

Ms. B. 1. 7. 5. 131

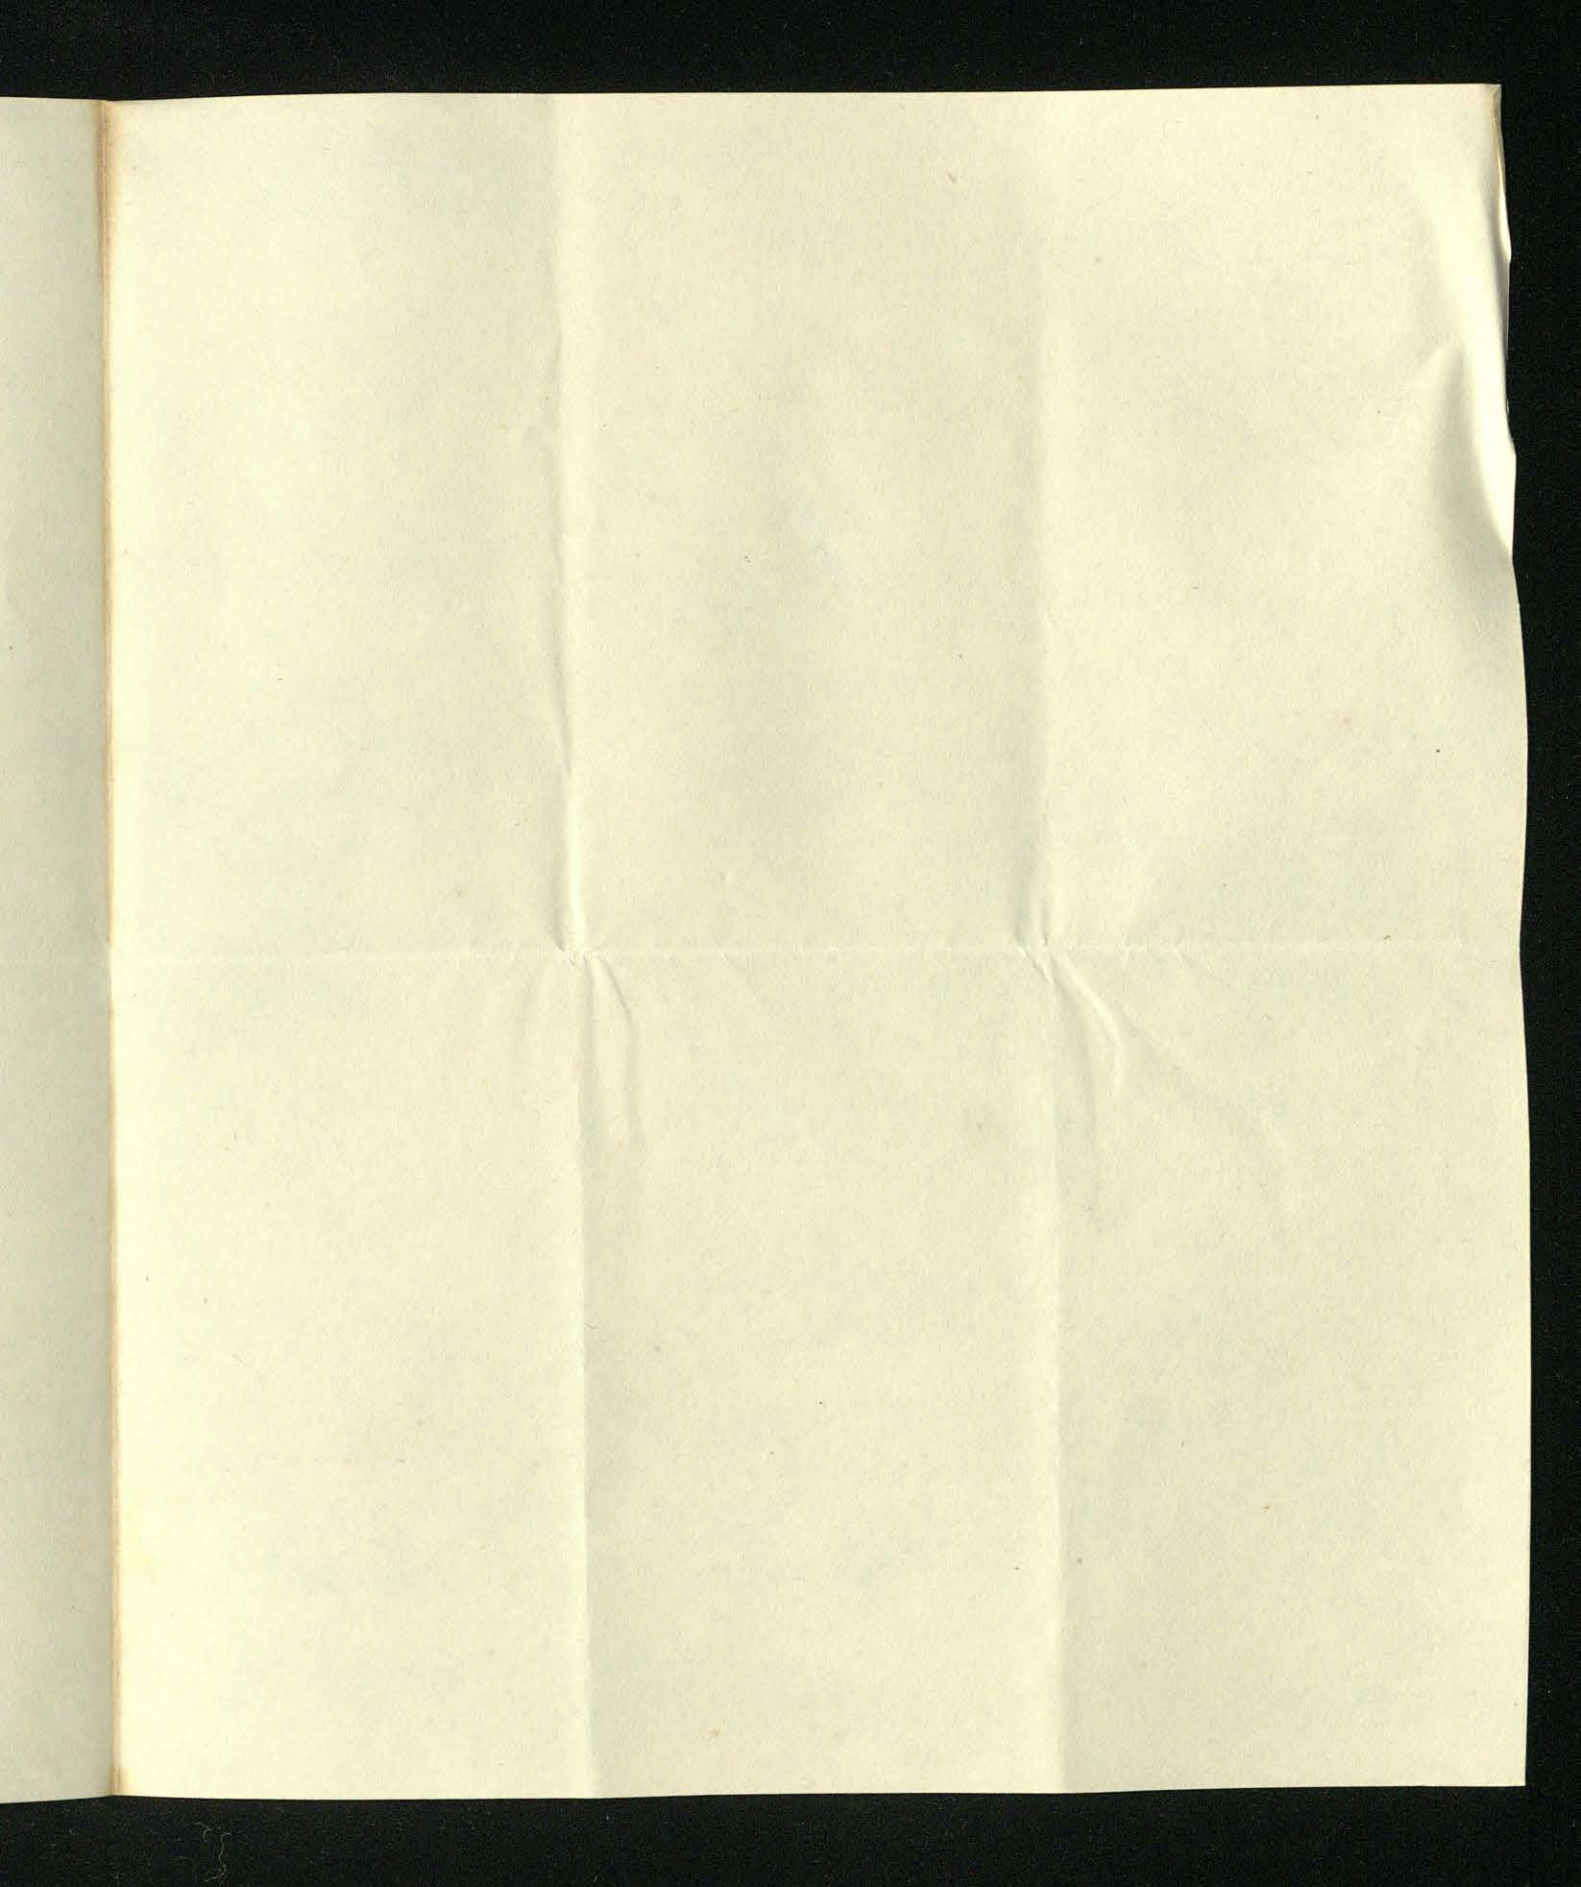

My dear Mr. Brewster

We got to Windsor by half past 7 o'clock found the King quiet & sleepy in the way worse & all grate trouble to you for your kindness & consideration about Jovett which I feel I must reply -

