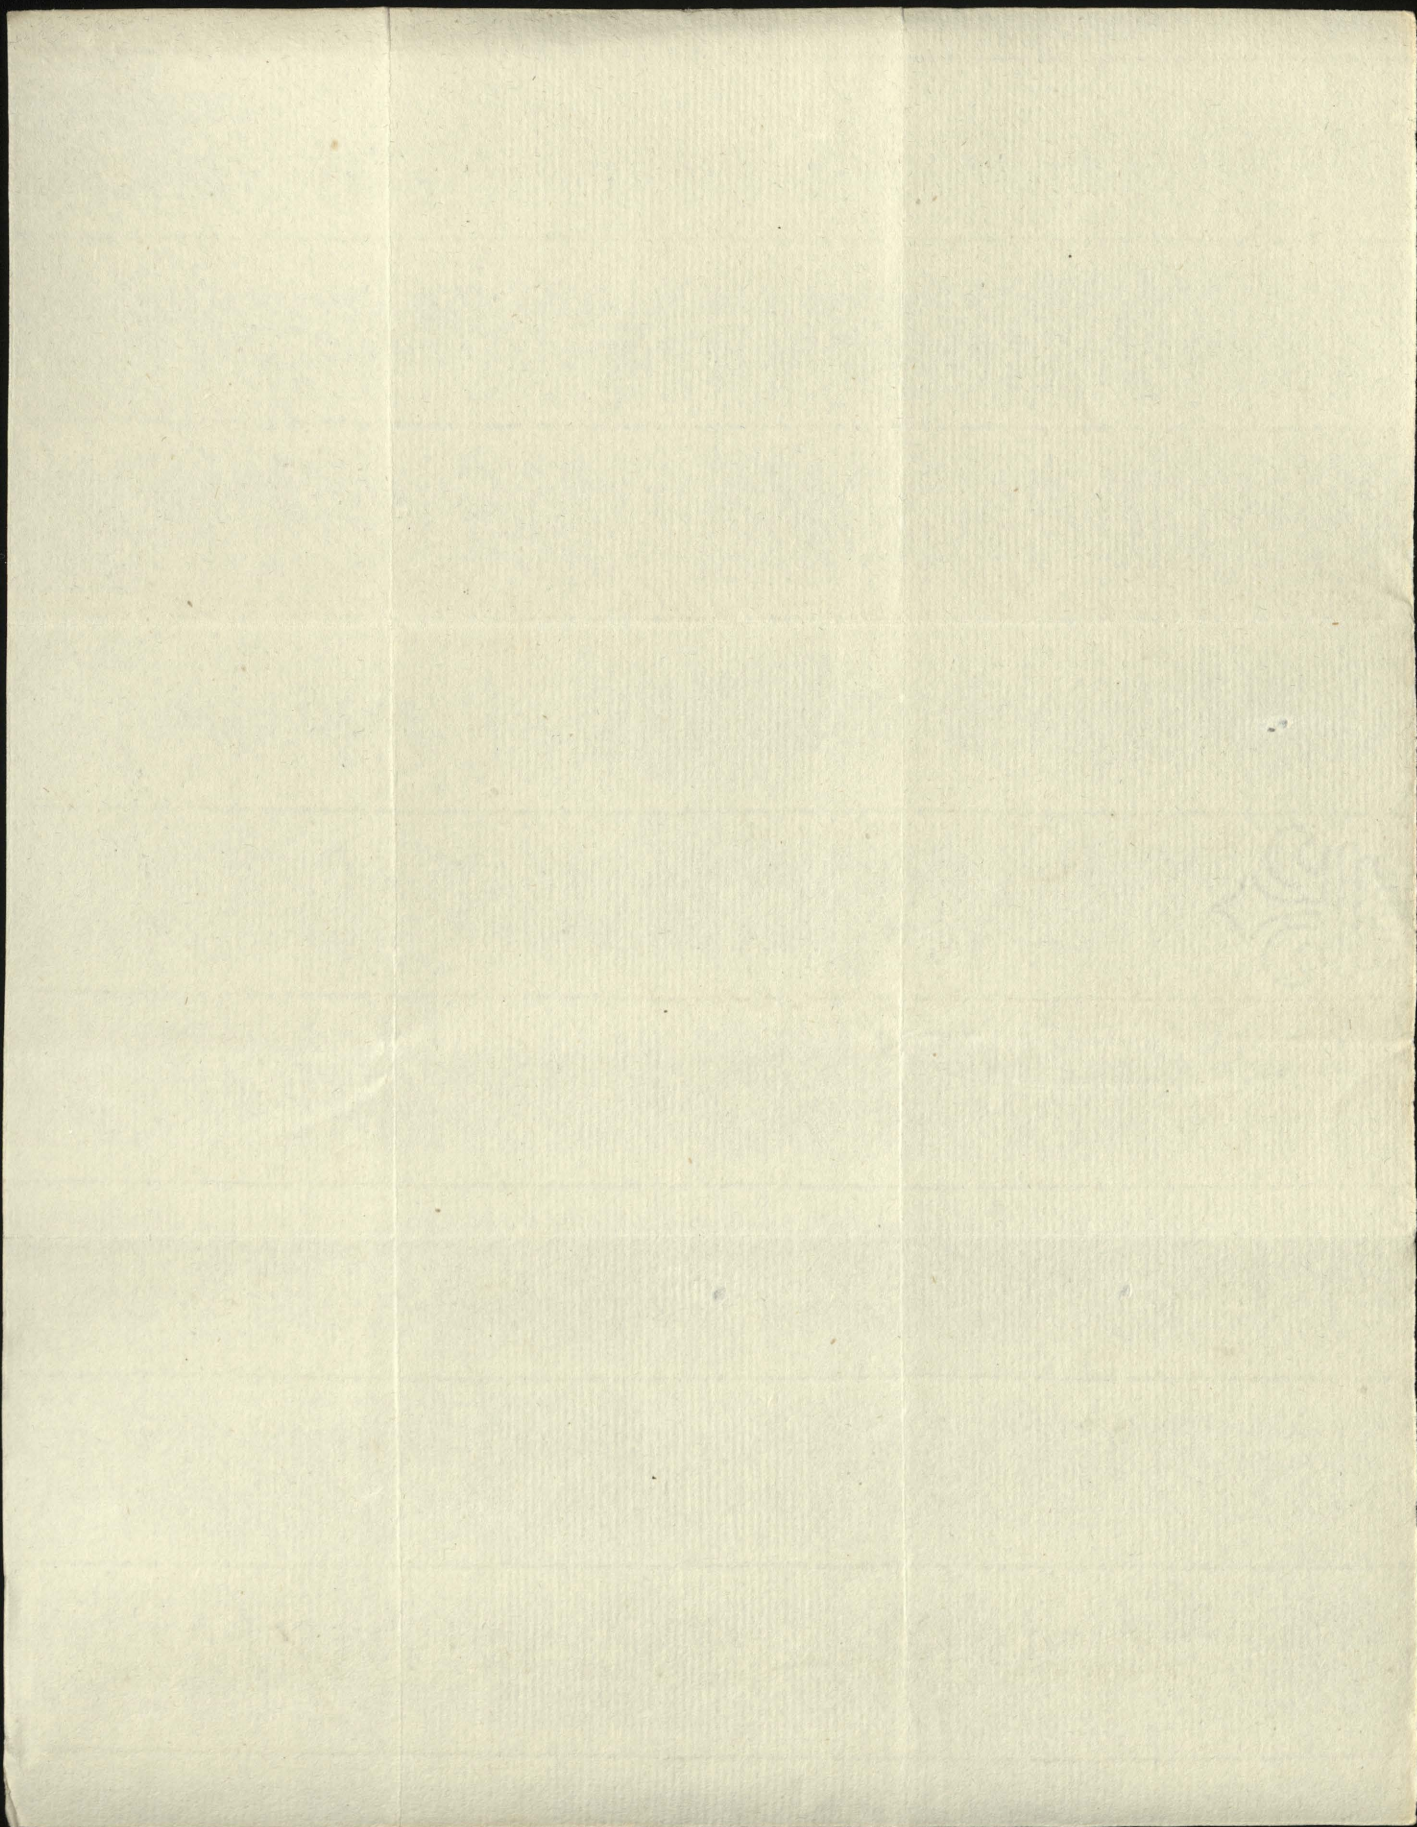

L. Pepys

F. Willis

New House

Jan^{ry} 21^{mo} 1789

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Llew House

Jan. 22. 1989

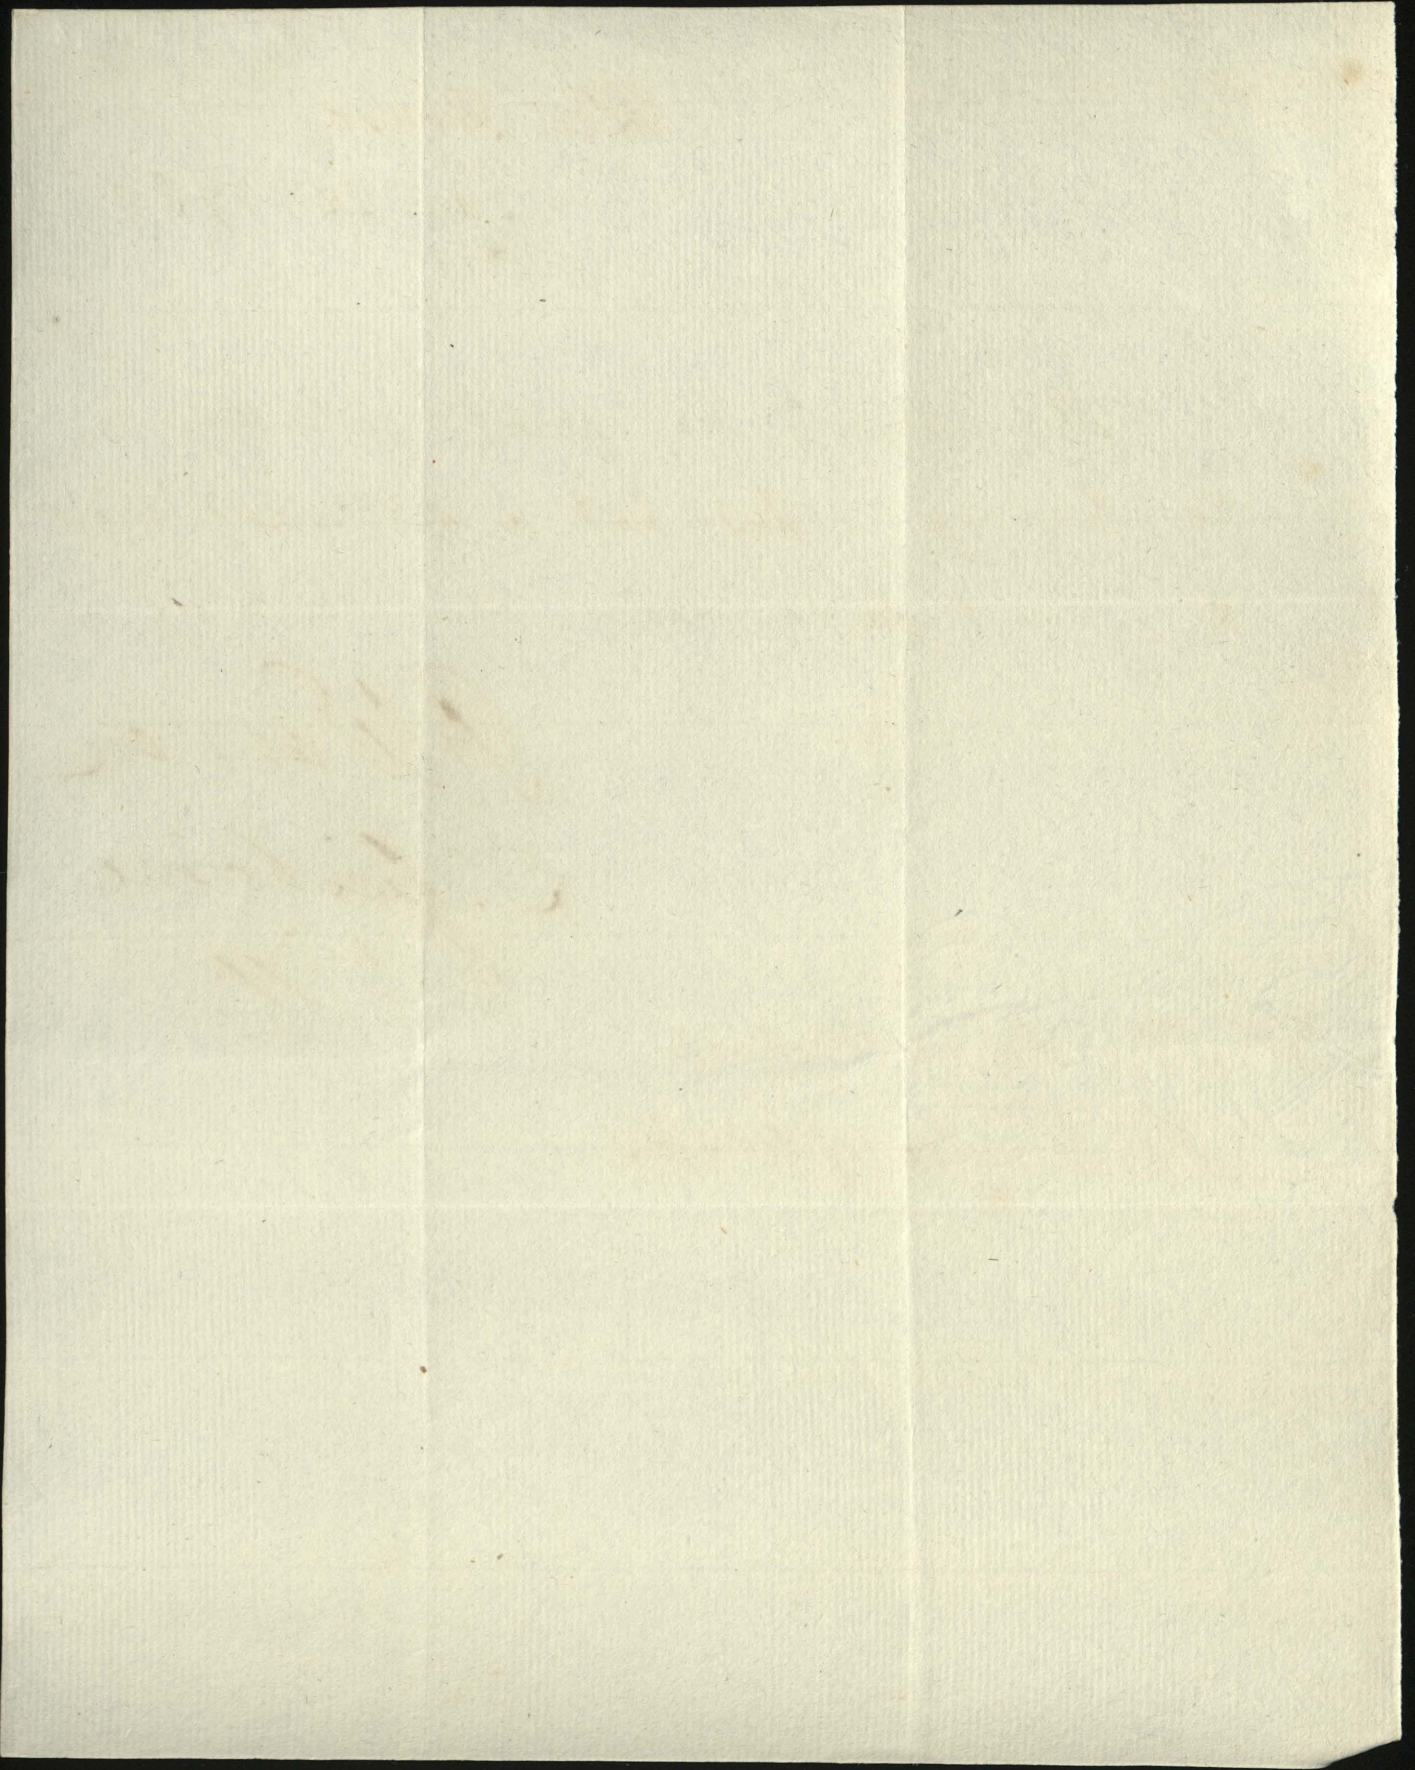

His Majesty was quiet yesterday in the Evening, has had a disturbed night & is not quite calm this morning.

