This is a matter of sincere pleasure & affords satisfaction to H. M.
 to have the opportunity of showing you & Mr. H. how happy it enables H. M. to have the power of complying with your request in regard to the thousand pounds.

That H. M. commands
 me to acquaint G. M. King

Amherst Jun<sup>y</sup> 11th 1829

My dear dear & Beloved Mother I have written to Mr. Garrison a formal letter of thanks & I cannot help however unable as to express myself. How long you will be here I very much doubt bleed for you — I will not doubt on what the last post was been, agonies! torture! last night the worst I received, I saw Mr. Melbank immediately. He said I was, at least I hoped so, & I hoped God to know our dear Angel out of pain, & in the fierce state of mind he was in, make our hope that his happiness & perfect care we secure through the mercy of our Saviour — but Mark! How! How our dear

Self for the love of God, the Father & your family take care of yourself You are of the greatest consequence to us all for money sake reflect of what value your life is & after this blow a great deal more consideration than ever my heart is so full I can scarcely see, yet I was determined to send you a few lines to say in mind I am with you & my affection You can never doubt I pray God to prosper you which I doubt not. I must shut He will — forgive me if I say too much but my poor head turns — You have lost your best friend, the Father a most faithful servant the Army its father, we meet in this world as they stand our consolation from reflections that the He is gone from us that in the hearts of his family & friends He will ever live — & to know him at peace & out of pain is a great mercy for to know him in torture was butchery — for you I trust these lines find you anxious to get all these read full letters over —

I shall desire you to lay down your pen with every sentiment of dutiful attachment & regard expressing how that no one could know how your feelings are more grieved than he is at the death of so valuable a character as that of our dear Frederick

Believe me dear dear Mother ever with the greatest truth

You may believe my dearest dear Dolly how deeply affected I was at receiving that night received (which was fully prepared for) the news the unexpected & cruel news of the death of our beloved Dad - the last fortnight I have lived in such anxiety, in such constant agony of mind that knowing it would come, & feeling that the dear one yet was out of pain, & at perfect ease, that when Mr. Melbourn asked me whether I was fully prepared I answered Yes! & bless God it is over for when I consider how he has suffered, how he bore it, & how resigned & submissive he has been to God's will, & that he was in the finest state of mind that ever was known he was fit for the Kingdom of Heaven & when no doubt, he has been rewarded with many blessings the merciful intercession of our Father, The dear King! Oh! how much I feel for him, He has lost his favorite brother his true & best friend & that irreplaceable! The nation is grieved & mourns for a man, prominent & tall account of man proposed - The King the Father & all parties the heads & most consistent of friends - I really do think it is a great national loss one, that I know not how it will ever be repaired - it is a most awful blow & one that will be long, & deeply felt, poor dear Augusta from her accident has never been able to get up so that has greatly added to her affliction besides she had the greatest confidence in him & feels she has lost her adviser, poor Lophy has been mercifully supported to the last, & will ever have the consolation of feeling that God in his mercy has supported her in a most wonderful manner, so that she has thro the whole illness been the constant mother & comforter to him in his hours of misery & pain yet I tremble for her consequences now, for all she most valued & loved is gone! dearest Mary writes me word (but before the whole was over) that she was well & hoped to be able to be of use to the King & my sisters when the fatal accident came that all was over, & God grant she may. The King was well but most dreadfully affected. Augustus was in the room when dear Frederick was last, which is a great comfort to him who has lost a very warm friend who thoroughly knew him, & always had a high opinion of his talents & his merit, & viewed all his failings — in short my dearest Dolly it is an awful blow, we are assured that whatever is so right, that God does all for the best but to the Protestant cause it is fatal.

