

[1815]

July the 14 —

My dear Mr. Butler

I am thankful to hear it in my power to say that the Linnen was continued better all day her nature of being weaker ever. She got up about three o'clock & lay on the couch until of whom she was very glad to get out. but as she says she never felt so weak in all her life her strength is restored all is going on well but as you will see herein to borrow

~~you will have~~ ^{some} ~~been able~~ ^{to} ~~function~~ Her last words were that she had nothing more to say, but not until you have some news

Yours
Mary

July 14.

Princess Mary
to
The Prince Regent