R. Warren

J. Gibson

F. Willis

To His Royal Highness
the Prince of Wales

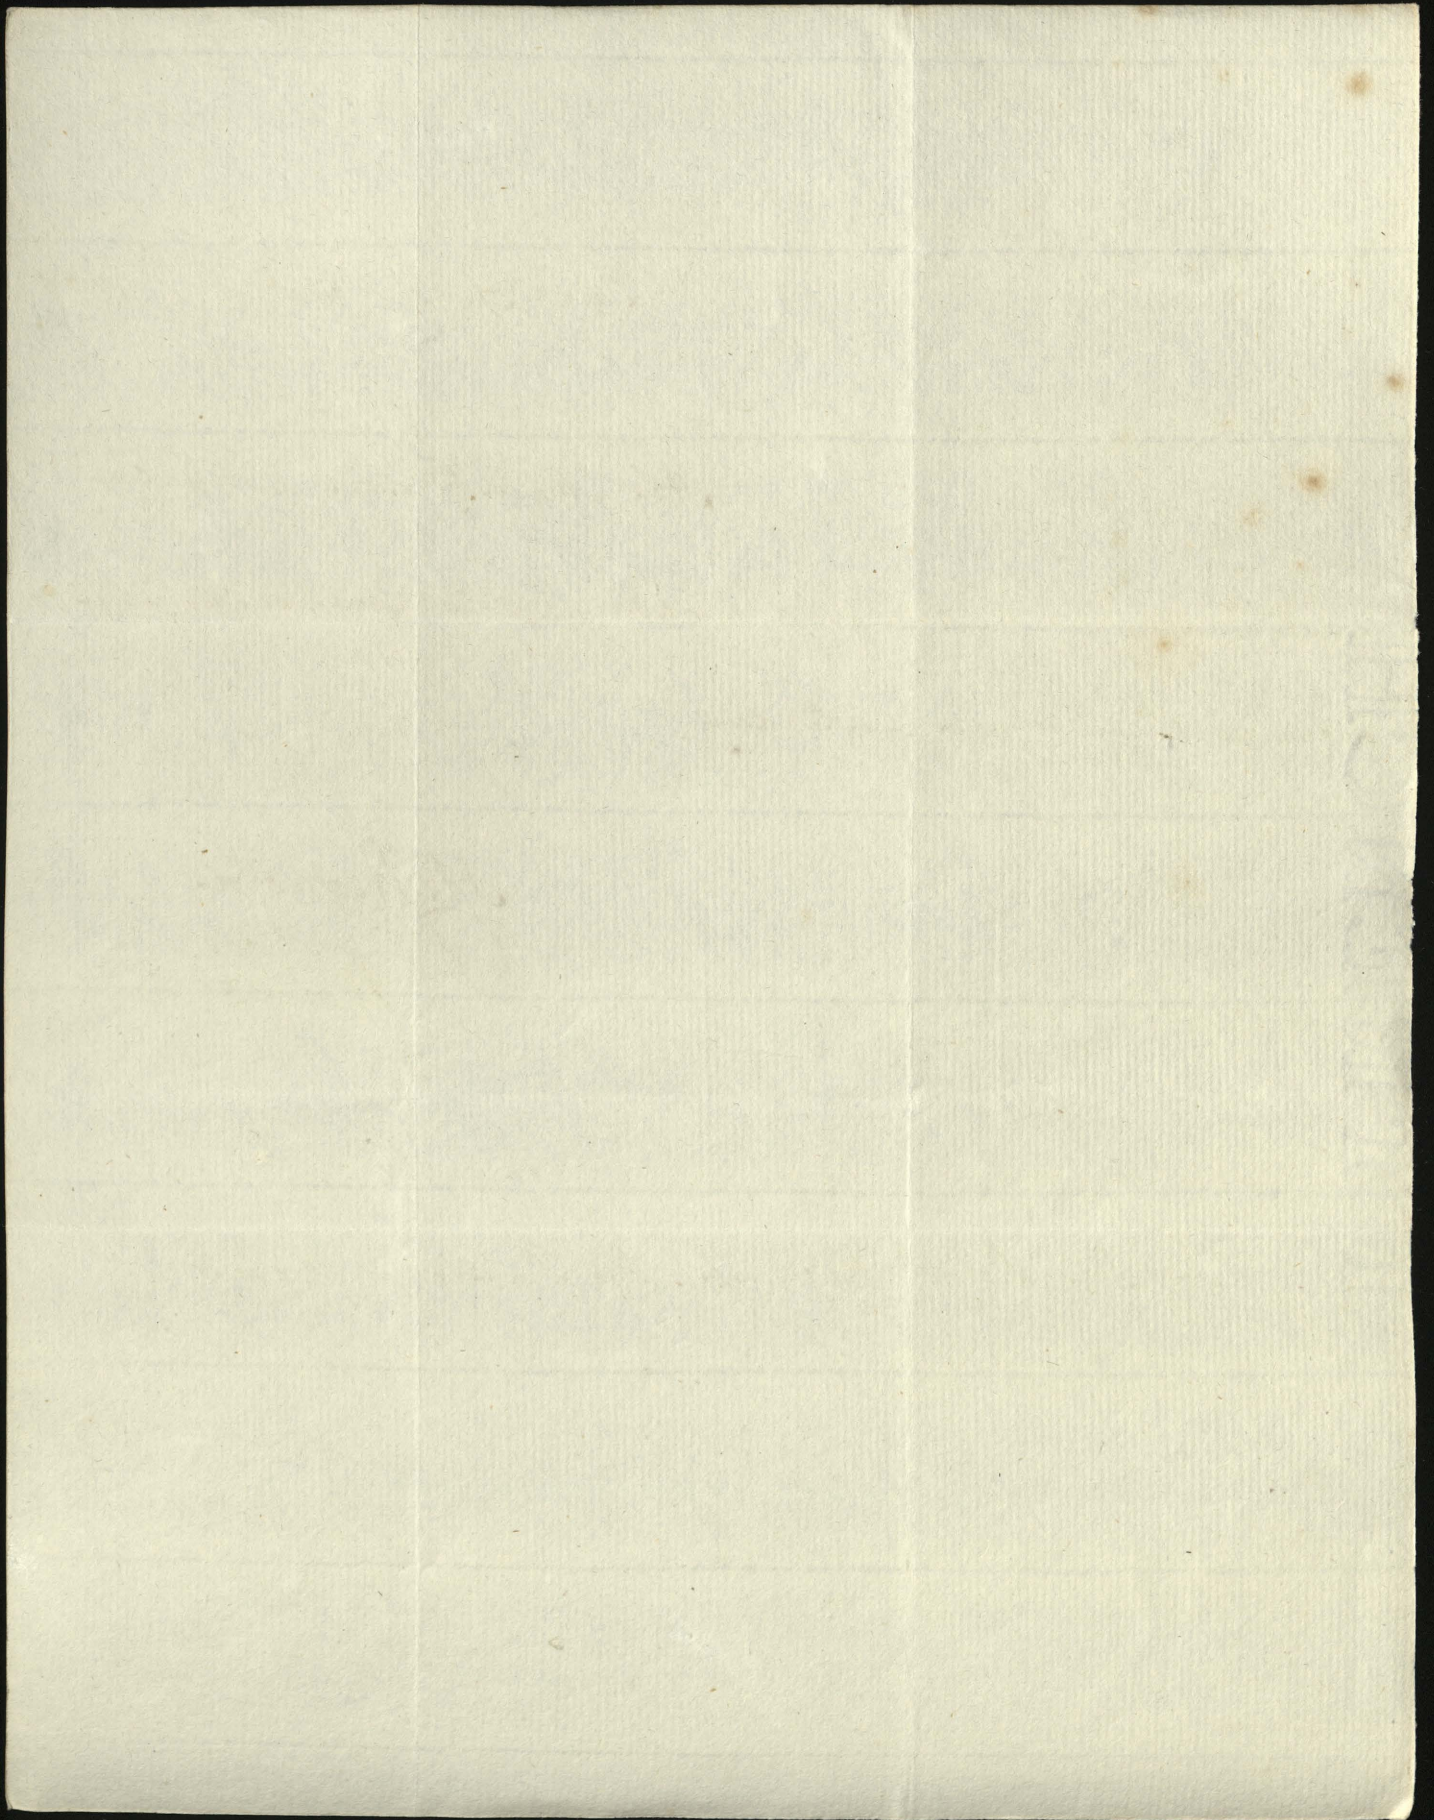

New House Jan^y. 28^d. 1759

His Majesty was not calm yesterday, has had a good night, and is more calm this morning than he was yesterday.

