

Thurs, 9 Nov. 22 1810

My dear Mr. Bostwick

I was quite ashamed to find that the case and papers sent you on to give Mr. Patten's was not put into the Box I returned to you this morning before you left Windsor, I thought and thought much & hope they will arrive safe - I likewise ever desired to inform you that a Print of my son George Bostwick's framed was found among Mr. Coulter's things I have since sent it this running away after you had left Windsor - Edward is much concerned to know if you have seen Apertone - Mary Anne & Peggy wish you to know they can not get down at Augusta Judge before to know coming when they intend coming to the fort which will make it quite impossible for them to be in London so early as Saturday

 If you I, and do appear

Thurs. 9 Nov. 22 1810

I they will be at the Queen's house on Wednesday evening where if they long outstayed would not be inconvenient to they will stay any order you leave for Messrs so the plan is that they are to remain a week in Venice before they set off for Bristol any longer on Monday you have of course they are at your own disposal —
The St. Martin's is full of guests till for all
