

Saturday night Windsor Castle

March 6th 1819

My dear Brother

The Queen commands me to give you her affectionate love & to assure you she would have wrote herself, but she still has such a lassitude upon her that she felt you would excuse her making use of my pen.

She orders me to say that she has spoke to both the Archbishops as she promised, & they are willing to obey your commands when ever you call upon them to speak to Charlotte. My Mother spoke openly, & as you wish her, but as you are so good as to listen to her advice, she thinks after what was said last night, you had better wait for some little time, for as you have conducted yourself with so much forbearance, by pausing, You may soon see what the Lady intends to say (for entre nous) we do not think it will not here, then You may be forced to do what were You to do now might be thought unbecom'd. at this moment, but if she presses the business further, you are then compelled to open Your Daughters eyes, & make them speak to her upon a subject which You feel too much delicacy to enter upon with her Yourself.

You will be glad to hear my Mother is much better, & thanks to Yours letter this evening to Mary & what we had picked up before, our minds are at present more at ease—

Most sincerely do we hope You may have nothing more to teaze You tho we do hardly flatter ourselves that this may shake be his

 may must thus it
 I am
 my
 the me
 the has stud in had see two bloc not of an

may not again be started in some other shape, if so, it is to be hoped that all may be known that your patience & forbearance may be thoroughly shown to the world, & much as one has dreaded publications, in this instance all good people must wish it —

Sunday morning

My Mother desires me to add that the reason why she wishes you at present to rest upon your ears is, that she is of opinion after what has passed in the House, & the restrictions in regard to the visits being in your power, the non-entrevue had better not be touched upon at present, as that may occasion difficulties, which might cause another blow up which had much better not be caused on your side for fear of mischief, for she is quite sure you are now standing on good ground & must do nothing to irritate —

You would have had this earlier but I wished to read what I had written to my Mother for fear of my not having said all she wished & was obliged to wait till she was alone —

God bless You —

Yours Affly
J. W. D.

Princess Elizabeth

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince Regent
March 6. 1813

Apr. 9th 1813

My dear Brother

The Queen commanded me to say that she would be sure the goodness to send your message for us at three o'clock Mary & I have accompanied my Mother to Town

April 10th 1813
 W. G.
 W. G.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

[Faint, illegible handwriting on the right edge of the page]

Apr. 9th 1813

May 15 1813

My dear Brother

I must take up my pen for to express in a very short note my gratitude for all your kindness & amiability since all while I am where in Town it is impossible to say how deeply it is felt by me, & how strongly it is engraven on my heart, We have all a great share of pleasure on pleasant days we never spent in our

May 15 1813

twice, & you will be glad to hear we are all the better for it—

My Mother is remarkably well & delighted with your extreme goodness. When I saw you she has inferred herself on your subject in the strongest terms—

we had the comfort of finding when we returned that the bad thing had done well & had just fallen which she has still four hours in the course of the day & so now I think had just a look—

I will now take up no more of your business time & only add how truly soon

Yours
May 15th 1813
Elizabeth

*Smith & Bayard
to
The Queen's Regent
May 15. 1813*

May 22 1813

My dear Brother

I trust I need not say how disappointed I was in not seeing You & how truly sorry to find Your absence occasioned by a bad Headache which I well know how to feel for — I wish that it were in my power to answer Your delightful Letter as I ought, may yet be said your Indisposition in Surgeon's attire You would certainly have occasioned a flight of imagination from which she would have set off with a degree of spirit worthy of You, & You most wisely & kindly sent me the most beautiful Suburban with a hope that You had omitted superficial Attire to have drawn from me some degree of wit, which alas! is at present perfectly out of the question.