G. B. Baker
J. H. Reynolds
F. Wilkes

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

MSD 116/1/50

His Majesty was quiet Yesterday, has had Four Hours Sleep ^{in the Night}, but is not quiet this Morning.

R. Warren

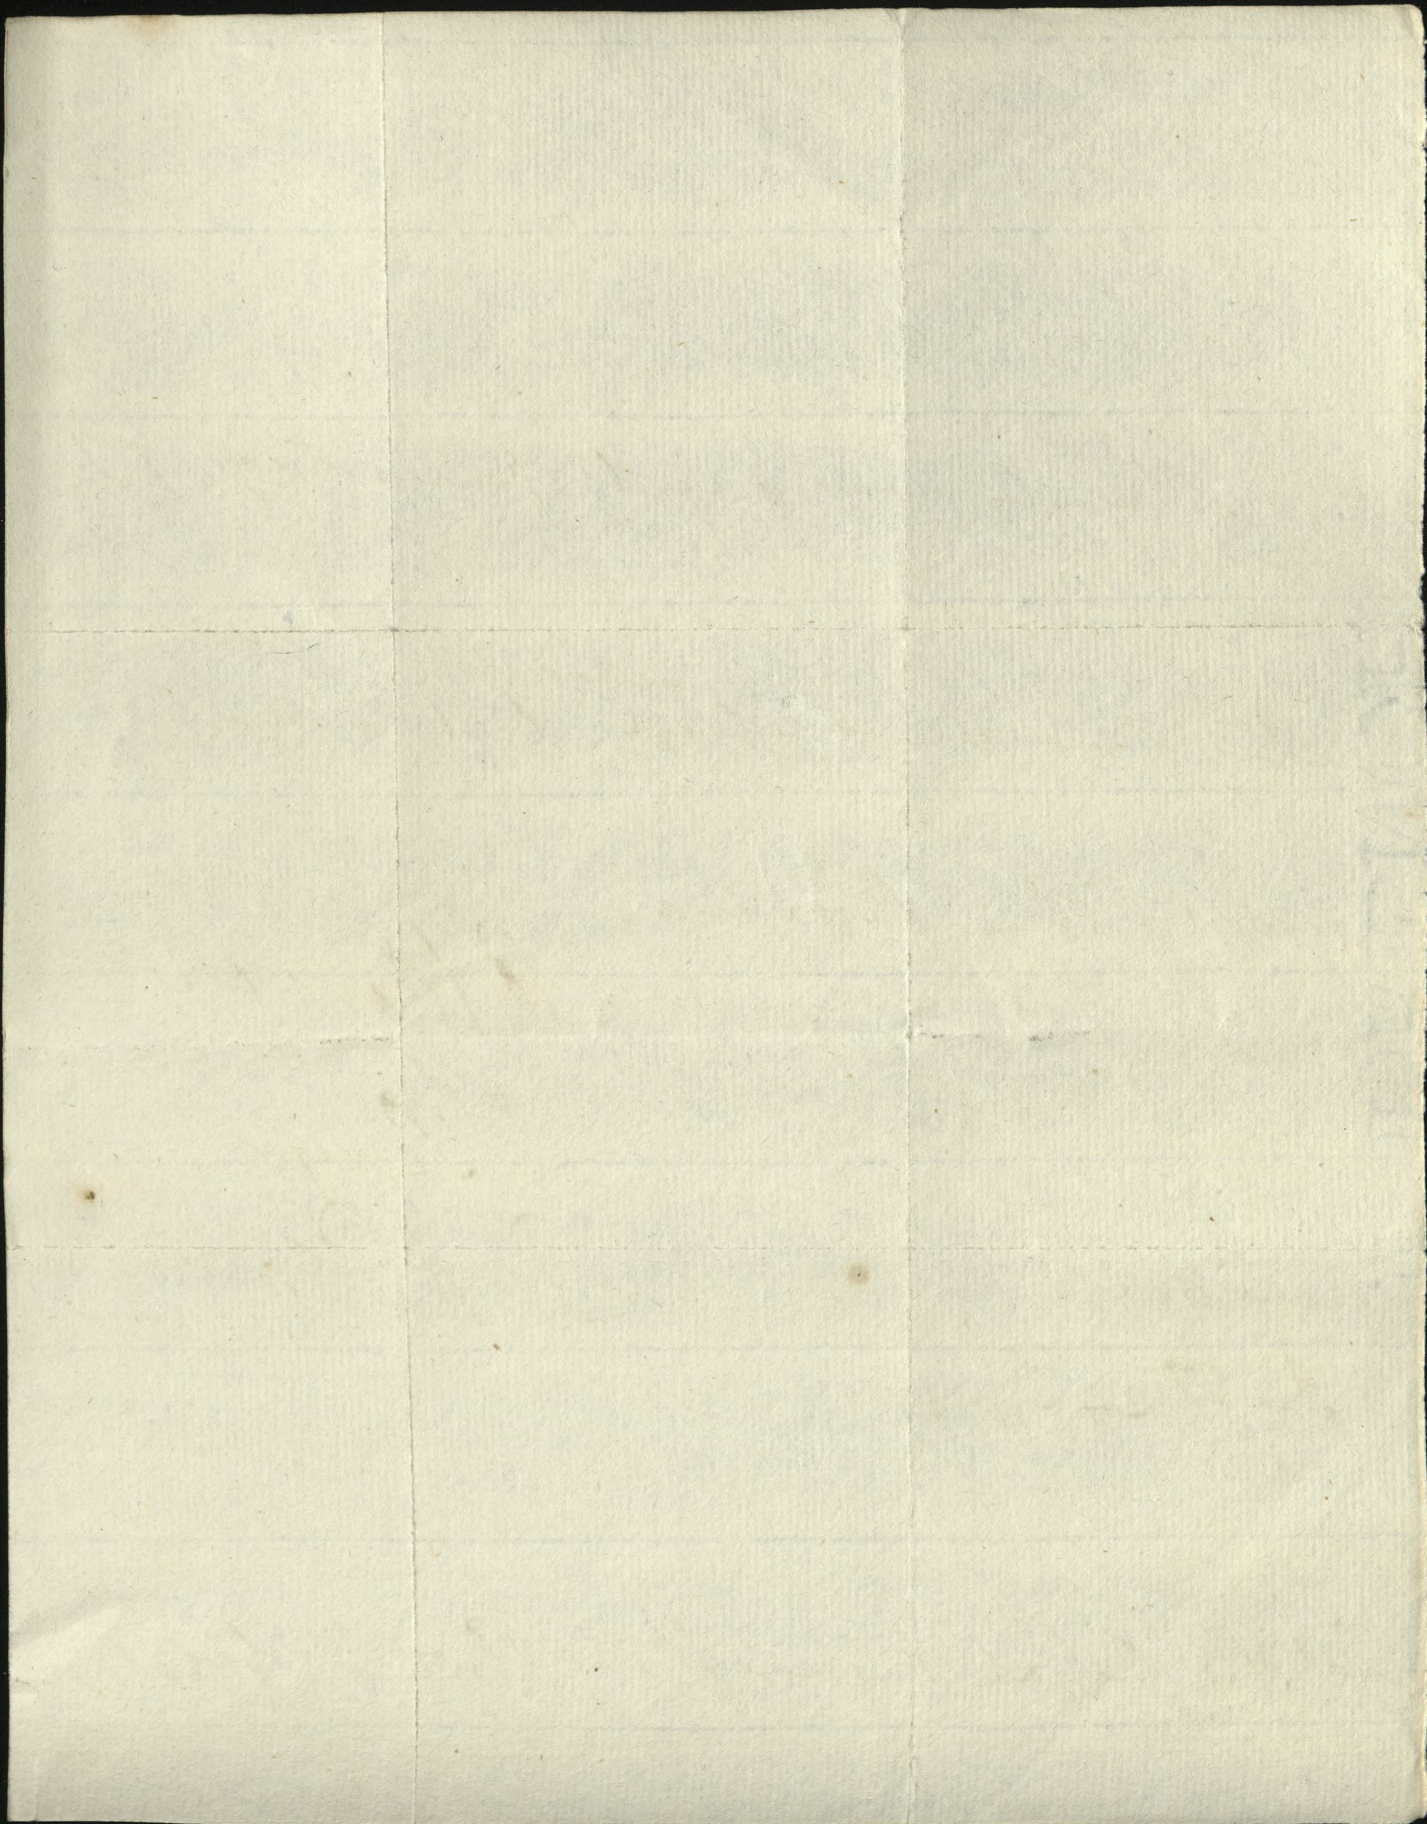

L. Pepys

F. Willis

Kew House

Jan^y 24th 1789

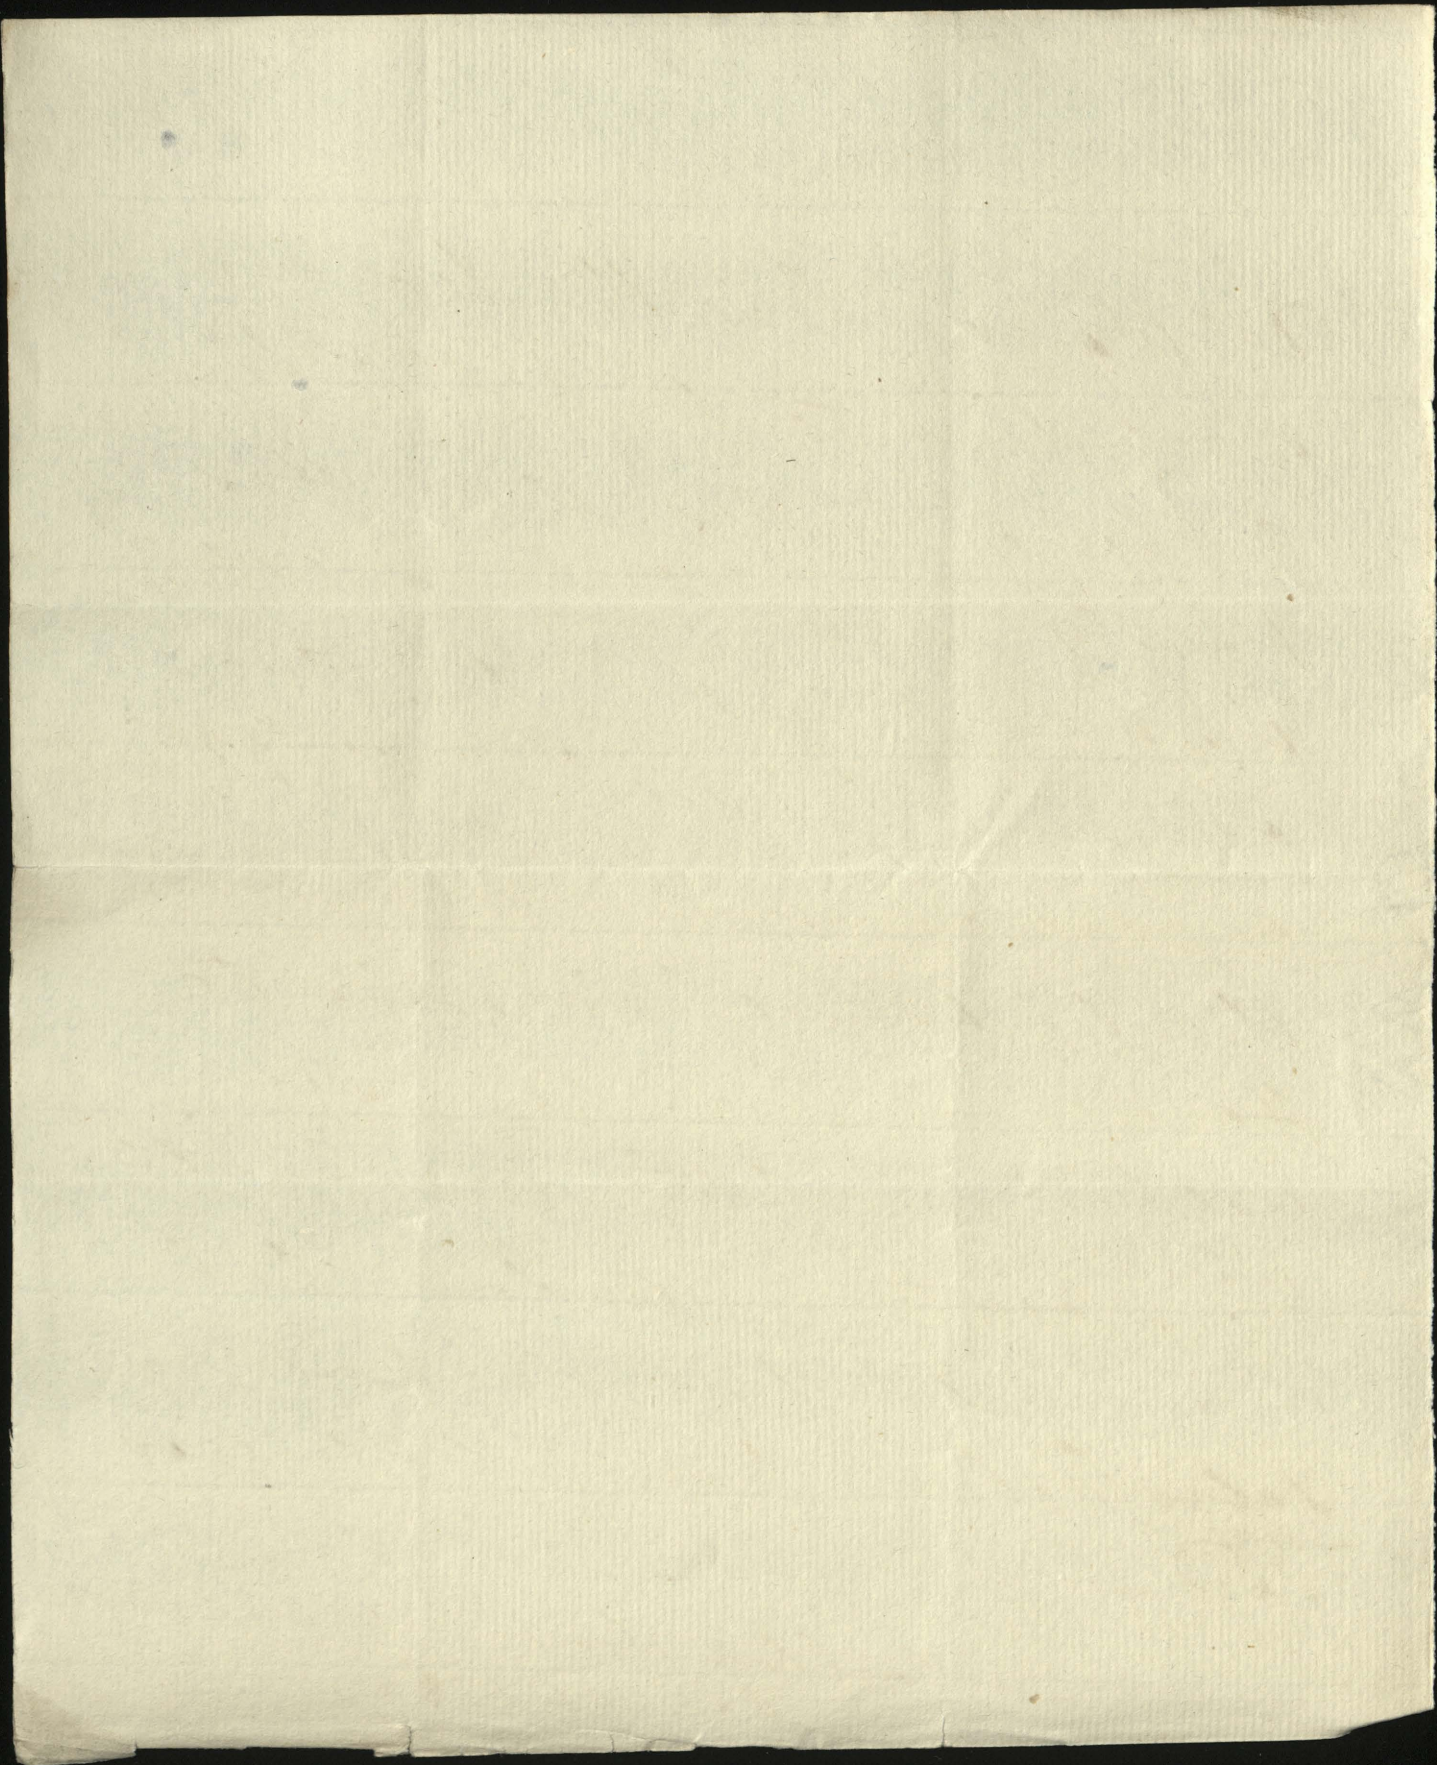

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales

MSO 116 11 51

Mr Warren has the honour of reporting to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales that His Majesty is just ^{as} usual this morning — that he has been amusing himself with appointing a regency, upon a supposition that he himself is going to Hanover — that the Queen walked some little time with His Majesty yesterday, but it is reported that she had no satisfaction from what his Majesty ^{said} —

Carlton House
Jan. 24. 1789 —

Sir,

I have the honour to inform
 your Royal Highness that his Majesty has been gradually becoming more compos'd than he has been for some time, had a very good night & wak'd compos'd this morning.

From Sir Your Royal Highness
 most devoted humble serv^t.

