My dear Brother

I only in your usual kindness to me to forgive my troubling you once again on a subject my dear very kind friend of trying to place that valuable fountain broth in a situation she really is useful for & if I could be in future as to succeed I am certain take a great weight of Supplies (which this last attack has actually increased) I require in the most perfectly unknown to her as you very unhappy and restless but very anxious about the world make me so completely tombstone but upon talking it me with Adoptus he told me he should like of all things, to take with himself he could get rid of the business he was in as Housekeeper when things would be as far as business the business in order & to be honestly stuffed is not all he would like for a decided good Housekeeper & of the land but blinded to his opportunity at the house's & hand out of

the opportunity with him

The name should have kept the same as when he copied all the advantages of St James's the original one other side of former. In as I understand the old house was here some century as a sort of housekeeper at the Great bridge and of course removed to make room for all your tenants & would have left it long & long ago if you had wanted the bridge or sent any help to replace her as she has been nearly superseded for the last two years — As you generally intend leaving at the small bridge & only intend making use of the Great bridge as an appendage to it, perhaps your right word is retirement sort of woman merely to own with the same females & take care of the House in the absence of the upper servants. She is wife to one of the Kings Pages by name Baker who used to be Gross Justice to the King & he is obliged to attend & take his duty in town with the other Judges upon the Kings ~~business~~ business Pages with a salary when at home is about a Guinea a week and when abroad a hundred & twenty shillings and he takes great trouble with the Kings Page and I can not overstate my pains to look after the care of the great Judge you could not give me if I have been in town

the great help without any some responsible persons who would not of course interfere with your (stays) or other establishments — if they could be arranged between you & Dolly I think might take place with Dolly & make the proposal to Dolly as it would come better from her than from me & would really be of essential use to Dolly in procuring such an efficient & sound —

God bless you very much this & if you can but arrange it as full into this plan for your & mine love for us ever
 your affectionate
