

Wed. [Feb. 7 1810]

Wednesday night

I have many thanks to return you for your kind letter & am most thankful to be able to assure you that Amelia has passed a better day in every respect than I have seen her yet however when - though much down at times in the side, yet she thanks herself & is free from the operation of the medicine -
Christian Pardon my

Wed. [Feb. 7 1810]

The dinner & did not disagree a very small quantity was taken, but it brought me an Spume the
was run up for an hour and lay on the couch & rested
all things considered
I feel very entirely similar as a little prevalent letter to the
You dutiful & aff
Mary

Thursday Morning
I am happy to say
your letter has been better than the letter above & two letters at once and God send it is not very
it is one of the quietest night
letter has been for some time past —

Princess Mary

February 7 & 10. 1816

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of paper pasted onto the main document]