Jan. 25. 1759
 New House

F. Willis.

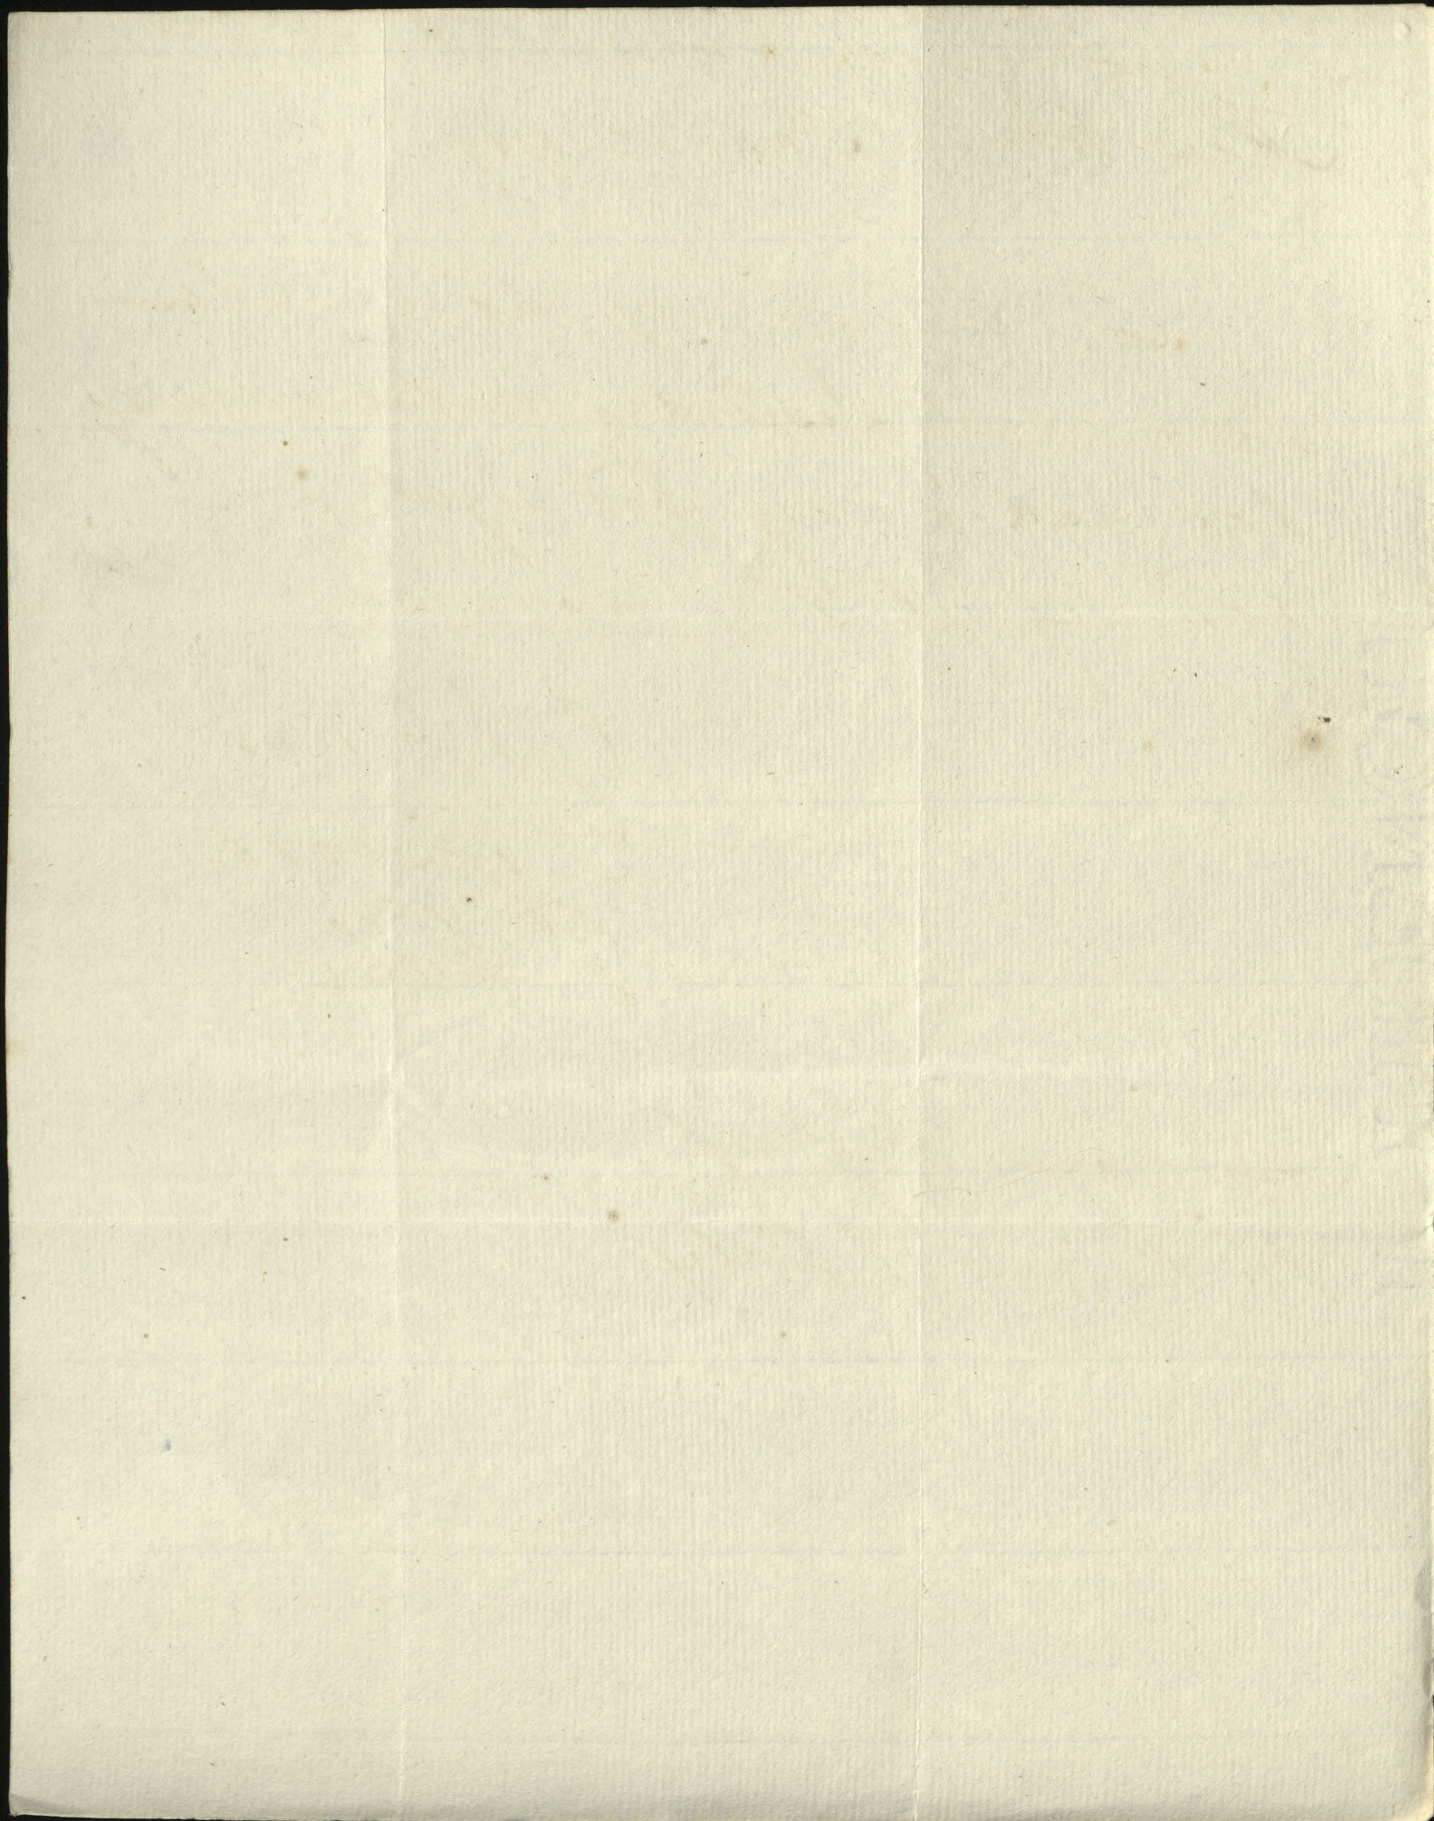

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

New House Jan. 25. 1789.

His Majesty was more calm than usual yesterday in the evening has had a very good night, & is not inquiet this morning.

C. Baker
 J. Gibson
 F. Willis

His Royal Highness
 The Prince of Wales.

New House Jan^y. 26th 1789