My heart is full & I think of every member of my family individually till my brautwenn such scenes, such trials draw one closer to those that are left — but the King's life if it were possible is of more consequence than ever we must be ready to pay for it for there was to follow more no more!! — may God be merciful support You & may You in the comfort of Your own family circle receive all the comfort that I wish You - we have always this comfort, to think that the dear Frederick is gone - he will never die, for he will ever live in the hearts of the Nation his friends & relations & that we may all with hope look forward that if recovery we may all enjoy another world & never more be parted that our dear Charles is with his last regards to a fine Country very dearably he enters into our affection my best love to your daughter & your children Believe me

I have been woken with Your dear letter from Leeds to fly to me in my misery which it has pleased God to afflict me with I have lost my beloved Fanny & bend I trust humbly to the security of my soul but God has supported me wonderfully my happiness is over for the present I despair I do not for I know the wishes of Him I adore & have lost, & that His affliction has ~~been~~ your me for my future good, I bow with resignation & say God's will be done, "That the Lord gave, the Lord has a right to take away blessed be the Lord" You have cheered me with the promises of seeing you & supported I am You will be sorry here & so will Dawson who will I am sure feel for Your most watched & afflicted

My dearest dear Mother

The tender & brotherly affection wh<sup>ch</sup> You have ever shown me, & the recollection which has ever been cherished by me, as a source of pleasure & consolation under my affliction, makes me not hesitate to trouble you with a few lines of explanation on a subject, upon which in fact my honour & my feelings are equally interested.

In a letter I have just received, from Sir G. Geylor He informs me that he had communicated to you, the engagements which, (articulated both by sentiment of duty & of personal gratification) I had contracted towards my late dear Husband his Family. I shall not trouble you with a long detail as to the happiness & comfort I had promised myself from these arrangements — It has pleased Heaven to interpose & to remove Him for whosoever I most willingly incurred the sacrifice & felt called upon to make, but as these obligations are my side, were undertaken fully with my eyes open, as to the probability of the heavy affliction lately befallen me, I am of course, not the less bound, by every tie - both of honor & honesty to fulfill them -

Though I believe Sir H. Taylor may have stated to You, generally the circumstances in which I am placed - I think it best in some degree to recapitulate them which I shall do, as shortly as possible & thus place before You, exactly the situation in which I stand -

The deranged state of the Penances at Hombourg for some years past, had rendered it highly desirable, that by a general consolidation of the Debts an arrangement might be made, for their gradual liquidation, & this was an object, which my Landgrave had so much at heart, & felt so much anxiety to arrange, that his comfort, & of course mine was materially increased by its being effected - but which could had ever only be done by a considerable pecuniary sacrifice, this I determined upon making, to the extent of devoting £6000 per annum during my life for the purpose - & altho I was aware, that I had Trustees under my marriage Settlements - I did not consider that it would all incumbent upon me (tho I feel the highest regard & respect towards them) to consult them in an arrangement which I considered myself free to make, & which was one - in which my own happiness (as contributing to that of my Husband) was so closely interested.

In consequence therefore of the Plan for clearing off the Debt at Hambourg. I engaged to pay 6000 per Ann (quarterly) into the hands of Messrs Rothschild, the Bankers who had advanced the loan & from which engagement, neither my Honour nor in fact my inclination will allow me in any manner to recede -

The loan having been thus consequently effectu-ed, & the Hambourg Obligations issued, in the full confidence of my continuing regularly to discharge the stipulations, I had agreed to, it will be evident that even the delay, which has already occurred & by which two quarterly Payments, were already due to Messrs Rothschilds - cannot be otherwise than most unreasonably contemplated by the Government at Hambourg & be calculated in fact to seriously injure the Value & Credit of the Obligations they have pend, should any sudden stop or hesitation occur in the regular payments, according to the conditions upon which they have been put into circulation -

Sir G. Taylor tells me You have interdicted till You receive further information, that either He or your Minutes should sanction, as my Trustees any payment to Messrs Prothschold, but after the explanation I have now given, I should hope You will have the goodness to relieve them from any difficulty, as to withholding the payment of the quarterly Payments already due, for which in fact my honor & my word were so pledged, that it is wholly impossible for me, in any way to suffer myself to be induced not to punctually fulfill them

I am most unwilling to trouble You at any greater length on this subject, altho I could, by intervening more fully into its details, have probably convinced You that altho I have made a considerable pecuniary sacrifice, I have still gained so much internal Happiness & Comfort from it, that it is impossible for me to regret in any manner the having incurred it - but it may not be

unnecessary for me to add that altho my honour & credit imperiously compel me to scrupulously fulfill, the Obligations I have come under, I shall still retain a perfect sufficiency for the respectable support of my station.—

