

To Peery Hales

Windsor Castle July 18, 1884

My Dearest Brother

The Queen has been affecting me the conversation she had with you respecting your seeing the Duke of Brunswick - and she thinks if you have no objection to it that the best plan to be pursued would be for you to write to her stating that you are obliged to go to Cheltenham for your health which will delay your meeting for week or two after that you wish to see her at the Duke of Yorks if she would name the day - This appears the best and easiest method of arranging the business; and something at the same time that ministers of delicacy prevent your visiting her at Blackheath till she is established in her own House

Believe me ever

My Dearest Brother

Your very truly Affectionate

Brother

Her R. H. M.
Sincerely Augustus