His Majesty was quiet yesterday, has had three hours and a half's sleep in the night, and is not quiet this morning.

R. Warden

A. Reynolds

F. Wilks

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

His Majesty ~~was~~ much disturbed Yesterday, has had a restless Night and is not quiet this Morning.

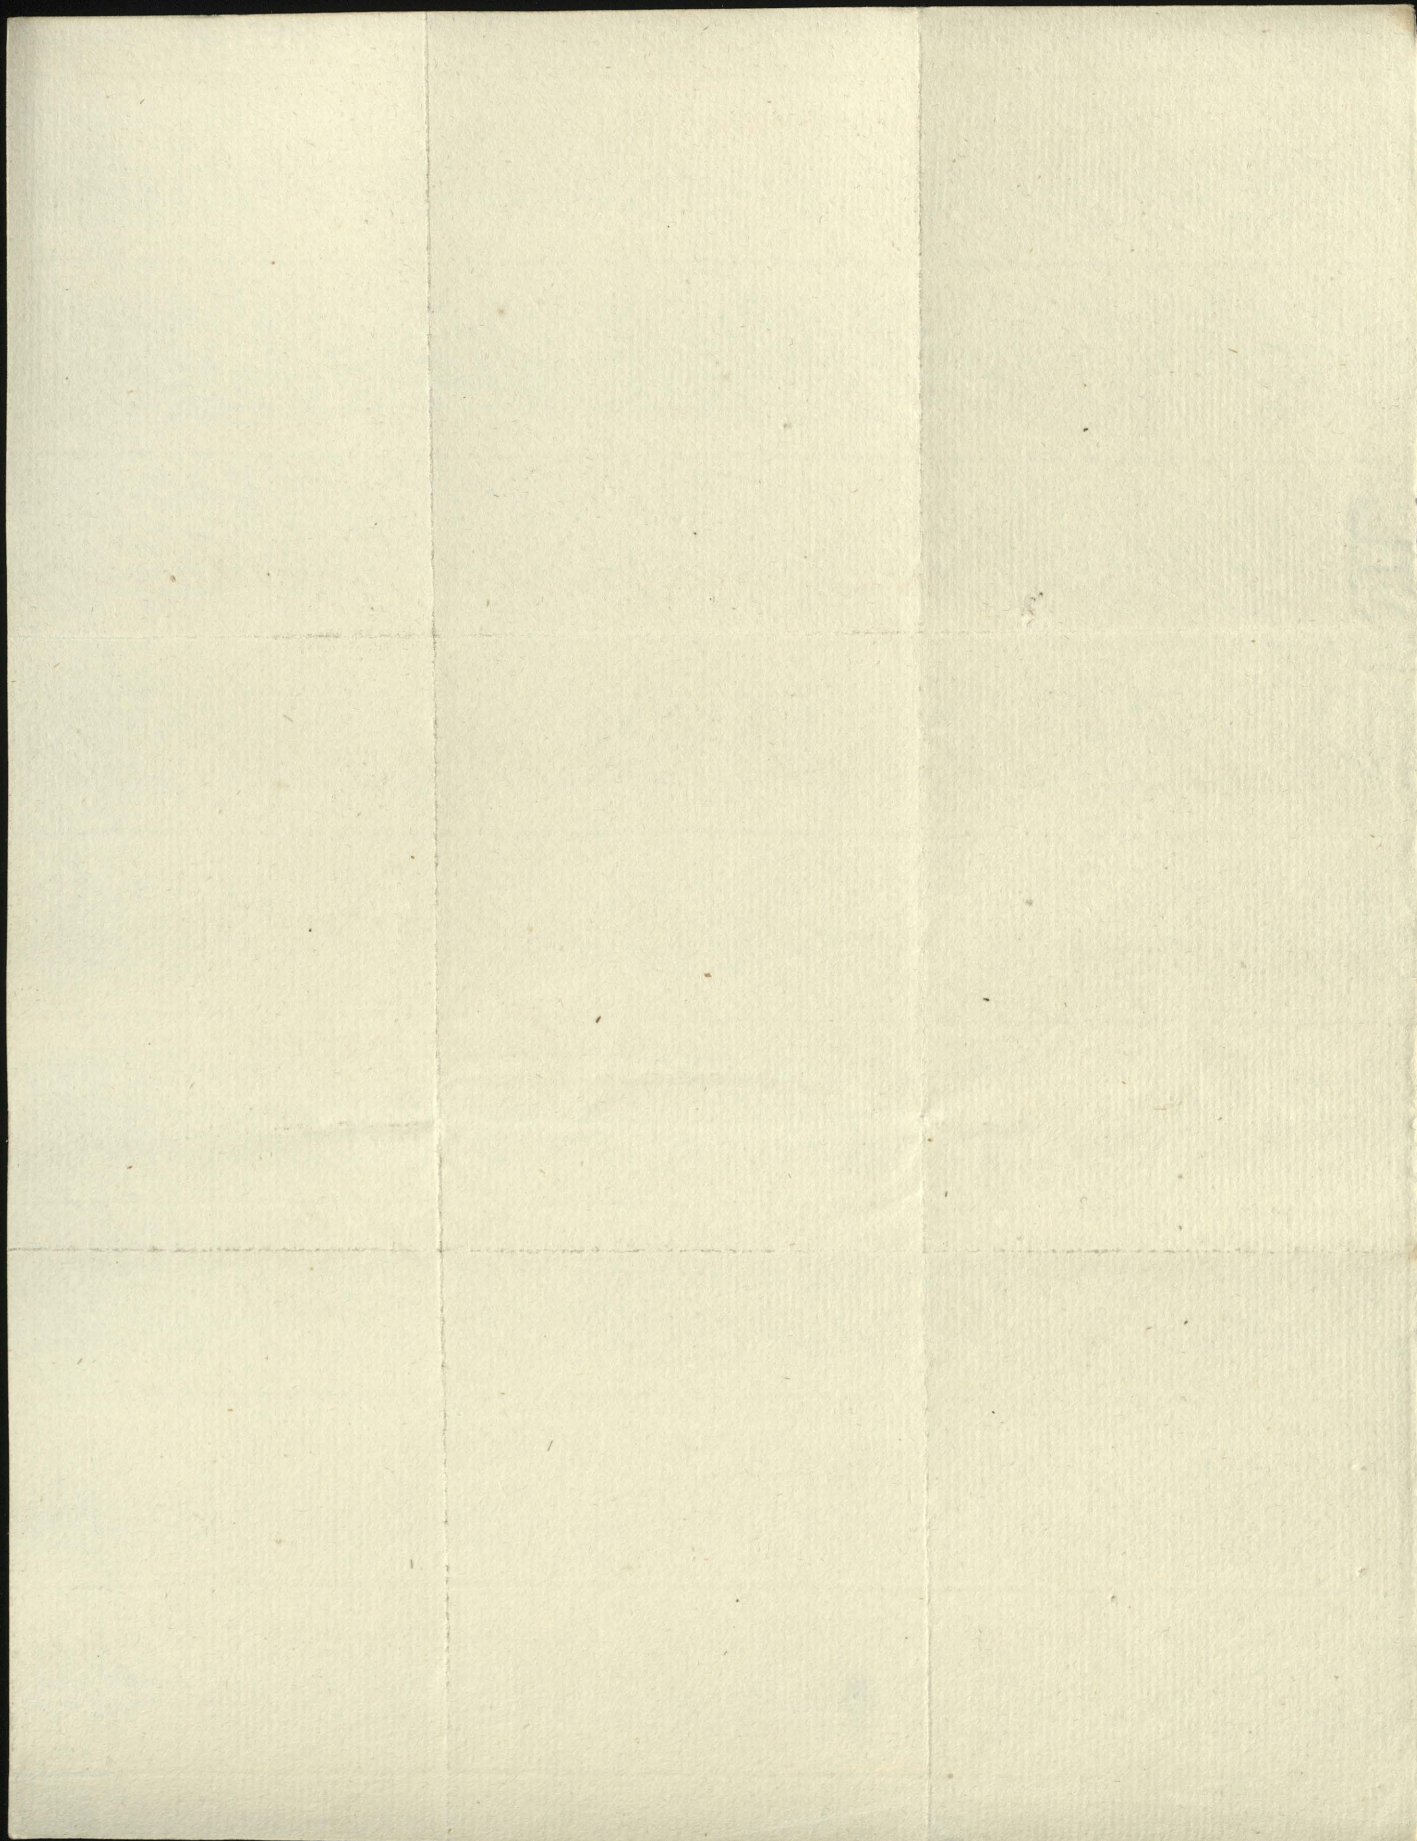

G. Baker
L. Pepys
F. Willis

Kens House

Jan^{ry} 27th 1789

10^o Clock in the Morning.

