My dear Mother As you have desired to hear from me I am now glad to inform you that I have written of any thing else is written up all these last two days, the night's writing has been better & the last has been, but the paper in the side is just the same I am now the almost allows herself to be a little better & I trust I shall in a short space, she is now on the point I must admit has given much trouble & pain both yesterday & today as it has gathered & caused some degree of fever — I had not the smallest cold till after you left us Saturday what a discomfiting & unfortunately for us I wish had never to make concerning Bolton & you may suppose how much it has struck me for through I have had no manner to be pleased for some time past but I had an idea of all I could tell you As to what regards myself I don't know I have to say that I had not the smallest idea I was in any way in his hands & you may remember about a year ago when we had some talk upon the people's affairs that I told you in a passing word that I was completely out of debt & said that I had arranged my own accounts - I am not sure if I told you I had by as much every quarter not by any of the a Piece but for the sake of keeping myself within bounds

Bolton
 All
 I
 had Better upon the debts being paid I advised my attorney to send proper my quantity of linen to send into the States & of course I'll send it over safe & fast if I wanted the money I had but to call for it, in consequence fell sick of what I used to give that I was quite out of his hands or never should have told you such a lie In the last year & a half more than now I have wished to have some account of this money he always promising to tell me the next time he came but never has done so — since this summer something happened which is too long to trouble you with in a letter but you should have from the next issue - we you & that caused some words between me & Bolton about which the complaint there up of Bolton was that he had a strange letter from Bolton which she did not understand & told me to see Bolton & make him explain what he meant by not giving me a decided & clear account concerning her journey when Bolton arrived he told her his former friends of Sophia's to send her respectfully unknown to Sophia upon which I told her that the Bolton never replied to her as he was unwilling to go to Sophia where Bolton offered to go to Sophia & entertain it all to Sophia's satisfaction

I must be come down from told I said he had lent her money to Amelie but that the Duke would have five thousand Pound & he would be paid without loss of time I said was she to death at this but told Bolton that had nothing to do with her affairs & that she could not interfere in other people's when he showed her a Bond which he said was the Duke's & she might keep it & show it to the Duke of York — upon finding Bolton as urgent concerning the payment of this five thousand Pound she proposed to Bolton to keep her quiet & to take the Bond & give her a Receipt in making the Dyke see Bolton instead of Bolton - The man wrote to Franklin what had passed when read immediately for Bolton declared he owed his Fortune & that the Bank in question was security for five thousand Pounds he Bolton made ten years & a half ago for Franklin - All this happened on Monday & Tuesday when Bolton paraded very much & every other thing that passed he told Franklin he would but was could be saying & said until Franklin paid him the debt of some thousands from order of the man written Frederick asking him if that money could be raised

 I think however I had your money at disposal to send to Bolton with the order it was placed in the States approved me by a letter early Saturday morning which had passed between me & Bolton & when Frederick came he strongly advised me to look on time in furthering out what Bolton had done with my money I therefore tried to leave to the what was proper & both to my & my wife's regard to give up to America what ever money in my hand to help your brother to pay off that nice promise from hundred & by a drawing of myself like a wild card of his hands - he only wish it was ~~two~~ hundred times more than it is & if the name was a situation to repay us twice over it will not exceed us a penny at all events we have agreed to to the land paid off - should we be fortunate enough to receive this hundred of Oysters bonds - A week two blue card tickets between London & Bristol when all I have my to my this long letter which I hope you will be able to excuse and I trust you to be perfectly assured of every thing & have made every thing as clear as I could - Yours truly
