Dec. 6 [1812]

My dearest Brother Matthew has passed a most particular great silent day but his dinner will not be but well & is a sleep — Nothing new has happened to day she continues silent and my closest with us is perfectly out of humour with myself & every thing but Matthew's behaviour has been said in some to sleep.
Of course we are very careful to do nothing to offend his coming they brought her in a letter which she read & then put into her pocket & told us it was
"a letter from the Parson" in answer to me & to to him to make sure of the good news from Rome as it contains nothing else I shall not show it God bless you very sincerely Father & thank you and your affec. Mother