Yours
Macy

July the 1
1814

16/10/68

ms. B. 1. 17 / 5 / 132

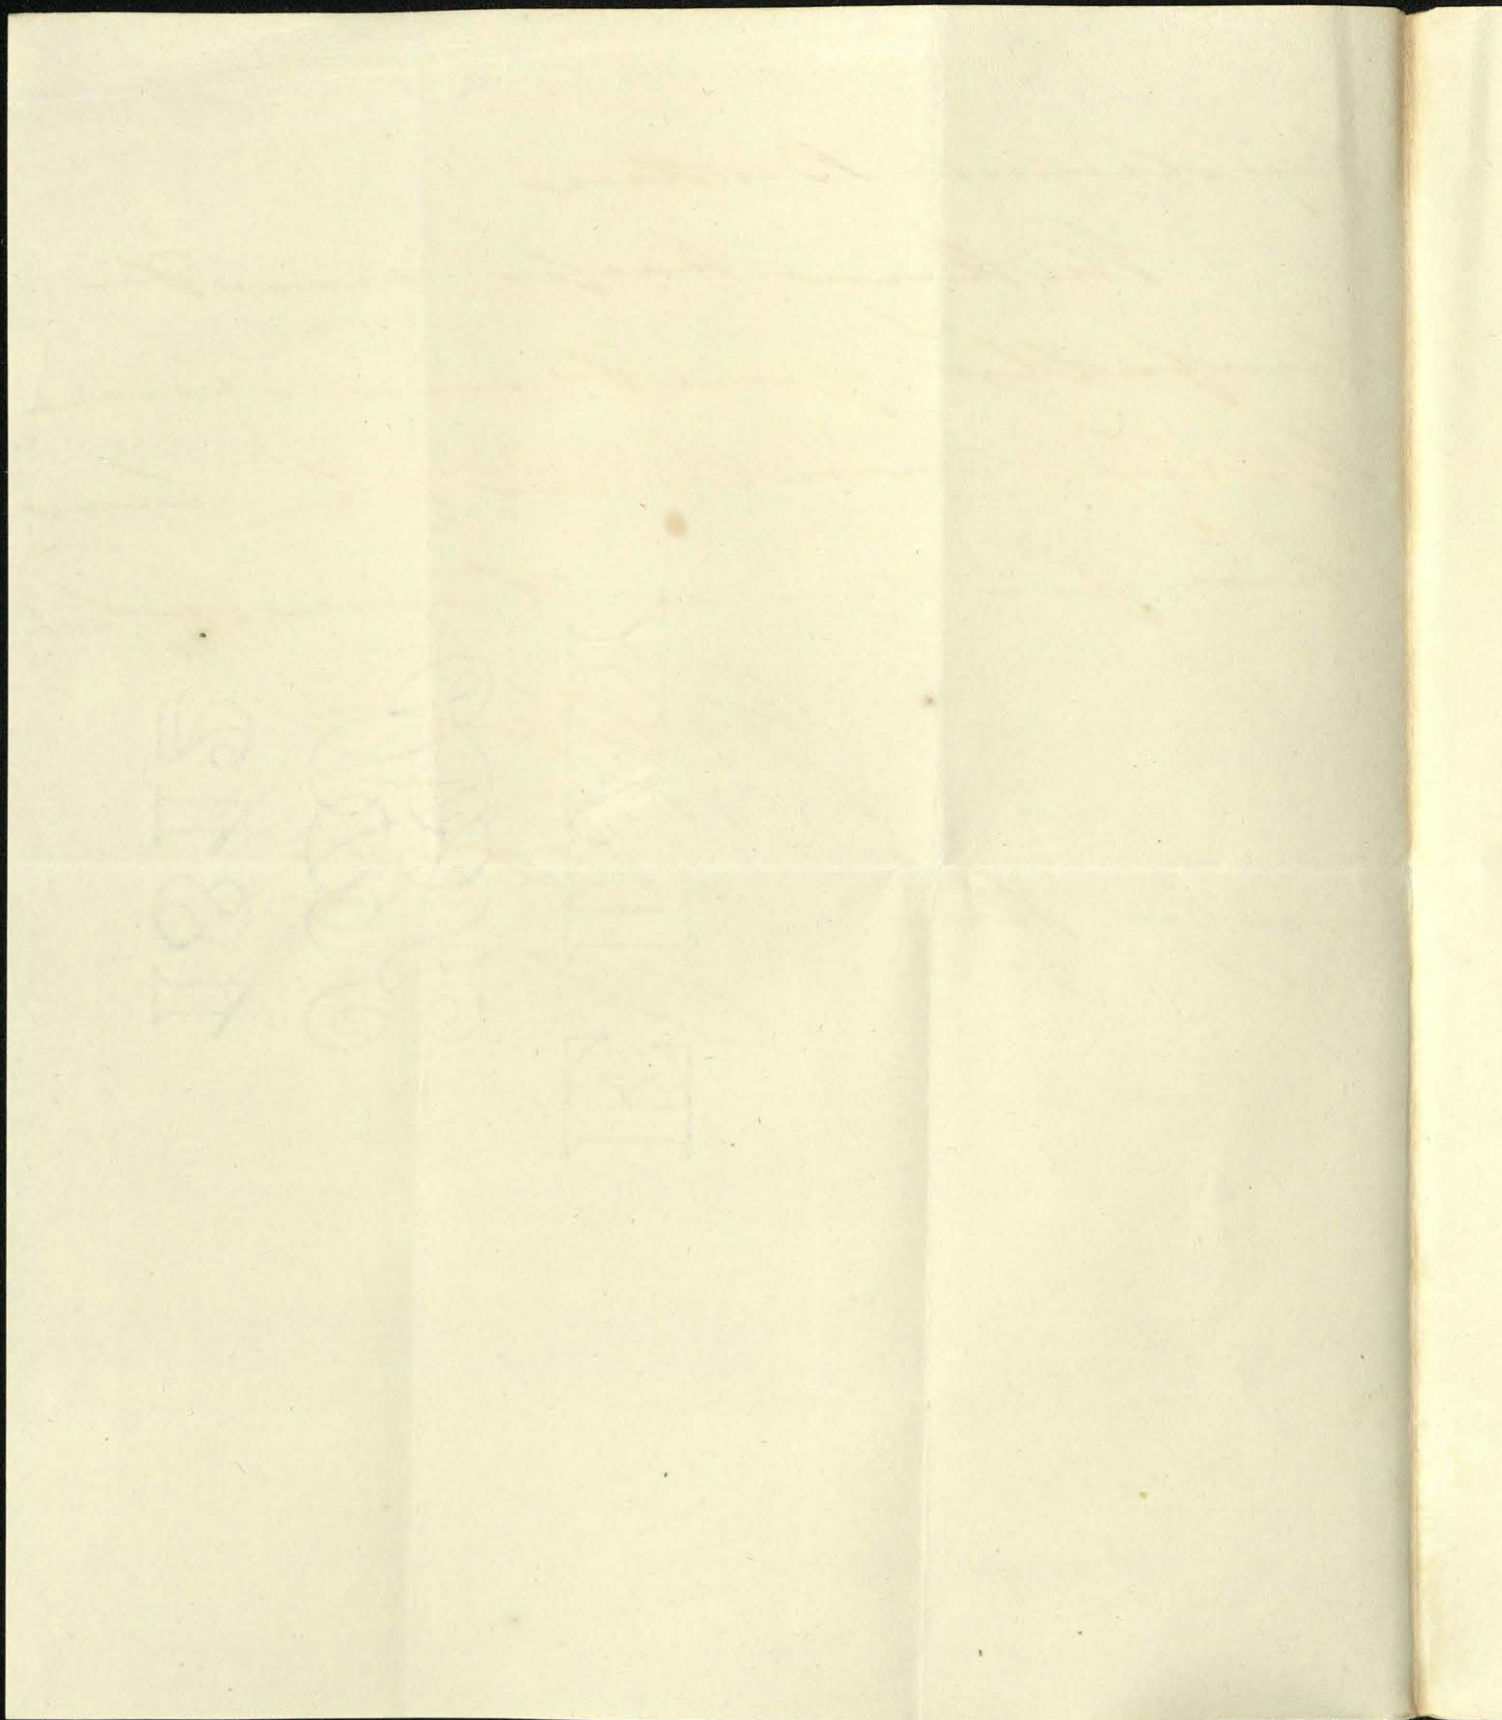

My dear Brother

Arthur keeps me wonderfully quiet and does not say much as she has been for some time past

