

[March 24 1812]
 (see Howard Mar. 23 & Resse.
 May's report on H.M. Mar. 24)

My dear Brother
 My heart is so full I have not words to express - how much I want to say to thank you deeply & feel all your kindness
 concerning us - but how my happiness is damped
 at our being the innocent cause of such an unpleasant subject
 being brought forth
 as was last night
 in the House -
 nothing could be so
 gratifying to my feelings

Small I have not in the Sun paper to day but God grant your studies of conduct & angelic blossoms
may be rewarded
at last on a distant
prayer of your affectionate
M. J. M.

I shall write again
to you —

The Prince of Wales