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

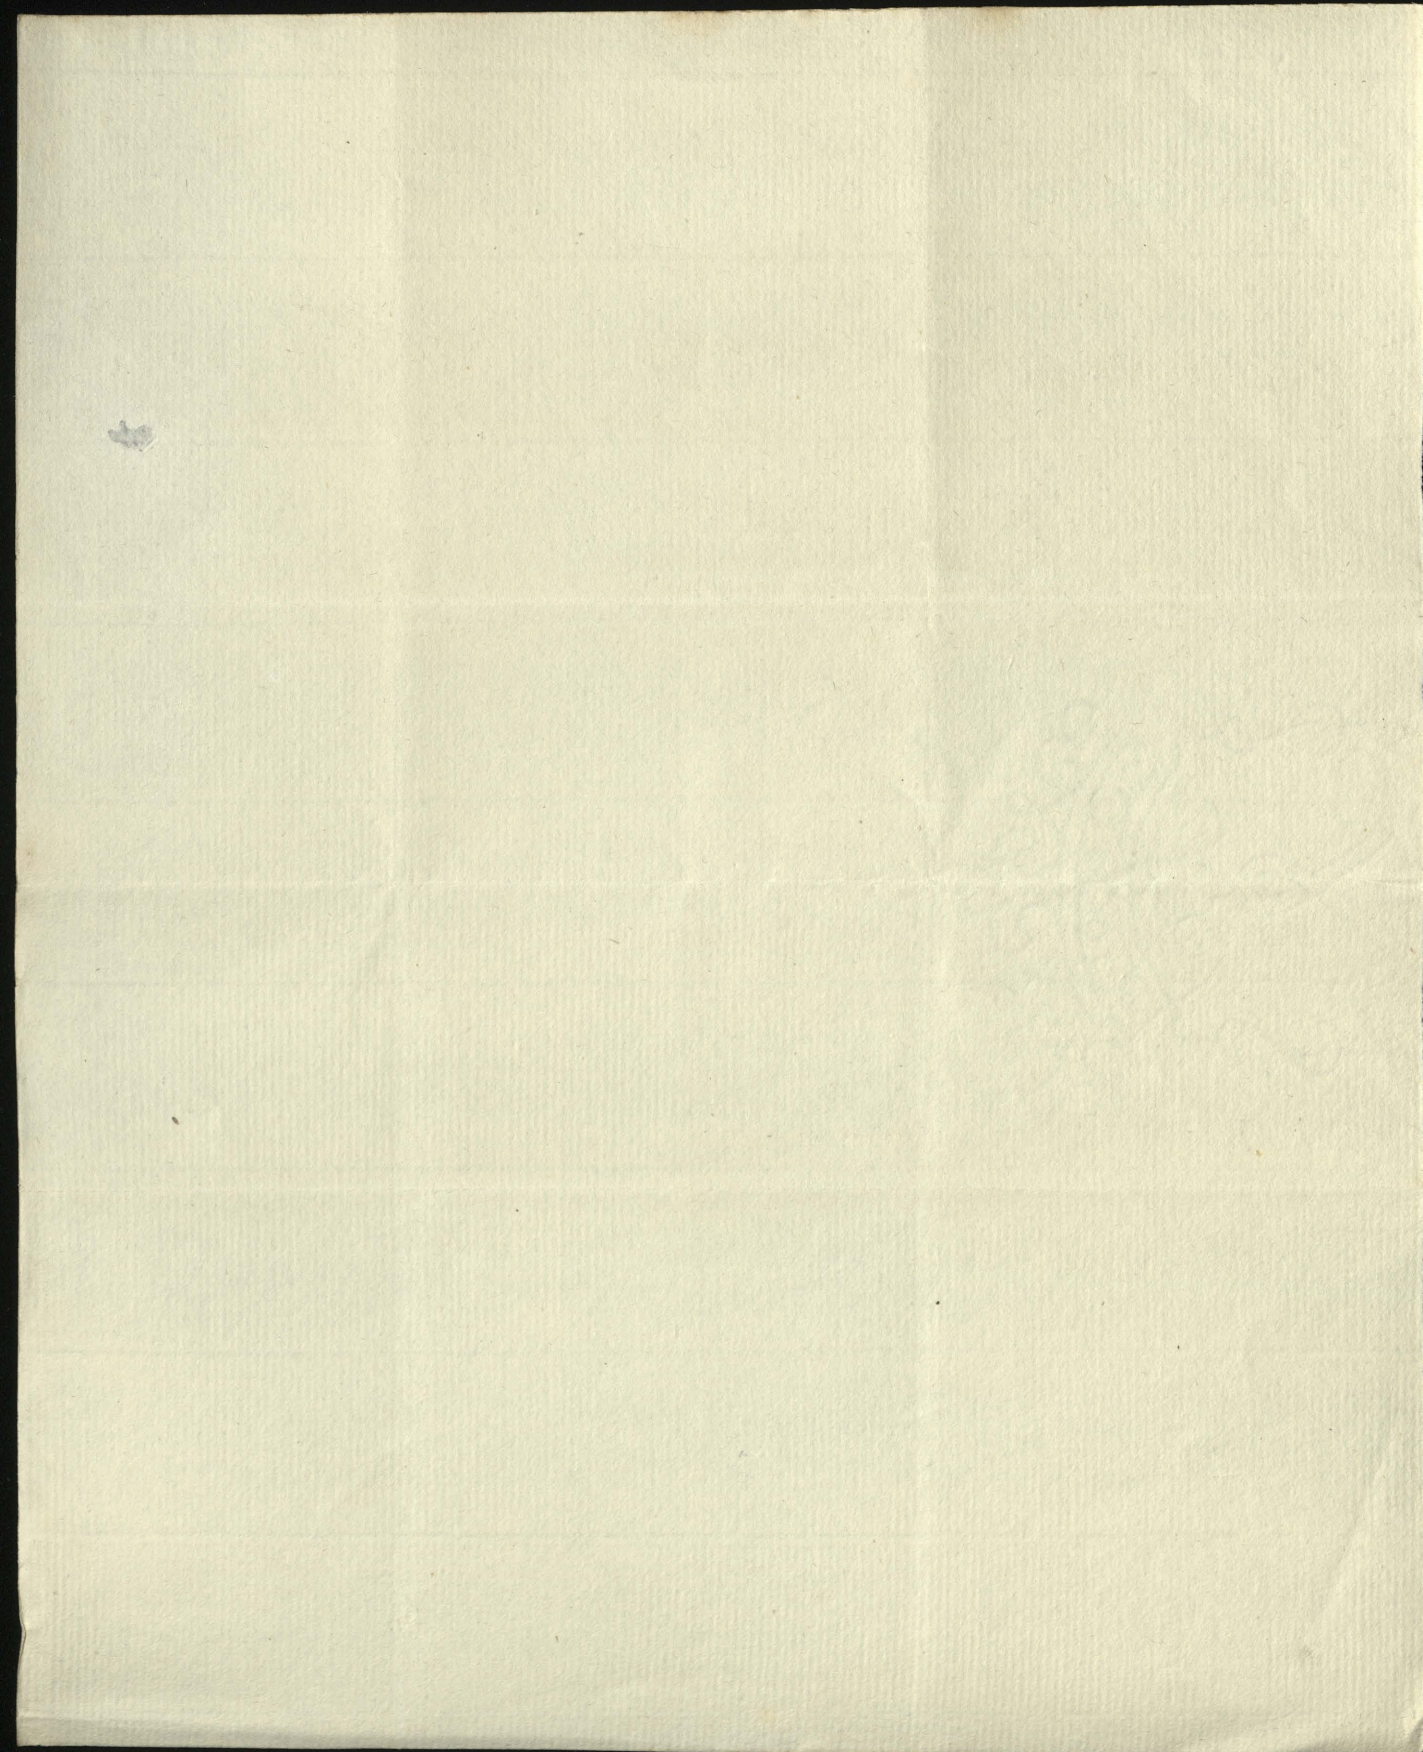

Sir George Baker presents his humble duty to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

His Majesty was all yesterday in a state of uncommon irritation; slept last night on horse & quarters at intervals; & is this morning entirely deranged.