Yours

Mary

July the 5

Ms. A. 17. 5. 133

My dear Mr. Butler

The King is gone & I hope was happy but a very unfortunate day —

Yr
July the 6th 1789

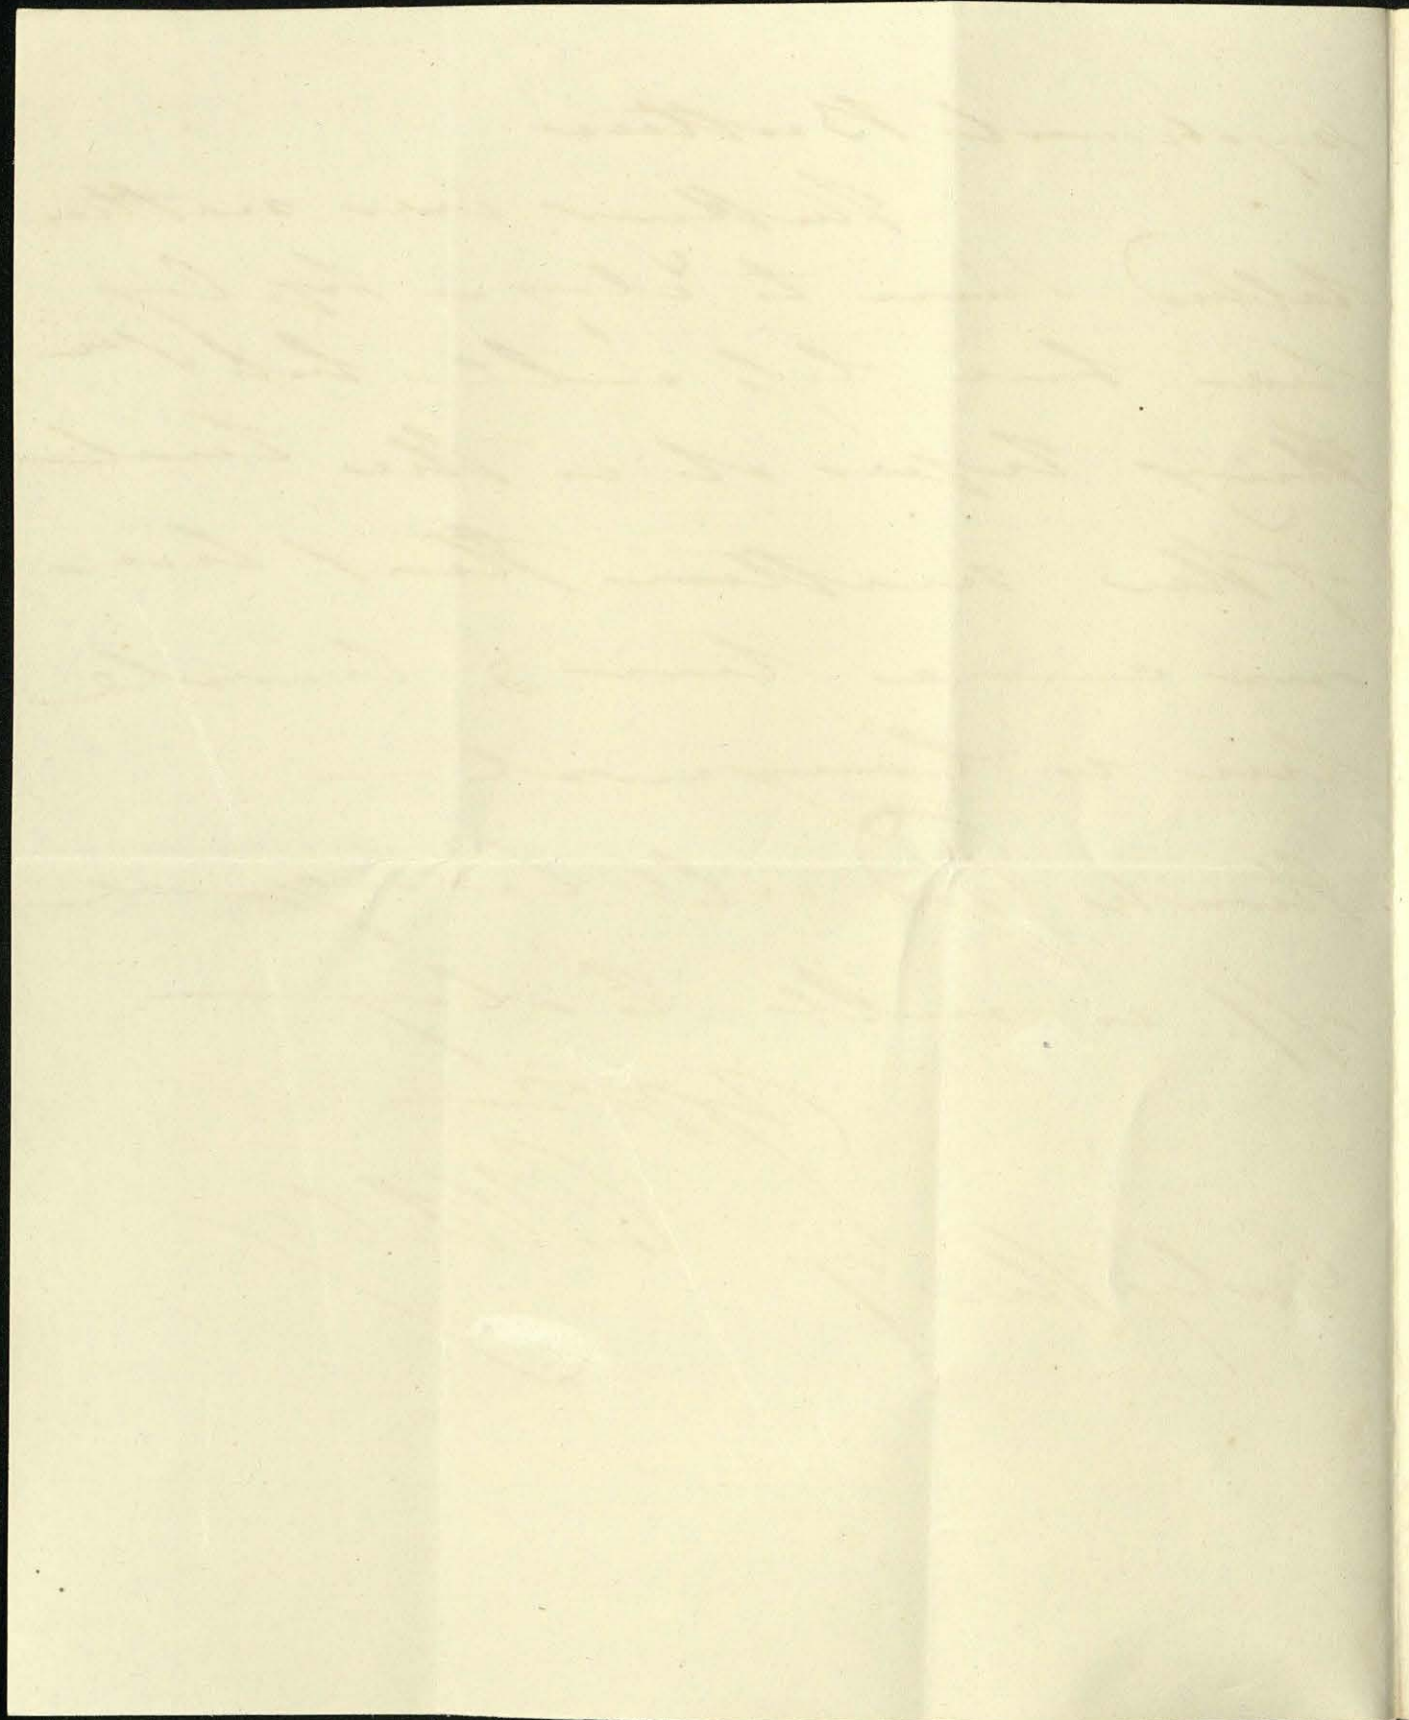

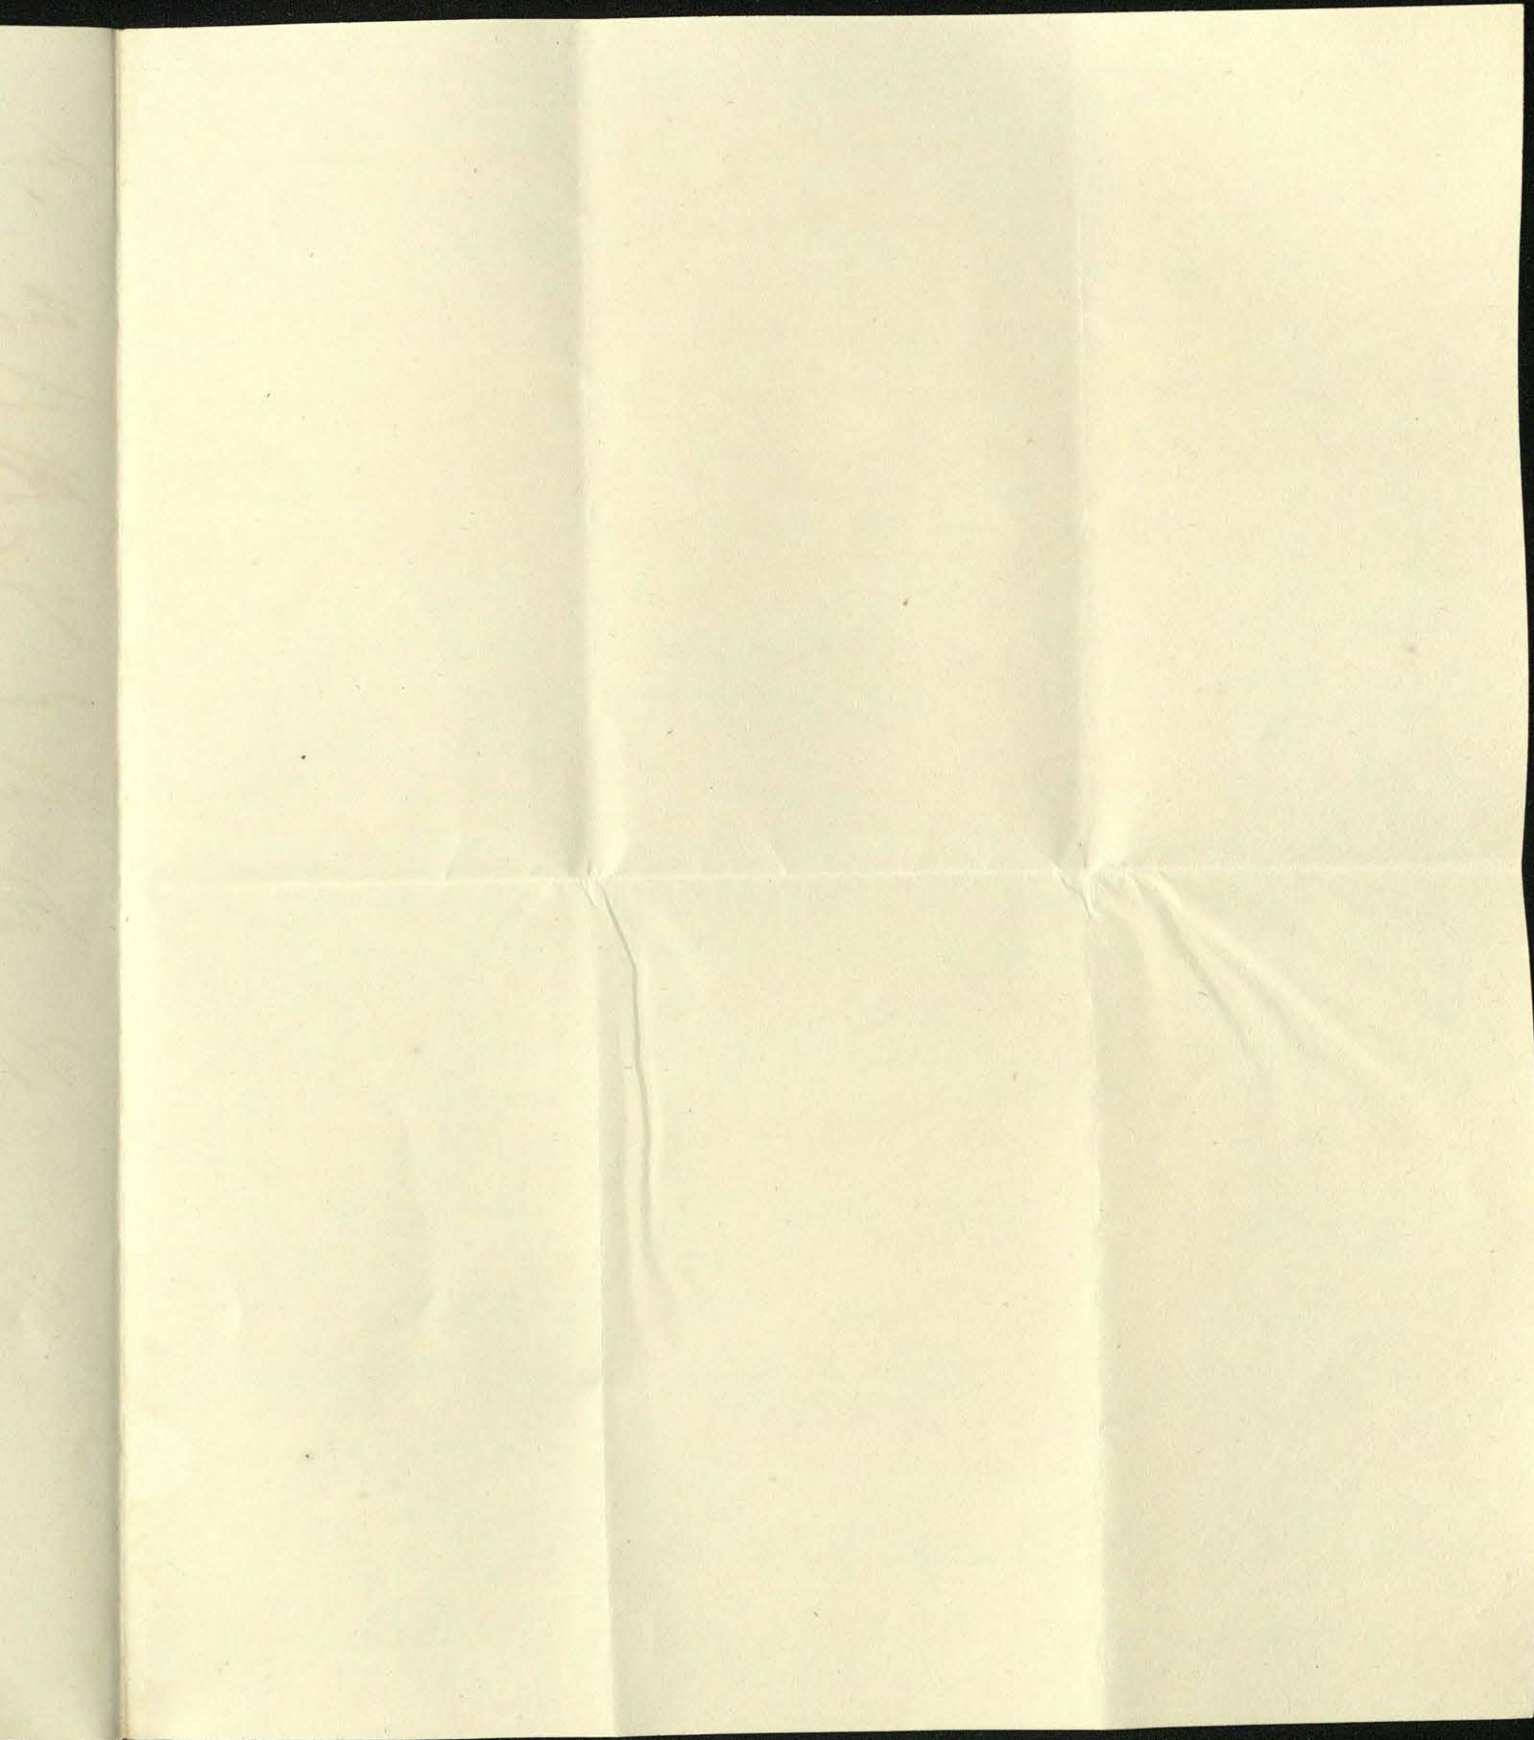

My dear Mother

Hubert has written talked some to day - today has been left with the things before it as the result of the matter that has our cause here & would be no longer -

