

To W.M.

Thurs. &amp; Wed. 9 [Jan. 23+24] [1810]

Sunday night

My dear Mr. Paine I must by leave to return you my most grateful thanks for your kind letter received this evening. Amelia was pined but an indifferent day as she had suffered much from pain in her head caused by the Erysipelas which had come out a good deal here about the face & eyes & made her feel very dull & heavy. Dr. Paine desired Amelia not to get up for fear of more cold & was in bed she had suffered so sharply from the matter that I am sure it was the only proper place for her to be in to day. As several have complained of much heat about the head this evening Dr. Pope ordered a Blester to be put in her back which he hopes will draw the Encephalus from the head. Dr. Pope has promised to come by nine o'clock to dinner that I may be able to bring you his opinion of her

Tues. & Wed. 9 [au. 23+24 [1810]

Wednesday
 Sunday has had two hours sleep The patient has shown very much which of course prevented her having any usual sleep