 However You succeeded in making me laugh heartily at Your face & Good humours which delighted me, & made me think of my intemperance with as much visibility as any one can do, I am happy you have granted me the character of clearly for that I regard myself upon as I thank clearly respect next to Godness — & I grant when You are attempting the punch I do wish I was formed still more like a Ball & could become a wood loose to roll up & slip through ^{yo} fingers & thumb.
 But joking apart I thank You a thousand times for all Your

May 22 1813

most perfect presents which could my taste perfectly. The salt cellar very handsome, the Snuff Box quite alone

My Mother commands me to give you her best love & entreat you will send Her an answer through either Col Bloomfield or Col Mac Gushon to the Governor. I am to ask ed for her, as she did not see you to day. She wishes to know if you would give her Ball on Tuesday the first of June instead of the second, she would then come to Town on Monday & stay either till Wednesday or Thursday as you like for she does not like being in Town on the fourth which she thinks you will approve

If you wish to see the Duchess of York & Prince Sophie Malles & wish let us know, I will take that trouble off your hands for the sooner they know it the better on account of their rep a thing of no small importance to a female — You wish then settle with Adolphus to take the Season if you wish it on Monday which will save your servants but after what has happened last week, you must not be so plagued, & if you speak settly there will be no more to be said let us know; also how long you wish my Mother to stay for she stands being a plague to you — Augusta gives great time & is much pleased with the thoughts of it, but entirely you better thoroughly settle what my Mother is to do for them you will not be wornied, & if you propose her seeing the Sir Johnes, I think she will agree to it but do all this before she comes to Town & then she will walk on about my particularly settle Wednesday or Thursday for returning — You must think this letter a bad return for you, but this day always brings much sorrow to my mind, & tho I am in tent, when I look back many things cause me to sigh when I look forward I dread what may still be my lot, I only hope whatever it is to be that I may lean on & rely first on the good will of God & then on your friendship & affection to comfort me if I am not happy.

God bless you with every thing kind from the Father I remain

May 22
1813

[Handwritten signature]

Princess Elizabeth
to Mr Prince Regent
May 22. 1813

May 25 1813

My dear Brother

I shall trouble Lady Inchulle who is returning very soon to take this note for you to thank you for your letter & also convey from the Queen that she is delighted that you have agreed to leaving the June on Tuesday the 1st of June - She talks of returning Wednesday but I hope

May 25 1813

that you will settle all that you hear before she comes to Town — for it will be more comfortable to you both having it settled —

We were delighted to hear of Ernest & shall now write to him which I have not done yet —

You must be hurried to death at present so I will take up

no more of your time than to assure you how sincerely

I am

Yrs Aff

Windsor Castle

May 25th

1813

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince Regent
May 20. 1813.

June 6 1813

Capital 'Capital. Capital.' perfect, more hit, Amicus, & even, than has been seldom seen for some time & the Drawing I would not part with for a thousand pounds—not even for the price of the Gadde's jewel Box so valuable to the Farmers & the Country at large— You may easily believe it has enchanted my colleague in mischievous we have laughed heartily by & then admired the spirit & uncommon quickness of the Penmanship may say every thing from us & express how delighted we are & how kindly we think she has taken our joke— the Sketch is a perfect Ensemble in short there never was any thing that even answered so well — Thank You a thousand times for having entered with so much good humour & good nature into this business we are both equally grateful — & You will have the kindness to say every thing from us when so much is due — we are great admirers in that Quarter & You will know me that if I was not so I would not say it for old Honour has ever been my name —

How
 not a y m
 J

June 6 1813

From God bless You was I to write volumes I never could express a quarter what I feel or how much I admire

June 6th
1813

Yrs most affly

Wm Pitt

ce in y
so low enter
see
to th u
to
so we that now
as old
my

*Presented to Her Majesty the Queen
June 6th 1813*

June 22 1813

22 June 1813

My dear Brother

I hope You will forgive my impertinence in writing but You will know my affection & that my whole desire in life is in having you approved, admired, loved, & respected as You ought to be — This morning we have had long talk whether there was still any body of sense & sense that could be asked which might be of use to You, & as we are told many people are to leave Lon: don this week it struck me, as You are so very kind You would forgive my just hinting to You some number^{of} Members of the House of Commons who have been staggered to your cause & whom it would flatter & please; if you think me wrong you will forgive my troubling you, for my motive is affection which springs from my heart —

The Duke of Beauforts Daughter is out but not presented to the Queen — it would be a great feather to have the invitation tho I believe her not stout enough to come —

Lord & Lady Northampton & Lady Elizabeth Compton —

Lord & Lady Shaftsbury —

Lord Aylesford & his sisters these are gone out.