27 Jan 1789

12 at noon

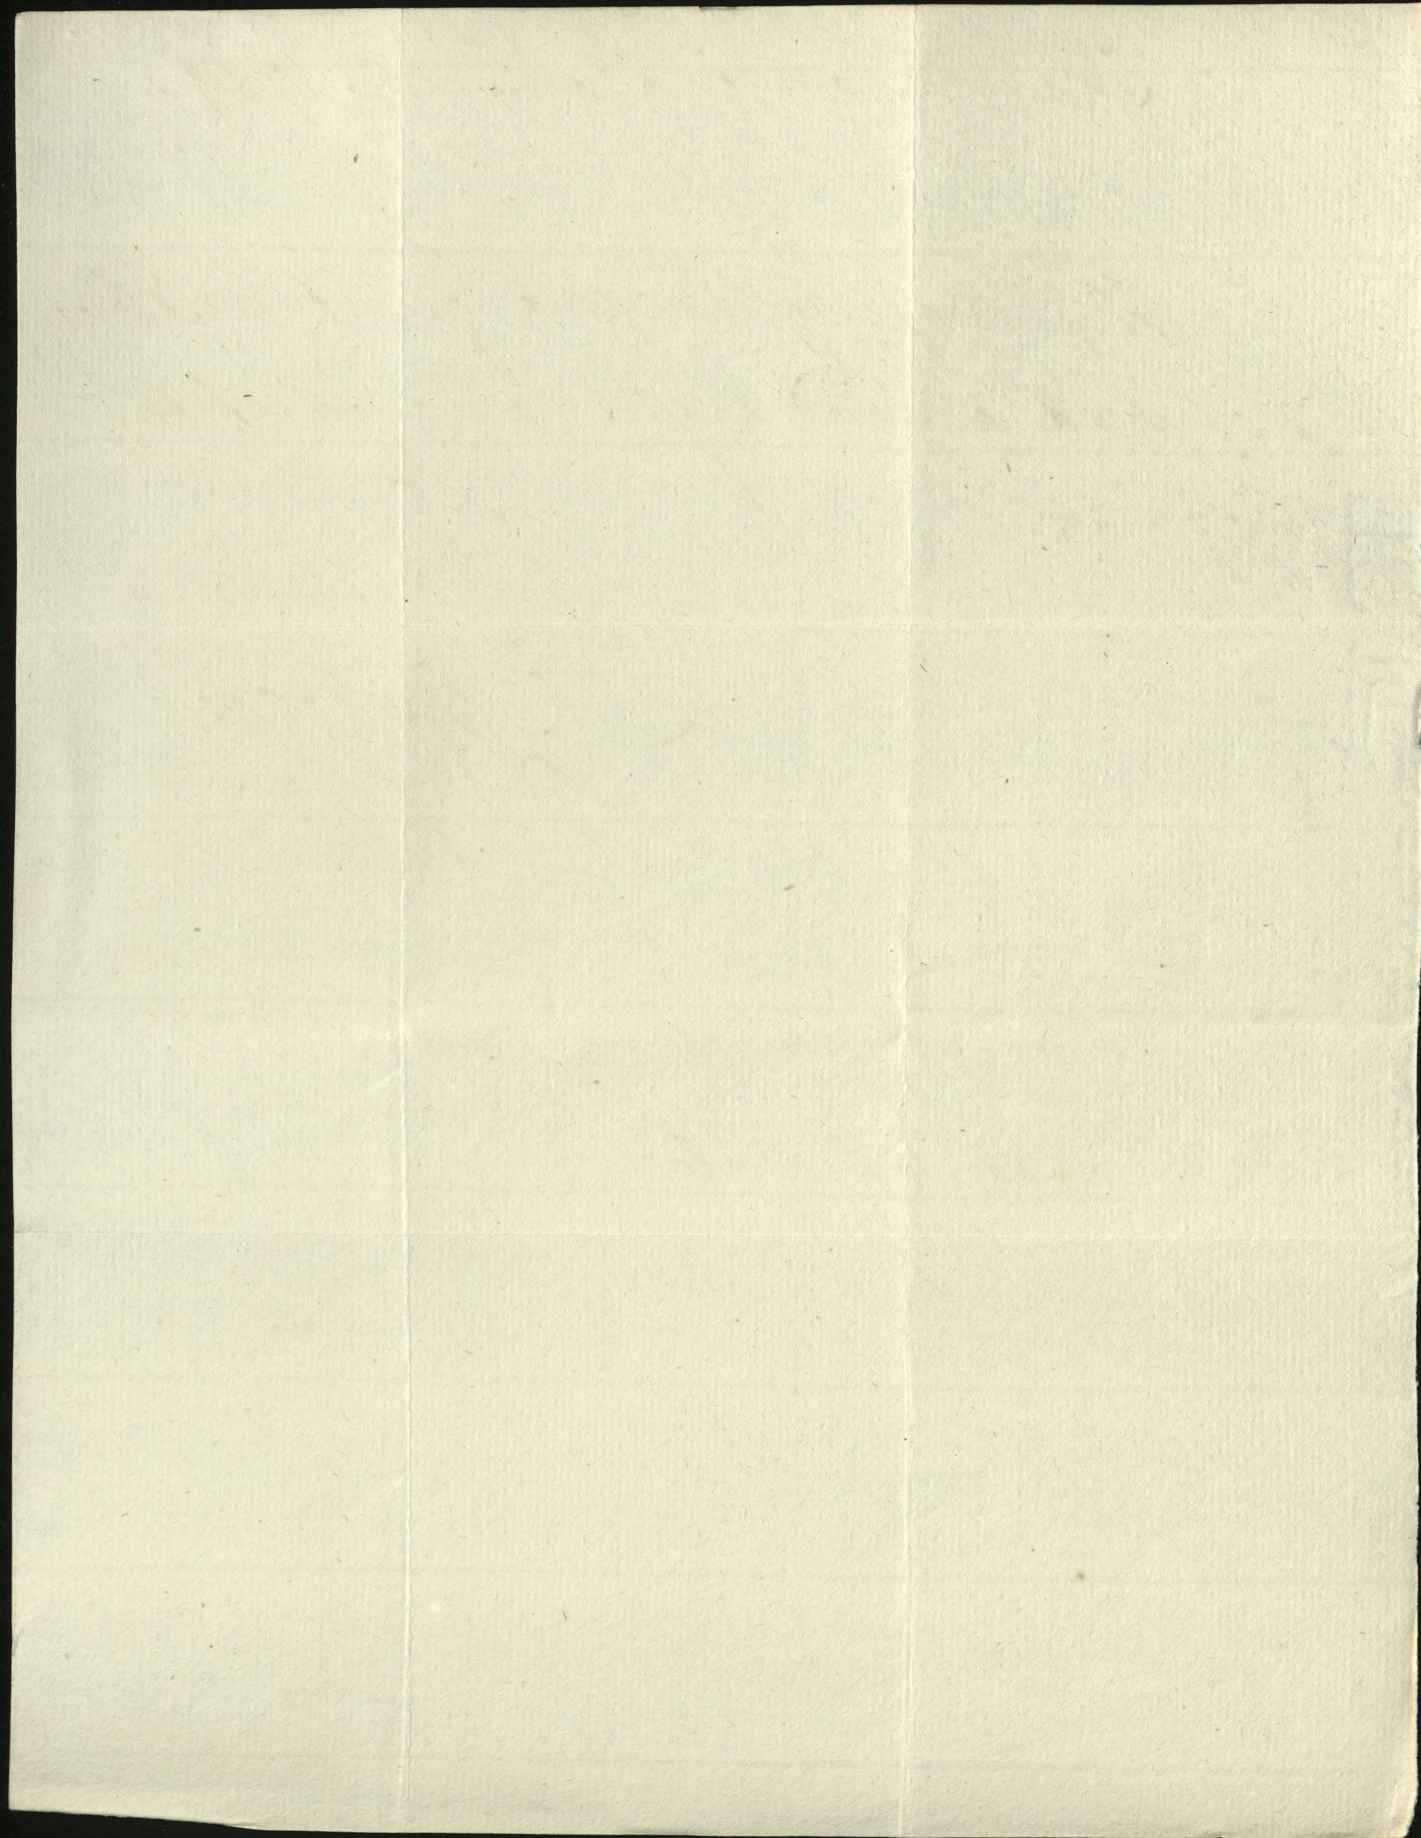

New House, Jan. 28. 1789.

His Majesty became quiet yesterday, has had a good night, & is quiet this morning.

R. Warren
J. Giborne
F. Walker.

His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales.

New House Jan^y. 29th. 1789

His Majesty passed yesterday without irritation, has had a very good night, and is in a calm state this morning.

L. Baker.

J. Reynolds.

F. Willis

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales

FEB 16 / 1759

His Majesty has had a restless Night and is not so quiet this Morning as he was Yesterday. —

