My Dearest Mary, The Post brought me your kind letter of yesterday from Weymouth, soon after which I had the comfort of receiving your kind note by the Duke of Arundel's servant, acquainting me that your illness had reached general health, & that the Journey had really gone off as well as you expected. - This Information has been the greatest Relief to me, as I dreaded the nature of the business which I might receive here. Can I yet say that I am free from serious Concerns? Sincerely approve of every Step you took towards rendering the Charge more easy, and of your having called in to seek my Assistance, & Hope that the Alterations to be made in the Act will contribute to your Ease & Ease & Relief from Care. - I also approve of your having advised Brewster to attend you in the absence of Kenneth. - I had most tenderly for you in the present Distress, and from what you say I must fear that the Situation is very precarious.

Believe me to be

(Signed) Gungor