I beseech You my dear & most be loved Brother not to be offend'd with this honest detail of how things are & to believe me with the greatest truth devotion & love

Sister & devoted

1829

No words can express to You my gratitude for Your letter which I received this morning it has completely eased my mind which had been in the greatest anxiety for fear that the King should have been displeas'd with me which You well know would have made me truly wretched as no one has more respect, devotion & affection for Him than I really have - but I always felt confident that after seeing You my Brother whose heart is the most perfect that ever existed, would not think me wrong in trying to assist those who were true by an honest pit - I knowing how my beloved & excellent Grandfather depended upon me I wished them altogether that I was dictated by affection to Him & it was able to 11/Oct him that they owed it— forgotten I wish never be, for every day I receive accounts of the difference of every thing among our happy home— Thank God that I determined to come here for a while, all will be thoroughly settled before I return & tho I dread that moment it would be wrong of me not to be dressed in mourning my time tho, as the Almighty has so wonderfully & mercifully supported me there can be no doubt that in due time I may require those feelings tho not happiness— & with that I am perfectly content, there is a time for all things, & I am thankful for what is now gone by, for no woman was ever more happy tho I was for eleven years— & they will be often loved over you in the memory of the dead many many thanks are due to you for the kind interest you have taken in my welfare, & of entreated myself to whom I had the pleasure of your visit you must blame my head not my heart, for I was so thoroughly overcome by the very most liberal & generous donation & the extreme delicacy & obligingness of your manner towards me that when you were gone I was greatly disappointed with myself, & I beg your pardon if I was wandering in any manner but when one feels most one is transported & the you may have thought that I talked too much, when I wished to speak more of what I felt upon the Kings affection & good hope my shattered nerves would not allow me, — I am rejoiced that you have seen my dearest Grandson Mr Kings Birthday, she was so kind as to write me word with what real joy she had met you at this age & I most anxious by reason she went off so well I hope that in the year 1831. it will be my power to throw myself at Mr Kings feet if he allows me to make a visit of some months to dear old England, in repeating my thanks to you

Adieu

Your sincere friend

Hanover March 19th 1830

A thousand thanks for the letter which had the pleasure of receiving from you this morning You may believe how deeply I feel the dear blessed things very great good help to me I will write myself yet I feel I must entreat of you to say all & every thing which so engraven on my heart concerning them & which no words of mine can do justice to, do you kindly allow me to mention how I should wish the money I should like it in some messrs Pitt's circulars for then I shall pass it off to you when I want it - <sup>on all any</sup> <sup>which I hope I shall</sup> not being at present I think you will be of the same opinion My first intention had been to quit this place early in April but my dear Mr. Phelps was of opinion that the great est mark of respect I could show to the Society was to appear in public his Parthology, & also the greatest civility I could pay to the Town of course instantly agreed to it; & some that my Brother valued the Landgrave Society came through Hudson to see me & was quite pleased I was to stay in the bed room of the summer & the severity of the winter had been the cause of my absolute not being ready, therefore it so very fortunate that Cumtine I could say that the Landgrave was most remarkable benevolent He was well aware that I ought not trusting at Homkoury in the winter so strongly advised me to accept the dear Kings generous & most kind offer of my being two for three in four months - & I wish not this favour of the King they will oblige you & I am now a person as I live with Adolphus & I can ask for my money - for the reason the King is the more obli-viate I ought to be

