

c May 17 1811

My dear Brother
I am commanded by
The Queen to ask you
what she is to say —
you her Lady when you received invitation for Tuesday at Carton House. You
then with her to inquire if they are
to appear out of
summers that

Look about any of us are openly or partly in honour of the Queen brotherly & taking
 value to immediately
 after makes people
 suppose it is in
 honour that day
 therefore the L
 says you will give your orders
 accordingly as

People only wish
 to be what is said
 respectful & until
 it is clearly understood the one & all don't know what answer
 to give
 Yrs

If your parts had said
 in honour of the L's
 brotherly enough truly
 would have become
 at once as fresh

could have been admitted as the
now stands it is
not understood
for a common
assembly at your House the fund
remaining would not of course be sent off -

an answer given
in his will
that is required
by Blount's to sum
for any other -
