

Princess Mary
to
The Prince of Wales

1809.

Oct. 30thOct - the 30th

My dear Mother

Since I wrote last our dear suffering Amelia has continued ~~to~~ in my mind the same a great deal of fear at times as well as pain on the side - Some I am of opinion the pain on the side grows upon her she has had two very bad nights since from which of course ^{she} left her bed & fatigued all day - She ~~planned~~ has been stopped for the last three days for fear of cold on the morning We expect Papa to return which I rejoice at as I want solely to have her under his own eye for now we are only noting the complaint & doing the best - Give courage around Saturday I want to look at it yesterday & it appears to me every thing we could wish -

I don't think the journey to you and what I can say but I'm being with us in a great relief to me. Nothing can be harder than thinking - I wish more we would then have a you was to be when at London on the 25th she felt it deeply from dear soul - God bless you

God bless
Mary