

Copy
 To General Bracy
 February 7. 1840

Queen's College February 7.
 1840

Copy

My Dearest Bracy, I am very glad to learn from your kind letter, just received, that dear Ann has had a more quiet night and was left healed. I also rejoice that the idea of making her take cold meat is given up, & that Chicken Broth is to be substituted, which I hope will not disagree with her.

Believe me to be

Yours affectionately
 J. G. G. G.