Lord Falthorpe

The Bishop of Conisburghs Daughter the Miss Porter —

June 22 1813

Lord Tyrconnel - Lord & Lady Lubboke she has not been yet presented to the Queen it would be a good opportunity & this a well intentioned man.
 It is probable James has never been known of your father & General de a message today that it was a mis take - Mr & Mrs Boodle Staunch Mr Gough - both Members who have acted in a most honorable man ner for the crown - There strike no of consequence - but I write from myself & merely to recall people who most likely might be unnoticed in the multiplicity of business - many may not be able to come yet the world is the same You know my name is Old Tomesley a title I am proud of - & therefore I trust You will

Prudence

Prudence is delighted with your Answer made me write to her & I ought to have said, yesterday she was all gratitude, she is a good one true & sensible of all kindness & much pleased at your desiring me to write for that is the way The Queen always sent her her invitations therefore she is well that - how God bless you & that you returned safe, & found her better

June 22
1713

J. M. J.

J. M. J.

June 22. 1713.

Princess Elizabeth
to Princess of Wales

June 22 1813

I fear you will think me very troublesome but writing quickly than I have promised her to let you know she has seen Bridge & she asked him about the jewels she says he has all but the Picture which Charlotte has; she has I mean Ensay has desired some of the jewels are now sent for to Charlotte not to send them but to say they are at Carlton House, for fear of her playing away further — but Bridge may properly wish you to know what was settled for he is puffed about them — I trust I have explained myself clearly.
God grant my beloved Dan that you may not be the worse for all you have gone through I shall really long to hear how you do, I must almost guess well when you are of course in the the order of the day - She the 6 was so last night I saw her - for the moment I saw her but she was fatigued & I am sure you will be sorry to learn that we have an old & attached friend young who I fear will be dead before you reach Town again I mean old Fanny she is now in her 80th literally sinking Judy says write to me for in my writing I would communicate to you well know my you would drop a tear of affection upon one who had always addressed you - how God bless you I hate to take

June 22 1813

up more of your time but I must assure you you have not any one more devoted to or attached to you than

Yours affectionately
J. G. [Signature]

June 22 -
1813.

We shall be in Town again soon My ever yours

shall are
the might and I need to have
that be over she my
to in ed com
now
an of
had
how take

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a folded piece of paper]

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince Regent
June 22^o 1813

Wm. 1812

June 30th 1813

My dear Brother

The Queen wishes to know if we of both will visit You tomorrow for She to be with You at fullon House as You send Herward, you wished to see Shee & the boys your friend & her mother.
 I am writing in the dark from this room

June 30th J. P. H.
 J. P. H.

The Princess Elizabeth

to

The Princess of Wales

July 1⁹ 1813

My dear Mother
 My Mother by you to send your love from me at the first when she writes by you with much affection to me Love

[Handwritten signature]

[Handwritten signature]
 July 1⁹

July 1st 1813

*The Secretary of War
to
The Secretary of State
July 1st*

2 1811

M.M.A.
The Duke of Devonshire
St. James's Palace
London

July 24 1813

My dear Brother

My Mother desires her kind love to You, & commands me to let You know her Servant returned last night with an answer that you had written to her the night before (which by the way she did not expect knowing how fully you must have been employed on Thursday, therefore thinks there must be a mistake) however she is anxious not to lose Yours letter if You have written — The next thing I am to trouble You with from her is that she wishes You would send a message to Mr Fielding to inform her from Yourself that she is to keep her appartment, for tho she has out of business let Mr Fielding know your mind intentions towards ^{her}