Thank God all has gone
 off as well today -

Yours
 Macey

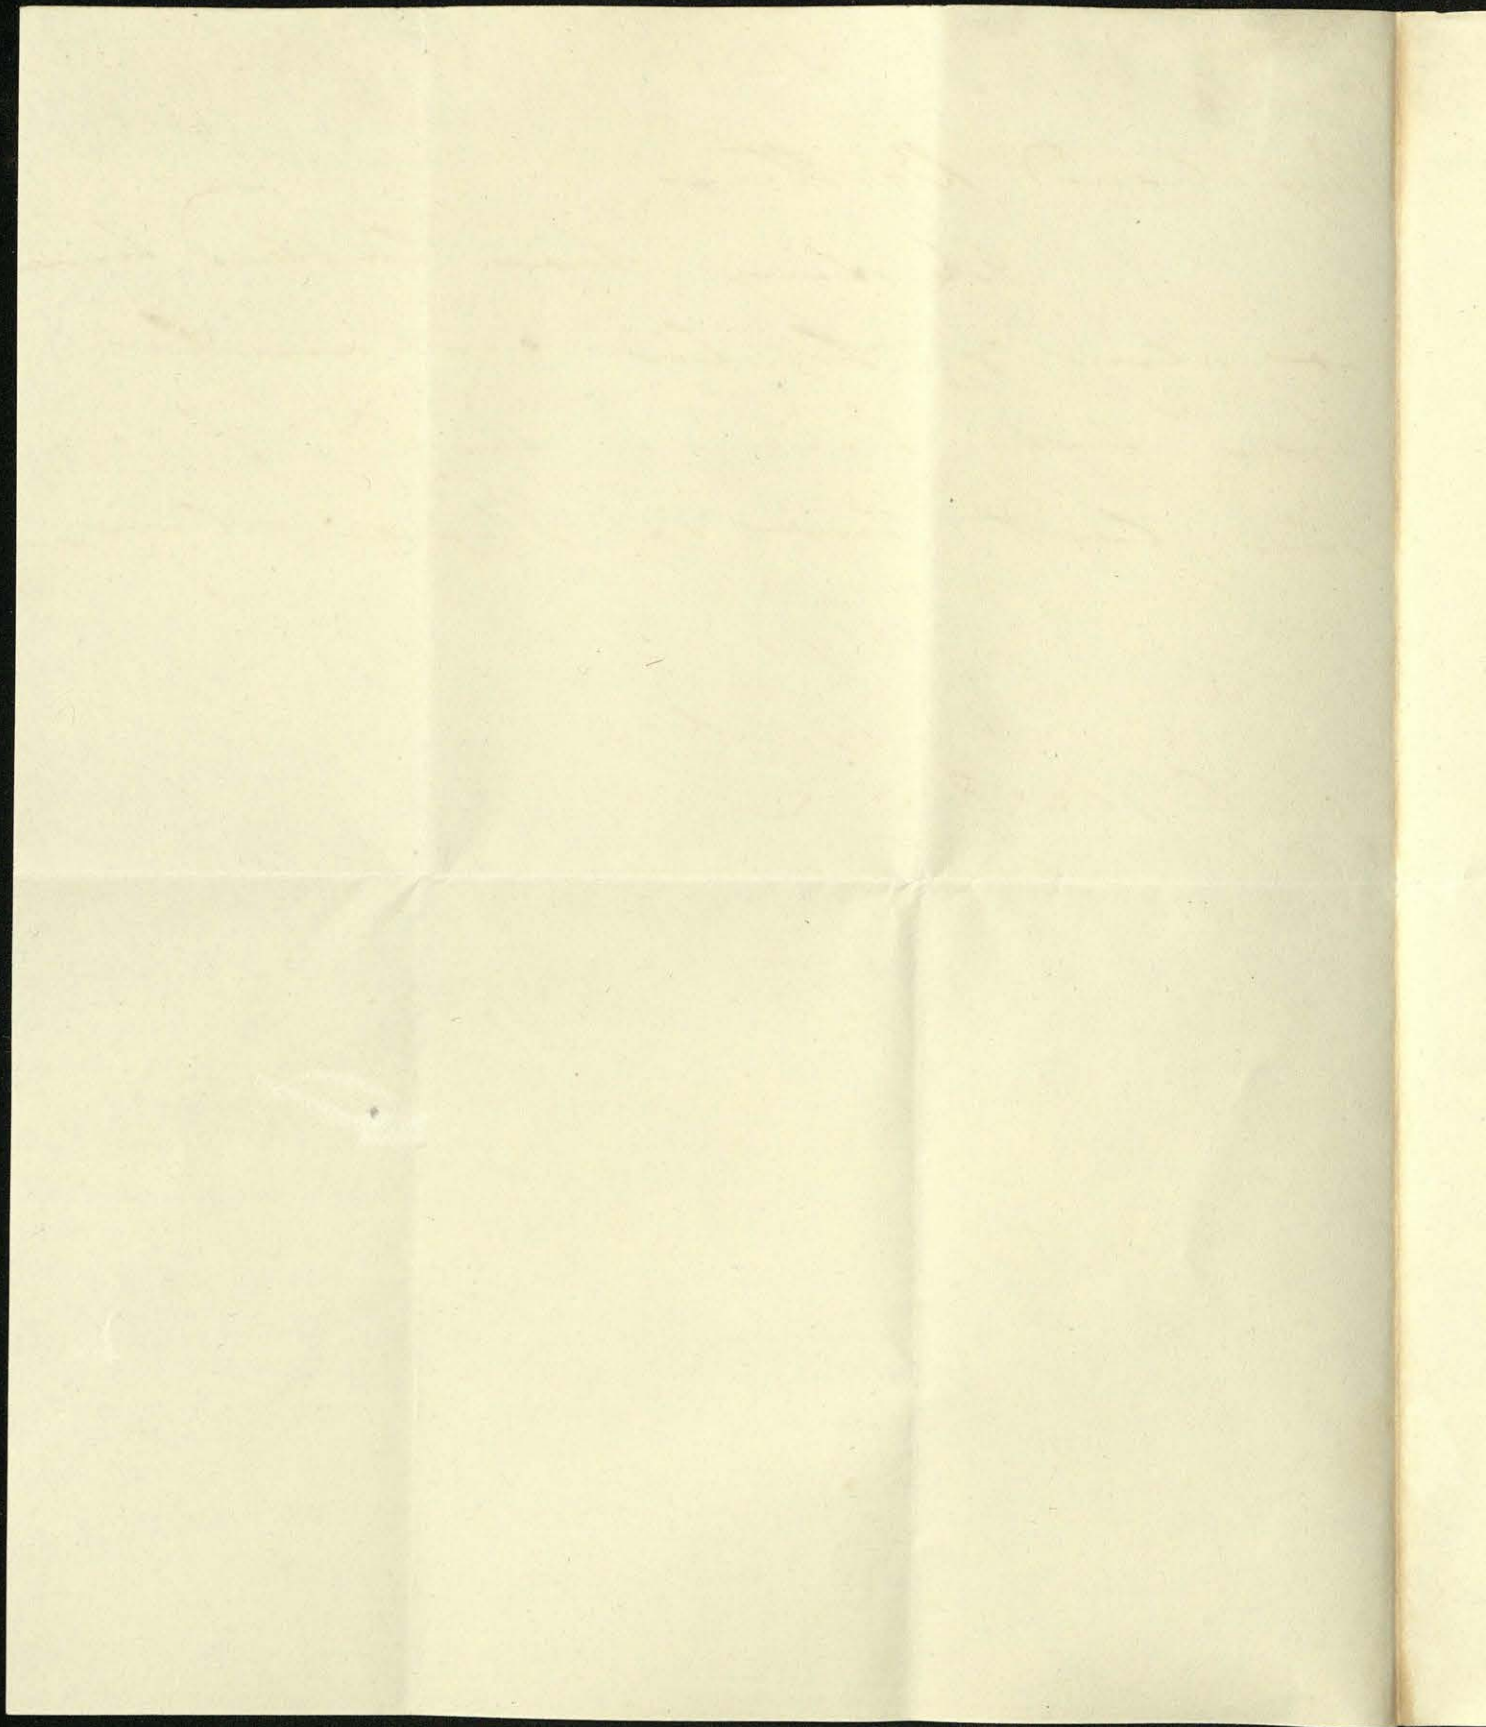

MGB/17/5/135

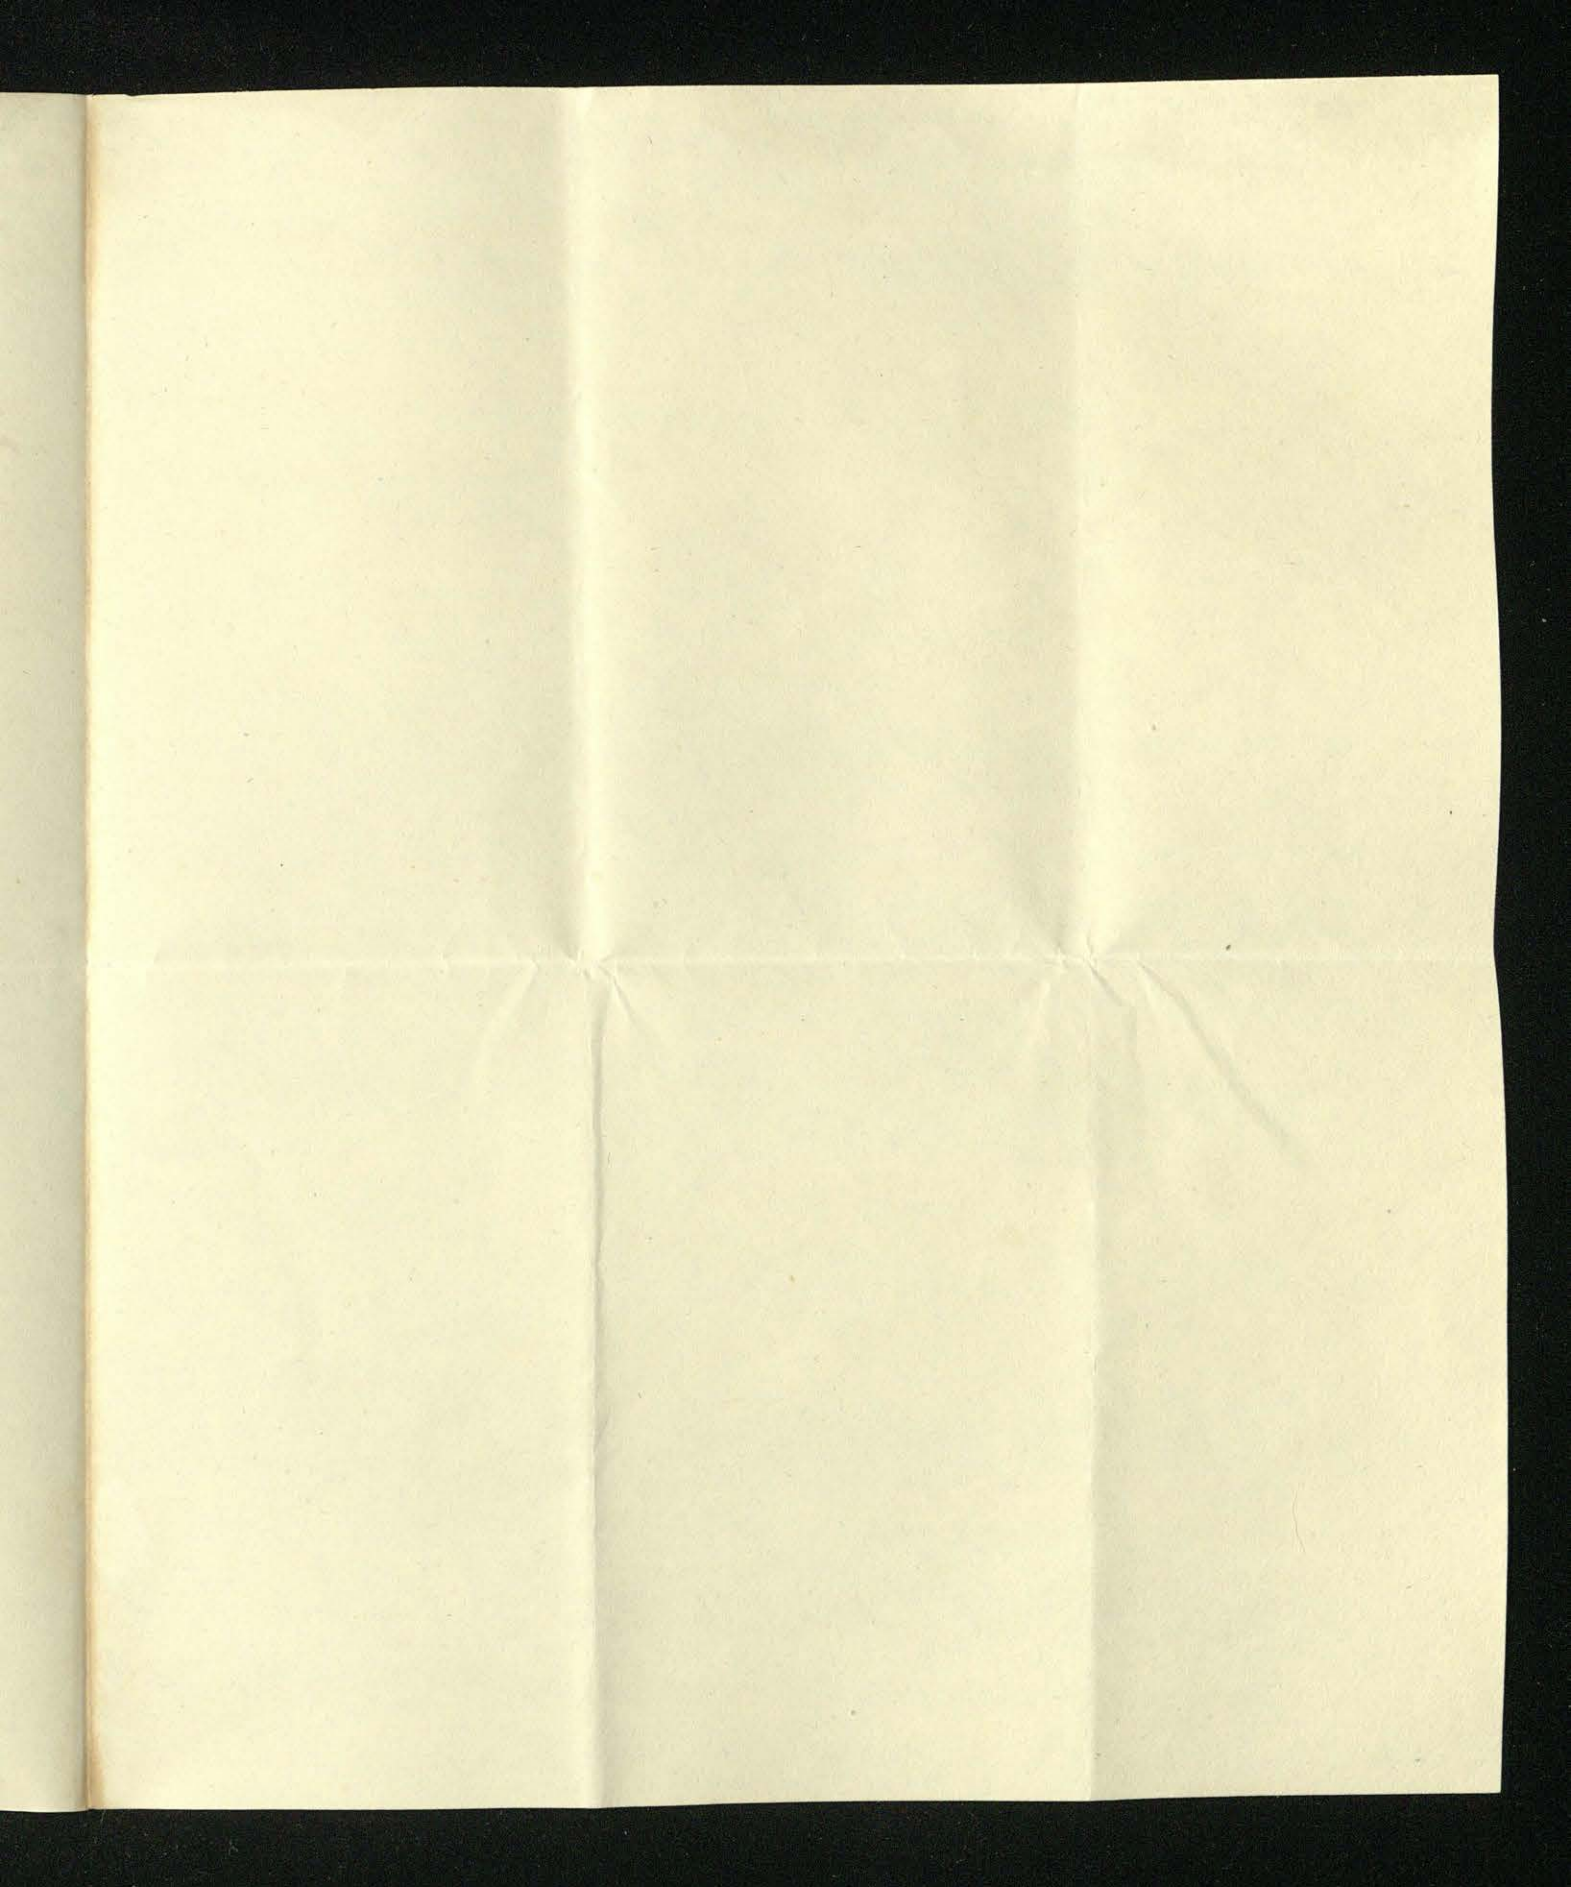

My dear Brother

The King has talked some to day & I hope certainly has not been so well for the last two or three days.

Yours
Paddy

July the 8

Med/17/5/136

My dearest Brother

Heaven has talked me to day, but is fearfully quiet - to your command - Supply is better to day than yesterday -