As I shall write to my Brother & as you have in so friendly a manner mentioned to me what paper between you & my beloved Henry I take the liberty in the strictest confidence to mention that I am only wanting to be seen of my Dear Adolphus & plans to propose my visit to the King & now write to you with perfect candour what I mean to do, & if you don't think it right you are at liberty honestly to tell me so but promise to be sincere with me - I wish to ask leave to make my visit & to go with it England, that my visit in the first place is to see the King but all I want I may never be in his way my object is to see all my family & my friends, & that if the King not disapprove us that I shall not be thought to stop to stay till the summers return from England next year - if I go with it I need have no gentleman with will be a great saving of expense to me & I know that he wishes to go to the glad if it is feasible in the summer, therefore Mr Murray believes how anxious I shall be to know this in time, that I may be sure of going with him, The King of he is so gracious as to admit me as an inmate may be sure that I never think of turning from my own room, or meddling with any thing or any body only give me a place where I can look at my things & a few tables in my room & I shall be perfectly satisfied I give Mr Murray I never make remarks — & I am watched if I think I am at all at risk so that when the King writes me saying I can be with Augustus, or Henry, or William for all have wished me to come to them, & I shall like to be sometime in London to regulate my private friends & acquaintances there, I hope you will say this is rational & not presuming for I wish that the King may feel sure that my great object is Himself - & after what you state I am still more anxious to bring my works into action - I hope I have thoroughly explained myself to you & that you comprehended me for that will be a great thing as you can always say to Her "She does not wish to be in Your way" or tell her traps, & she will never but take it kindly". When once this is all arranged I shall feel happy for of course tho I think rather tired of seeing Mrs. M. again I have lost so many of my own family, so many old & faithful friends that it requires a great deal of resolution to undertake the journey my eyes are so weak in writing this, & I cannot tell the King that I have had such a blow that tho now able to be near in company my spirits are no more what they used to be & I require quiet of a morning to be able to bear up of an evening—Thank God I am better, but I have had the Rheumatism so violently in my right leg & chiefly in my knee that I have for the last several weeks been off & on confined and being able to walk, chiefly that it has settled in the groove. Joints have been the only thing which has given me any relief. I did propose as it has been so long my way (as I am seldom out of pain) to cure me by the process now in vention of the Process but I really cannot venture it. I have begged of my Mr. Peaches first & I believe he intends me to have them of John & then to go to Woburn in June which, <sup>perhaps</sup> is excellent whether can be done before I start.

melancholy; & the shock of it looks worry may strike - how strange that there are people in the world who have great discernment yet a little judgement that they are always getting into troubled waters - & the present waters appear shaken & more troubled than ever - it is a blessing to me to see how my dear old A is doing I never expect him to walk in good regular spirits & ease & am here he has taken up his pen which is a sure proof he is perfectly well friends of mine were some I was in Germany He has not obtained the desired letter many days - it is a very mean relation being the Sunday was made - however I have determined to appear on the 23<sup>d</sup> Perhaps I might be sent home again but I will not do so another paper

Many thanks for all your staying at London to me which I am sure feel more thankful for than your friend

Hanover April 29<sup>d</sup> St George's Day
1830

My beloved & dearest dear Brother

Where to begin with thanks & sufficient expressions of gratitude to words can I alas! words are poor things when they are to express feeling which is impossible that I can say how very very Generously, freely & considerately have you acted towards me (if you could see my Heart) you then would know that that Heart is devoted to you - & its interests are so engrained that let me seek to glorify I cannot do myself justice, judge me by yourself - You have indeed been a Father to me in every sense (1)

The Good & Your great generosity has enabled me to buy my Horse, which I have got in Your own country & it has been of use to Your subjects here — Your allowing me to be at Hanover colony has certainly done me much good & tho I am still an April being much better than I was & I find that the comforts of Hanover have been of such service to me that I am inclined to ask You a very great favour & so that whilst my husband Adolphus who has seconded every wish you have had about me remain here that my winter may be spent under Your comfortable roof here — Thank God we enjoy even no plague, for I must be with nobody, & ask nothing, & altho longings to me are as great as any self of you are as good as to allow nothing it will be a great mercy for my Brother in law Louis has behaved like an angel to me, more himself than he thanks that you very generous kind offer through Sir William Knighton of allowing me to be here, is the wisest plan as He is more nearly us I love Hambury the place would at that season be too melancholy I now must congratulate you upon the day which ought to have been your first but my heart got the better of my head tho' you may believe the trouble of request would have been def perently treated I believe no one more life is more warmly — for than Yours I can feel yours with more frequency than I do in the general desire of the Nation at large - I should be a Transient if I did not, I shall be very sufficient to myself for you, but my Lament has obliged me this winter season to give up our Adolphus's dinner of above sixty people - & knowing your opportunity I shall be conveyed into Greenwich & there sleep that I may be able to put on my best footing for most, it is my first appearance in public since I am a widow it is the greatest proof of respect to wards Her & has delighted the Glorious ones that I decided upon turning out as this day, & has been very quiet all the morning I hope to behave perfectly well in the evening - a great many

Strangers will come on for the day A dolphin has been seen & all things are so magnificent. I am confident that we will all be anxious to do our best in honour of this blessed Day as they were in days of valuable old England - & the Day will be as brilliant & shall be as fine as I can to wear lace - which I know is your passion & I would for the rest of my life be very grateful for as Lady Anne may be allowed to do what she likes in the matters of this world we shall with respectability & trying to be useful to others is what I seek for now.