 The poor woman cannot act upon this till she is ease of it from You, & as she must now settle about Servants & many things which are of consequence to be settled immediately on account of expense — it will be charity to put her at ease, & as You understand (on the now) she can't she has her in settle word paper

 had a ho
 the
 my
 my
 com
 so soon enjoy
 I an pro he s
 that

July 24 1813

On page, you may believe she has had difficulties which you can settle in an instant by a kind word, & hinting that you are happy to think that you had had it in your power to give a home to each of the sisters.
The latter part I tell you from myself but you are much too much generally not to comprehend my private words to you — I hope to see you soon, & that you will now enjoy some rest after the busy & anxious winter you have just — & that things may be so settled before the next that we may enjoy harmony & peace amongst ourselves with out the public & private wars we have shared during the last year — God bless You

July 24th 1813

Wm. Fox

James Esq
The Prince Regent
July 24
1814

1814 1813

Aug. 15 [1813]
 (return of Peace of Orange with despatches after Vittoria & defeat of Soult (July 25))

My dear Brother

I mean all gratitude to You for the News You so kindly sent us through Col. Bloom field my Brother command me to say every thing you send from Genl. At the very sorry to be deprived seeing you this evening. I hope you will not be disappointed but to morrow for without you it will be sad - we are

(return of T) delighted that the Prince of Orange brings over the despatches as it will be such joy to His Father besides one earnest help being proud of our own reputation & we have always had a serious attention for that family —

we are now only anxious to learn that all those we work well to, may be safe God grant that the additional victory may make all those that we ^{are} anxious should do right act in a manner and themselves honour

Aug. 15 [1813]
(return of Pe. of Orange with despatches after Vittoria & defeat of Soult (July 25))

& to ensure the downfall of that promotion who no one wishes more than

August 15th 1813
G. B. Esq.
G. B. Esq.

of France
as his not er have ation
er
we
the wife
Diake ion
a man
er

Prince Elizabeth
to
The Prince Regent
Aug. 13.

about 1814

Sep. 21 1813

Great Events! Great Events! Great Events!

Thank God again & again for these Great Events! May You my dearest & most perfect Universality have the blessing of seeing all things shake themselves might by the interposition of Divine Providence how very glorious all this is! how grateful we must be,

May the English & Germans for ever unite and follow Old Blucher in Honor as bright May the Prophets of Old be true in their story and the Prince and the Civic with Honor & Glory!
 Great Events! Great Events! Great Events!

This is the heart felt prayer of the Assembly of your slaves who love you with the truest sincerity

The servant wants so to get help you I am so nervous I can hardly hold my pen

J. G. P.

Sept. 21st 1813
Windsor Castle
1813

Erinck Elizabeth
to
The Prince Regent
Sept. 21. 1813

Oct. 16 1813

My dear Brother

My Mother commands me to trouble you with these few lines which she would have written herself but that she had not time, to inform you that the Apothecary belonging to the Kings Household is dying I think she said her name was Holditch Jones has done his duty for above eight or ten years, & she King some years back promised Jones the Wth pointment — She therefore felt it was her Duty to informs You of it as You have been so very good, & so delicate in all the things which she felt if You would do it you would. She hopes You will pardon her not saying all this herself but she has a little told in her head which is now nearly off, poor dear Augusta has been a martyr to a most violent rheumatic pain which she which has made her so lame that she has not even written this week. She is

Oct. 16 1813

however much better today but her patience & courage have surpassed all praise for I never saw any thing like it her tortures have been so great, all the rest are well, we saw Charlotte today she has a cold but I hope nothing of consequence. She certainly looked oppressed

We sincerely hope that you have enjoyed your visit & passed a pleasant time. we know if you come through London we shall have the pleasure of seeing you as You promised it

God bless You my dear soul, Yours very truly

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Princess Regent
Oct: 16th 1013.
Oct: 16th
1713