July the 9

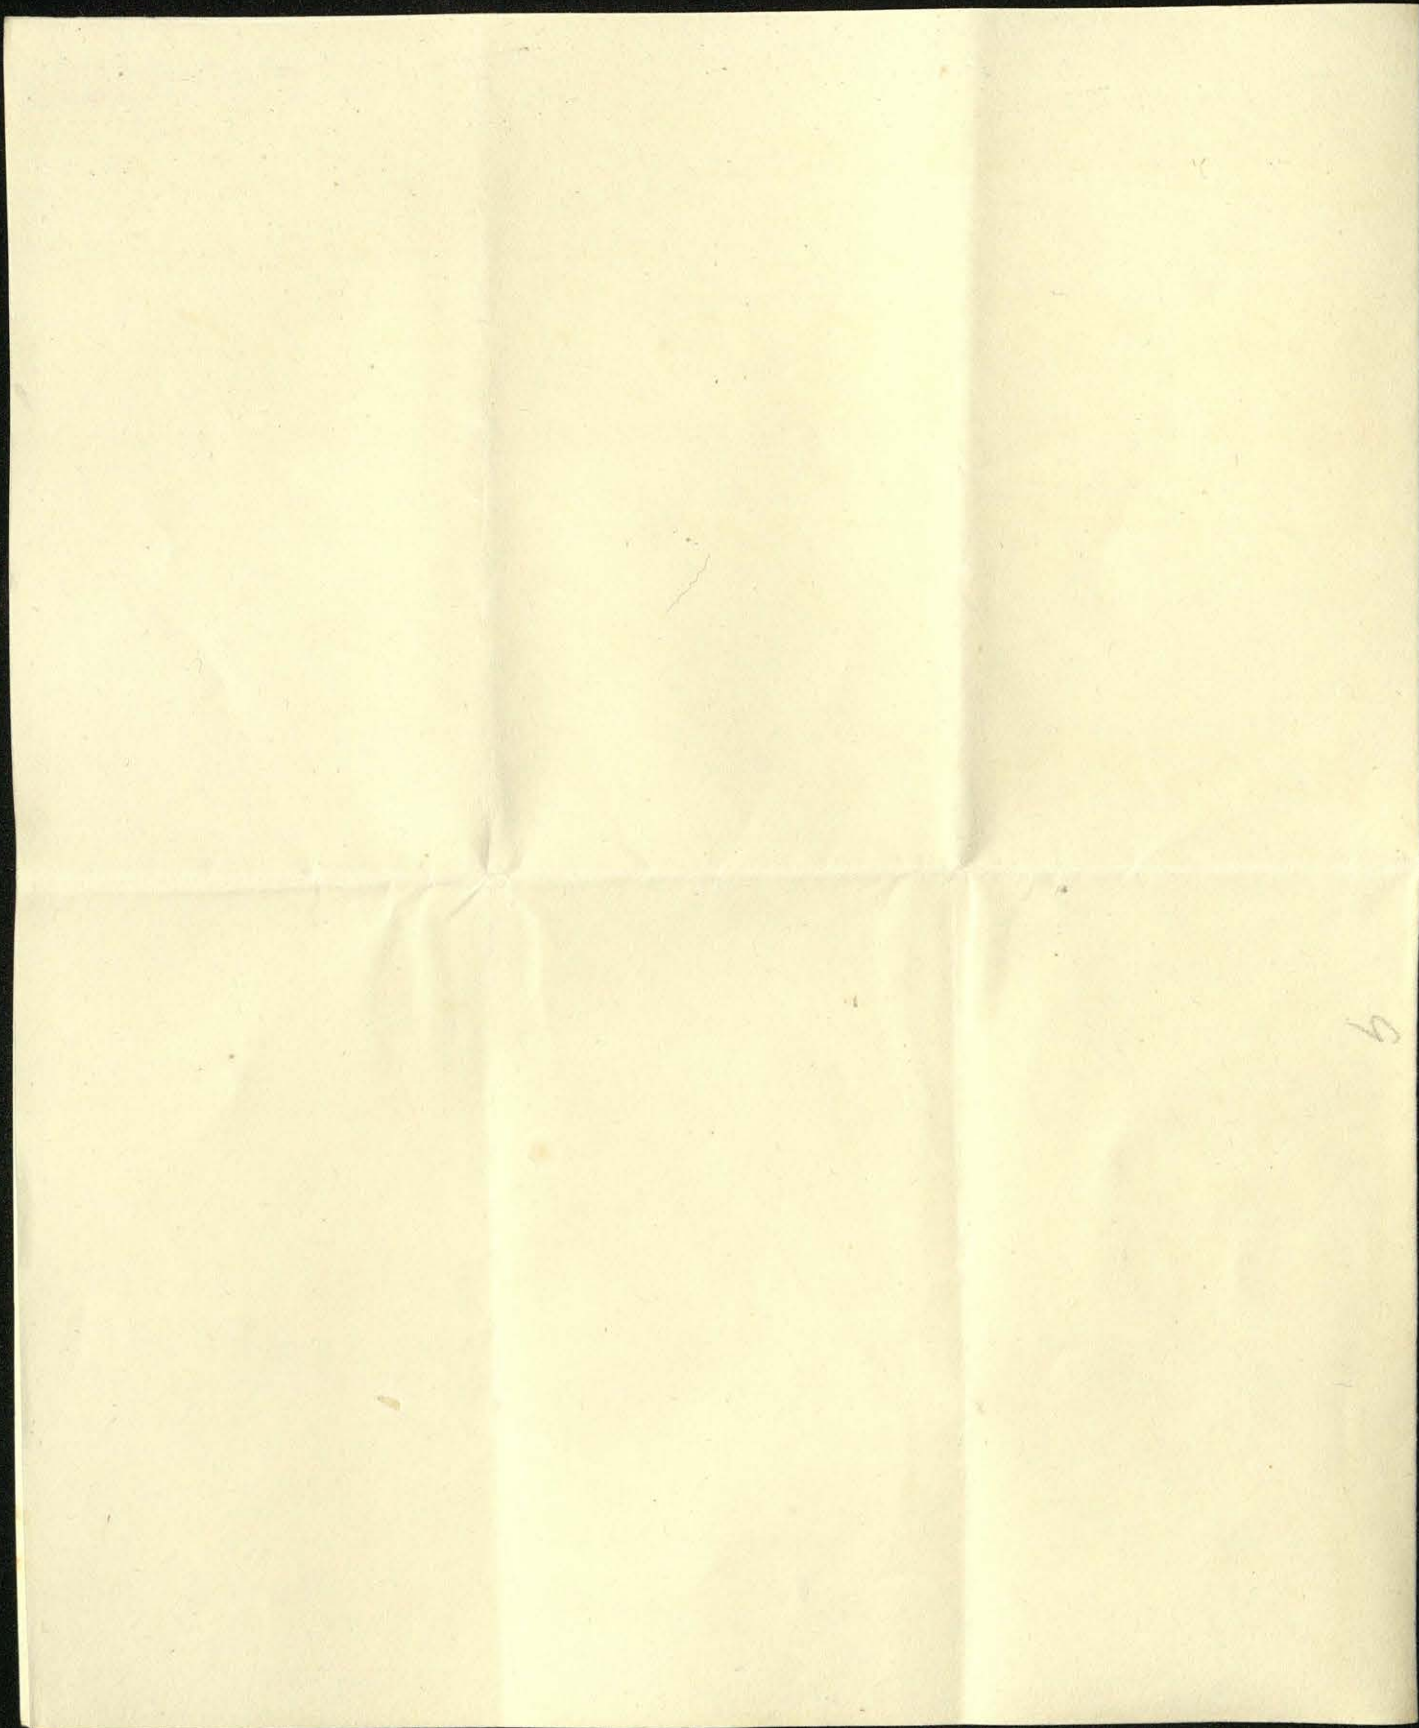

Yours
Marry

1812

1812

1812

ME017/5/137

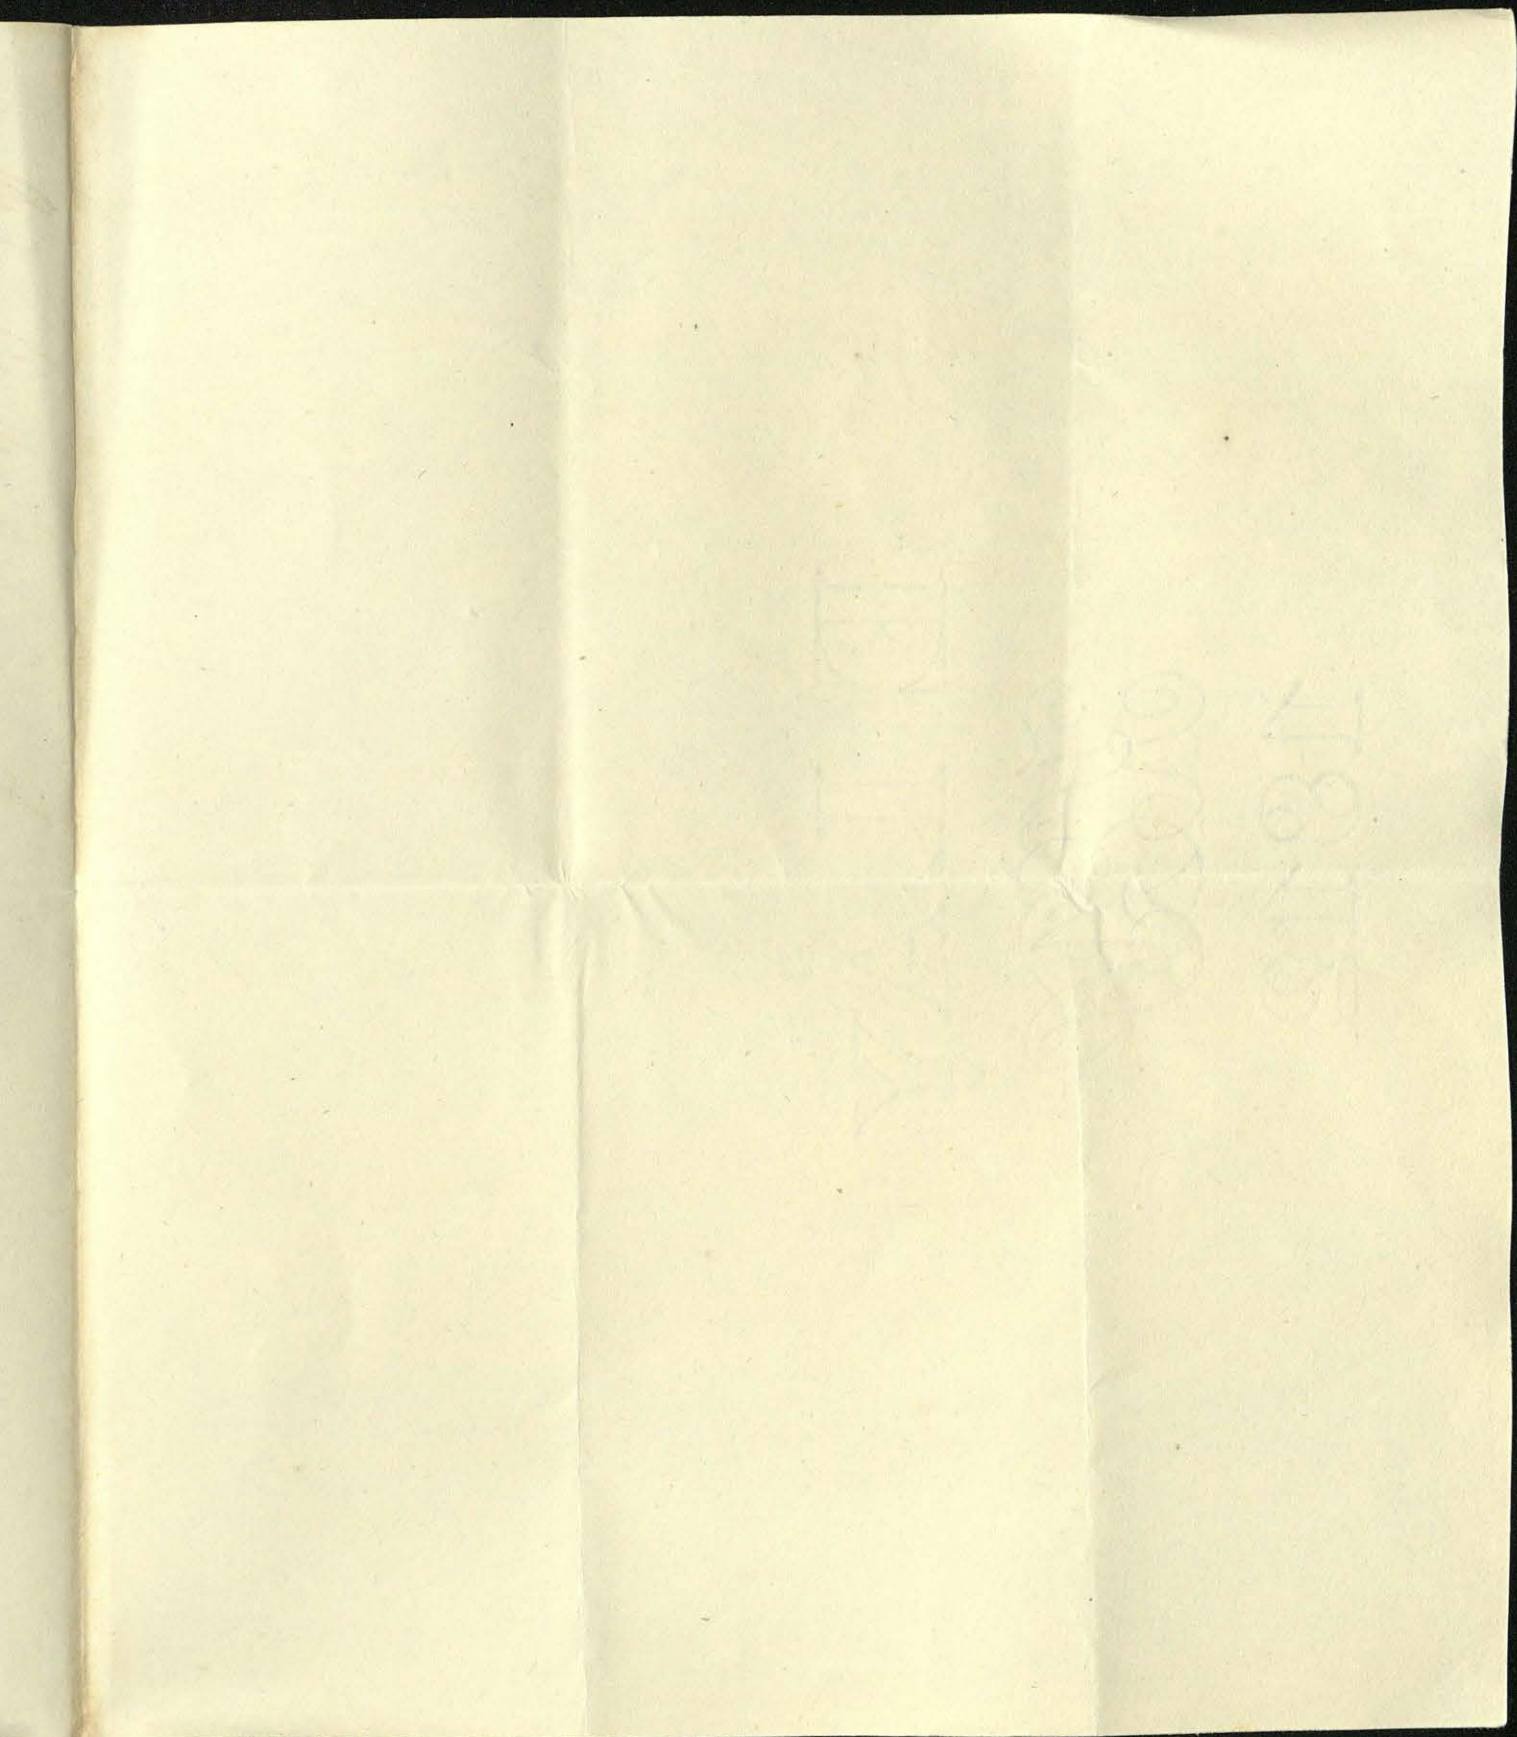

My dear Brother

The King is grand & happy but my wife is not I shall be in town to-morrow morning - yours

Mary

July the 11

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

MS. A. 17. 5 / 188

My dear Brother

I found the King quiet & composed - I felt our cause and equally & looked with all I had to tell him & full of anxiety about you -

