

Feb. 20 [1815]

My dear Brother
I hope you got home
quite safe last night and got no cold & that during the journey you had your desires & wished for ease & we state of all infirmities and had aggravate drawn It is impossible to say how much pleasure you
will receive in all
the things you looking as well in health &
great comfort & satisfaction
We had a great deal of business after you left us Charlotte stayed most kind of the evening & appeared much delighted & pleased with all your kindness & care and spoke of it with great

 gratitude to the Queen His Majesty on these but since then but at 4 o'clock she wrote me
 a letter found to say she had got a cold & by that she was uneasy about
 her second letter as by will & by that she had been employed writing a long letter to George &

as
 too
 the
 up
 the
 and
 of
 a
 by
 it
 of
 re
 by
 she
 to
 the

Feb. 20 [1815]

as she was determined to take no more advice on
the subject she would not
inform she would not
tell us of her intentions
until the letter in
question she enclosed me a copy of the letter &
left it to me to show
it to the Queen which
of course I did - and
sent her for answer
by the Queen's orders
she was much obliged to me for not informing her I would at the letter of this letter entitled and your as it was one of the subjects that we had & we would convey

between themselves I think of your pleasure the best way would be to return
the very papers by which
when he comes to be

Yours
W. Pitt

Feb 7th 1720

The Duchess Mary
to
The Prince Rupert
July 20th