My dear Brother I must begin this letter with offering you my most sincere congratuations on the glorious account received today of the Russian journey and especially succeeded by the recovery of Gales in travelling the Perimeter & in a day I trust shortly we may have of his entire destruction.

I hope all these good accounts will be a great relief and satisfaction ~~to~~ to your mind, at a moment God knows that you require comfort.

I trust you do take care of yourself & keep as good as your case & take as much rest as possible.

and don't set late after lunch to drink wine to drive away a roy - Pray excuse me for the trouble to my to be in your health, but you never think of yourself & would your life is of more consequence every time - The affair I have for you my dearest Brother makes me say all this

I have given me thought day nothing I have had been said - The disease is very much out of spirit certainly is but in your temper but I can see no way to repress my rage - The object is to give understand all our troubles to you but all that I can do the time I spent me for and me to your kind letter the time I feel sure she has expressed herself as dreadfully It was the object of the British Army life to keep from the and all the efforts and must through another but longer He brought his Daughters up with a great emancipation will we should spite behave in that most important point and her interest in all this business has been such that by her own impudence I cannot see for the reason she has destroyed the our Army, honour & Liberty of the last fifty years — ruined — but no more of this The Army was ruined a terrible quandary along through talkative but done will to want to be well but was not a slave when heard last - I have heard is told