Nov. 3 1813

My dearest Brother

My Mother commands me to write a few lines by your servant to thank you a thousand times for your kind remembrance of her, She will write herself by her own servant tomorrow but having spent the evening at Chartwell she received your beautiful present there & would not write herself so late - I never saw her more delighted than she was - indeed this day has been a glorious one am I congratulate You from the bottom of my heart & feel most proud of the part You have acted in all this business. You have certainly seen flattery put your shoulder to the plough much more could I say if I did not fear looking up too much of You. Some but in justice to Charlotte I must add that she did the honors uncommonly well, was civil & obliging to every body. My Sister will desire them love & remembrance Nov. 8th 1783

 W. B.

I have done

Nov. 3 1813

I hope you will have a fine day tomorrow

the most a
have but gh
I
too time at more no
I
kind is [scribble]

Ms. Princess Elizabeth Paris: 3. 10. 1938.

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales ^{Regent} Nov. 16th

935

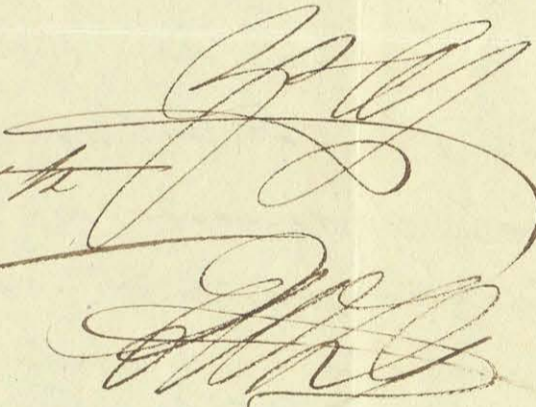

[1813]

My dear Brother

Since my Mother wrote to you she commands me to tell you she has received a letter from the Duke of Brunswick saying that he is going abroad & wishes to take leave of her.
She thinks it respectful to the King to see her there for she hopes you will not be inconvenienced
by her going to town tomorrow Wednesday & staying till Thursday or Sunday I rather believe that must be settled by you as the head: concerning what an announcement I am the desire you will settle whether there is to come with you or Lord Alford you may substitute has turned & passed so that the same great haste

Jan 16th

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince Regent
Dec. 2^o. 1813.

236

My dear Brother

My Mother desires me to tell You that if it continues so cold she will go to fast ton House in her chair.
Therefore she ordered me to beg of You to allow August the 4th & me to have Yours, & that we may keep them for the two days we are in Town—

You will be sorry to hear that Sophie has a feverish cold & cough. Many thank God well but still on her couch—

How soon will you

~~write to me~~

~~write to me~~

Dec: 27

1813

Dec. 13 1813

My dearest Brother
With heartfelt pleasure I return you many thanks for allowing me to participate in the joy that all must feel at your kind communication.
Through my brother's illness had it been in my power I should not have waited till now to congratulate you upon an event which I now own I have had many many years at heart & I bless God again &

Dec. 13 1813

again that he has men ingly brought it for:
 wards at a moment when your heart & head were full of an anxiety for Charlotte.
 Thank God your choice has fallen upon an excellent a young man one which the country will delight in & will thank you if possible more than ever which is not only my pride but my joy - Charlotte I have ever loved with the truest affection much more than

She has any idea of & doubly so from being your child & what particularly rejoices me is that some years back the dear thing told me in confidence it was the Alliance He particularly wished for her, which I am sure will give you pleasure to hear I may every blessing attend her as my ardent & anxious prayer, & may she now by your sincere kindness & attention to her wishes prove a solid comfort to you & by her amiable conduct soften the many years of anxiety you have passed on her account - You may depend on my secrecy & that unless you say I may

I shall not say one word to Her, tho' I am quite certain none can more thoroughly enter into Her prospects of happiness than my dearest Brother

Y^r most aff^l
Sister

Dec: 18th 1713
MS

French Embassy
to
Mr. P. de ...
Dec: 13th 1713.