My dear Aunt
 This has delivered me from kind and friendly Misses - I shall thank you for it myself because I am not certain what I feel about it.

Then let me first tell you that I have with a fair wind occasionally float towards Brighton to have a pass at you - and I understand my first appearance there on Monday the day so dear to my heart being you as I do with as my Brother and my best friend - You have ever been invariably kind to me - no time nor opportunity can express my affection for, and gratitude to you.

I have I often go to sea when I would great by prefer a ride on a walk - but the sailing is really so wholesome for the skin and the enjoys it so much with having this Band of Mine on board that I do not judge giving up any amusement of mine to accompa enjoy them.

My Eyes are certainly much better, the In inflammation having totally subsided, but the still run very lowly - and I am with out of much better - but since I have had heard that the interest is dispersed it has put them into great spirits.

I am now on the way to camp at Jara in the hope to be present with the Free de jure in honor of the Dear Day - and in which I am at the Founder's.

You must forgive my little offering on evening to you tomorrow - but it will be ready in a few days - I am vain enough to think you will not lose it the day coming a day or two later.

God bless you my dear friend Believe me ever

Your most truly affec^t