The Messenger is just arrived & I have to thank you for the success & the success. - The Smith Men have desired I'm sorry to mention to me that you had sent, I have not received also the cold Handkerchiefs I take the liberty of mentioning this for fear you should think me negligent had I not. I am quite extorted with all you have graciously sent me for your thinking of me is sufficient & I am sure you have done e: enough & enough for me I'm sorry to hear you have cold which I sincerely wish may be off before it reaches you

I intend very shortly I hope to write to you again, then your would take up no more of your time than to assure you of the anxiety of the attachment of Your very affectionate

Hanover April 25th 1830

You will my dearest & beloved Brother be astonished at my writing again after the letter that went last post to you, I did not know till after the celebration of your birthday was over, that my dear Adolphus had written to ask your leave to visit our old England this summer you was so good by Sir William Gungleton to express a wish to see me, at that time I was not in a state to think of any thing yet had determined to visit you with your family soon next spring — Adolphus's intended journey has struck me as fortunate one, as it will be the best way for me to get Lord's out (I do not like it) to travel with him I avoid taking any body but my lady understood that my whole wish is to be unencumbered fully whether you would like it? let it be clearly understood that I am to be for nobody's business my first object is yourself - & then you wish to get rid of me every yo, & I should then be either with my daughter, or my son William I only want a room & nothing more & my wish is to remain on till Adolphus returns with the Duchess my dear - long

I could not stay as I have duties to perform at home I only hope you will not think that I mean to plague you with too long a visit but after twelve hours as you can be as touched that I am desirous to see my family & my friends - it will be an great treat at first but as I trust I am rational & have gained much strength of mind I shall shortly be able to be what I ought to be before you all - Only promise when I am with you that you look upon me as a quick old dog to whom you can say now leave me for a month - you may to me - I am with you an idea of offending or disobliging me for by no chance in the world do I ever take offence & my only desire is to please You - in the way I shall not be for one in my own room & not with You I have employment enough never to annoy any one there for in answering for my own quietness I answer for those with me. & I shall now entreat my my leave to sit with our father for our answer though many to whom I will write all the vulgar details of whom I bring not many I presume You I pray to God to hear Your words quite gone

You may believe the anxiety we are in & how desirous we are for accounts & the time in general flies too fast at this moment the posts wh near Leeds in coming in — it is impossible to tell you how every one here are interested in the dear blessed George's health & how all fly to hear how he is we are prudent & say little — Our well have heard by this some that pending dear A Dalpino was desired to go to England, that I have stated would say with some, & the next day when I had written to the King to propose going I received his gracious & affectionate letter message through the King I hope I have done all he wished & have not asked too much in wishing to remain till my Brother Adolphus returns to Germany next year with his family by that means I have been so enjoying them at, wishing that dear King my first object I cannot tell you how I have been brooding with all I have heard of Mrs. Cor. Had that the constitution being naturally strong was really weak.

To Sir Hm. Knighton

(390)

who may letters not show from my family inform me that being such value & have the Henry & that the general industry is very great, how many conceive that I shall be upon Thomas till I reach England - have earnestly for many reasons, & I hope not to after till I set out in July may be it will be convenient to say I have written for you as afraid of saying word too much on too little You know my affection & devotion for the Henry & the I may not express my feeling as strongly as I wish yet You can not doubt my expressing my hope for better words I have been & You may be assured that a very humble being I will never be in his way & ever at hand should he wish me & You shall never hear a complaint of me from any one in the house for I will be in nobody's way.

