

[Feb. 6-7 1810]

Tuesday Night

My dearest Papa. I hope I may say Auntie has not passed a worse day than yesterday. Though I & Papa was anxious she should give up the idea of any more cold head exercises yet Auntie with her usual resolution determined to try it one day more therefore had cold chicken squib to day & got up & lay in the park in hopes that being out of bed might make the exercise of it better, but

The same course in fact The same & lasted full as long as yesterday, but is now perfectly easy again & an expression of having received Sir Henry Hall's most positive & decisive orders that no more solid food is to be thought of & that instead of Chicken Parada you to receive which is what the Physic advises as well as Beef tea or some such. The Pain in the side has

[Feb. 6-7 1810]

been rather more today but rather Dr. P. or Butcher find the Pulse very quick today this evening. She was out of bed about an hour much fatigued but I thought more comfortable for her and the bed made

Your dutiful & affec tionate
 Mary

Wednesday morning

I am happy to inform you that Caroline has had her three hours sleep & is well, fine & d...

passed a quieter night than she has done for some time but some fear o'clock she has been settled. She says she feels much the same today but about the new life beated there was in the night —

Mr Dundas found himself rather of every thing better than the last time he was here —