R. Warren.

L. Pepys.

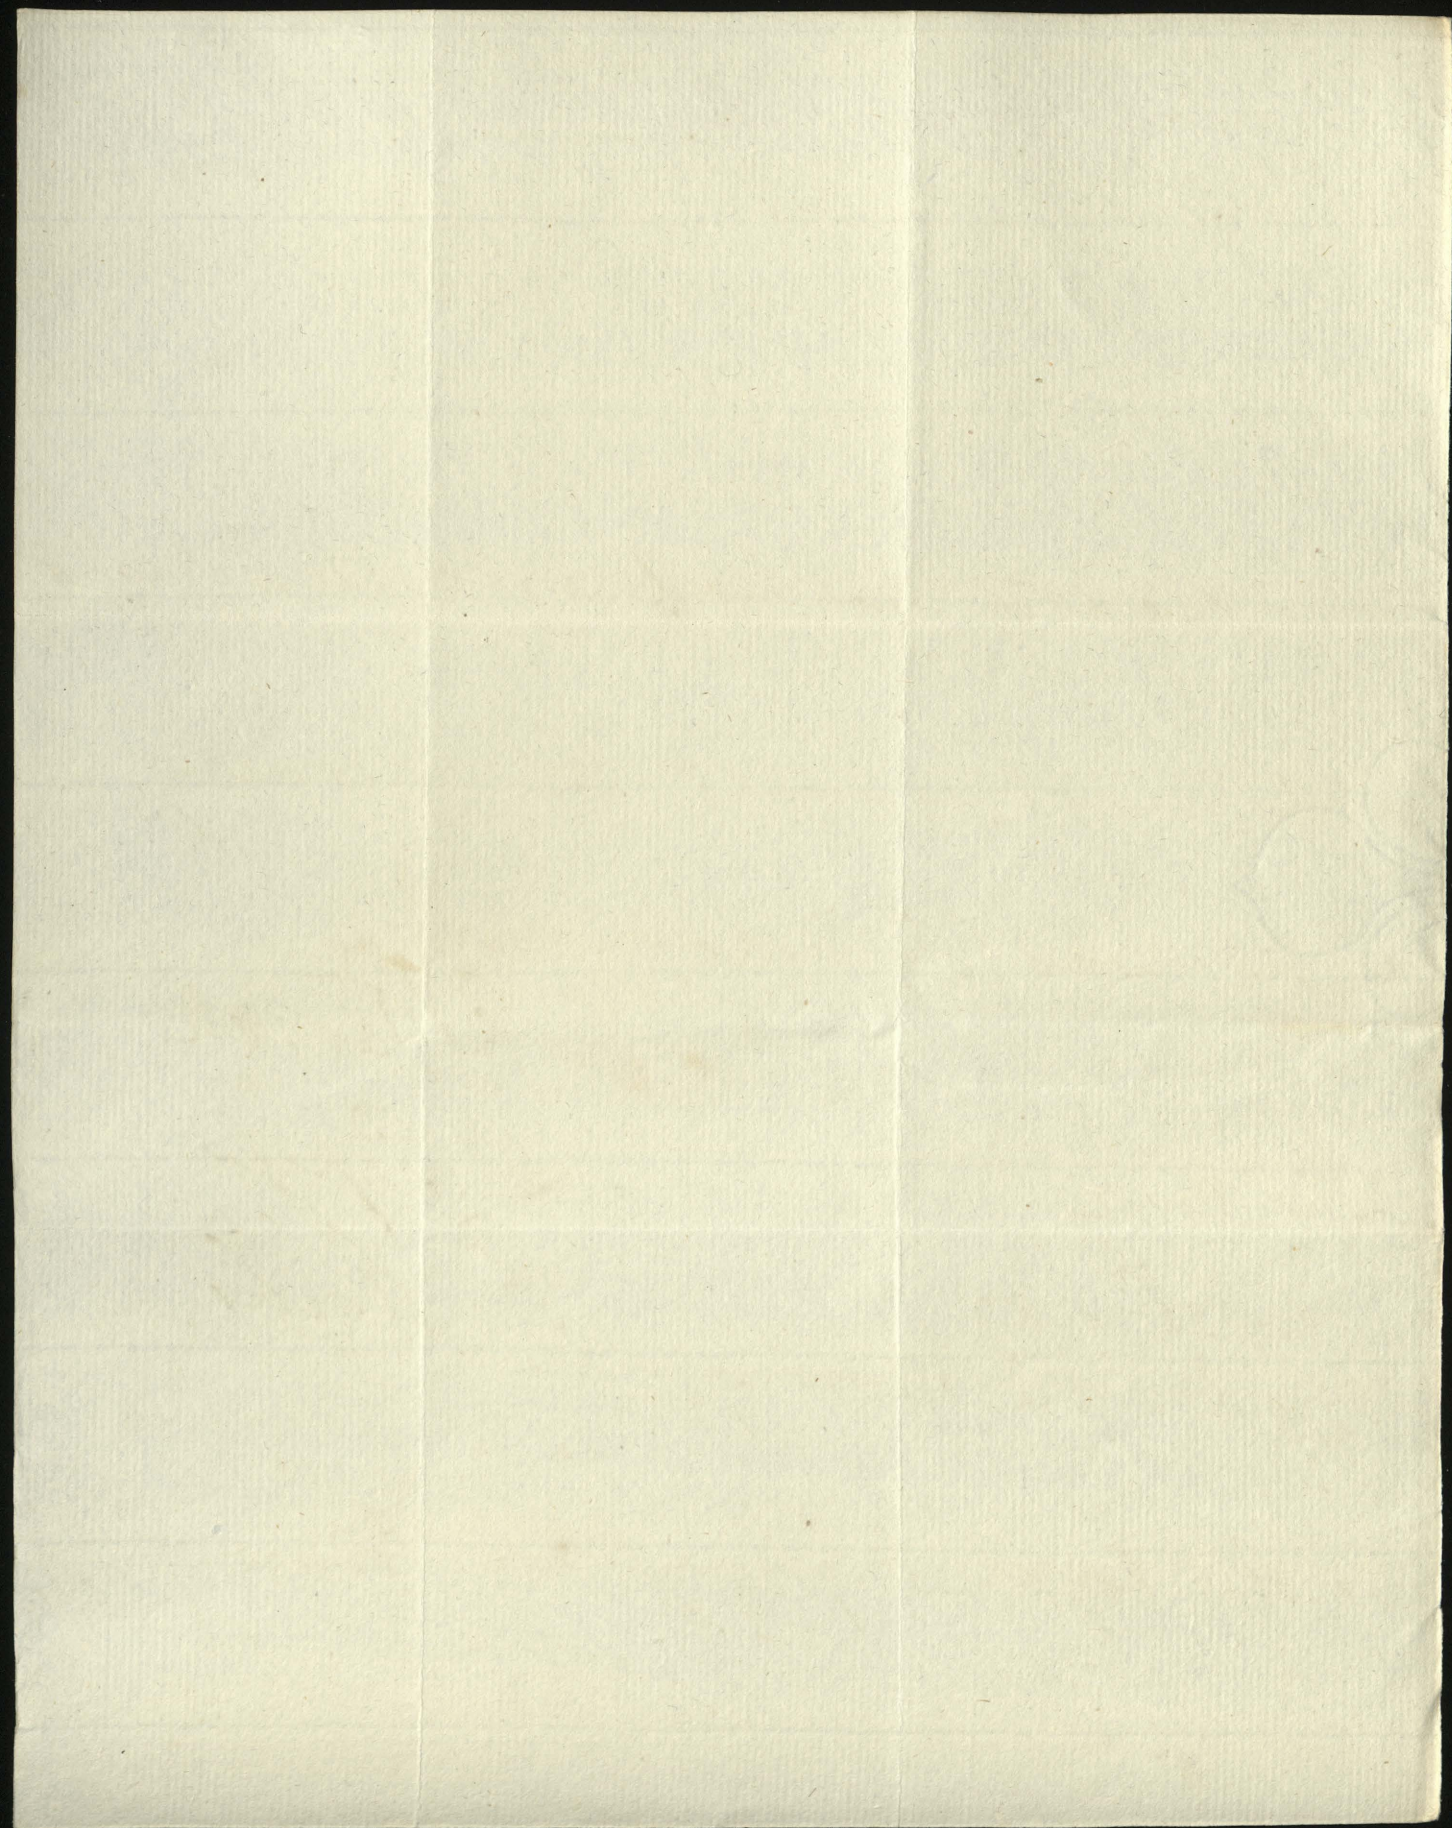

F. Wallis.

New House

Jan: 30 - 1789

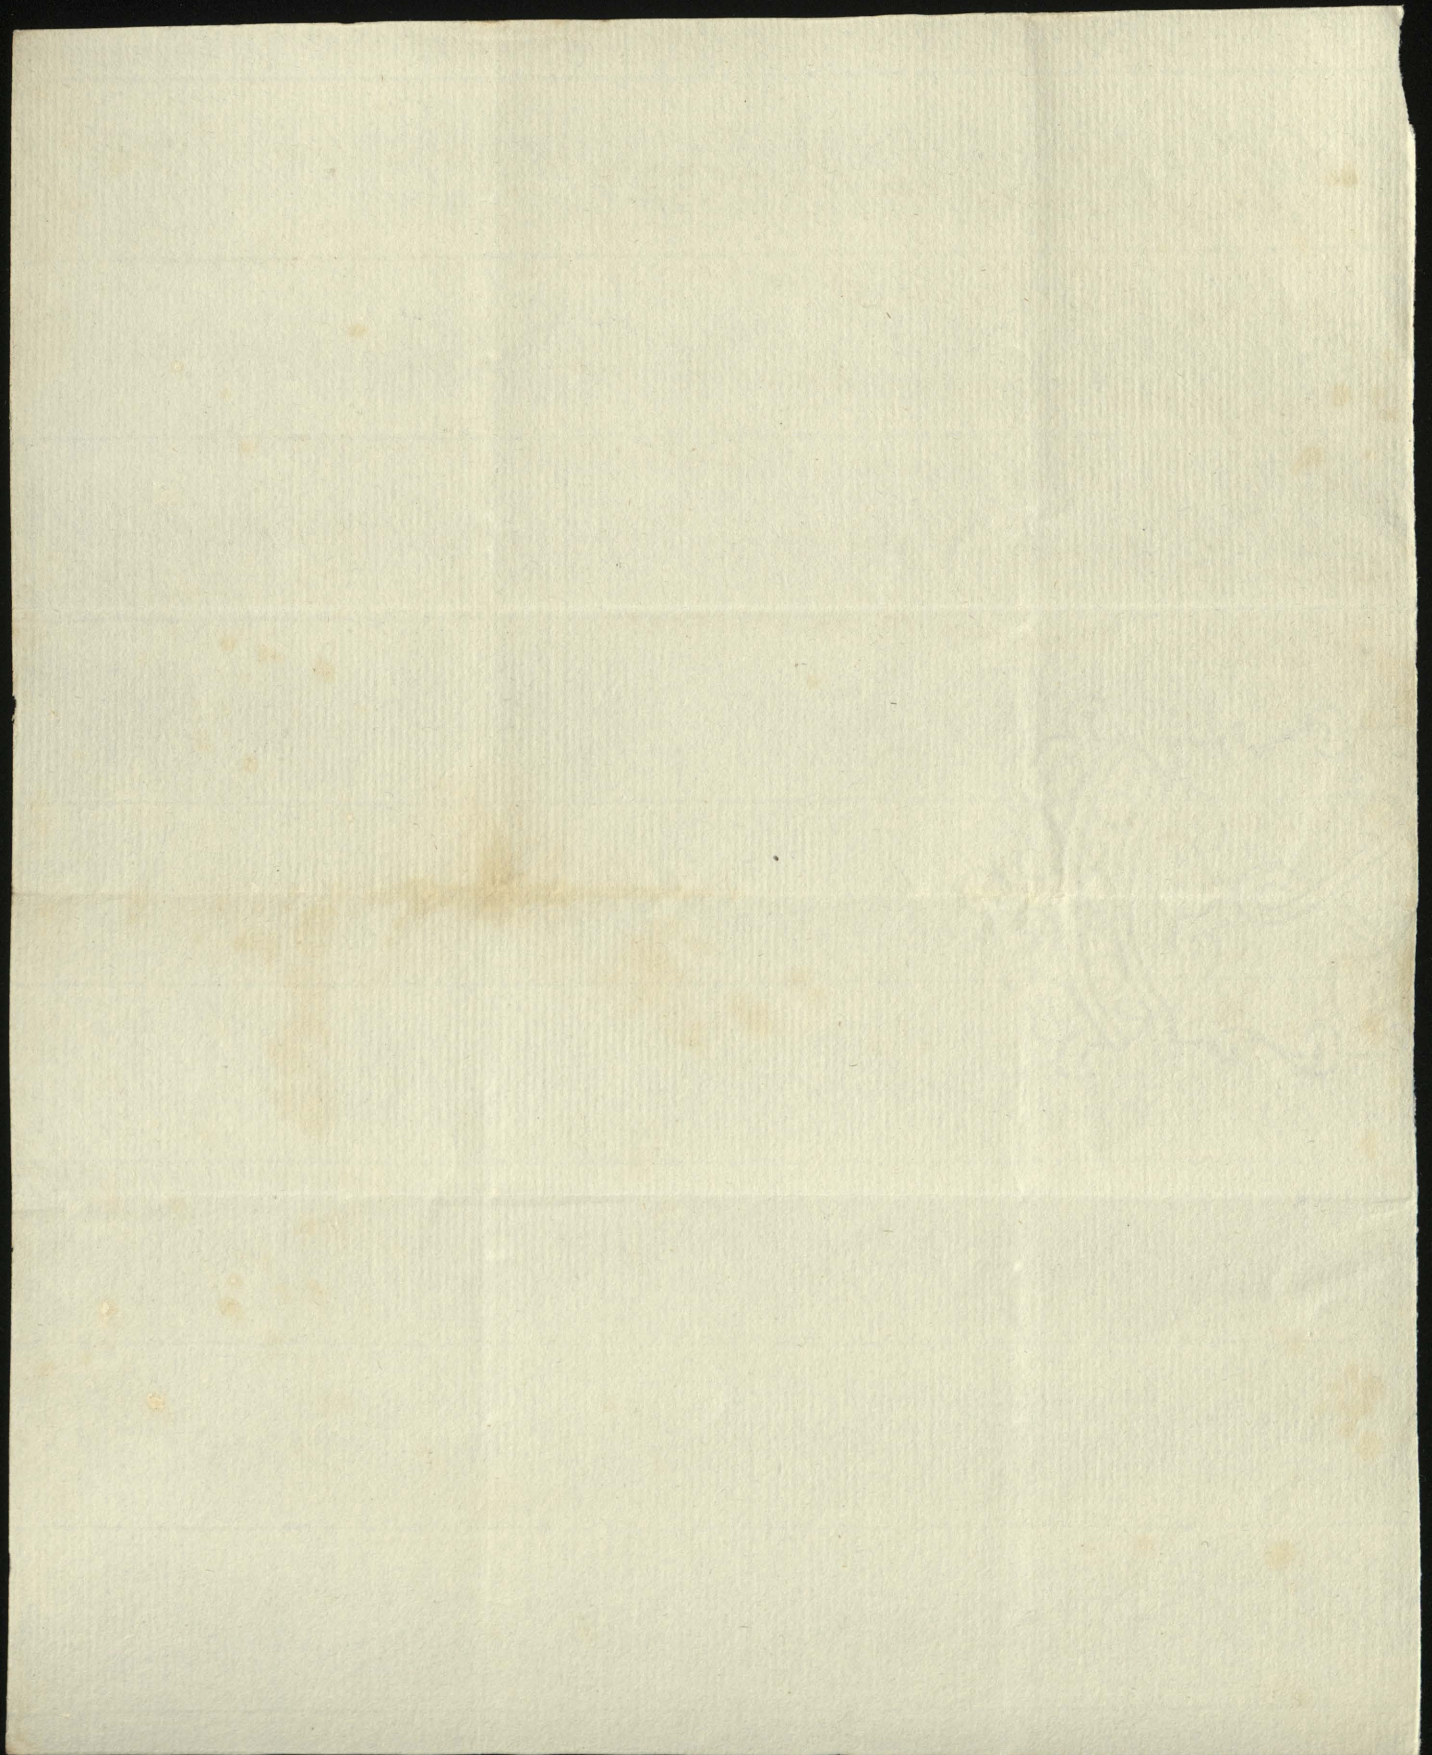

10^o Clock in the Morning

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. —

Sir George Baker has the honour to inform His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, that he left His Majesty in very good humour, amusing himself with writing a letter to the Archbishop of Cantabury for a special licence for Brown to marry M^{rs} Ledyer this evening.
D^r Willisi men are to be increased to the number of eight.

30 Jan. 1789.

HEO|16|1|61

His Majesty became quiet yesterday in the evening; has had a good night & is as usual this morning.

Stew-House

31 Jan. 1789.

ten in the morning.

J. Baker
J. Gibson
F. Willis

To His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales.