No words can say how much

my heart has thirst for you in all these important business & how much I

long for your company &

happiness. Yours

July the 15th Albany

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

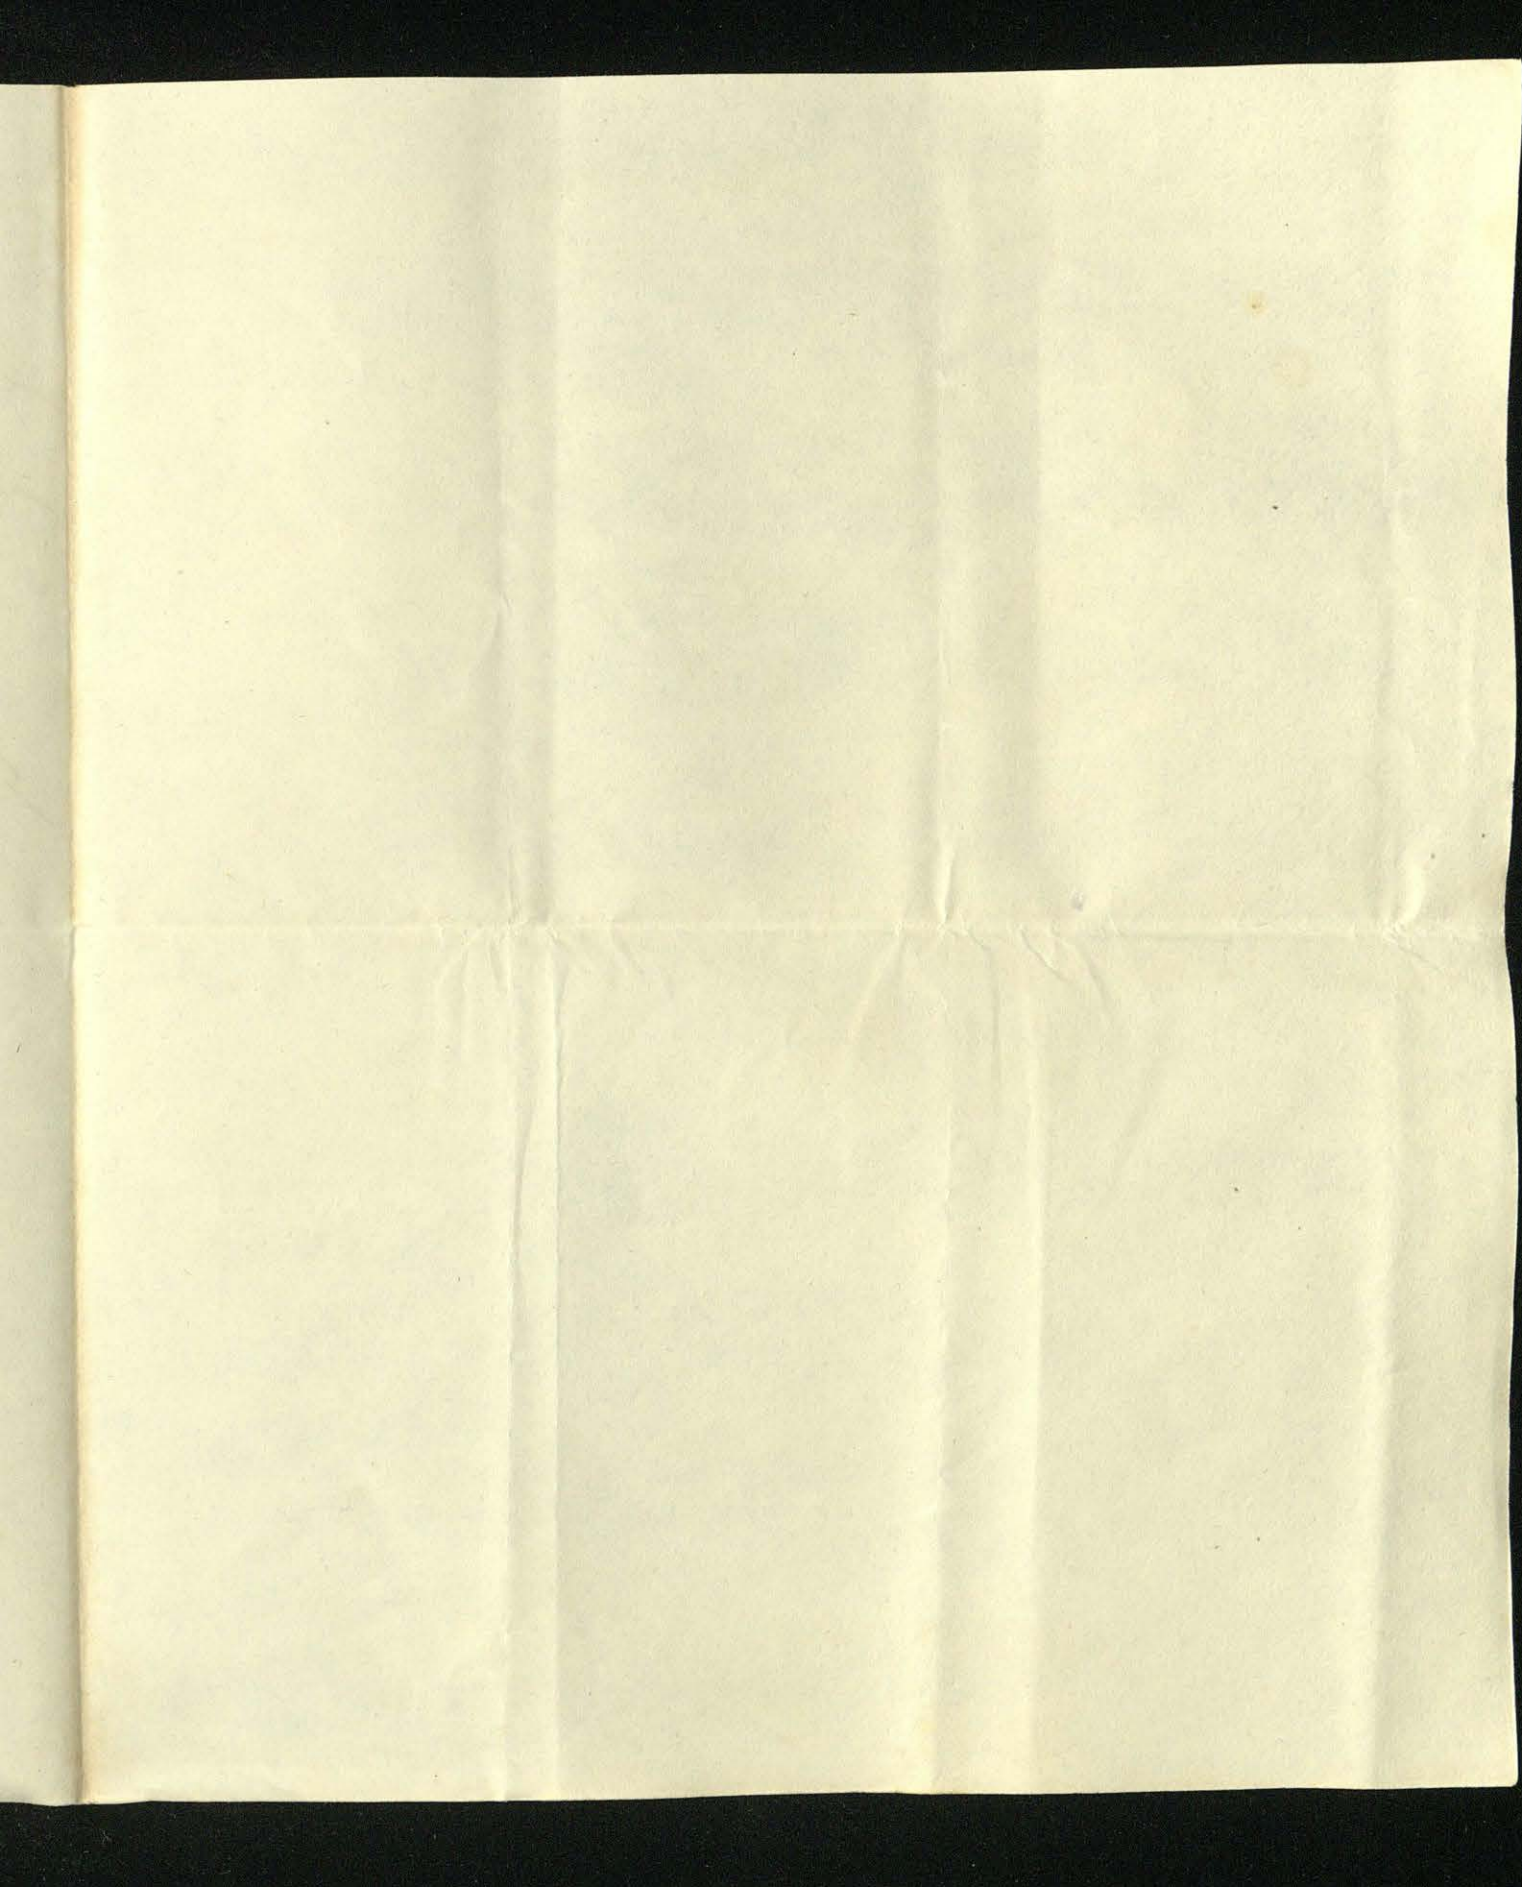

Ms. A. 1. 17. 5. 139

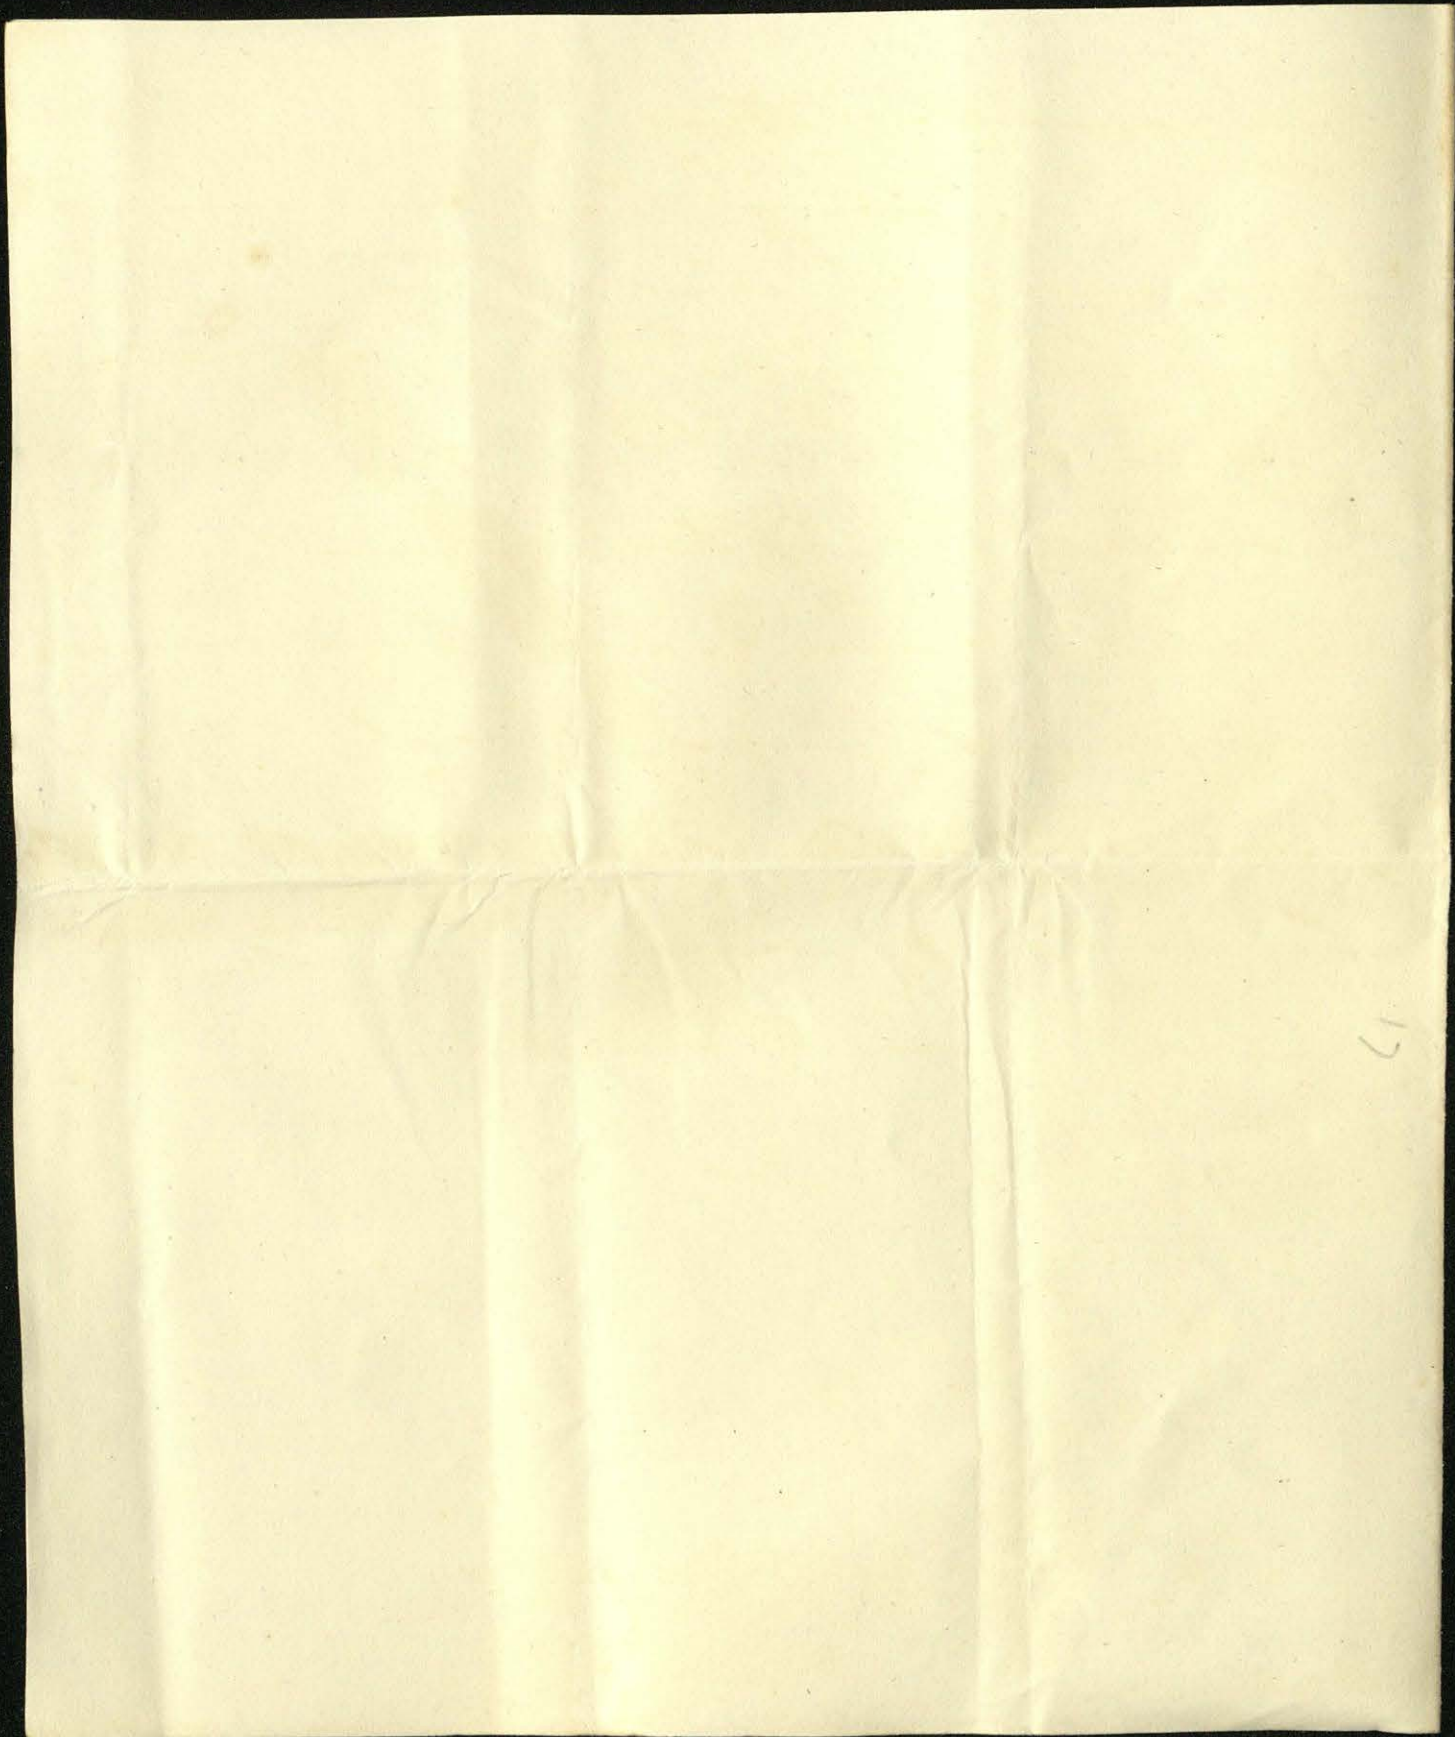

My dear Brother

Arthur keeps himself perfectly quiet & composed Mary is but very so so

Yours
Mary

July the 17

ms. A. 17. 5. 146

My dear Brother

Thanking you very much & also for the money as usual I have now the Bishop's of Salisbury who my plan to be carried out I have at 4 o'clock & I have and come off first as usual

Yours

Wm. Pitt

July the 18

J