I feel for all those who are attending the King for all must love him who know him & I give to find that You say You are a good deal fatigued by all You have gone through - I will take no more of your presence & pray God humbly to watch over that life which is of so much consequence to us all, but to none more than

Yr friend

I have this very moment received yours of the 28th the only thing I had quickness it is some relief. I am never to me worse & worse how very kind of you to have writ ten, I feel it as I ought & can never forget it - but what a trial for you able to see that beloved & dear Henry as suffering you may believe how thorough ly my heart & mind were with you at - but how wonderfully singular that tower which my dear Death & my fortune stare on in the face, I coloured to see the dear Henry again, & ventured to write that involuntarily comes the account of his illness - & since that all being so indolgent an account happening last week when I was absent & still looked to prop him to my heart again - what that you say! I was I believe worked up to work him to linger if He suffers as much as I fear he does - I am rejoiced that Ed Kerr has acted as wisely for God knows a person so unable as Henry may be but follow

Please God to relieve him - I am quite broken hearted for I really desired the thing - I was to have gone home a week ago but it was impossible after the bad accident & now I stay on fearing a great deal more than hoping, yet I could not receive this dreadful blow at Hamburg it would be too much for me & dear Adolphus's good will has been such that I never can express my feelings towards him, his thanks are useful in nothing particularly here - I don't understand our people but take the own where I can;
I have begged my dear friend to use your confidence & my great favour which having the protection I will ask God myself which is should ever never be taken from us before I see him than your feet by a glass or a cup or any thing even so small that he has used, even a pocket handkerchief which he has used for me I love the thing for himself for it is from my heart - & I cannot withstand - & I am confident you have a heart, to feel for me who am away at a moment when I should be too happy to be his

This is my last Will & Testament & whenever it pleases the Almighty to take me I die believing in God the Father, God the Son, & God the Holy Ghost - thoroughly repentant of all my Sins & trusting in the Mercy of our Blessed Saviour that through His blood I may meet with forgiveness -

I leave to my Brother in law the Landgrave Louis of Hesse as my Heir all my funded property in England, also my jewels in the best Jewellbox with all those things which are belonging to the different sets & which could not be put into the Box and those Jewels are to belong & remain for the reigning Landgravine & never to be sold - also I leave to the Landgrave Louis my Library, Prints Drawings of the Landgrave Louis dies without being married & has no Family, all this goes to my dear Brother in law Prince Philip of Hesse Homberg and if He dies without being married to my dear Brother Gustave Prince of Hesse Homberg and as I hope he may have a Son to him, and in failure of heirs to the Homberg Sovereignty & that it falls to the House of Hesse Darmstadt then all is to be divided between Gustaves Children born in wedlock who I love as if they were my own.

(signed) Eliza

Hoping that Gustave may have a Son

I leave my service of plate always for the use of the Dowager Landgravine of Hesse.
All my smaller Jewels and ornamented things in my rooms to Gustaves Girls directly after my death.

My own furniture all to the Landgrave Louis of Hesse & so on to those who succeed him all my Ground to the Landgrave Louis & I trust to His affection and the love I have ever borne him to take care of those I have employed in the English Garden Littlewood, and the Garden House.
I trust that my dearest Louis will not take it unkind, if I make this determination which is that He shall have it in His power to take out half the funded property if He wishes but He must leave half that I may be sure some little will be always coming from England for them. The longer I live the more I hope to put by for them for I owe it to my beloved Landgraves family to do what I can for them. — My other Legacies must be but small yet I am sure my own dear brothers and sisters

Princess Elizabeth returns Mr Mollison her thanks for the letter which received this evening & will soon trouble him with a letter for the Princess of Orange - with the note which shows the letter from Mr Sharverson, which she is obliged to him for letting her see
 I am &c

I had not a moment in Town to return You thanks for my pretty handkerchief, You are always obliging & kind & I am very sensible of Your never failing attention to myself
I now must beg You to let me know on rather send me down
some Biscuit Powder
what they make Children I up with

There is a Servants child at Frogmore
now weak & state that I am enquiring about it & hope by care & attention to save it, it has never been suckled & I hope to rear it with care as it is six months old & is not so large as some children in the month I never saw such an object it has quite broken my heart, do send me

where how the Duke should be made I mean whether it should be mixed with milk or water & also where I can purchase the powder.
